

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

The invitation of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wistar Morris to a reception, Wednesday, May 23, and also the invitation of the Committee of Arrangements, on behalf of the Presbyterians of Philadelphia, to a reception the same day in the Academy of Fine Arts, were accepted with thanks. The action of the Assembly was directed to be communicated by the Committee of Arrangements to the parties interested.

Resolved, That no Academic or other titles be used in the Record of the Proceedings of this Assembly.

The Records of Synods, Statistical Reports, Narratives, and other papers from the Presbyteries, were called for and received by the Stated Clerk.

The Annual Reports, of the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, of the Boards of Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Education, Publication and Sabbath-school Work, Church Election, Ministerial Relief, Missions for Freedmen, and Aid for Colleges, the Committees on Systematic Beneficence and Temperance, the Trustees of the General Assembly, and of the Theological Seminaries, were called for and referred to the appropriate committees.

The Special Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad made its Report, which was read and accepted, and the recommendations were adopted, as follows:

The Special Committee appointed at the meeting of the General Assembly in 1887 to continue the oversight and management of The Church at Home and Abroad, would respectfully report to this meeting of the supreme judicatory of our Church, that during the past year three special meetings of the whole Committee have been held in New York, and that frequent meetings of the Philadelphia Sub-committee have taken place; that steadily and clearly the chief work and the great aims of this, our Church's common magazine, have been kept in view and earnestly carried forward; that a fair degree of success, certainly as much as could be reasonably looked for under all the circumstances of the case, has been enjoyed; and that a sure promise of larger encouragement is possessed.

The members of your Committee have often reminded themselves of the main objects and the masterful principles giving existence to, determining the form and regulating the management of, this consolidated magazine, as these aims and rules were laid before and approved by the Assemblies of 1886 and 1887; and we believe it wise and needful to recall to the minds of the brethren in this Assembly these purposes and the methods of attaining them. These principles are as follows:

1. That the magazine should distinctly represent the officially organized benevolent work of the Presbyterian Church, and should therefore exclude all matter relating to questions of doctrine or ecclesiastical polity.

2. That it should therefore aim to set forth in the best and largest way the claims of all the Church Boards.

3. That it should clearly recognize and endeavor to develop the idea of the essential unity of the Church's work as represented by these different Boards, to discourage any possible antagonism or rivalry between them, and to exhibit them as representing merely different aspects and functions of one thoroughly compacted system for the proclamation and diffusion of the Gospel, and therefore as standing toward each other in a mutually dependent relation. It was held by the Committee that a clear recognition of the interdependence of the several Boards would go far to secure for each its due place and emphasis in the mind and conscience of the Church at large.

4. That while the principal emphasis should be given to the official work of the Church, as represented by its Boards, the magazine might, within the instructions of the General Assembly, deal with other benevolent interests, in which, though Christian rather than denominational, members of the Presbyterian Church in many parts of our country, notably in the great cities, are so largely engaged. City missions, hospital work, medical missionary schools, and other similar matters, it was thought might be represented with great benefit, in diffusing larger knowledge of the variety and power of Christian agencies, in stimulating effort on similar lines, and in making more generally available the experience of those who direct these movements.

5. In order to foster the popular conception of the unity of our Church work, it was held that the magazine itself should exhibit a corresponding unity of structure. A mere combination of the three existing periodicals within a single cover could have been easily made, and a clerk of average capacity could have pieced together the material furnished by the different Boards. The Committee was unanimous in the opinion that, if this was the ideal of the new magazine, consolidation was unnecessary, and that the three periodicals might better be left as they were.

The action of the Assembly in consolidating seemed, however, to make possible the attainment of a higher ideal in a magazine, which, while fully representing all the separate agencies of the Church, should be informed and shaped by a single mind, thoroughly possessed with the conception of the unity of our Church work, and arranging and shaping all material, so far as possible, with that principle distinctly in view. The Committee, therefore, held that the matter of the magazine should be not only compiled, but adjusted and, so far as practicable, worked up. The facts should be not only cited, but marshaled and massed; and that, while the magazine should not attempt to enter the field occupied by the popular secular monthlies, its conductors might wisely take a lesson from these in making it bright and readable. It seemed to your Committee that, if these ideas could be realized, a larger field would be open for the consolidated magazine than for its predecessors, and an opportunity for creating and forming healthful sentiment no less than for diffusing information.

Such, as may be seen from the "Minutes" of Assembly, 1887, pages 61 and 62, were the principles and objects of the consolidated magazine, as presented to and endorsed by the supreme judicatory of our Church.

With earnest and steadfast loyalty, both your Committee and the able editor of the magazine have, throughout the past year, striven to obey and embody these wise rules and worthy aims, and they hope that they have not failed.

At the first meeting of your Committee, held in the autumn of 1887, the "propositions with reference to the magazine," moved in the Assembly at Omaha, "accepted by the Special Committee and adopted with the Report," were at length and with care considered, and upon these propositions action was taken to fulfill the wish of the Assembly. These propositions are (see pages 67 and 68 of the "Minutes" for 1887):

1. That the monthly editions be numbered consecutively and continuously, beginning, if convenient, with the July issue as No. 7.
2. That there be printed on the last page or pages of the cover of every issue the corporate names of the Church Boards, with the names of the chief executive officers of each and their official address.

These propositions have been carried out.

With regard to the recommendation that the "Magazine Committee consider the propriety of adding to the free list of the magazine all pastors who shall be properly certified as receiving a salary of $700 or less," your Committee would report that, after long and most careful study of this question, and the very many most perplexing points bound up with it, they were constrained to give up all ideas of "free lists." It was found to be simply impossible to choose any plan of gratuitous distribution, that was not plainly and at once open to the deadly charge of unfairness. Some persons who should get free copies would be left out, and some persons who could, and therefore assuredly should pay, would be found on the free list. Troubles many and great would soon bristle up, and these troubles could not be dealt with in any simple and just way. No hopeful opening along the line of "free lists" seeming to show itself, your Committee turned elsewhere to find a path on which to meet the clear wishes of the Church. It was resolved to lower the price of the magazine.

II. REDUCTION OF PRICE AND ALTERATION OF THE METHOD OF DISTRIBUTION.

Though the published price of The Church at Home and Abroad, and still more the "club rates" of circulation, put our periodical before our own members and before the general public a very marvel of cheapness, if size and quality and the whole make-up of the work be thought of and duly weighed, your Committee made up their minds to dare the venturous way and make still cheaper our monthly. It was agreed that from January of this current year the cost should be one dollar to each subscriber, and that the monthly copies should be mailed from the Board of Publication at Philadelphia to the address of every constituent. Nothing in the world of periodical literature came near this offer in cheapness. In view of the fact that we have shut out advertisements of all kinds—one of the great and common sources of profit in papers and periodicals—and in view of the other fact that this change added very largely to the cost of distribution, this forward step was certainly a very bold one; but it was taken to meet and satisfy the very plain wish of the last Assembly as embodied in the aforesaid recommendation. It was believed that the placing of the magazine for one dollar a year in the home and the hands of each subscriber was really putting it within the reach of nearly everybody in our communion. Hence all free lists were closed. There seemed no place for them.

But these changes at once raised the question, the necessary question, "What shall now be done in regard to our missionaries on the home and foreign fields?" This subject was thoroughly studied in all its phases, but at last it was held wisest to leave the two Boards of Missions to deal with the furnishing of the magazine to their respective missionaries as each Board thought best, and so the Secretaries were at once informed. The Foreign Secretaries immediately decided to send copies to the brethren on the foreign field, but the Home Board deemed it inexpedient to charge its funds with the needful outlay. When this latter fact became known, the editor, Dr. Nelson, addressed a letter to the home missionaries, informing them of the action of the Committee and setting forth the reasons for it, and inviting frank responses, which should be held confidential, if so desired by themselves. The responses to this letter were numerous and most gratifying. Nearly all of them expressed approbation of the Committee's action in very emphatic terms. A considerable number stated that they had paid for their copies last year, and wondered why other copies were sent free, but that they had endeavored to make them useful by giving them to other persons. A few, writing confidentially, as invited, expressed their approval of the action of the Committee, but frankly avowed their inability to become subscribers. For all such persons provision has been gladly made, as explained in the May number of the magazine. The correspondence with home missionaries, for which this occasion arose, has given illustration and evidence of their brave manliness, for which the Church ought to hold them "worthy of double honor."

III. THE INSERTION OF ILLUSTRATIONS.

In the beginning of this work it was determined that plans, maps, pictures, and illustrations should not be used. This resolution was adopted not without somewhat wide correspondence and ascertainment of the common opinion of the Church, and for various good reasons. Among these were the very manifest reasons—lessening the cost of paper and shunning costly press-work. But from the very outset your Committee was pressed by some of the Boards to give them the opportunity of inserting cuts and plans. This wish was especially strong on the part of the Secretaries of the Foreign Board, and at the autumn meeting of the Committee the request was formally presented and strongly urged by a member of your Committee, who represented in this matter the urgent solicitations of the Foreign Board. Your Committee consented, and word was at once sent to the Secretaries regarding this decision, and arrangements were immediately made for the insertion of illustrations and plans from January of this current year.

IV. ADDITIONAL COST INVOLVED IN THESE CHANGES.

The decision to provide for these illustrations called for the choice of another kind of paper than that actually in use. By the forethought and the skill of Mr. John A. Black, the Business

Superintendent of the Board of Publication, your Committee had been able to secure, at a remarkably low rate, a singularly good and pleasant paper; but other choice and other arrangements were now called for; a different kind of paper, and, of course, more expensive, had to be selected for the magazine. Additional press-work is involved in the use of pictures and illustrations, and this larger labor means more outlay.

Added to these fresh costs was now another expense. The sending of a large magazine to the mail-address of every subscriber means no small sum for postage annually; and the unavoidable mailing work at the centre of distribution means more hands to hasten the monthly output of the periodical. Here again costs were added. The price was lessened and the outlay enlarged; how should the balance be kept on, or almost on, the right side of the account? For us there was but one way!

Strive to lengthen and multiply the subscription-lists. At once earnest efforts were put forth in this direction. Your Committee sent out in last November a most urgent appeal to the pastors and to the Church generally, pleading for enlarged sympathy, fresh activity, and multiplied clients. Not a few of the religious papers and journals, related to our Church, most generously and ably succored us in this attempt to arouse enthusiasm and win fresh support. The editor of the magazine made in person and by letter vigorous appeals to his very many friends across the Church to further this movement; the members of your Committee did separately use their influence to gain new friends and inflame old ones; many pastors, and among these not a few of the very busiest, gave their heartiest and their constant oversight to the canvassing of their own congregations; and worthy elders and deacons made this book work their own special task. Thus was the work pushed forward; and thus only, for no paid agents, no professional canvassers, have as yet been called in to extend the circulation of the magazine. It was felt to be wholly right to try what could be done by the free and loyal assistance of our own willing helpers ere we thought of or turned to paid workers. To the kindly and self-denying band of pastors, elders, Sabbath-school teachers and church members, and to the many editors and proprietors of religious and secular papers who lent their labor so freely and so strongly, thanks are justly due, and are hereby given; and here this alone remains to be said, that if all had wrought as the many, the yield would have been a splendid surprise. Your Committee submit the following financial statement:

The deficiency at the close of 1887, after paying the bills of the December number, was $3211.09, to which should be added the unfilled subscriptions expiring in 1888, amounting to probably $2000, making about the $5000 estimated at the beginning.

The number of subscribers up to the 17th of April is 27,078.

These results and figures do not, of course, show forth what was hoped for by your Committee, nor what is within our very easy reach if a leal-hearted answer comes forth from our strong communion. But they are singularly encouraging in view of the large reductions and the increased cost; and in view of not a few very serious difficulties with which your Committee have had to contend. By a valued and widely experienced member of your Committee, Mr. Anson D. F. Randolph, assurances and proofs have been given that no such magazine has for the time and the outlay come near The Church at Home and Abroad in popularity and financial success. And wide and careful inquiry has shown that in the life of a magazine, as in that of a child, the second is the critical year of existence. We are passing happily and with promise through this danger-time; and our deficit this year will certainly not exceed that of last year. Nor should we have had this year deficit at all if we had not added to the expense and reduced the income. Let it be remembered that we have reduced the magazine from one dollar and a quarter to one dollar; that we have added the postage of the magazine to the cost, thus still more lessening its net return to us; that we have lost the advantage of the published price of two dollars, the original charge of the magazine to the general public; and that we must use a dearer paper and more press-work; and then it will grow clear to every mind that if we had not made these changes we should not have had any deficit to report.

The economy, the parsimony it might almost be said with truth, which has marked the production, the management, the oversight and the distribution of this magazine from the very first, has been painfully kept up throughout this year. But this saving has been possible only because a vast amount of time and thought, of skilled labor and thorough business knowledge, of experience and watchfulness, have been freely given to your magazine by the Superintendent of the Board of Publication and other members of its staff. All the appliances of that great establishment have been placed at your disposal at barely the actual cost incurred in their employment. And the Board has not had even the advantage of advertisements. How long this free help can be looked for is a pressing question.

V. THE RESIGNATION OF THE CHAIRMAN OF YOUR COMMITTEE.

The one great regret of your Committee for the year has been the resignation of Rev. Marvin R. Vincent, and the reasons leading to the loss of his large experience and his eminent services. The pressure of his new duties as professor, and still more the state of his health, moved the trusted and singularly able Chairman of your Committee to forward his resignation, and that in terms so positive and so cogent that acceptance became a painful duty. In reporting this resignation to the Assembly, your Committee feels constrained to give clear utterance to the strongest feelings of regret at this enforced retirement of Dr. Vincent, to the constant and wise interest in the magazine shown by him, and to the valuable services so generously given by him. To succeed Dr. Vincent, Rev. John S. MacIntosh has meantime been chosen.

It is very pleasant to be able to state that all the meetings of your Committee have been marked by the very freest interchange of opinions, by thorough cordiality, and in every case by final unanimity of judgment. The first divided vote has yet to come. Difficult and delicate questions have been always coming forward, but they have been honestly met, fully debated and happily and unanimously decided.

Your Committee has possessed the fullest confidence of the editor, and has had the fullest confidence in him. And these happy relations grow happier. It is a duty and a pleasure to report that many commendations, public and private, have assured the Committee that they were wisely led in their choice of Dr. Nelson as editor. Dr. Nelson came to his new work with a ripe experience and with a knowledge of men and affairs that have proved to be a great gain. In the management of the magazine very delicate relationships must be regarded, and the caution and the courage of Dr. Nelson have secured both harmony and success. Well satisfied with able and valuable service already rendered, we are confident that plans and purposes are ripening in the enlarged experience of the editor which will assure greater success for the magazine and give still greater satisfaction throughout the Church.

Your Committee would earnestly and confidently appeal to the Assembly and to the whole Church for deepened sympathy and enlarged encouragement. Very much remains to be done. The work is only opening before those who have been patiently studying it. Many difficulties must be surmounted. Larger usefulness is within easy sight. Improvements in the future form and management are contemplated. Will the Church not say, "Go forward?" Will pastors and elders, will Sabbath-school teachers and all our true-souled members not pledge their loving aid to carry onward and upward this really great enterprise? To push to a still higher place than yet gained this young but potent periodical of our great Church, to give louder voice and grander influence to this mighty witness unto the conquering Christ, calls for the prayers, the whole-hearted trust and the generous support of our whole communion. Shall it not be pledged at once and firmly?

In conclusion, your Committee is strongly convinced and is unanimously of the opinion that this magazine calls for the fostering care and the steady oversight of a committee. And, therefore, this resolution is laid before the Assembly:

That the Special Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad be continued with the same powers which have been already conferred, and be directed to report to the Assembly of 1889; that the expenses of the Committee be paid out of the funds of the magazine, and that, inasmuch as two vacancies exist—Dr. Erskine N. White and Dr. M. R. Vincent having resigned—it is recommended that Rev. Stealy B. Rossiter, in the place of Dr. White, and Rev. Henry T. McEwen, in the place of Dr. Vincent, be added to the Committee.

All of which is respectfully submitted by your Committee.

JOHN S. MACINTOSH,
Chairman.

The answers of the Presbyteries to the Overture on Chapter vi of the Directory for Worship ("Minutes," 1887, pp. 123, 124) were laid before the Assembly by the Stated Clerk, and were referred to a Committee of Canvass, viz.: Ministers—Joseph R. Kerr, George D. Baker and Thomas D. Smith; Ruling Elders—Marcellus Messer and John Otto.

The Permanent Committee of Arrangements for the One Hundredth General Assembly presented a partial Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Permanent Committee of Arrangements for the One Hundredth General Assembly respectfully present the following Report:

The work entrusted to the Committee divides, naturally, into two departments, upon one of which the Committee would at this time report, viz.: The public exercises by which the Centennial is to be celebrated, the arrangements for the popular evening meetings, and the times for the Reports of the Standing Committees of the Assembly.

The Committee would report that the general features of the celebration were designated by resolution of the General Assembly of 1887, as recorded on pages 29 to 31 of its "Minutes." The details of the arrangements for these exercises and for the popular meetings to be held during the sessions of the Assembly of 1888, were referred by this Committee to a Sub-committee of Management, composed of Ministers Joseph T. Smith, W. H. Roberts, W. P. Breed, and Ruling Elders George Junkin and Samuel C. Perkins. This Committee reported to the Permanent Committee the details of arrangements as effected by them, and, in order to carry out these arrangements, the Permanent Committee recommend that the popular meetings in connection with this General Assembly, be held as follows:

It is further recommended that the hour of 9.30, on Wednesday, May 23, be set apart for the reception of Delegates from Corresponding Bodies.

The Committee would also state that, in view of the importance of preserving a suitable record of the proceedings on Centennial Day, May 24, they have authorized the Committee on Management to publish the addresses to be delivered on that day. This action was taken after correspondence with the Centennial Committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

The Committee will present its Report upon the Centenary Fund in connection with the Report of the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief, on Saturday, May 19, and recommend* that the time for the consideration of the subject of Ministerial Relief be from 10 A.M. until 12 M.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH T. SMITH, Chairman.

W. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

Invitations were received from the Y. M. C. A. to visit their rooms, and from the Director of the Mint. The invitations were accepted with thanks, and the latter was referred for action to the Committee of Arrangements.

The Special Committee on the Property of Defunct Churches ("Minutes," 1887, p. 129) reported progress and asked to be continued, to report to the next Assembly. The request was granted.

The Committee of Thirteen Ruling Elders on Home Missions ("Minutes," 1887, p. 71) presented its Report, which was accepted, approved, and its resolution adopted. The thanks of the Assembly were unanimously voted to the Committee, and it was discharged. The Report is as follows:

To the General Assembly:

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN: At the suggestion of the Standing Committee on Home Missions, the General Assembly of last year appointed a Special Committee of Thirteen Ruling Elders, "whose duty," in the words of instruction, "it shall be to inform the Church on this subject of Home Missions to arouse the eldership and the people to the necessity for greatly increased effort in behalf of this cause and the imperative need of larger contributions."

The said Committee of Thirteen Ruling Elders beg to submit the following Report:

Gladly responding to the honorable call and earnestly sharing in the anxieties and aspirations of our brethren, we have freely given our time, our means, our prayers and our best judgment to the work in hand.

We found ourselves limited by the circumstances of the case to but two lines of possible effort—meetings, with public appeal, and circulars addressed to churches and individuals.

In furtherance of public gatherings in the missionary interest, this Committee have used their utmost personal and delegated influence; and several of its members have themselves addressed numerous mass meetings, conventions, Synods and similar assemblages in various parts of the country.

Of circulars, three were immediately drawn up and forwarded, to all pastors, all ruling elders and all Sabbath-school superintendents. Though varying somewhat to suit the needs and conditions of the several classes addressed, these papers each called attention to the sublime crisis of the hour in our national life, the magnificent opportunity of the churches, the imperative call for public spirit and consecrated men and money, and as well the efficiency and economy of our Home Board.

We have received requests from various parts of the country for additional circulars, and many have been mailed to meet such demand.

After the programme of the Committee had been carried out, on suggestion of one of our own number, who offered to bear the expense, still a fourth paper in appeal to the people was drawn up and mailed to many church-members.

In the aggregate 101,650 circulars have been distributed.

Whether these humble efforts have been greatly blessed of God in the enlargement of benevolences we cannot say, but that we ourselves have been immeasurably rewarded in quickened sympathies is our joyful acknowledgment, and we join fervently with all who love the Lord Jesus and would establish His kingdom to exult that our two great Boards come up to the Centennial Assembly, reporting marked gains and a balance in the treasury.

The expenses of the Committee have been considerable, not only in preparing and forwarding the circulars, but also for traveling, etc., which sum the General Assembly ordered to be charged to the Home Board. The entire amount, however, has been defrayed by members of the Committee.

In conclusion, we have but one recommendation to offer. We are impressed with the importance of the kind of work we have attempted, and venture to suggest that every pastor should be requested by this body to make the diffusion of missionary intelligence a matter of stated and persistent effort from the pulpit.

We have a noble, prompt and generous people, but occupied with the varied concerns of a busy life. Equal to every real emergency of charitable demand, they need, however, solicitation and information.

We beg to express our judgment that every pastor should preach on the work of Home Missions at least once each year, and that no collection should ever be taken in any of our churches for any benevolence without accompaniment of careful explanation as to the object to be benefited. In this busy age, and with new members coming in and children growing into years of thoughtfulness, once a year seems none too often to explain in detail the operation of each Board.

Your Committee, therefore, respectfully submit the following resolution:

"That this General Assembly calls the attention of pastors and Sessions to the vital importance of explaining succinctly and statedly to the people the organization, method and field of each of the various Boards for benevolent activity, so that all may be confronted with the duty to give, and that the open-handed may be educated in the habit of giving conscientiously, wisely, in generous sympathy and in the spirit of a catholic prayerfulness."

WARNER VAN NORDEN, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Religious Instruction in the Army reported progress, and was continued.

The Special Committee of Correspondence with the Presbyterian Church in the United States ("Minutes," 1887, p. 128), presented its Report, which was ordered to be printed and made the Order of the Day for Friday A.M., May 26.

The Order of the Day, being the Report of the Standing Committee on Education, was taken up. The Report was accepted, and after an address by Rev. Thomas Murphy, a member of the Board, and also by Rev. D. W. Poor, Secretary of the Board, pending a motion to accept the Report and adopt the resolutions, the Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 18, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in behalf of theological education was held in the Academy of Music, the presiding officer being the Rev. William H. Green, of Princeton Theological Seminary, and the speakers the appointed representatives of Theological Seminaries, in the following order: Princeton, Rev. Francis L. Patton; Auburn, Rev. Ransom B. Welch; Western, Rev. William H. Jeffers.

SATURDAY, May 19, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and after devotional services resumed business.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The following additional Commissioner was enrolled: Minister—Ninian B. Remick, of the Presbytery of Troy.

The unfinished business was resumed, being the motion to accept the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Education and to adopt the resolutions, which was arrested to take up the Order of the Day, being the Report of the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief and the Report on the Centenary Fund.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief presented its Report, which was read. Ruling Elder James A. Beaver and Rev. William C. Cattell, Secretary of the Board, addressed the Assembly. The Permanent Committee of Arrangements for the One Hundredth General Assembly reported on the Centenary Fund, including a Report from the Executive Committee of the Centenary Fund, presented by Rev. George C. Heckman, and a Report from the Treasurer, the Rev. William H. Roberts. These Reports were accepted, and after an address by the Rev. George C. Heckman, Corresponding Secretary of the Executive Committee, and by the Rev. George P. Hays, its Chairman, the Report of the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief was accepted and the resolutions adopted. The Reports on the Centenary Fund were also accepted and referred to a Committee of seven, viz.: Ministers—S. J. McPherson, Charles A. Dickey, George P. Wilson; Elders—Ell Torrance, Dan P. Eells, Silas B. Brownell, William A. Herron.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief is as follows:

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:

The Committee to which were referred the Report and the minutes of the Board of Ministerial Relief beg leave to submit that they have carefully examined the Report of the Board and scanned its minutes. Both show careful supervision of and considerate attention to the interests and welfare of the Church in that department of its active beneficence committed to the Board. There are many things in the Report which call for commendation and gratitude. Notwithstanding the efforts which have been made to add to the endowment of the Board by the Centennial offerings of the churches and of individuals, the aggregate of contributions by churches as such have been increased, although the diminution in the offerings of individuals, to a very considerable extent, will show a loss in the aggregate of receipts as compared with last year. The entire receipts of the Board for the year 1887-88 aggregate $129,798.43, as compared with the aggregate of the previous year of $136,323.58. The churches contributed $98,922.83 as against $96,769.10 the previous year. Individual contributions were $11,813.25 as compared with $22,061.17 the previous year. The interest from the permanent fund amounted this last year to $17,942.97 as against $16,378.18 the previous year. The Report also shows a slight increase in interest from deposits in banks, and a slight decrease from miscellaneous sources. The decrease of receipts from all sources, as compared with the previous year, aggregate $6525.15. Whilst under ordinary circumstances this falling off should be considered a matter of grave concern, we do not so regard it under the peculiar circumstances in which we are placed, inasmuch as many of the individual contributions, in which the serious shrinking occurs, which would under ordinary circumstances have come to the Board for its current uses, have undoubtedly gone into the Centennial Fund for the partial endowment of the Board. The Church and the Board are alike to be congratulated that, notwithstanding this decrease in the aggregate offerings for the work of the Board, the receipts exceeded the expenditures by the sum of $4752.92. This added to the balance of $21,389.87 in the treasury of the Board, as shown by its last Report, left in its hands for immediate use at the beginning of the year a larger balance than has ever before been reported. Inasmuch, however, as the season of the year has now arrived when the receipts from the churches and individuals reach a minimum, and the expenditures of the Board are necessarily as great as at any other season of the year, this balance is not too large for the safe and efficient working of the Board's operations. Since the books closed on the first day of April last this balance has been reduced more than one-half. This simple statement shows the absolute necessity for a large working balance in the treasury of the Board at the end of each fiscal year. Inasmuch as interest is received by the Board upon its daily balances in bank, there can be no objection to a current balance, however large, in the treasury of the Board at any time.

The number on the roll of the Board's beneficiaries interested in and profited by its benefactions in the ordinary way, for the year ending April 1, 1888, was 564, viz.: Ministers, 226; widows of ministers, 313; orphan families, 24; and one female missionary, who, according to the directions of the General Assembly, was placed on the roll for the benefactions of the Board, upon the same conditions as ministers. In addition to this number the families provided for during the year at Perth Amboy, New Jersey, was 20; making the aggregate upon the roll during the past year 584 families. It is estimated that the individuals composing these families, to whom assistance was thus granted, amounted to at least 2000. There have been removals from the roll during the year, as follows: 44 by deaths, viz.: 31 ministers, 12 widows and one orphan. Several have voluntarily withdrawn from the roll in consequence of a change of pecuniary circumstances or restored health, which has rendered further aid from the Board no longer necessary. The additions during the year were 35 ministers, 35 widows, 2 orphan families, and one female missionary—making in all 73. The Committee have considered some questions not directly raised by the Report itself, but inasmuch as they are informed that an overture, or overtures, upon the general subject have been, or will be presented to the Assembly, and that the entire work of the Committee having the Centennial Fund in charge will be canvassed in their own Report, which may be referred to a Special Committee, it is not deemed proper at present to deal with any of the questions which naturally suggest themselves outside of the Report under consideration. Whilst the Report of the Committee and the general increased attention to the work of ministerial relief, caused by the efforts made to raise the Million Dollar Fund as a partial endowment of the Board, call for hearty and sincere congratulation, there are nevertheless some dangers to which the Committee wish to call the attention of the Assembly and of the Church at large. There may be, and doubtless will be, a disposition in view of the endowment to relax effort in behalf of the regular contributions to the Board. This should be most carefully guarded against by our Presbyteries and Church Sessions. Under the most favorable circumstances the increase in the endowment will yield but little income for some time to come. Three to six months will be absolutely necessary to secure desirable investments, even after the funds are actually in the treasury, and these investments, when made, will not yield on an average more than about four per cent. Even if the entire million, therefore, were raised, paid into the treasury and invested, the income from it would not exceed say $40,000 per annum; and this amount added to the actual receipts of the Board during the past year for its current needs, would not exceed the amount which the General Assembly have for several years declared to be the minimum which the Church ought to raise for the work of the Board. It is therefore evident that the churches must exercise careful diligence in keeping their regular contributions to the Board up to the maximum, lest the reliance upon the endowment may lead to disastrous results. It must be considered also that the mere fact of the endowment will encourage applications for aid, entirely worthy in themselves, and such as should be accepted and acted upon by the Board, which will greatly increase the amount required for the annual needs of the Board. Many worthy people, greatly in need of assistance, have been restrained from making their wants known because of the known inadequate resources of the Board. Presbyteries are cautioned against making indiscriminate recommendations for the benefactions of the Board; and inasmuch as those who are the beneficiaries of its funds must be recommended by the Presbyteries, the Board relies, and must necessarily rely, almost entirely upon the good judgment and careful scrutiny of the individual presbyter. The benefactions of the Board are not to be con sidered as in any sense a charity, but rather as the payment of a debt which the Church owes to the faithful servants of Christ; and yet it must be remembered that service is the basis of the claim upon the Church, and that only when service has been actually rendered to the Presbyterian Church, should there be recommendations by Presbyteries for the help of the Board.

The Committee are gratified to note the action of the Board in placing upon its roll a female missionary, who by faithful service in Utah and disabilities resulting therefrom was entitled, under the previous action of the Assembly, to the aid of the Board. The Committee recommend that the members of the Board whose term expires May, 1888, namely: Rev. J. H. Mason Knox, Rev. John Elliott Wright—elected by the Board to fill the place of Rev. J. F. Dripps, who by reason of his service upon the Board of Education was unable to continue a member of this Board—Jacob Wilson and Henry N. Paul, be reelected. They also recommend the election of Rev. J. Henry Sharpe, to fill the place of Rev. George D. Baker, whose term of service would have expired May, 1890, but who by reason of his membership in the Board of Education was compelled to decline the place in this Board, to which he was elected by the last General Assembly. In view of the facts and considerations herein stated, your Committee respectfully recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the General Assembly gratefully recognizes and cordially commends the faithfulness of those churches which, though less in number, have contributed more in amount than last year, and this at a time when extraordinary efforts were making to raise $1,000,000 as a partial endowment of the Board.

2. Resolved, That the Assembly view with concern and apprehension the humiliating fact that, over three thousand churches under its jurisdiction have made no contribution whatever to the funds of the Board for the past year, and call the attention of Presbyteries to this fact, enjoining upon them active efforts to secure annual contributions from all the churches.

3. Resolved, That in view of the uncertainty as to income from the new endowment for the coming year, and of the increased demands likely to be made upon the Board, the minimum amount necessary for the efficient working of the Board, and the faithful discharge of its obligations, which should be contributed by the churches during the ensuing year is $150,000.

4. Resolved, That the resolution of the General Assembly of 1885, that women who have given themselves to the missionary work be placed on the roll for the benefactions of the Board, upon the same conditions as ministers, be modified by adding thereto as follows: "After five years of actual service under the care of either the Home or the Foreign Board."

On behalf and by direction of the Committee.

JAMES A. BEAVER, Chairman.

The Permanent Committee of Arrangements for the One Hundredth General Assembly made further Report, as follows:

The Permanent Committee was appointed by the Assembly of 1885 for the purpose of making suitable preparation for the celebration of the One Hundredth Meeting of the General Assembly ("Minutes" of 1885, pp. 628, 698). The Assemblies of 1886 and 1887 gave special instructions to the Committee, indicating the two main departments of the work which has been entrusted to them, viz.:

The benevolent work by which the Church seeks to make appropriate recognition of the Assembly's first century;

The exercises by which so auspicious an event should be formally celebrated.

The benevolent work entrusted to the Committee has been in general designated by the term the Centenary Fund. The objects recommended under this name to the Church for contributions were:

1. The permanent fund of the Board of Relief.
2. The current work of the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies.
3. The endowment of each of the Boards of the Church for office expenses.
4. The endowment of our Presbyterian theological seminaries.
5. Endowments for buildings for Presbyterian colleges and academies and other institutions of learning, in this land and in foreign lands.
6. Home Mission and evangelistic work under the care of a Synod or Presbytery.

The Assembly of 1887 recommended that the matters of "Board endowments," of "College endowments," and of "Semi-nary endowments," and other approved objects in whose interests agencies are already organized, be left to such agencies, with contributions made to them, however, to be duly credited. This Assembly moreover approved of the intention of the Committee to concentrate its efforts upon the raising of the $1,000,000 for the permanent fund of the Board of Relief, as recommended by the Assembly of 1886. The record of the work done in this line of effort will be fully presented in the Reports upon the Centenary Fund by the Rev. George C. Heckman, Secretary, and Rev. William H. Roberts, Treasurer, which are made part of this Report.

It is recommended that the Moderator appoint a Committee of five* to whom this Report shall be referred, who shall recommend to this Assembly such action as may be properly taken concerning the matters presented therein, who shall also recommend a suitable provision for receiving outstanding and new subscriptions and for making the final Report on the Centenary Fund.

The Report of the Executive Committee of the Centenary Fund

* Afterwards increased to seven.

to the Permanent Committee of Arrangements for the One Hundredth General Assembly was read by the Corresponding Secretary and is as follows :

In accordance with the recommendation of the Committee on Bills and Overtures of the General Assembly convened in Cincinnati, in May, 1885, it was unanimously resolved that so notable an epoch in the progress of our Church as the One Hundredth Annual Meeting of the Assembly should be suitably celebrated. A Permanent Committee of Arrangements was appointed by the Moderator, to which, as ex-officio members, were added the Stated and Permanent Clerks and the last Moderator ("Minutes of General Assembly," 1885, pp. 628 and 698).

To the ensuing Assembly, in session at Minneapolis, Minn., May 21, 1886, the Permanent Committee made a Report, which was unanimously adopted ("Minutes of General Assembly," 1886, pp. 16, 17). The same Committee, in their Annual Report to the Assembly in session at Omaha, Neb., May 20, 1887, gave in detail their so far perfected arrangements for the Centennial celebration, and with other action reported the election of a Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer and the appointment of an Executive Committee "from their own number," and further desired "the approval of the Assembly to the intention of this (the Permanent) Committee to concentrate its efforts upon the raising of one million dollars ($1,000,000) for the endowment of the Board of Relief, as recommended by the last Assembly," as the other benevolent schemes of the Church had their own agencies for raising special contributions to centenary objects. This action was unanimously approved by the General Assembly, and the Executive Committee at once set itself to the accomplishment of this great undertaking.

The operations of the Committee were almost wholly along three lines of work, viz., the press, public addresses and correspondence.

I. The Press.

1. By circulars addressed to pastors and churches. Immediately on the adjournment of the Assembly at Omaha the Committee sent forth its first circular to the number of 50,000 copies. This circular was followed by other documents to the total number of thirty. Of these upwards of 1,225,000 copies, covering 5,046,200 pages, were distributed throughout the Church. Many of these papers are of permanent value, the work of ministers, elders and women of our Church, and they greatly enlarge and enrich the literature of this department of Christian work, which had been already accumulated by our Board of Ministerial Relief.

2. The Church newspaper has been largely utilized. Without exception the dozen or more religious weeklies of our Church and The Church at Home and Abroad have heartily and effectively aided this great enterprise of the Assembly. Through them tens of thousands of copies of these publications have carried to the ministry and laity of our wide communion valuable historical sermons, addresses and records, Centennial articles and fervid appeals for the Centenary Fund, and ministers, elders and others have thus been made acquainted with the different newspapers of our national Church. To the editors of these papers, including The Church at Home and Abroad, your Committee desires to return hearty thanks for their willing and efficient help, and for their valuable columns opened freely to the use of the Executive Committee.

II. The second method of work was by public addresses. This was found to be a most effective agency, and indeed proved to be almost essential to awakening the interest of the Church, and securing the necessary attention to printed matter concerning the Centennial celebration and the Centenary Fund. Provision was made to reach every Synod of the Church, as far as possible, by the Corresponding Secretary, and lay and clerical members of the Permanent and Executive Committee, and in the few cases where this was impossible by other devoted friends of the cause. By the same methods a large number of our Presbyteries were also reached.

The Corresponding Secretary began this visitation of the churches by his first Centennial address, on the Sabbath evening preceding the meeting of the Assembly at Omaha, and with the intervention of one Sabbath, when illness prevented, continued this department of his work down to the present time. These addresses were delivered on Sabbaths and during the week to the churches in single congregations and union meetings, Sabbath-school conventions, ministerial associations, Presbyteries, Synods and General Assembly, visiting almost all the large cities of the Church, traversing twenty States and fifteen thousand miles of travel, with health and strength so kindly preserved that but four appointments were recalled, and but one of those on the Sabbath. He desires to add that he was received with cordial welcome and respect as a messenger of the General Assembly, pastor and elders generally exerting themselves to secure a full hearing for this great cause. As the work grew in the heart of the Church, invitations to present the Centennial work from all directions came in numbers far too great for possible acceptance. The Chairman and Treasurer of the Executive Committee were plied with similar invitations, which were complied with as far as pressing professional duties would permit. The Rev. Dr. Cattell, Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Relief, on invitation of the Committee visited the churches and Synods on the Pacific coast, and with his characteristic energy and zeal presented the claims of the Centenary Fund to them; and also in the East rendered effective service in raising the endowment fund by addresses to churches and other ecclesiastical organizations.

III. A third, a very important, laborious and deeply interesting part of the Centennial work, was the correspondence of the office at Cincinnati, amounting to thousands of letters. This correspondence on the part of the Church with hardly an exception, so kind, so appreciative, so loyal to the General Assembly, so full of the noblest Christian sentiment of benevolence to man and consecration to Christ, must ever attach these officials of the Assembly to the ministry and laity of our wide-spread Church, by a higher admiration and larger affection for their Christian character.

The raising of one million dollars for a single benevolent purpose under any circumstances would be a vast undertaking. In the present case there were reasons making the effort almost heroic, eliciting, as it has done, the admiration of our sister denominations. One obstacle was encountered at the very beginning of our operations. The Church had awakened to no enthusiasm in the Centennial celebration, at the most there existed only a sentimental feeling in portions of the Church; in other larger portions there was passive indifference; and here and there opposition to connecting any beneficial financial features with the commemoration. There was no such steadily rising, deepening, widening tide as that which marked the growth for years and the final culmination of reunion sentiment in 1870. The first discovery your Committee made was that Centennial sentiment had to be awakened, if not created.

Another reason giving an aspect of unusual courage to the undertaking to raise one million dollars for one simple purpose of benevolence, was that the Centenary effort was made to include large sums in behalf of other objects of Christian work, especial emphasis being given to the duty of the Church, to advance in all her columns along the whole line of aggressive conflict, which our system of evangelical work maintains against the kingdom of darkness.

With a large conception of the duty devolved upon it by the Assembly, but without experience of the difficulties to be overcome, the Executive Committee set itself to its task. By wide and varied correspondence, and by the study of the minutes of Presbyteries, Synods and the Assembly, it aimed to reach every minister and Session. It is doubted whether one hundred of our 5654 ministers, or one hundred of our 6436 churches, were unreached by these communications, and such only because their post-office address could not be obtained. And right here the Executive Committee would thank the Centennial Committees of Synods and Presbyteries, and also pastors, elders, Sunday-school superintendents and officers of women's societies and children's bands, for the valuable aid they furnished in this and other ways so heartily, often so laboriously, and always with such filial, faithful devotion to their historic Church. Indeed, wherever the executive officers of the Committee went, with exception so slight as barely to justify allusion, the latent enthusiasm of our Church awoke in quick, loving and generous response to the appeal of the Assembly in behalf of the one million for ministerial relief. The fully told story of all this would electrify and delight the Church, the story of aroused and applauding assemblies, of the large and notable benefactions of wealthy and liberal givers, and the self-denying gifts of those of humbler means, of infirm and impoverished ministers and their wives, and of the generous competition of rich and strong churches, and of weak and small churches struggling for existence or just starting into life on our wide frontier.

This Centenary Fund will not reach, nor was it intended or expected to reach, anything like the sum total of the Thanksgiving offering of 1870. Of that wonderful offering, however, a vast amount was given for purely local purposes, the special enterprises of Presbyteries and Synods, or chiefly retained by the churches contributing, and expended on the ground for strictly congregational purposes of every variety. Of the more than seven millions reported, but $114,574.11 passed into and through the treasury of the Assembly's Committee. This present Centenary Memorial for Ministerial Relief is a Thanksgiving offering for a single benevolent object, not local in its application, but embracing the whole Church, a much larger and therefore more difficult undertaking, and therefore also more expressive of the unselfish consecration of the Church. For this special object, upon which the Committee was instructed to concentrate its efforts, we are, at this present time, able to report receipts in cash to the amount of $419,000, pledges and subscription unpaid to the amount of $140,000, or a total of $559,000. The number of churches contributing thus far is 2180, and the number of special individual contributions 381.

But these statements and figures by no means conclude the great good, or perhaps the greatest good, accomplished by this Centenary work of the General Assembly. The denominational life of our Church has been quickened as, perhaps, never before; new and larger views obtain of the support of the active ministry, and of the maintenance of the infirm and aged ministry; and the bearing of the self-denial of the ministry on the establishment and growth of the Church of God is better understood. Nor will this endowment fund cease with contributions thus far secured. Many contributions will be made during the coming year, and large sums within our knowledge have been placed in wills, and in the succeeding years still others will be placed in bequests to this permanent fund for Ministerial Relief; while the annual contributions to the Board of Relief will flow in the larger currents of a more intelligent and general liberality.

The Executive Committee, and more especially the Corresponding Secretary, while pressing the one million Centenary Fund on the benevolence of the Church, have steadily impressed the higher right of the annual claims of the several Boards and discouraged any contributions to centenary funds at the sacrifice of existing and long-established obligations. The whole conduct of this special undertaking has been consciously and earnestly to promote the growth of systematic beneficence in the Church at large; and every opportunity to further the interests of the different Boards and of Synodical institutions has been eagerly embraced. Especially has the Executive Committee sought to prevent any shrinkage in the annual receipts of the Board of Ministerial Relief. We have kept that Board thoroughly acquainted with our plans and operations, and have guarded against any interference with its field and methods. We are happy to report that, without collision or confusion, the Board and Committee each pursued the several and distinct duties imposed by the General Assembly. We would especially express our thankfulness for the valuable aid given us by the experience and coöperation of the Rev. Dr. Cattell, Secretary, and the Rev. W. W. Heberton, Treasurer of that Board. Thanks are also due for efficient help, cheerfully afforded, by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

Spacious rooms, with light and fuel, free of all charge, were generously placed at the disposal of the Executive Committee by the Second Presbyterian Church of Cincinnati, in addition to the generous contribution of that church to the Centenary Fund, for which we desire to record our earnest thanks.

There is often expressed the plausible apprehension that the occasional efforts of the General Assembly to raise large sums of money for special objects would seriously affect the annual support of the permanent Boards of the Church. It was so feared when the thanksgiving offering for the Reunion of the Church was proposed in 1870; yet the contributions to the Boards for that year showed an aggregate gain of more than $77,466; and, although another Board has since been added, during the seventeen years following, the annual contributions to the benevolent schemes of the Assembly have in the aggregate steadily increased with the passing years. We are happy to report like results in connection with the present special effort to raise this Centenary Fund.*

Thus, while doubtless special appeals by the Assembly to the beneficence of the Church should follow only at wide intervals, and be inspired only by memorable occasions or pressing exigencies that appeal forcibly to the consecrated spirit of the Church, yet these recent experiments, so wisely projected by the Assembly, seem to justify the belief that they have had a stimulating, instead of reactive, influence on Christian devotion and liberality.

In further answer to inquiries and suggestions as to the investment of this addition to the permanent Fund for Ministerial Relief, and the distribution of the annual income therefrom, we report that the Permanent and Executive Committees have not acted in any way as to investment or distribution, the consideration of such questions not having been devolved upon them by the General Assembly. The contributions to the one million fund for relief, which have been paid into the hands of the Treasurer of the Centenary Fund, are held by him ready to be paid over on the order of the General Assembly.

For the Executive Committee,

GEORGE C. HECKMAN, Corresponding Secretary.

* The increase in contributions to the Boards for 1887-8 is $330,000. R.

The Report of the Treasurer of the Centenary Fund to the Permanent Committee of Arrangements for the One Hundredth General Assembly was also presented, and is as follows:

The Treasurer desires to express his sense of obligation to the Rev. W. W. Heberton, Treasurer of the Board of Relief, for the efficient aid rendered during the course of the year in receipting many contributions to the Fund, sent at the convenience of the churches directly to Philadelphia.

The Treasurer would also suggest that action by the Assembly is needed in two directions, viz.: An order for the transfer of the funds in the Treasurer's hands or subject to his order to such agency as the Assembly may direct, and authority for the Treasurer of this Fund to complete his Report in all its parts and present the same to the Assembly of 1889.

To this Report are appended two exhibits, viz.: Exhibit A, being a detailed statement of the gifts to the permanent fund of the Board of Relief made by churches and individuals up to May 1, and Exhibit B, a statement of the pledges made of gifts to said permanent fund from time to time up to the same date. To these exhibits there should be added, as soon as the Reports from the churches admit, an Exhibit C, being a statement of the gifts by churches and individuals to the five other objects included within the Centenary Fund.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Treasurer.

The Treasurer also reported $90,000 received since the date of his Report, and $140,000 pledged, with prospects of further receipts.

The unfinished business—the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Education—was made the Order of the Day for 2.30 o'clock this afternoon.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Missions for Freedmen presented its Report, which, after an address by the Rev. R. H. Allen, Secretary of the Board, was accepted and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Missions for Freedmen would respectfully report to the General Assembly, in part, that we have carefully examined the Annual Report of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, and the minutes of the Board submitted to us for our consideration.

We are reminded by this Report that our Centennial year is the quarter-centennial of this important and efficient agency of the Church.

Six years ago the General Assembly organized and incorporated "The Board of Missions for Freedmen." Previous to 1882 the work was conducted by a Permanent Committee.

A comparative statement is submitted which shows a large and steady increase in contributions since this change was effected, and the largest increase has been made during the past year. The last Report of the Permanent Committee showed contributions amounting to $68,268.08. The first Report of the Board acknowledged contributions amounting to $85,239.88, an increase of about $17,000. The receipts reported this year amount to $181,658.85, a gain over last year of $35,181.88, and nearly double the amount reported by the Permanent Committee the last year of its existence. To whatever causes we are to credit such encouraging advance, the facts deserve our close attention, and the generous response of the Church to the appeals of the Board calls for gratitude, and should embolden our zeal. Even these larger figures do not indicate the entire gain. They do not include the generous gifts of the needy race for whose education and conversion the Church has organized this Board. Those whom the Church has helped so generously, have helped themselves by contributing, out of their poverty, nearly $25,000, almost half as much as was contributed for their help six years ago. These contributions towards self-support have increased nearly $6000 during the past year. We shall have something more to say regarding the faithful and helpful aid of the Christian women who have cheerfully taken up this work, with their full hands, but in this connection it should be observed that to their efforts the Board and the Church are greatly indebted for this significant increase in contributions. To the women, almost exclusively, is due the erection and establishment, without debt, of the Mary Allen Seminary.

The Women's Executive Committee of the Board of Home Missions, with praiseworthy breadth of charity, have shown equal interest in the freedmen. They have recognized the care and elevation of this oppressed race as Home Mission work, and have contributed over $27,000 to educate and save them. This generous coöperation deserves attention and imitation. The Board reports the possession of $19,120 in permanent funds. Of this amount $18,120 belongs to institutions under the care of the Board.

I. EDUCATIONAL WORK.

The work entrusted to the Board of Missions for Freedmen divides itself into two departments, Educational and Missionary. The educational work is prosecuted by schools, seminaries, institutes and universities. Primary schools are provided to lay the foundations. As they advance, the pupils are given the best possible opportunities in schools of higher grade. The controlling desire and purpose is to convert all who come under the influence of these schools. The brighter and more promising children are trained and guarded and instructed with a view of providing ministers and teachers. All whom grace will dispose to the Gospel ministry, or whose gifts may furnish them for teaching their long-neglected race, find, in their midst, and easily accessible, the superior advantages of Biddle University. This institution, whose past work has been so eminently successful, and so greatly blessed, presents a most encouraging report for the past year. Dr. Johnson and his associate professors have been cheered with great prosperity; 182 students have received instructions, an increase of 49 over last year. Of this number 64 are studying for the ministry. The sum of $5000 has been secured for the endowment of the President's chair.

In addition to Biddle University, the Board has under its control and dependent upon it for support, Scotia Seminary and Mary Allen Seminary, for girls, exclusively; Wallingford Academy, Brainerd Institute and Fairfield Institute, and 88 schools of lower grades. In the advanced schools, 1800 pupils are under instruction and 108 are preparing for the ministry. In the schools of lower grades, 9347 pupils are under instruction. It is to be hoped that members of the Assembly, and pastors and elders throughout the Church, will carefully examine the details submitted in the Report of the Board, that they may acquaint the Church with the great work that appeals to them for aid. We cannot calculate the importance and influence of this educational work. Through this agency the Church is creating leadership. No figures that can be given can possibly express the power that is being generated. We are gathering the forces that are soon to move the mass of ignorance that seems immovable. We are lighting the torches of a host of torch-bearers, who will soon dispel much of the darkness that hangs so black over a race whose memories of bondage make them almost insensible to liberty.

II. THE MISSIONARY WORK.

The educational work, which we have presented, is intended to prepare the way for the still more important missionary work, which the Board is pushing with all the might that means will allow. The Board employs 10 catechists, sustains 226 Sabbath-schools, with a membership of 14,555; sustains 285 churches, with a membership of 16,661; employs 26 white missionaries and 81 colored, besides 48 white teachers and 106 colored teachers.

Thirteen new churches have been organized; 1210 members have been added by examination and 225 by letter; 1896 baptisms and 286 marriages make up the statistics submitted to your Committee. Here, too, we must shut our eyes to figures and try to reflect upon facts, to comprehend the religious work that is being prosecuted among a people so blind and miserable, so much in need of the corrections and consolations of the Gospel of Christ. It is difficult to realize the conditions that face us in the prosecution of this missionary work among these millions of blind, ignorant and corrupt freedmen. We long for greater harvests. Our gleanings seem sparse, compared with possible gatherings. But if we can call to mind the dreadful destitution that discouraged us several years ago; if we will carefully review the work of these intervening years; if we can picture to ourselves a prosperous university, five well-equipped academies and seminaries, nearly one hundred busy schools, and the scores of sanctuaries that ever echo the songs of Zion, and, with our eye on the picture, hear the tramp of a godly army, marching heavenward, with songs in their mouths, then, we think, the Church will thank God and take courage, and in gratitude exclaim, "What hath God wrought!" The shadows are passing off, and a brighter light falls on the stupendous task that seemed almost impossible. A new generation—a generation that does not carry the scars of a degrading bondage—greeted our teachers and missionaries, and manifests a thirst for learning, a taste for the liberty wherewith Christ makes free, and an aspiration towards nobler, purer manhood and womanhood, that encourages the hope of a success of which we have hardly dreamed in the days of disheartening toil. The harvest draweth nigh, and our reapers will soon rejoice in the gathering of many golden sheaves.

Not one-half of our churches are contributing to this holy cause. But the contributing churches have enlarged their gifts. Moved by influences that we cannot take time to consider, the freedmen are changing their abodes. They are turning from the sea-board States and occupying Arkansas, Texas and the Indian Territory in large numbers. We must follow them wherever they go, and feed them with the bread of life. We cannot lay down a responsibility, fastened upon us by the vows and prayers of our fathers, who plead with God for the opportunity that He has given us. We cannot violate the sacred contracts into which the Church voluntarily entered while the nation was in that storm and struggle, in whose fury and agony this shackled race was redeemed from bondage. God will visit us with awful retributions if we fail to enlighten the race that He has freed, or fail to evangelize a people for whose liberty we have paid such a tremendous price. This race and its redemption has much to do with that other vital question of fraternity that so occupies the thought and the hope of the Church. More depends upon dealing righteously with these down-trodden, depraved and pitiable people, than upon any other thing that may be conceived as essential. When we can learn how to join our hands in a determined purpose to purify and exalt, with the Gospel of Christ, these helpless millions who are pleading for the consolations and hopes of our holy religion, then we will have joined our hands in brotherly love over the deep, wide gulf that we would cover out of sight with Christian charities. Let us open the new century with a new consecration of the Church to this holy crusade, and resolve that we will not rest until these blind millions are redeemed. We cannot close our Report without calling the attention of the Assembly to a fact referred to in the Report submitted by the Board. They say, "We are compelled to contend with all the embarrassments necessarily pertaining to an annual uncertainty as to whether its (the Board's) modes of operation could be continued another year." We cannot close our eyes to this embarrassment of uncertainty. The friends of the work of this Board, equally interested in the welfare of the colored people, differ about modes of operation. But we submit to the Assembly the suggestion, in view of the embarrassment expressed by the Board itself, that we should start into the new century with our policy well defined and so definitely fixed that we should not be hampered with the continual dread of change.*

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES A. DICKEY, Chairman.

A letter was received from the General Synod of the Reformed Churches of France, and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Assembly took recess until 2.30 P.M., and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 21, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

From the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Brooklyn, requesting that an Overture be sent down to the Presbyteries providing for an alteration in the Book of Discipline, Ch. ix, Sec. 3, 85, and Sec. 4, 97.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Education was taken up.

A resolution "that the Board of Education be instructed by the Assembly to make the appropriation to the students in the collegiate department of Biddle University equal to the appropriation made to the same grade of students in attendance upon other colleges" was referred to the Board for final settlement.

The Report was then approved and the resolutions adopted, as follows:

The Standing Committee on the Board of Education, having scrutinized both the Annual Report of the Board and the minutes of its meetings, and having listened to statements made by those interested in its objects and methods, would respectfully report that during the past year this department of our work has been marked by commendable activity and by some progress on the part of the Board, but marred by depressingly inadequate support on the part of the Church at large.

Owing to an increase in legacies the debt of $15,000 reported a year ago has been reduced to $3800. But this improvement has been secured at the humiliating cost of reducing the appropriations to candidates. The maximum now allowed to a student is only $100—scarcely one-sixth of what is allowed to a cadet in West Point. If the members of this Assembly would seriously consider the hardship and pecuniary penalty which this state of things imposes upon many candidates, they would go home and persuade their churches and Presbyteries to provide the remedy. Three thousand three hundred and thirty-eight, or 54 per cent of our churches did not contribute to this Board during the year. The contributing churches gave an average of less than $20 each. In view of this showing it can hardly be considered strange that the aggregate number of our seminary graduates has once more begun to decline. Yet the demand for well-qualified pastors is more urgent than ever, especially in the West and South. Graduates of the right character need never wait a day for fields of labor. If churches believe our plan to be wrong, they ought to say so candidly, and then suggest a more excellent way of furnishing a necessary supply of ministers, rather than let the cause itself languish through their indifference or disloyalty. It is worth their while to notice, as a test of the Board's work, that of the 2747 students aided since the reunion in 1870, 97 per cent have entered the ministry of our own Church. In the judgment of this Committee the Board's methods should be brought far more conspicuously forward by pastors and Sessions, in order that the facts may have an opportunity to make their own impression. As things stand in this Centennial year there is some danger lest it should be thought that our Church, while strenuously advocating an educated ministry in theory, was playing with the subject in practice.

A very careful examination of the whole of the sad facts, as we are forced to regard them, reveals the alarming truth that existing methods are not recruiting the number of our ministers as fully as they are needed. There may seem to be sufficient numbers in the larger cities and vicinity, but throughout the rest of the land there is a sad lack of men to supply the various posts. There are not sufficient numbers of them to meet the vastly increasing thousands of our own population, our missions at home and abroad, our institutions of various kinds and other calls for preachers. Calls the most urgent are coming from our churches and our Boards to our seminaries, but the men are not to be found. On the other hand, complaints are coming loud and deep as to the qualifications of many that are entering the ministry. From these and kindred alarming facts it seems evident that existing methods and influences are not furnishing the needed supply of suitable men for the sacred office.

May it not be that God in His providence is shutting us up, in this painful emergency, to make us see and feel that we have relied too much on ourselves and too little on Him; that we have not depended on the divine Head of the Church for this, its greatest gift?

But we rejoice that there is a divinely appointed remedy for this very thing. On the one hand we are assured that the Son of Man holds the stars of the Church in His right hand, hence that it is His to give as well as to guide them. Moreover, and chiefly, there is a very special remedy in the wonderful promise, "Pray ye the Lord of the harvest that He will send forth laborers." This is a very extraordinary engagement of our Lord, which has never been suitably appreciated or even understood; in this there is a sure remedy for our existing perplexities. Above all else, and for all our wants, we need prayer—prayer, fervent, general and persevering. Let this be offered in faith, and deliverance will come.

We, therefore, recommend that this Assembly enjoin that prayer be offered, for a supply of well-furnished and godly ministers, by our private members, our ministers and all our Church courts.

Your Committee would submit the following further recommendations:

1. That the Assembly commend the praiseworthy industry and fidelity of the Board in the administration of the year now closing.

2. That we cordially commend the general work of the Secretary, and especially congratulate him on his success in enlisting individuals in the work of aiding particular candidates.

3. That the members of this Assembly pledge themselves to do what they can to increase the contributions of the churches for the coming year to the sum of $100,000.

4. That in view of the present emergency a Special Committee be appointed to take the whole subject under advisement in conference with the Board, to prepare a circular on the subject and send it forth to all our churches, and to report to the next General Assembly.

5. That the Assembly ratify the Board's election of George H. Stuart, Jr., in place of Henry N. Paul, resigned, and of George Peirce, in place of Joseph M. Collingwood; and that the following members, whose term of office expires this year, be reelected for a term of three years, namely: Ministers—Samuel A. Mutchmore, John H. Monro, Edward B. Hodge; Laymen—James F. Gaily, Charles H. Matthews and George Peirce.

6. That the first Sabbath of October next be set apart as a day of special prayer throughout the Church, when we should plead at the throne of grace for a deepening of the spirit of consecration among our young men to the work of the gospel ministry, that God's blessing may be still more abundantly bestowed upon the labors of the Board of Education, and that the spirit of liberality may be increased in the churches. It is also ordered that a collection for the Board be taken on that day. Let the keynote of the Sabbath's prayers and thought be our Lord's explicit, distinct command: "Pray ye, therefore, the Lord of the harvest that He will send forth laborers into His harvest."

Respectfully submitted,

S. J. McPHERSON, Chairman.

The Rev. Walter Chalmers Smith, D.D., LL.D., minister of the Free High Church, Edinburgh, was invited to a seat on the platform, and was welcomed by the Moderator and the Assembly.

It was Resolved, That a Committee of three elders—Logan C. Murray, J. B. McPherson and Samuel C. Perkins—be appointed to present to the churches the claims of the Board of Education.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Church Erection presented its Report, which was read, and after an address by the Rev. Erskine N. White, the Secretary of the Board, was accepted and the resolutions adopted, as follows:

Your Committee have examined the Annual Report of the Board submitted to them; also the minutes of the meetings of the Board, which were submitted in the usual manner for our examination.

The work of the Board is steadily increasing year by year, in a manner which is gratifying to all who have at heart the interests of our Church, yet the apparent increase in receipts and in grants, which can readily be noticed by comparison of figures, by no means measures the real increase of the labors of the Board, as each year's work adds to the grand total of accumulated interests to be kept in mind, and to be regularly attended to.

Twenty-five more churches have received aid for church edifices than were aided the year preceding, the increase in amount being $10,012, and the average appropriation nearly $477, varies little from the preceding year. For further figures the Committee will refer to the report of the Board, merely saying that they feel gratified with the steady and increasing growth of our work. In some cases the Board has deemed it wise to exceed the usual limit of grant, and, after reviewing the circumstances, your Committee is satisfied that the discretion of the Board has been wisely exercised. Your Committee trust that the discretion will be continued in future, for no one not familiar with the work can realize how imperative are the necessities of some communities.

While the gross receipts of the Board have reached the sum of $118,897.74, your Committee note, and regret that they need to note, that a large number of churches, in many cases strong churches, appear to have contributed nothing to the funds of this Board. It is true, as has been heretofore remarked, that the work of this Board does not appeal as strongly to the feelings of our brethren as do the causes represented by some other Boards, yet the importance of this particular cause cannot be overestimated. A church home is essential to Church existence. Souls cannot be saved unless the means be provided. A shepherd is hardly more essential than a fold. This Committee hope that the pastors of the many churches which have failed to contribute to this Board will feel that they have a special duty to perform in stirring up the pure minds of their people by way of remembrance, so that this Board may report no non-contributing churches next year. Let none feel that their mite is too small. It may be great in the sight of the Master whom we serve.

The department of the work of this Board which is devoted to the building of Manses, is hardly secondary in importance to the work of furnishing the church edifices. In many places the demand for residences decidedly exceeds the supply, and many a home missionary struggling to keep alive on an insufficient salary finds, not only that house rent makes dreadful inroads upon his means, but, in many cases, that no money will procure a sufficient shelter. To enumerate the cases of hardship from this source, which are known to the members of the Committee, would trespass on the time of this Assembly to an unwarrantable degree, while to detail the heartrending appeals that have come to the knowledge of the Board would quite exhaust the patience of the hearers. Your Committee wish to say, with emphasis, that it is not easy even to conceive of the hardships endured by many a good brother in a rapidly growing community; and that this branch of the Board's work should be liberally assisted. The recommendation of the Assembly of last year for a permanent fund of $50,000 should be carried out, and your Committee hope that it will not be over-shadowed this year by any other cause.

The minutes of this General Assembly annually show, in the Statistical Reports, much larger contributions to the cause of church erection than can be found in the Reports of this Board. Several cases are known to the members of this Committee where more prosperous churches, and their members, have contributed liberal sums toward the erection of neighboring churches. While this is creditable to the donors, who are, in most instances, aiding in the advancement of their immediate neighbors, and while the Committee are aware that it is not always practicable to have such donations pass through the treasury of the Board, they think that, wherever it can be done, such contributions should be sent to this Board. If so desired by the donors, they will be recorded as special contributions, and will be promptly transmitted to the beneficiary designated so that the same assistance will be given, with the advantages of having the reports of the Board more fully represent the whole of the donations of the Church to this department of work, of having the gift secured from possible alienation by the mortgage usually taken by the Board, and, in many cases, of having the gift of a single sum rather than in many lesser ones, a matter which the experience of the Board shows to be often important.

Your Committee note, with pleasure, the item in the receipts of the Board, of appropriations returned, and the remarks of the Board on this subject, together with their recommendation found on pages 5, 13 and 14 of their Report, are heartily concurred in by this Committee.

In view of all of the facts, your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the action of this Board during the past year, and their minutes, be, and are hereby, approved.

2. That the exercise of a wise discretion in the future in regard to grants in localities where special aid is needed, is approved by this General Assembly.

3. That it is hereby declared to be the duty of all pastors to present the claims of this Board to their several churches, and to urge that some contribution, however small it may necessarily be, be made to this cause.

4. That the Board be authorized and required to use all proper means for raising the "Wilson Memorial Fund," authorized last year, to be used in the manner then indicated; and that this General Assembly confidently calls upon the churches to make up that fund as promptly as shall be practicable.

5. That this Board is entitled to, and ought to have, aside from the Manse Fund, and in addition to special contributions for particular beneficiaries, not less than $150,000, to carry on its work for the coming year.

6. That the following be added to the rules provided for the direction of this Board, to wit: That any church making an annual contribution to this Board of not less than ten per cent of the amount originally granted to it, shall be deemed as paying in such contribution an installment of like amount upon the mortgage held by the Board; and when such payments in the aggregate shall equal the amount of the grant, the Board shall execute a release of the mortgage and thus remove its lien from the property of the church; provided, that such church, at the time such contribution is sent, shall notify the Board that it desires that such application thereof be made.

7. As the terms of office of the following members of this Board expire at this time, to wit: Ministers—David Magie, S. M. Hamilton, D. R. Frazer, Charles T. Haley; Elders—R. S. T. Cissel, Hezekiah King, John Sloane, this Committee recommend the reelection of these members with the exception of Elder Cissel, whose engagements compel him to decline reelection. In his place, the Committee recommend the election of Elder Robert Jaffray, of New York.

There is also a vacancy in the Board, caused by the resignation of Rev. E. R. Craven. In filling this vacancy the Committee venture to recommend that an exception be made to the rule, generally wise in its application, that no person shall serve as a member of two Boards, and that Rev. John Hall be elected to fill this vacancy. This they do for the reason that in the hands of the Board are certain funds, contributed to meet special cases, and, by direction of the donor, grants from this fund are to be made subject to the approval of Dr. Hall. This fact, which renders his presence at the meetings of the Board important, together with the additional fact that he has been long associated with the Board in its work, rendering it very valuable and faithful service, have led the Board specially to ask for his election to fill this vacancy, and have convinced this Committee that it would be wise to grant that request.

Respectfully submitted,
CHARLES E. WALDO, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church presented a Report in part:

The Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church report in the case of the Rev. J. M. W. Farnham, complaining of the action of the Board of Foreign Missions, as developed in his printed communication addressed to this body; and also by Overtures from the Presbyteries of Platte, Winona and Schuyler, asking consideration of the same—that the questions involved in the case relate wholly to administration and are not questions of Church Polity. They, therefore, recommend that the whole case be referred to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions. The recommendation was adopted.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 21, 8 o'clock P.M.

A Popular Meeting, in behalf of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, was held in the Academy of Music, in accordance with the arrangements previously made.

TUESDAY, May 22, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and, after devotional services, resumed business.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Report, which was received :

Overture No. 1, from the Presbytery of Dayton, urging a change of time for the observance of the Week of Prayer for the Conversion of the World.

The following answer is recommended :

That it be considered inexpedient for the Assembly to recommend the observance of any special time as a Week of Prayer, inasmuch as the arrangements for such an observance have been, for years, practically under the direction of the Evangelical Alliance, and may safely and wisely be left to its further care.

It is also recommended that, in furtherance of the aim set forth in this Overture, the Stated Clerk be requested to communicate with the Evangelical Alliance in reference to a change of time for the Week of Prayer, and a thorough revision of the topics presented for consideration, giving special emphasis to the interests of Foreign Missions.

Overture No. 2, from the Presbytery of Allegheny, asking that the Day of Prayer for Colleges be changed from the last Thursday of January to the last Wednesday of the same month.

It is recommended that the request be granted, and that the last Wednesday in January be designated as the Day of Prayer for Colleges.

Overture No. 3, from the Presbytery of Catawba, asking that the territory in North Carolina, west of the Blue Ridge mountains, be transferred to the Presbytery of Holston.

It is recommended that the request be referred to the Synods interested and to the Presbytery of Holston, to take such steps in the premises as may enable the Assembly to act upon the request next year.

Overture No. 4, from six ministers of our Church, asking for the erection of a new Presbytery, to be called the Presbytery of Southern Virginia, and to be attached to the Synod of Catawba.

It is recommended that the request be referred to the Synods of Baltimore and Catawba, for such action as may prepare the way for action by the Assembly next year.

Overture No. 5, from the Presbytery of Western Africa, requesting that, for reasons growing out of the climate, "Children's Day" in Liberia be changed from June to the second Lord's day in February.

It is recommended that the request be granted.

Overture No. 6, from the Shantung Mission, China, with the concurrence of the members of the Synod of China, asking the Assembly to authorize a change in the time of the next meeting of the Synod from Saturday, August 18, 1888, to Thursday, September 13, at half-past 10 o'clock A.M.

It is recommended that the request be granted, and that the change of time for the next meeting of the Synod of China from August 18 to September 13 be, and it hereby is, authorized and made legal.

Overture No. 7, from the Presbytery of Madison, asking that copies of the magazine, The Church at Home and Abroad, be furnished to all our ministers, and that they be urged to interest themselves in introducing the magazine into every family of our Church.

It is recommended that, in view of what has already been done by this Assembly in the matter, no further action is necessary.

Overture No. 8, from the Presbytery of Albany, asking the Assembly to consider and send down to the Presbyteries certain amendments to Chapter vi of the Directory for Worship.

It is recommended that, in the judgment of the Assembly, it is inexpedient to take any action in the direction proposed.

Overture No. 9, from the Presbytery of Madison, asking the Assembly to adopt and send down to the Presbyteries such changes in the Directory for Worship as may seem to be demanded, with a view to a uniform order of worship throughout the Church.

It is recommended that it be considered inexpedient to take any action to this end.

The recommendations were severally adopted.

The following additional Commissioner was enrolled: Ruling Elder—Richard Armstrong, of the Presbytery of Northumberland.

The Committee appointed to canvass the answers of the Presbyteries, to the Overture on Chapter vi, Directory for Worship, reported "that of 202 Presbyteries, 167 have voted as follows: 68 in the affirmative, 102 in the negative, and 2 give 'no answer.'" The chapter stands therefore in its present form. The Report was accepted and approved.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence presented a Report, which was read and approved.

Your Committee would beg leave to submit the following partial Report :

1. Greetings and congratulations suitable to the historical feature that marks this particular Assembly have been received from the "Reformed Church of Bohemia," also from "The Free Evangelical Church," of the same land, and with them an appeal for reciprocal greetings and substantial sympathy in the form of money aid. Your Committee would recommend the reference of these papers to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

2. Also greetings and congratulations from the "General Synod of the Reformed Church of France," from the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and a letter from Rev. Dr. Watts, Corresponding Delegate to this Assembly from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. Your Committee would recommend that these communications be read at the time of receiving delegates from corresponding bodies, Wednesday morning, at 9.30 o'clock.

3. With respect to the communication received from the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, now in session in New York City, inviting this Assembly to appoint a Committee of seven to unite with similar committees of that and other evangelical bodies in this country to constitute a National Sabbath Committee, whose duty it shall be "to make a deliverance on new phases of the Sabbath question," your Committee would recommend the appointment of such Committee for one year, and that they report the aims and methods of the National Committee to the next General Assembly.

We would name the following as that Committee: Eliot F. Sheppard, New York; James A. Beaver, Philadelphia; Byron Sunderland, Washington City; Herrick Johnson, Chicago; Francis C. Monfort, Cincinnati; Robert J. Trumbull, San Francisco; Samuel J. Niccolls, St. Louis.

4. Your Committee would note with special satisfaction the warm congratulatory resolution that comes from the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. And as that body will not be in session again for nearly a year, we recommend that no action beyond acknowledgment be taken in the matter.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT CHRISTIE, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Home Missions presented its Report, which was read, and after an address by the Rev. William Irvin, one of the Secretaries of the Board, was accepted. The resolutions were taken up seriatim. Pending the discussion the Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 22, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Report :

Overture No. 10, a memorial from the Board of Publication asking authority to print the title page of the Constitution in the following form :

"The Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, containing the Confession of Faith, the Catechism, and the Directory for the Worship of God, together with the Plan of Government and Discipline as ratified and adopted by the Synod of New York and Philadelphia, in the year of our Lord, 1788, and as amended in the years 1805-1888."

It is recommended that the request be granted. Adopted.

Overture No. 11, from the Presbytery of Philadelphia, asking the appointment of a Committee of competent divines to revise the proof-texts of our Standards, and to suggest such changes as may, on examination, be found desirable, to be reported to a future Assembly.

It is recommended that the request be approved, and that the following Committee be appointed to report to the next Assembly : Ministers—Samuel T. Lowrie, William H. Green, Howard Crosby, Joseph T. Smith, Marvin R. Vincent, David C. Marquis, Matthew B. Riddle. Adopted.

Overture No. 12, from the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Brooklyn, asking that the Board of Publication be authorized to issue statistical blanks in which the words "Synodical Aid" shall be substituted for the word "Sustentation."

It is recommended that the Board of Publication be authorized to place at the head of the column in question, in the Statistical blank, the words "Sustentation, or Synodical Aid." Adopted.

Overture No. 13, from the Presbytery of Omaha, asking that the Charters of certain of the Boards be amended, so as to enable them to make loans from the funds in their possession subject to loan, to Presbyteries, churches and institutions in any State or Territory of the Union, on satisfactory security and at low rates of interest.

It is recommended that the request be answered in the negative. Adopted.

The following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That this General Assembly heartily approves the efforts that are being made to secure a national law against Sunday work in the Government mail and military service and in Interstate commerce.

The consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Home Missions was resumed.

A resolution was adopted recommending the Presbyteries to utilize ruling elders in conducting services in destitute neighborhoods and vacant congregations. See Form of Government, chapter xxi.

The following resolution was offered and laid upon the table: That the Board of Home Missions is hereby authorized, upon the recommendation of Presbytery, to make such appropriations of small sums as, in their judgment, may be prudent, for the purpose of sustaining evangelistic work, to such ruling elders as are evidently called of God to the ministry of the Word.

The Report was then accepted and the resolutions adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Committee have received and examined the records of the Board of Home Missions for the year just closed, and also the Report of its transactions for the year, as presented to this General Assembly. They have also received and examined the Annual Report submitted to the Board by the Women's Executive Committee, reciting the work of that Committee during the year, in behalf of the same great interest.

The Home Missionary work of this year, as presented to our view in these documents, is one which gives occasion for devout thankfulness and for great hopefulness as to the future. We have, indeed, to record the afflictive providence of God in the removal by death of some beloved missionaries in the employ of the Board: of the Rev. Timothy Hill, D.D., so long known and honored for his capable services as a Synodical Secretary and missionary in the farther West; and of Robert Lenox Kennedy, Esq., who had been, since the union of 1869, one of the most valued members of the Board. Other hindrances to the progress of the work have revealed themselves, from time to time, in the drought so widely prevalent in the West; in financial embarrassments, seriously affecting some sections of the Church, and in other providential and natural causes which need not be mentioned here. Yet the year must be regarded in general as one of the most prosperous in the history of this work. While the number of churches organized (170), of Sabbath-schools established (371), of houses of worship built (119), of persons added to the Church on profession of their faith (10,182), and of churches contributing to the treasury of the Board (4651), falls a little below the corresponding numbers reported last year; yet, in the increased roll of missionaries and teachers employed, in the aggregate of membership, in the unequaled amount of money and other articles contributed, in the increase of gifts from our Sabbath-schools, and in other indications of distinct advance along the lines of a healthful and substantial development, your Committee find ample justification for pronouncing this a memorable year in the annals of the Board—a fitting close to a remarkable century. The most significant feature in the case is the increase of contributions, from $653,456.03 in 1887, to the largest aggregate ever reached and the largest sum ever contributed to this cause in a single year by any evangelical denomination on this continent, viz, $783,627.80. While the financial year began with a debt of $21,681.77, it happily closed, for the first time in seven years, after an expenditure altogether unparalleled in our denominational history, with a balance in the treasury amounting to $102.55. This result is traceable, so far as human agencies and forces are concerned, in part to the peculiar stimulus of our Centennial Celebrations; in part to the special and most fruitful efforts of the Committee of Thirteen Elders appointed by our last Assembly, and in part to the steadily deepening conviction of our ministry and membership that the first, the inalienable, the supreme duty of our Church is to do all that it may, by the grace of God, to bring this entire continent, with its myriads of diverse peoples and elements, into full obedience to Christ.

The number of missionaries employed during some portion of the year is 1486, nearly one-third of our entire available ministerial force. The continental character of the work is shown in the fact that there are but six States in the Union, Connecticut, Alabama, Mississippi, Vermont, Georgia and South Carolina, where these missionaries have not been steadily at work. No less than 256 of them have labored in what, including the Indian Territory and Texas, we are accustomed to call the South. Many more have been employed along the frontier lines of our civilization and on the Pacific coast from California to Washington Territory, and many others have been at work in the more central States, among the depleted churches of the East and in the new field now opening to us so broadly and auspiciously in New England. Contemplated in the aggregate, what may not such a body of trained and fruitful men be expected, under the guidance of the Spirit of God and with His favoring providence, to accomplish toward the rescuing of this entire land, East and West, North and South, for our Immanuel? The question sometimes discussed, whether the distribution of this working force might not be improved; whether, for example, a larger proportion should not be commissioned to the frontiers, or should rather be detained in the older States, where their services seem to be so greatly needed; whether more of them should be sent to New England, or along the Atlantic coast in city and country as far as Florida, or should be employed in establishing churches or building up Christian institutions in Dakota and the boundless Northwest, is one which your Committee deem it wise and safe to entrust to a Board whose constant duty it is to study this vast continental work in its unity as well as its varieties, and whose supreme aim can only be to place each earnest laborer just where, in its judgment, he can do most and best for the whole Church.

The work of the Women's Executive Committee during the year shows a remarkable advance, both in resources and in the number of schools sustained and of teachers employed among our exceptional populations. The Committee have maintained twenty-nine schools and one hundred and fifteen teachers among the Indian tribes, twenty-four schools and forty-eight teachers among the Mexicans and thirty-eight schools and eighty-one teachers among the Mormon population, chiefly in Utah. They have also, with a wise foresight inaugurated a great movement, whose ultimate importance cannot well be exaggerated, in the maintenance of nine schools and twenty teachers among illiterate whites in certain sections of the South. The growth of their work in general from its inception, in 1878, is one of the most striking and suggestive facts in our denominational history. This growth is indicated in a most impressive way by a comparison of the receipts of the Committee for the first ten years, as follows:

1880,	20,000
1881,	40,000
1882,	74,000
1883,	87,000
1884,	109,000
1885,	129,000
1886,	176,000
And in the present year,	226,092

This increase in the number of schools from 88 to 100 during the past year, and of teachers employed from 215 to 264, exhibits in another form the same gratifying advance. The number of Synodical societies has risen this year to 26, of Presbyterial societies to 172, of local societies to 2790, and of mission bands to 1000. Four hundred and thirty-one Sabbath-schools have contributed to this treasury during the year. Your Committee believes that the Christian women, who have been engaged so earnestly and so intelligently in this magnificent work deserve the sympathy, the prayers and the practical aid of the entire Church. What, with such help and comfort, may they not by the grace of God accomplish during the century to come?

If on this summit among the years in our life as a denomination, we turn from the past and the present to contemplate our prospective developments, we are both inspired and awed by the continental magnitude of the work before us. One momentous section of it appears in that great and critical problem of city evangelization, which is made specially prominent in the Report of the Board, and with which every intelligent American Christian must be profoundly concerned. Another appears in the corresponding problem of rural evangelization—the maintenance and supply of churches, especially in the older States, once flourishing, but now weakened by continuous migration, yet whose salutary influence upon the farming communities in which they are established our Church cannot afford to sacrifice. Still another appears in that task of peaceful propagation to which our denomination seems to be called within the Atlantic States, not in New England alone, but also southward from Maryland to Florida—a task especially important in its relations to the vast negro population inhabiting the fruitful districts lying between the Cumberland mountains and the ocean. Still another comes into view in that central region, between those mountains and the Mississippi, in which we have already so large an investment, and which in consequence of the extensive immigration of our own people is likely to assume still greater moment in the near future. And still another, itself almost continental, reveals itself in the wide empire between the Mississippi and the Rocky mountains, from Minnesota southward, where within the next century there is to be a material, social and political development whose magnitude no eye but that of a prophet could adequately discern. And beyond all this, still another field for missionary work, more vast and even more inviting, opens to our vision on the Pacific coast, from California to Alaska, a field where already we have churches and Presbyteries and Synods, schools and colleges and seminaries for the theological training, but where we may anticipate within the next fifty years an ecclesiastical development equal to that which within the last twenty-five years has transformed Iowa and Kansas and Nebraska and the adjacent States into the very garden of the Lord.

What a sublime prospect thus rises into view before us! How is it possible to speak of it otherwise than in terms which seem like wild exaggeration! And yet will not the eye that shall trace these lines a century hence in its search for data with which to compare the past with what shall then be present, rather smile at the narrowness of our vision—the smallness of our dream? What we need for ourselves to know and to feel, more and more, is the immediate fact that ours is not a local or provincial, but a truly continental Church, with an almost boundless field waiting for its entrance, with centuries of time before it, with large resources of doctrine, of talents, of influence in its hands, and with a commission from the Lord to possess the continent in His name and to the glory of His grace.

In view of such prospective development, two matters should be named here as deserving special attention. A slight falling off (58) appears in the number of churches contributing to Home Missions, and a larger decrease (156) in the churches contributing during the last year to Sustentation. It is earnestly to be desired and striven for that every congregation within our bounds should make some annual contribution, however small, to this greatest of causes. The deficiency in respect to Sustentation is doubtless traceable in a large degree to the fact that in the three States of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, the plan of Presbyterial and Synodical care of the weaker churches is growing into favor, and is likely to secure proper provision for those churches in another form. This plan is also winning favor in other localities, and is not unlikely to become a permanent and most beneficent mode of carrying forward home missionary work, especially in the older sections of the Church. The Assembly cannot commend it too earnestly to the consideration and approval of our people. But whatever the method, there must be no loss of interest, no failure in contributions, no decline of beneficent energy, at any point. A million a year for the next decade, as the entire continent shall progressively open itself to our Christian gifts and activities—a million a year for the next decade, and two millions beyond that point would be no excessive measure of either the abilities or the duty of a Church which, when fully consolidated, will have no superior in either resources or power among the evangelical denominations on this elect continent. In the presence of the manifested providences of our God towards us, what smaller measure would this General Assembly dare to propose!

But a greater need than that of money is pressing itself upon our attention—the need of a body of ministers sufficient in numbers and adequate in training to the task of carrying forward our missionary work at home and abroad. It is at this point that our chief embarrassment appears. When we remember that a new church is organized, chiefly through the representatives and influence of this Board, every two days throughout the year; that every three days through the year a Presbyterian minister dies; that the supply from our theological seminaries is wholly inadequate to meet the ever-growing demand thus created; that we are at this moment dependent upon an importation from other Christian bodies of sixty ministers a year, to fill up our vacancies; that in spite of all effort at supply, these vacancies amount at this moment to many hundreds; further, that wide fields and opportunities are continually opening to the vision of our large and acute exploring force; and that beyond all this, not only this great continent, but all the continents and islands of the earth are ready for our visitation in the interest of Christ and of His Gospel, we can not refrain as Christian men from the earnest, supreme outcry, “Lord, send forth laborers, more laborers, into Thy whitening harvest!” The Secretaries of the Board are not burdened to find places for ministers applying for service; they are burdened rather to find ministers to fill a multitude of parishes now vacant, and to enter missionary fields already open and calling urgently for men who are willing to spend and be spent for the Master. While therefore the Church is commemorating this Centennial year with special gifts and rejoicings, and is looking forward so hopefully into the auspicious future, let it never forget that its great need, next to the gift of the Holy Ghost, is not machinery or organization, not consolidations and unions, not moneys and treasures and visibilities of whatever sort, but men.

An Overture from the Presbytery of Santa Fé, in regard to an alleged inequality in the appropriations to missionaries and fields within the bounds of that Presbytery, and a general application for aid from the Presbytery of Utah, have been placed in our hands by the Committee on Bills and Overtures. We recommend that these papers be transmitted to the Board for special consideration. Overtures from ten Presbyteries, in regard to the appointment of one German missionary or more for general work among the German population, have been placed in our hands in like manner. The subject will be presented to the Assembly in the form of a resolution.

Three Overtures have been referred to your Committee from the Presbyteries of Muskogee and Cherokee Nation, asking the Assembly to take action defining the sphere and functions of a Synodical missionary, and also his relations to the schools established by the Board, and likewise the relations of the Presbytery and its ministers to these schools and their teachers; also, petitioning the Assembly to authorize the Board to employ native catechists and interpreters, on small salaries, to labor among Indians speaking the Cherokee tongue. Inasmuch as the questions involved are complicated, and their full discussion is impracticable at this time, we deem it wise that the matters presented should be committed to the deliberate consideration of the Board, in the expectation that after fraternal conference all difference of view among the parties interested will be fully harmonized.

The following communication has been received by your Committee, and is herewith transmitted to the Assembly:

DEAR BRETHREN: We desire to call your attention to the continual growth of the work of Home Missions.

1. Our number of missionaries and teachers increases year by year. It was larger the last year than ever before.

2. The same is true as to our income. It was larger last year than ever before, by more than $100,000.

3. The field accessible to our labors grows faster than our ability to occupy it. Two hundred additional laborers are needed this year.

In view of these and similar facts, we suggest to you the propriety of commending to the Board of Home Missions, the importance of adding to its Executive Department at least one additional laborer.

Yours truly,

H. KENDALL,
WILLIAM IRVIN.

Your Committee deem it proper to congratulate the Board, the Assembly, and the whole Church on the acquisition and occupation, largely through the munificence of the heirs of the Lenox estate, and of Mr. Robert Lenox Kennedy, lately a member of the Board, of a spacious and adequate Presbyterian House, situated at a central point in the city of New York, where our missionary operations, domestic and foreign, and some other organized enterprises of our Church, may have and enjoy a suitable home for a long future. We deem this event worthy of commemoration among the special blessings of this Centennial year. The necessary action in respect to the constituting of the Board will be presented to the Assembly in the form of a resolution at the close of this Report.

In conclusion, your Committee propose the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That, standing at the close of this first century in its history, the General Assembly rejoices, with unfeigned gratitude to God, in the encouraging records of the past year in our Home Missionary work—records which, in respect to finances, to the number of missionaries employed, to the extent of the field, and to the practical results attained, exhibit a measure of prosperity almost unparalleled in the history of the century.

2. Resolved, That the Board of Home Missions be and is hereby encouraged to go forward at once, and with still greater energy in the continental work entrusted to it by this body; in our great cities, where such vast moral desolations prevail; in the older sections of the country, where so many of our churches, once strong, but now depleted by migration and other causes, are greatly needing special encouragement and aid; along our constantly expanding frontier lines, from Dakota down to Mexico, where the call for the Gospel and the Church of God is so extensive and so urgent, and in the Southern portions of the Republic, where our denominational investment is already so large and precious, and where we are constrained to recognize as devolving upon us a great duty and task of evangelization, which, as a continental Church, we dare not neglect.

3. Resolved, That the work of the Woman's Executive Committee, and of the many thousands of Christian women whom they represent, as embodied in their Report to the Board of Home Missions, presents to our view a splendid example of mingled enthusiasm and sound judgment, and especially of Christian consecration and constancy, bearing their legitimate fruits in a form of service which has already become absolutely indispensable to the continuous development of our Home Missionary work, and whose further worth and results in the century to come it is hardly possible for us now even to imagine.

4. Resolved, That, in accordance with action already taken by this Assembly, the cases of missionary teachers who have been employed by the Executive Committee for a definite period, and have become disabled in its service, be and are hereby commended to the careful consideration of the Board of Relief.

5. Resolved, That this Assembly earnestly solicits the attention of churches, of Presbyteries, of Presbyterial and Synodical

Committees, and of others specially concerned, to the important action of the last General Assembly, with respect to great carefulness in the distribution of aid to churches not able wholly to sustain themselves, to the grouping of such churches wherever practicable, to the inexpediency of organizing churches hastily in places of comparatively small promise, and in general to the duty of practicing the most rigid economy possible in the use of the means entrusted to the Board.

6. Resolved, That the Committee of Thirteen Elders which was appointed by the last Assembly, "to inform the Church on the subject of Home Missions, and to arouse the eldership and the people to the necessity for increased effort in the behalf of this cause," be, and is hereby appointed to continue during the coming year in the prosecution of the work now assigned them, by whatever methods their judgment and experience may indicate as desirable.

7. Resolved, That the records of the Board as submitted to the Standing Committee be approved in the usual form, and that Ministers John Hall, Henry M. Booth, John R. Paxton, and Laymen George R. Lockwood, and Titus B. Meigs, whose term of service expires at this time, be appointed as members of the Board for three years ensuing. Also, that Mr. John S. Kennedy be appointed to fill the vacancy in the class of 1890, created by the death of Mr. Robert Lenox Kennedy.

8. Resolved, That, in accordance with the communications from the present Secretaries of the Board received by the Standing Committee, and transmitted by them to this body, and in view of the obvious need growing out of the constant enlargement and increasing complexity of our Home Mission work, this Assembly hereby authorizes the Board to make such further provision for service as it may find expedient.

9. Resolved, That the amount needed for the Board of Home Missions the coming year is likely to reach $850,000, and we recommend that the churches be requested to raise that amount for the Board.

10. Resolved, That the Overtures from the Presbyteries of Muskogee and Cherokee Nation, and also those from the Presbyteries of Santa Fé and Utah, be referred to the Board for its consideration.

11. Resolved, That this Assembly hereby expresses its grateful appreciation of the Christian generosity of the heirs of the Lenox estate, and of Mr. Robert Lenox Kennedy, for their munificent aid in securing a house so suitable as a centre of our denominational work, and devoutly trust that this building may stand the next century through as a monument to the wise and loving liberality of those who gave it.

Respectfully submitted,

E. D. MORRIS, Chairman.

It was Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed, of which Dr. Kendall shall be a member ex officio, who shall inquire into the duties of the Presbyterian Church toward the immigrant population, with special reference to the Germans, Scandinavians, Bohemians, and French; said Committee to report to the General Assembly of 1889. The Committee is as follows: Ministers—John L. Withrow, William O. Ruston, Adelbert van der Lippe; Elders—S. J. R. McMillan, P. L. Perine.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies presented its Report, which was read, and, after an address by the Rev. Hervey D. Ganse, Secretary of the Board, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies is often spoken of as the "youngest born" in that family of healthy children who are, severally and jointly, the present care and future hope of our mother Church. In one sense it may be so regarded, but with equal truth it might be called "our first love." Granted that its special column in our statistical reports is but five years old, in the very first statistical reports of the General Assembly, more than sixty years ago, before the oldest of these Boards was born, reports were printed of sums contributed for education, including, as the "Minutes" tell us, grants to "colleges," "academies," and "infant-schools" as well. The action of the Assembly in 1883 marked no departure from our established policy, but was simply a reassertion of our fundamental and inalienable belief that Christian training is essential to Christian life. The interest of the Presbyterian Church in sound learning is coëval with its existence as a denomination.

Each new Report of the Board of Aid by its tone, if not by its words, reminds us of these primal truths.

1. All education in the higher branches must be either religious or irreligious. It is easy to construct an agnostic definition of a triangle, but not so easy to construct an agnostic philosophy of history, or an agnostic science of man. Philosophy must be either theistic or atheistic; and, as a matter of fact, all schools of science and metaphysics sink to the one level or rise to the other plane. In such issues the Church of Christ has most vital interests at stake. For this reason the higher education must remain, as it has been in the past and is in the present, chiefly in the hands of Christian believers.

2. Educational institutions must be brought near to the homes of the people whose youth ought to be benefited by them. A half hour's study of any college catalogue will convince the most skeptical of this. One in every thousand of our population is in some institution of collegiate rank. It is hopeless to expect, even were it desirable to be realized, that this great number of our youth could be concentrated at any one, two, three or a dozen centres.

3. Not the less evident is it that the cost of an education must be kept below that which prevails in the larger institutions of learning, if the youth of the land are to enjoy this inestimable boon. Colleges are not for the rich alone. In every age of the Christian world their halls have been filled by the children of the humble and the poor; and yet the annual expenses of the average student in some of our older institutions are larger than the entire possessions of the average American citizen.

4. The history of education in America makes it plain that collegiate endowment must be dependent rather upon private benefactions than upon coöperative effort. Church collections never built Harvard, furnished Yale's endowments, or equipped Princeton for its work. It has been the individual, princely givers, who have in these institutions reared to their names imperishable monuments, while conferring blessings upon successive generations in the land.

Understanding these fundamental truths, we need not wonder at the phenomenal success of our Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies. Much as there remains to be done, it shows how dear the cause of a Christian education is to the heart of the Church that, in five years, the contributing churches have increased from 480 to, as now reported, 1865. Its annual receipts have risen from $15,000 to over $40,000, and the students in these institutions from a few hundred to 3400—no small proportion of the entire number of collegiate and academic students in the United States.

Such results have only been possible by that rare combination of energy and conservatism found in the councils and councillors of the Board. Reaching each successive year over a wider territory, it still remains a Board without a debt. This is owing to its admirable method of making conditional grants, to which method attention is particularly called. Distributing generous benefactions, it has done its work with such wise and judicious method that its help, instead of enfeebling by dependence, stimulates to self-support. Its benefactions have not been a staff upon which to lean, but a standard inciting to the charge. It has proven itself at once a distributive and a cumulative agency, enlarging directly or instrumentally the educational plant under its care by nearly a million dollars, and possibly preventing the waste of as much more. A glance at the map accompanying the Report will show how wisely the benefactions of the Church have been distributed, the institutions aided being near enough to strengthen, not near enough to devour one another.

This Committee having examined with scrupulous fidelity not only the printed Report of the Board, but its manuscript minutes, begs leave to recommend the following resolutions:

1. This General Assembly gratefully recognizes the zeal, fidelity and prudence of the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies, and expresses the deep indebtedness of the Church to the officers and members of said Board in view of their valuable labors.

2. That the pastors and officers of our churches be urged to make themselves familiar with the facts of the Report, which is packed with useful, instructive and stimulating facts, and that each church be given an opportunity of coöperating in so glorious a work.

3. That we specially commend to generous donors, to all individual stewards of the Lord's trusts, a cause which appeals with equal force to the philanthropist, the patriot and the Christian. And in view of the pressing need and claims of special institutions under the care of the Board the Assembly trusts that such gifts of individuals will, during this year, come into the hands of the Board to the amount of at least $100,000.

4. That the following persons be and hereby are elected members of the Board, to take the place of those whose terms of service have expired, as in the Report, viz. :

Ministers—M. Woolsey Striker, John M. Freeman, J. G. K. McClure, John F. Kendall; Laymen—Dan P. Eells, J. S. Farrand, Cyrus McCormick, Otis D. Swan. That in place of Rev. John Hall, ineligible under a Standing Rule of the Assembly, Rev. Robert Christie be elected to fill the vacancy.

Respectfully submitted,

H. D. JENKINS, Chairman.

The Judicial Committee reported :

The Judicial Committee respectfully report that the complaint in the case of T. S. Hamlin and others, against the Synod of Baltimore, is in order, and recommend that it be submitted to a Judicial Commission, consisting of fifteen persons, eight ministers and seven elders, in accordance with the provisions of Section 118 of the Book of Discipline. The Report was adopted, and the Commission appointed by the Moderator as follows :

Ministers—James I. Brownson, William C. Young, J. P. E. Kumler, William E. Ruston, William H. Lyle, John G. Rankin, Calvin R. Shields, Howard Duffield; Ruling Elders—Cyrus L. Pershing, S. J. R. McMillan, Andrew J. Viele, E. Anson Moore, Henry W. King, Charles E. Waldo, Alexander G. B. Parke.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported a memorial from members of churches in Shantung, China, which was referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Moderator announced the Committee on Days of Prayer :

Ministers—George D. Baker, John C. Eastman, Harlan G. Mendenhall; Ruling Elders—Warner Van Norden, William H. Scott.

The Rev. E. R. Craven, on behalf of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, presented to each member of the Assembly a copy of a reprint of the second edition of the Shorter Catechism, which was accepted with the thanks of the Assembly.

An invitation to the members of the General Assembly to visit the Presbyterian Hospital, was accepted with the thanks of the Assembly.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 22, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the Academy of Music, in the interests of Home Missions, in accordance with the arrangements previously made.

WEDNESDAY, May 23, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and, after devotional services, was opened with prayer.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported Overture No. 14, from the Synod of North Dakota, asking the Assembly to change the name of the "Synod of Dakota" to the "Synod of South Dakota."

In view of the representations made in behalf of both Synods, and inasmuch as no objection has been presented by the Synod of Dakota, it is recommended that the request be granted, and that the Synod of Dakota be styled hereafter the Synod of South Dakota. Adopted.

Overture No. 15, from the Presbytery of Aberdeen, requesting that the churches of Oakes and Hudson be transferred from that Presbytery to the Presbytery of Fargo, in the Synod of North Dakota.

It is recommended that the request be granted, and that the said churches be, and they hereby are, transferred to the Presbytery of Fargo. Adopted.

Overture No. 16, from the Presbytery of North River, asking that a Committee be appointed by this Assembly to report a plan for the systematic instruction and training of young persons, and others, with a view to their admission to the Lord's Table.

It is recommended that the request be granted, and that a Committee of three be appointed by the Moderator to carry out the purpose of the Overture. Adopted.

Overture No. 17, from the Presbytery of Madison, asking that the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work be directed to prepare a revised edition of the Hymnal, with alterations and additions; to incorporate with one edition of the same a suitable selection from the Psalms and other Scriptures for responsive reading; and to furnish all editions of the book to the churches as nearly as possible at actual cost price.

It is recommended that the Assembly approve the request for a revision of the Hymnal, and that the whole Overture be referred to the Board of Publication, to be reported upon next year. Adopted.

Overture No. 18, from the Presbytery of Westchester, asking the Assembly to take action in regard to improper advertisements in religious newspapers.

The following answer is recommended:

The General Assembly disclaims all responsibility for, or authority over, religious journals which are not published under its direction. Nevertheless, as many of these papers are edited by ministers of our Church, circulate largely among our people, are looked upon as in some degree representing the Church, and appeal to patronage on that ground, the Assembly earnestly deprecates the prevalence of improper advertisements in their columns. In particular it disapproves of all such advertisements as involve the essential principle of a lottery; also such as promise or encourage investors to expect highly improbable returns from capital invested; and, thirdly, all those advertisements of patent medicines which are dishonest in form, fraudulent in substance, or prejudicial to the refinement, modesty and purity of the home life. Adopted.

Overture No. 19, from the Presbytery of Madison, asking the appointment of a Commission to investigate the evils of the present methods of calling, settling and unsettling pastors, "and to report upon the expediency of making such changes in the Form of Government as would give the Presbyteries or Synods the option of adopting a limited or term-service pastorate."

While disapproving the specific action proposed in the Overture, the Committee is impressed with the great importance of some plan for bringing together unemployed ministers and vacant churches, and recommends that this particular subject be referred to a Committee of three, to report at the next Assembly. Adopted.

Overture No. 20, from the Synod of Baltimore, and No. 21, from the Presbytery of Dayton, the former asking whether the use of the Revised Version of the Holy Scriptures in public worship is consistent with Chap. iii, Sec. 2, of the Directory for Worship; and the latter asking the Assembly to allow the use of the Revised Version in the public services of the sanctuary, with a view to removing an occasion of complaint in some churches.

It is recommended that in the present unsettled condition of opinion regarding the Revised Version of the Sacred Scriptures, it be deemed inexpedient for the General Assembly to authorize its use in the public worship of the sanctuary. Adopted.

Overture No. 22, from members of the Presbytery of Cape Fear, asking that the proper steps be taken for amending Chap. x, Sec. 2, of the Form of Government, so as to admit of the establishment of more Presbyteries than one within the same territory.

Also, Overtures Nos. 23 to 35, from the Presbyteries of Athens, Bloomington, Cairo, Chillicothe, Des Moines, Fort Wayne, Kansas City, Louisville, Mattoon, Ozark, St. Clairsville, Steubenville and Zanesville, asking whether it would be proper for a Synod, in certain circumstances, to constitute in the territory of existing Presbyteries, other Presbyteries, consisting chiefly or entirely of colored ministers and ruling elders of colored congregations and other ministers engaged in work for the colored people.

It is recommended that all these Overtures be referred to the Committee of Conference with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. Adopted.

The Judicial Committee reported the appeal of the Oakland Church against the Synod of Tennessee, which, after some discussion, was recommitted.

The Committee on Correspondence presented communications to the Stated Clerk from the Official General Synod of the Reformed Churches of France; from the Rev. Dr. Burns, Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada; and from the Rev. Dr. Watts, the Delegate to this Assembly from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. The letters were congratulatory on the completion of a hundred years of the Assembly's history, and were read by the Stated Clerk.

The Rev. James Crawford, D.D., Corresponding Delegate from the Reformed (Presbyterian) Church in the United States; the Rev. William M. Baum, D.D., Delegate from the Evangelical Lutheran Church; the Rev. George W. Huntington, D.D., Delegate from the Reformed Episcopal Church; the Rev. Edward P. Terhune, D.D., Delegate from the Reformed (Dutch) Church in America; and the Rev. Richard S. Storrs, D.D., LL.D., Delegate from the National Council of the Congregational Churches, severally addressed the Assembly, conveying the salutations of those bodies to the One Hundredth General Assembly, and received each appropriate response from the Moderator.

On reconsideration, the invitation from the Committee of Arrangements to an excursion to Atlantic City on Saturday, in view of the pressure of business, was declined with thanks.

The following minute was adopted: The General Assembly having heard with sorrow of the sudden death of the only son of the Rev. W. W. Barr, D.D., Corresponding Delegate from the United Presbyterian Church, would extend to him our sincere sympathies in this sad hour.

The Stated Clerk was directed to transmit the action of the Assembly to Dr. Barr.

WACO, TEX., May 22, 1888.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

The General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church sends greeting. Hebrews xiii: 20, 21.

FRIDAY, May 25, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and, after devotional services, was opened with prayer.

The minutes of Wednesday's session were read and approved.

The Permanent Committee on the next place of meeting reported, recommending that the next General Assembly be held in the Fourth Avenue Presbyterian Church in the city of New York. The Report was adopted and the following Committee of Arrangements was appointed: Ministers—Howard Crosby, John Hall, Stealy B. Rossiter, Henry T. McEwen, George Alexander, William H. Roberts; Ruling Elders—Warner Van Norden, Eliot F. Sheppard, Samuel Inslee, W. L. Skidmore and Steven S. Clark, with power to add to their number.

The Judicial Committee reported:

Judicial Case No. 1.—The complaint of the Rev. William Bryant and others against the action of the Synod of Iowa, in the case of A. R. Day. Your Committee find the papers in order and recommend that the case be tried by a Judicial Commission. The Report was adopted and the following commission was appointed: Ministers—John M. Worrall, John P. Williamson, John L. McKee, William A. Niles, Orlando E. Hart, Wiley K. Wright, William A. McAtee, John R. Thompson; Elders—Andrew T.

McClintock, Homer N. Hibbard, John E. Lucas, Thomas S. Hubbard, John F. Seeley, John T. Steel, Franklin Field.

Judicial Case No. 2.—The complaint of Oakland Church, against the Synod of Tennessee. The complaint is as follows: The Presbytery of Holston recommended that Mount Bethel and Tusculum Churches coöperate or group together for the purpose of sustaining preaching at those two points, and did recommend them, as thus grouped, to the Board of Home Missions for aid. Of this Oakland Church complained to the Synod, alleging that the effect of this action would be to withdraw families from Oakland Church. The Synod overruled the complaint. Of that action of Synod, Oakland Church complains to the General Assembly. Your Committee recommends that the complaint be dismissed, because it is a case in which the Assembly has no jurisdiction, having regard to matters which refer neither to constitutional nor doctrinal questions. (See Chap. xi, Sec. 4, Form of Government.) The Report was adopted.

Judicial Case No. 3.—A complaint and appeal to the General Assembly against the decision of the Synod of Catawba, in session at Charlotte, N. C., November 2, 1887, signed by seven persons. This complaint and appeal pertains to the action of the Synod in sending back to the Presbytery of Yadkin the case of Rev. E. H. Garland for a rehearing. The Stated Clerk of the Synod filed this complaint as having been received by him on the 14th day of November, 1887, whereas the action complained of was taken November 2, 1887, twelve days before the complaint was filed with the Stated Clerk, which was two days after the expiration of the time allowed for filing a complaint or appeal. (See Book of Discipline, Sec. 84 and 96.) For this reason, and because no complainant or appellant has appeared before the Committee, we recommend that the complaint and appeal be dismissed as not in order. The Report was adopted.

Judicial Case No. 4.—Appeal of Charles D. Drake against the Synod of Baltimore. The Committee recommended that the case be dismissed.

It was resolved that Judge Drake be heard on the question of the regularity and order of the appeal. The case was then referred back to the Judicial Committee, to report only upon the regularity and order of the appeal.

Judicial Case No. 5.—An appeal of Charles D. Drake against the Synod of Baltimore, which, being similar to the above, was referred in like manner and for the same purpose.

Judicial Case No. 6.—Appeal and complaint of Rev. Nathaniel West against the Synod of Minnesota. The Committee recommended that it be dismissed as not involving matters appealable to the General Assembly.

On the motion to adopt the recommendation the appellant was given the floor; but, the Order of the Day being called for, the matter went over as unfinished business.

It was Resolved, That when the Assembly adjourns on Saturday at 12 M. it be to 9 A.M. on Monday, May 28.

It was Resolved, That on Reports of Standing Committees all speakers hereafter, during the sessions of this Assembly, be limited to ten minutes each, except the Chairmen of Committees and the Secretaries of the Boards.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee would recommend that the paper signed by over 1400 native Christians of Shantung, China, pleading that more laborers be sent to that important field, be referred to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

We would further recommend that Rev. E. R. Burkhalter be appointed to convey the fraternal greetings of this body to the United Presbyterian General Assembly, and that the Stated Clerk be directed to telegraph this action to Dr. Burkhalter.

The Committee also presented the following answer to a communication from the Diocesan Convention of Pennsylvania:

To the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

BRETHREN BELOVED: Among the many congratulatory voices that have reached this Centennial Assembly of the Presbyterian Church from different parts of the Lord's host, not one has evoked more marked expressions of appreciation than that which comes from your noble and venerated body; and whilst uniting with you "in prayer for the peace and unity of the Church," we would especially pray that God would continue to guide in your counsels and unceasingly multiply the proofs of His favor, that are so conspicuous in your past history.

ROBERT CHRISTIE, Chairman.

The report of the Committee was approved.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 25, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions presented its Report, which was read, and, after an address by the Rev. Arthur Mitchell, one of the Secretaries of the Board, was accepted and the resolutions adopted, as follows:

We have carefully examined the Fifty-first Annual Report of the Board of Foreign Missions and the record of its meetings for the current year.

Thanks to God for His unspeakable gifts and for the privilege of having been permitted to offer this gift another year to a dying world. The year is bright with tokens of God's benignant favor.

We congratulate the Board upon its entrance into the new quarters, 53 Fifth avenue. To Mr. Robert Lenox Kennedy's "wise forethought and princely munificence is the change largely due." The Mission House, at 23 Centre street, had grown historic and was hallowed by precious memories. But who shall forecast the record of this latter house? What if its unfolding history should bring to the waiting eyes of the Church the glories of millennial morning!

In recognizing the removal by death during the year of Mr. Kennedy and of Mr. David Olyphant, two of the Board's members, we here record our gratitude to God for their faithful service.

The addition to the missionary force and the losses by death and withdrawal since the last Report, leave a net gain of nine ministers and eleven unmarried ladies. The only death that has occurred in the field-force is that of Rev. R. D. Irwin, of the Northern Mexico Mission. Fresh from the seminary, and from consecration to his life-work, his eager feet had scarcely touched the streets of Zacatecas before he was on his way to the City not made with hands, to take a commission from his Lord—possibly to have "authority over ten cities" instead of one.

The total receipts for the year have been $901,180.80, making an advance upon last year of $117,023.21: This splendid uplift along the grooves of finance is due to an increase—from legacies of $59,454, from churches $20,120, and from women's societies, $46,851. As usual, the Marthas and Marys and Phobes and Tryphenas and Tryphosas of our beloved Church, go to the outward boundary of our expectation, and their beautiful and deepening devotion to this cause is one of the most significant and delightful surprises of modern missions. It is plainly the duty of the Church of God to make grateful and rejoicing recognition of this enlarging activity and liberality of woman in Christ's work of redemption. Where Paul could only salute a single Urbane or Priscilla as a "helper in Christ," and here and there a single mother or sister as a "laborer in the Lord," we may greet a goodly and godly host of womanly hearts, wearing the jewel of discretion while aflame with zeal and consecrated to "Woman's work for woman" the whole wide world round.

Many missions of the Board, as Persia and India, have pursued the even tenor of their way, with such quiet fidelity and steady fruitfulness and efficiency as to suggest nothing unusual for mention. The seed-sowing and the harvesting have continued, and frequently side by side in beautiful illustration of one of the paradoxes of Scripture. These unobtrusive, silent growths, these works that make no noise, are often the fruitfulest and the mightiest; and, when the world is loud in its praise of some notable missionary achievement, God is saying of some unheralded toiler,

"She hath done what she could." Philip's work in Samaria filled a whole city with joy, but God called him from it to go down on that lonely road to Gaza and labor with a single traveler who "would see Jesus." The missionary work of the Gaza road did not get blazoned from Samaria's house-tops, but Heaven heard of it.

The report from the Mexico Mission is suggestive of a singular contrast. "The year has been characterized by new outbursts of persecution;" discontinuance of services, imprisonment, personal injuries and even death have been the results of false accusation and mob violence, either instigated or conducted by "reckless Romanists." Thus, while the entire pagan world is receptive to the Gospel, so-called Christian Mexico still soaks her soil with the blood of Protestant missionaries. In the American Republic Protestantism dominates, and Rome believes in toleration. In the Mexican Republic the papacy dominates, and Rome shows the same old iron heel.

A general conference of all Protestant missionaries in Mexico deserves notice, where equitable arrangements were made, by which the different missionary bodies should be guided in the occupancy of fields, and it was decided to submit to the different Boards the question of establishing a Union College.

The Missions in Brazil open the doors to some of the widest possibilities of recent centuries. Brazil's area is nearly half of South America; it would blanket all the United States and Territories, except Alaska; it is a fifteenth part of the globe. This vast area, much of it practically undiscovered, is doubtless to witness another aggregation of the human race, such as we have seen in this country. China and Japan are both looking Brazilward for their crowding peoples. Mixed populations are already there—Portuguese, Poles, Italians, Russians, Germans. Slavery has been a bar to immigration. But "emancipation has begun," is the word of our Board's Annual Report; and even while we are here considering that Report, the cable flashes the news that "Slavery is abolished." Meanwhile the native churches are passing to self-support, and arranging by a reconstruction of Presbyteries and union with churches in connection with the Southern Presbyterian Church, to form the Synod of Brazil, thus constituting One National Church.

But the mighty movements of the East are perhaps the chief marvels of these latter days. The Congo Free State in the heart of the dark continent is as strange an ordering of Providence as history furnishes. The possibilities wrapped up in it are simply tremendous. Our own missions have thus far clung to the coasts. Has not the hour come for a determined advance! What nation owes more to Africa than we? Can it be possible that our seven millions of African descent mean nothing in connection with the problem of the Congo?

Japan is still in the eye of the world. Though scarcely a day's march out of heathendom, she has already adopted the leading ideas of our modern Christian civilization. Her statesmen and editors are lamenting the slow advances and halting feet of the missionaries, for the ethics of our Lord are recognized as her only moral salvation. But the Christian Church has been far from idle. The Japanese Bible has just been completed. Christian educational institutions are fully developed and in successful operation. The institution at Tokio, carried on jointly by our own mission and that of the Reformed Church, has its preparatory, academical, theological and special departments, its commencement, Junior orator exhibition and literary exercises, the Scriptures are taught daily, 168 students are in attendance, and 66 of these are professing Christians. The theological department numbers 32 students, ten of whom are Seniors. All of the last graduating class, with one exception, are now laboring as pastors or home missionaries. We can hardly grasp the significance of these facts. All this reads like a page from the report of an American college or seminary. And yet, yesterday, Japan was pagan. It is no wonder careful observers say that twelve years from now, i. e., in the year 1900, Japan will have 20 Presbyteries, 400 churches, 300 ministers, $200,000 as an annual offering, and tens of thousands of Christians where now there are thousands.

Turning to the Siam and Java Missions, we find here a trust peculiarly our own; for in that little empire of seven millions we are alone. We have the favor of the Government, the confidence, sympathy and financial aid of the King and Queen and Prime Minister, the respect of all races and ranks, and unrestrained access to the people. Surely, as to Siam and Laos, God is saying with exceptional providential emphasis to the Church now met in Philadelphia: "Behold, I have set before thee an open door."

The Mission in Korea begun in 1844, is the youngest child in our Mission circle; but already this infant of days is the mother of a Christian Church numbering nearly thirty members. The Korean New Year has been opened with a week of prayer. Each one of the provincial capitals of the country can now be occupied, and our clerical missionary, the Rev. H. G. Underwood, and others, confidently predict that with the continued and undisturbed reign of the present King, "the advancement of Korea in Christianity, and in all that pertains to Christian civilization, will be even more rapid than that of Japan." And this people, too, turn to America with a face of hope and a heart of trust. Woe be to us if, when they ask for bread, we give them a stone. Two young men, full of promise and just passing from one of our seminaries to their chosen life-work, are under appointment by the Board for this new and hopeful field. May God help them make it one of the brightest jewels in our diadem of missions.

But possibly the world's greatest moral movement is yet to be in the colossal empire of the Orient, of which Japan and Korea seem only the eastern outposts. It almost transcends the power of the imagination to conceive what three hundred and fifty millions of Chinese may become when once they break loose from the shackles of a dead past and get thrilled with the life of to-day. The revolution is coming. Already its foretokens are in the air. The Confucian classics no longer monopolize learning. The fixed and stereotyped standards of education are broken up. Modern science, history, engineering, international law and all practical arts are quickening the activities of thought and enterprise. Extending railroad and telegraph lines mark the new era. Gold mines are worked by modern machinery. Ten high officials have been commissioned to spend two years in traveling through western countries with a view of studying their governments, commerce and arts. An admiral is sent to Europe with thirty-six students for military and naval study. An Anglo-Chinese College has been established at Tientsin, where 300 students will pursue all departments of modern science.

These are some of the significant items that betoken change. They may seem slight, but they are the unquestionable precursors of a great upheaval. Everything is big in China—big populations, big floods, big wars, big famines, big pestilences. The political and moral revolution will be no exception. When it comes the world will never have seen the like. The rumbling of it is caught now by the ears of our missionaries. The Church of God must be ready for it. Dr. Happer takes back to Canton a hundred thousand dollars for the establishment of a Christian college. Twice that sum should be placed in his hands for the endowment and equipment of this intellectual and spiritual discipline. A Presbyterian Academy is organized at Ningpo. A Home Missionary Society is in operation in this same centre of wealth and influence. These are strange agencies, and this is a new nomenclature for the Chinese Empire and for the heathen world.

But it marks the period of anchorage. Institutions betoken permanency. Academies and colleges and seminaries mean an educated and trained native ministry. We call the roll of five theological seminaries in foreign fields at this Centennial Assembly of our beloved Church; Beyrout in Syria, Saharunpur in India, Tokijo in Japan, Canton in China, and Sao Paulo in Brazil. Our colleges and boys' and girls' training schools also are dotting the heathen shores. But what can these few feeble institutions do towards supplying the world's harvest fields with harvesters? They mark the beginning of a new and better era. They mean at last organized ecclesiastical bodies of native ministers in Christian empires of every continent, multiplying victories for God as the drops of the morning. They mean at last every suburb of hell in possession of the Church, every field of the world a home field, and "Foreign Missions" a thing of the past.

But until these pagan continents get out of the shadows and face the eternal morning, it must be our toils and tears and sons and substance that shall be given to help save the lost millions.

For long years yet we will get from our Lord Christ, if we will only listen, this supreme command: "All power is given unto Me in Heaven and in Earth. Go ye, therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you, and lo, I am with you always even unto the end of the world."

Here are the field, the action, the work, the need, the time, the power, the victory. Belief in every item of this great commission is the tremendous lever we must get under our life. The field is "the world;" the action, "go;" the work, making "disciples;" the need, nations perishing; the time, "now" the power, "all power in Heaven and earth;" the victory, the victory of the leaven leavening the whole lump; the victory of the sun, which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race; his going forth being from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it; and nothing hidden from the heat thereof; the victory of the waters of Ezekiel's vision, that grew and grew as they ran from the temple until they became waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over; and deserts and dead seas grew beautiful and full of life at their healing and fruitful touch. There are no miserable contracting lines of pessimism here; there is no preaching the Gospel as a "witness" here; discipling all the nations is not shaking off the dust of our feet in testimony against them; it is the Church shut up to God, thrilled with His life, baptized by His Spirit, inspired by His promises and led by His conquering Son; it is not a "coming" Christ, "Lo, I am with you always;" it is a present, abiding Christ, and upon his vesture and upon His thigh is written, "King of kings and Lord of lords."

Your Committee submit the following resolutions for adoption:

1. That the minutes of the Board be signed as approved.
2. That we here make record of our heartfelt gratitude to God for the long and faithful service of Mr. William Rankin, who for nearly thirty-eight years has been the Board's capable and efficient Treasurer, and who bears with him in his voluntary retirement the affectionate and prayerful interest of the entire Church.
3. That we joyfully recognize the work of the women of our Church in foreign evangelism as of incalculable importance, both in the uplift it is giving the degraded womanhood of heathendom and in the mighty outpush it is giving to the consecrated womanhood of Christendom; we congratulate the Women's Boards upon their splendid advances in benevolent offerings, and we confidently count on rich fruitage to them and to the whole Church of God from this self-sacrificing endeavor.
4. That we regard with peculiar and tender interest the tying of the hearts of children and youth to this world-wide cause by their gifts and prayers; counting the Sabbath-schools and other young people's organizations of our Church as in the line of most fit and beautiful and grateful service for Christ, when seeking thus early to reach the children of heathen homes, and so to help fulfill the prophecy that the streets of the City of God "shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof."

5. That we recognize the advantage of coöperation and union already secured on foreign fields, and approve of the continuance of the same, according to the action of preceding Assemblies.

6. That, in accordance with the suggestion of the Board, we recommend that a visitation of the Missions by the Secretaries be made not less frequently than once in ten years and not more frequently than once in five years.

7. That the first Sabbath of November be observed as a day of prayer, when all our churches and Sabbath-schools and Christian homes may unite in speech, and song, and prayer, and service, to deepen interest in, and consecration to, the work of giving the Gospel to the heathen world.

8. That the week following this Mission Sabbath, or some other week soon succeeding, be devoted to "simultaneous meetings," at centres of influence within the bounds of the respective Synods, for which Synodical or Presbyterial Committees shall make provision, inviting the coöperation of the Secretaries of the Board and the different missionary agencies in the respective local fields. Such an arrangement, made and carried out by the Synod of New Jersey last year, was greatly fruitful.

9. That we enjoin upon pastors and Church officers a wide dissemination of the current literature of missions, that the people may keep pace with the mighty movements of our time, and may realize the possibilities of power and victory before the Church, assured that a sustained and large-hearted Christian liberality must be conditioned on intelligence, and that a swift step through God-opened doors is the only loyal answer to the order of the King.

10. That we make not less than a round million of dollars as our joyful offering to God this coming year for laying at the gates of our beloved Zion, this golden and matchless opportunity to possess much land for Christ.

11. That we confirm the election of Elders Warner Van Norden and Darwin R. James, made by the Board to fill vacancies occasioned by death during the last year.

12. That the following members of the Board, whose term of office expires with this Assembly, be reelected: Charles H. Parkhurst, R. R. Booth, Hooper C. Van Vorst, G. S. Coe, Darwin R. James.

Respectfully submitted,

HERRICK JOHNSON, Chairman.

The following additional resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That a Committee of seven, four ministers and three elders, be appointed to attend the annual sessions of the Presbytery of Rio de Janeiro, to be convened in the city of Rio de Janeiro, on the last Thursday of August of this year, to serve as the Advisory Counsel to our brethren at the organization of the Synod of Brazil—the future General Assembly of that great empire; all without expense to the General Assembly.

The Judicial Committee presented a Report, which was accepted, and is as follows:

The Judicial Committee in former Assemblies has been accustomed to recommend a disposition of cases involving one or only a few points; but as this Assembly has otherwise ordered, we report the cases of Drake against the Synod of Baltimore to be in order, and leave them in the hands of the Assembly.

It was ordered that these two cases be consolidated and be referred to a Judicial Commission of fifteen persons. The Commission was appointed as follows:

Ministers—Calvin W. Stewart, John G. Fackler, Horace H. Allen, James P. Stratton, George P. Folsom, Joseph G. Symmes, Delos E. Wells, William Hamilton; Ruling Elders—George S. Graham, David H. Tullis, George C. McConnell, William A. Blackburn, George W. Benjamin, J. Knox Mitchell, Joseph E. Wyne.

The Moderator announced the following Committees:

On Training of Candidates for the Lord's Supper: Ministers—John Hall, Francis L. Patton; Ruling Elder—George Junkin.

On Unemployed Ministers and Vacant Churches: Ministers—Samuel J. Niccolls, S. J. McPherson, Herrick Johnson; Ruling Elders—E. R. Monfort, E. G. W. Schauffler.

The Report of the Committee of Conference with a like Committee of the Southern Assembly was taken up and discussed, and together with amendments offered, was referred to a Special Committee, consisting of: Ruling Elder—William Strong; Ministers—Howard Crosby, William C. Young, Thomas A. Hoyt, Daniel J. Sanders; Ruling Elders—James A. Beaver and Homer N. Hibbard, to report as soon as practicable.

The Stated Clerk, as Treasurer of the Assembly, was, at his own suggestion, authorized to pay the expenses of the railroad transportation of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States between Baltimore and Philadelphia, said expenses being incurred by that Assembly's acceptance of this Assembly's invitation to joint-participation in the Centennial Exercises.

It was made the first Order of the Day for Monday A.M. to hear the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, and the second Order to hear the Report of the Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church.

It was made the first Order of the Day for Saturday A.M. to hear the Report of the Special Committee on the Report of the Committee of Conference with the Southern Presbyterian Church; the second Order to hear the Report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries; the third Order to hear the Report of the Standing Committee on Temperance, and the fourth Order to hear the Report of the Standing Committee on Benevolence.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 25, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in the interests of Foreign Missions was held in the Academy of Music, in accordance with the arrangements previously made.

SATURDAY, May 26, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and, after devotional services, resumed business.

The records of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

An Overture from the Presbytery of New York, on the importation of intoxicating liquors into the Congo Free State, was referred to the Standing Committee on Temperance.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries presented its Report, which was accepted, and its recommendations adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries respectfully report:

The Reports from our eight theological seminaries, three universities and two German theological schools have been received by your Committee, and they show these institutions to be in a generally prosperous condition.

The number of students in the eight theological seminaries is reported as 607, thus distributed: Princeton, 153; Union, 132; McCormick, 116; Western, 72; Lane, 54; Auburn, 54; San Francisco, 16; Danville, 10. The property owned by these eight aggregates $7,216,000, thus: Union, $2,500,000; Princeton, $1,500,000; McCormick, $1,110,000; Auburn, $720,000; Western, $630,000; Lane, $500,000; Danville, $206,000; San Francisco, $50,000.

The income and expenditures of the eight seminaries for the past year have been as follows (in round numbers):

	Income.	Expenditures.
Union,	$74,000	$82,000
Princeton,	65,000	68,000
Auburn,	38,000	32,000
Western,	33,000	37,000
McCormick,	21,000	32,000
Lane,	20,000	25,000
Danville,	8,000	4,000
San Francisco, not given.

Princeton Seminary reports the resignation of Dr. Francis L. Patton, by reason of his election to the Presidency of the College of New Jersey, but who has, nevertheless, consented to give the Seminary two hours a week for the immediate future. Dr. Benjamin B. Warfield has been elected to the Professorship made vacant by the death of Dr. A. A. Hodge, and Dr. James C. Moffat having resigned his chair, the Rev. George T. Purves has been invited to succeed him. The Rev. John D. Davis, who has been the Instructor in Hebrew, has been elected Professor of Hebrew and the cognate languages.

Auburn Seminary reports the resignation of Dr. Anson J. Upson, who has been made Professor Emeritus, and the election of Dr. Timothy C. Darling in his place.

Union Seminary reports the death of its President, Dr. Roswell D. Hitchcock, and the election of Dr. Thomas S. Hastings as his successor; also, the election of Dr. Marvin R. Vincent to the Chair of Sacred Literature, and the transfer of Dr. Philip Schaff to the Chair of Church History.

The Western Seminary has met with a loss in the burning of Seminary Hall, and gratefully acknowledges the kind courtesy of the First Church, in Allegheny, in offering accommodations, and of the United Presbyterian Theological Seminary in offering to arrange its classes to accommodate the students of the Western Seminary.

McCormick Seminary reports the election of the Rev. John De Witt, as Professor of Apologetics and Missions.

The San Francisco Seminary expresses its gratitude to Mr. W. S. Ladd, of Portland, Oregon, for his munificent gift of $50,000, and is endeavoring to make up another $50,000 by contributions on the Pacific coast.

Blackburn University has 13 theological students, and is preparing them either for the more complete course of the seminaries or for immediate work in the field.

Lincoln University mourns the loss of Dr. Thomas W. Cattell, who, for thirteen years, had filled an important chair in that institution. This University has an endowment, including its property, of $400,000, but calls loudly for more means that it may fill the great demand for thoroughly equipped men in the special field for which it prepares its theological students. Out of its 166 students, 108 are studying for the ministry, and 42 of these are in the Theological Department.

Biddle University is making a like earnest cry for help to indigent students. It has 178 students, owns property worth $76,000, had an income of $8000 last year, but its salaries are paid by the Freedmen's Board.

The two German Theological Schools, the one at Dubuque and the other at Newark, are engaged in a grand work under great stress of poverty. That of the Northwest, at Dubuque, spent only $6000 last year in educating its 29 pupils, depending almost entirely on current contributions. That of Newark spent about $9000 in educating its 30 pupils.

The importance of these schools in furnishing a German ministry for the German population (whose first generation cannot be touched by an English-speaking ministry) cannot be exaggerated. The German immigration is constantly increasing, and it becomes the Church to be increasing its appliances to meet this tide, so largely irreligious, with the Gospel of Christ, which alone can prevent these foreign elements of our citizenship from becoming a destructive power in the nation.

We congratulate the Assembly on the healthy condition of our seminaries and schools, on the devotion and faithfulness of the eminent professors and teachers who fill their chairs, and on the hopeful character of the young men in process of preparation for the Gospel ministry, and we urge the churches to appreciate more highly these schools of the prophets, and to make more abundant provision for their efficiency. Especially should our schools for the evangelization of the negro and the immigrant receive the immediate attention of our wealthy church-members, and large endowments be bestowed upon these hopes of the country against infidelity and vice.

In calling attention to the Reports in detail, as they will be spread upon the minutes, we shall be permitted to make a few suggestions:

1. We are glad to see that our seminaries, as especially shown by the Reports of Princeton and Union, employ their students in active work in Sunday-schools and among the poor and neglected. Such practical engagement of time and effort, must contribute largely toward a preparation for successful pastoral labor, and properly balance the retirement of the class room and cloister. We should like to see this system used uniformly and thoroughly in all our seminaries, bringing each student into contact with living souls and their needs.

2. We would recommend in all our seminaries the direct study of the English Bible, which is to be the immediate weapon of use in the active ministry. While Hebrew and Greek must not be slighted, yet the English Bible should be most familiar to the young man who goes forth with the appointment of the Presbytery, to proclaim the Word to his English-speaking hearers. We fear that this matter is neglected, and that it is wrongly taken for granted that the youth in preparation, are already familiar with the Bible in their own tongue. The preacher should have the English Bible ever at command, so as at once to quote the apposite text for any occasion. This power will give him wonderful strength against cavilers and opponents of every kind, and this power can only be acquired by a thorough drill in the English text. The seminary is the appropriate place for this drill, and there could be no more important part of its curriculum.

3. Another suggestion comes to the minds of your Committee in considering this important subject of seminary education. There is always a tendency in the prosecution of the necessary intellectual studies of a seminary, to slight the direct and positive culture of the heart in the spiritual life, and we should be glad to see in each of our honored seminaries, where professors are unable to perform the duty, the distinctive office of pastor filled by an experienced and devoted man of God, by whom a constant and careful oversight of the students might be had, and through whom they might be ever reminded of the spiritual character of their vocation. Such a pastor would have no mere intellectual instruction to impart, but would deal with the students rather individually than in class, and be their counselor and religious guide. It is a difficult, if not an impossible, thing for a seminary professor with his prescribed class duties to perform to afford this service to the students, however anxious he may be that they should walk humbly and faithfully before the Lord.

4. We are constrained also to make another suggestion, which will not be taken amiss by the right-minded. It is doubtless necessary that heretical views should be made known to the students of theology, and that heretical authors should be quoted; but care should be taken that these heresies should not be presented in more attractive forms than the truth, and that these authors should not be commended and their works urged upon the students' reading. Emphasis should be laid upon the truth as against such heresies and heretics, and errors should be exposed and denounced with earnestness and zeal. There is to-day a vast amount of infidel and semi-infidel writings by professed commentators on the Holy Scriptures and on Scripture history, especially in Germany. These make light of God's Word and treat the Sacred Volume as a mass of rubbish. Only condemnation of such writers should be heard from a seminary professor, whatever may be the secular learning of the infidel authors or their rationalistic imitators. It is not wise nor righteous dealing with young candidates for the Gospel ministry to commend this poison to their minds, when they have no antidote to save them from its insidious action. Truth must be emphasized and all falsehood unsparingly condemned. Excuse or apology for these errors, or any mitigation of their heinousness, coming from a professor, is tantamount to approval in the practical effect upon a young student. The professor, armed in his own mind with all the answers to the arguments of error, must not make himself a standard for the student, to whom these arguments appear conclusive. What is perfectly safe for the professor may be of the utmost danger to the student. We insist upon it that the truth as given in the Bible and the Confession of Faith should be the truth taught in our seminaries. We make these suggestions unhesitatingly, because it is the duty of the General Assembly to watch over its theological seminaries, and to give them such advice as may seem useful and appropriate, and we know well the special dangers which now press upon the Church of Christ from worldliness and from learned infidelity. In our seminaries, as spiritual arsenals, must the proper armor be furnished against these foes of our Lord and His Church, and to our faithful brethren laboring in these schools of the prophets the General Assembly confidently looks for the needed supply.

In concluding our Report, we repeat that we take great pleasure in bearing witness to the growth of our seminaries in numbers and efficiency, and to the devotion of the honored brethren who fill the important posts of instruction, and whose consecrated learning is given to the preparation of laborers for the Lord's harvest. They are men to be admired and loved by all the Church, and their work should have the support of the constant prayers of God's people. Pastors and teachers are in equal honor before God, and they are equally engaged in conquering the world for Christ. The utmost sympathy and accord should exist between the two classes of Church officers, and through the pastors, the teachers and their work should be magnified before the congregations. The Church should furnish large endowments for its seminaries, and the godly youth who desire to enter the ministry should have every advantage offered them in this most important portion of their course. Respectfully submitted,

HOWARD CROSBY, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Temperance presented its Report, which was read, and, after an address by the Rev. W. O. Campbell, on behalf of the Committee on Temperance, was accepted, its resolutions adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee, to which has been referred the Seventh Annual Report of the General Assembly's Permanent Committee on Temperance, as also the Record Book of the Proceedings of said Permanent Committee, would respectfully report that they have given both of them most careful consideration, and are happy to commend the thoroughness and spirit in which the year's work has been done.

The Report was written under the shadow of a great affliction, in the loss of the Committee's Chairman, the Rev. Elliot E. Swift, who departed this life on the 29th of October, 1887. We mourn with the Permanent Committee the loss of this efficient, zealous, pure-hearted worker in the cause of true temperance. "He rests from his labors and his works do follow him."

Your Committee would call the especial attention of the Assembly to several leading points in the Report, and

1. The evident need of more funds, in order to increase the working efficiency of the Permanent Committee. We are glad to note that over a thousand dollars have been voluntarily contributed. We feel, however, that more systematic efforts should be made by the churches in this direct line; and would recommend that the Sabbath-schools especially should be interested and instructed in the principle of giving to aid the cause of temperance.

2. Your Committee would approve the work done during the year, particularly in the preparation and extensive circulation of the best temperance literature. The effort made to place in the hands of our ministers and members, the action and deliverances of the General Assembly on this vital subject throughout its history is highly commended. The grand fact is thus brought out that the Presbyterian Church has ever stood at the front in this noble warfare; being firmly convinced that "if the temperance cause is ever made to triumph, it must be on the platform of God's Word and divinely appointed means and agencies."

Notice should be taken also of the gratifying results obtained in answer to the circulars of inquiry sent out by the Permanent Committee. Positive progress in the work was found, almost without an exception. Associations formed, children educated, communities reformed, temperance instruction in nearly all the churches. And we would respectfully, but earnestly, urge that still greater effort be made in all these lines of progress during the year to come.

We recommend also that Christian people be urged in nowise to countenance or aid the traffic, either by endorsing the bonds or petitions of those engaged in the sale of intoxicating liquors for drinking purposes, or renting buildings for the trade.

3. The suggestive action recommended.

Most of these suggestions meet with our hearty approval, and we would incorporate their leading points with others in the following resolutions, which we respectfully recommend to the General Assembly for adoption:

1. That this Assembly emphatically reiterates the deliverances of all former Assemblies concerning the terrible evil, sin and crime resulting from intemperance and the liquor traffic, and, while disclaiming all connection with or relation to political action or measures, would declare itself unequivocally in favor of the entire suppression of the traffic in intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and that it is the duty of all Christian men and women to use every legitimate means to accomplish this result.

2. That this Assembly recommends to all our Sessions carefully to guard the purity of the Church against the admission of those to her membership who are engaged in the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors for drinking purposes.

3. That this Assembly rejoices in the great work being done by Christian women to promote the cause of temperance, and bids them Godspeed in their endeavors to remove the curse of intemperance from the land.

4. That the Assembly, believing that ignorance is largely the mother of vice, commends the effort now being made in many States to educate our youth in the knowledge of the effects of alcohol upon the human system.

5. Whereas, The exportation of intoxicating liquors to heathen lands has become a most alarming hindrance to the civilization and Christianization of the inhabitants thereof, and as this traffic is assuming such proportions in the great Congo Valley of Africa, by virtue of an international treaty in which our own government is a party; and,

Whereas, Overtures have come up to the Assembly from the Synod of Columbia and the Presbytery of Westchester asking it to take some action thereon; therefore,

Resolved, That the Assembly views with shame, horror and apprehension the progress of this traffic by civilized nations with ignorant and heathen lands; that the Assembly unite as far as possible with other Churches in an effort to induce Christian governments to prevent and abolish the horrible practice of carrying intoxicants into the uncivilized nations of the world, and that a Committee be appointed to lay this whole matter before His Excellency, the President of the United States, with the request that he would present the facts to Congress, and ask that such steps may be taken with the least possible delay as will free us as a Christian nation, from all complicity with this ruinous traffic, especially as regards the treaty concerning the Congo Free State.

6. That the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Temperance be continued and recommended to the confidence, prayers and benevolence of the Church, and that its recommendation be emphasized that all Presbyteries which have not already done so, be urged to appoint efficient Temperance Committees to supervise the work within their bounds.

7. That as the terms of service of the Rev. William J. Holland, Rev. Neville B. C. Comingo, Messrs. Thomas H. Rabe and C. L. Rose have now expired, they be reelected to membership in the Permanent Committee, and that the Rev. T. H. Robinson be elected to fill the place of the Rev. Elliot E. Swift, deceased, and the Rev. J. J. Beacom be elected to succeed the Rev. J. P. E. Kumler, resigned.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WILLIAM N. PAGE, Chairman.

The Special Committee to which was referred the Report of the Committee of Conference with a Committee of the Southern Assembly and other papers presented its Report, which was unanimously adopted. The Stated Clerk was directed to transmit the Report to the Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, now in session in Baltimore. The Report is as follows:

1. The Assembly would commend the fidelity and efficiency of the Committee on Conference in the performance of the delicate and important work entrusted to it.

2. While it would be premature and improper to consider the Report of the Committee as furnishing a definite and formal basis of union, inasmuch as that subject is not properly before us, the Assembly does yet declare its hearty approval of the general principles enunciated in the replies of the Committee to the inquiries propounded by our Southern brethren, as furnishing substantially a reflection of the views of this body touching the several subjects to which they relate.

3. The Assembly devoutly cherishes the hope that the Centennial Celebration, in which the representatives of the two Churches have within the past few days so cordially united, may prove the beginning of an era of closer fellowship and more cordial coöperation in the conduct of their work for Christ, and for the more effectual performance of this, recommends that the Committee be enlarged by five new members and be continued, with instructions to confer with a similar Committee of the other Assembly, if it should be appointed, in devising such methods of conducting our common work, both at home and abroad, as shall open the door to the fullest and heartiest coöperation.

4. This Assembly expresses the conviction that the most effective form of coöperation can be secured only by an organic union of the two Churches, and hereby declares once more its full confidence in the Southern Assembly, and its readiness to enter upon negotiations looking to that result whenever, in their judgment, it may be deemed advisable.

We recommend that the following persons be added to the Committee: Ministers—Henry Darling, Charles S. Pomeroy, William C. Young; Ruling Elders—Samuel M. Breckinridge, Henry M. Knox.

WILLIAM STRONG, Chairman.

The following is the Report of the Committee of Conference with a like Committee of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, referred to above:

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly ("Minutes," 1887, pp. 127, 128), to confer with a like Committee appointed by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, respectfully report:

That they held a meeting at Spring Lake, New Jersey, in August last, when they discussed informally the scope of their appointment, and the questions which were likely to come before them, so as to be prepared for a joint conference, which had been appointed to be held in Louisville, Kentucky, on December 14.

At the meeting in Louisville all the members were present except the Rev. E. P. Humphrey, who died just before the time appointed for the conference. In his stead the Moderator appointed the Rev. William E. Moore.

After an informal session the Committee met in conference with the Committee of the Southern Church, in accordance with the following invitation:

To the Rev. Joseph T. Smith, Chairman of the Committee of Conference of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

DEAR BROTHER: The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, at its meeting in St. Louis, Mo., adopted the following preamble and resolution in reference to organic union with the Church your Committee represents:

Whereas, A number of Overtures in reference to closer relations to the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America have come up to this Assembly; and,

Whereas, The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America has just adopted the deliverance of the two Synods of Missouri on the spirituality of the Church; and,

Whereas, The two Assemblies ought to labor together for the accomplishment of the great object they have in view, if they are sufficiently agreed in their principles to make them more efficient for their work united than they are now divided; and,

Whereas, The recent action of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, apparently different from their former action as to the spirituality of the Church, makes the impression on the minds of many of our people that one obstacle to closer relations to that Church has been, or soon may be, removed; therefore,

Resolved, That a Committee of four ministers and four ruling elders, together with the Moderator, be appointed to meet with a similar Committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, if such a Committee shall be appointed, for the sole purpose of inquiring into and ascertaining the facts as to the point above mentioned and as to the position that Assembly proposes to maintain as to colored churches, Ecclesiastical Boards, and any other subjects now regarded as obstacles in the way of united effort for the propagation of the Gospel, and report these facts to the next General Assembly for such action as they may warrant.

In accordance with this action, the following Committee was appointed: Rev. Drs. G. B. Strickler, M. D. Hoge, J. R. Wilson, T. D. Witherspoon, W. F. Junkin, and Elders W. M. McPheeters, M.D., P. H. Carter, R. T. Simpson and W. S. Primrose.

I have the honor to inform you that this Committee, by arrangement with your Committee, is now present to discharge the duty imposed upon it.

We respectfully suggest that a joint meeting of the two Committees be held to-night. After that, we desire, with your permission very respectfully to address to you such communications as will secure the information we are appointed to obtain. And just here I beg to say that since a misapprehension has arisen in some quarters because of our appointment, with instructions to institute inquiries rather than to confer with your Committee touching differences which are alleged to exist between the two bodies on questions of doctrine and polity, our Committee takes this early opportunity at its preliminary meeting to declare that we are as ready to receive inquiries as to propound them, and that the sole object of our appointment was to ascertain, in fraternal conference with the Committee of your Assembly, the points of difference between our Churches, if such exist, that we may make a clear and authentic report of the information thus secured for the consideration of the Assembly we represent.

Praying that the blessing of the Great Head of the Church may rest on our conference and that His glory may thereby be promoted,

I remain yours, fraternally,

G. B. STRICKLER,

Chairman Committee Presbyterian Church in U. S.

To this invitation reply was made as follows:

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 14, 1887.

To the Rev. G. B. Strickler:

DEAR BROTHER: Yours of this date just received. The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, at its recent meeting at Omaha, Neb., in May, 1887, took action as follows:

Resolved, That a Committee of four ministers and four ruling elders, with the Moderator of this Assembly added thereto, as ex-officio Chairman, be appointed by the present Moderator of this Assembly to confer with a like Committee appointed by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, concerning the whole subject of organic union, coöperative union and every other relation between the two Assemblies; and that said Committee be directed to report the result of the joint conference to the Assembly at its next meeting, in May, 1888, for its approval or disapproval.

Resolved, That the officers of this Assembly be instructed to notify the General Assembly sitting at St. Louis that we have appointed a Committee of Conference, without specific instructions, except to report their action to our next Assembly for approval.

The following Committee was appointed: Ministers—Joseph T. Smith, David O. Marquis, Edward P. Humphrey, James T. Leftwich, Robert M. Patterson; Elders—George H. Shields, Warner Van Norden, Johnson H. Baldwin, William H. Averill.

Owing to the death of the Rev. Dr. Humphrey, the Rev. William E. Moore was appointed in his stead.

I have the honor and the pleasure to inform you that the Committee above named are present and prepared to enter upon the duties assigned them.

I acknowledge the receipt of your fraternal letter, and on behalf of the Committee accept your proposition for an informal conference with your Committee this evening at 8 o'clock.

Reciprocating your kind wishes for the blessing of our common Lord, I am, yours truly,

JOSEPH T. SMITH, Chairman.

After a full and free conference, continuing the greater part of three days, the following communication was received from the Rev. Dr. Strickler, the Chairman of the Southern Committee:

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 16, 1887.

To the Rev. J. T. Smith, D.D., Chairman, etc.:

DEAR BROTHER: Our delightful conference with your Committee having come to a close, we desire to express our hearty appreciation of the Christian courtesy with which your Committee responded to our request for the information we were appointed to obtain, and the pleasure we experienced in our association with them in worship and in consultation.

I. We desire now, in obedience to the instructions of our Assembly, very respectfully to request your aid to enable us to ascertain the doctrine of your Assembly on the subject of the spirituality of the Church. We refer, of course, specially to what are known as "political deliverances."

The doctrine of our Church on this subject will be found in the well-known passages in our Standards, and in the Address of our Assembly to the Churches of the world in 1861, to which you are referred.

As to the doctrine of your Church, we are aware, of course, of the deliverance made by your last Assembly; and as that deliverance is expressed substantially in the language of your Standards and of ours, it would be regarded by us as containing the information we seek, were we sure we understood what is meant. Apparently it contravenes former deliverances, and, therefore, we cannot be certain that we understand your present position, unless we can be assured that your Church, as now constituted, holds on this subject views different from those entertained by the two Assemblies you succeed.

II. The relation of the colored people in the South to the Church, or their incorporation into it, present questions of the most serious importance, and all efforts for united action in this work must be very largely controlled by the principles which shall underlie such action, and the policy which shall be adopted in reference to this vital subject.

In our Church, entire independence of the colored people in their Church organization is the policy which has been adopted; coupled with the largest possible measure of aid, spiritual, intellectual and material, which can be given by our Church and people to our colored brethren.

It will throw much light upon the questions involved, and largely aid us in the effort to furnish our General Assembly with the information they have directed us to seek, if you will indicate to us the views, as to principles and policy, which will be recognized as essential by your Assembly in the settlement of this vital feature of the united effort which is proposed.

III. Inasmuch as, upon the floor of our last General Assembly, there was manifested great difference of opinion as to the powers and responsibilities of the Ecclesiastical Boards of your Church, this was included amongst the subjects upon which we were directed to ask information in this conference with you. We would therefore respectfully request that, in view of the importance of a thorough understanding on the part of each Church of the practical methods of Church work in use by the other, you will do us the kindness to give us the facts as far as they are in your possession going to show what all the powers and responsibilities of the Boards of your Church, and to what extent these Boards are under the control of your General Assembly.

DECEMBER 16, 1887.

Rev. J. T. Smith, D.D., Chairman, etc.:

DEAR BROTHER: Our Committee, having conferred with yours at considerable length and with much particularity upon the subject of doctrine in its various aspects, and this greatly to our own satisfaction, still find it necessary, in view of the report which is required for the information of the Assembly we represent, to request of your Committee to state in writing the substance of what you were pleased to communicate to us orally upon some of these matters of interest, as for example, and mainly:

IV. The attitude of opinion within the bounds of your Assembly touching those portions of the Confession of Faith which more specifically involve the great system of truth known as the Calvinistic—and particularly whether there is traceable any distinct tincture of such Pelagian and semi-Pelagian heresies as were matter for controversy in 1837.

G. B. STRICKLER, Chairman of Committee.

The following letter was addressed to the Chairman of the Southern Committee:

LOUISVILLE, December 16, 1887.

Rev. G. B. Strickler, D.D., Chairman:

REVEREND AND DEAR BROTHER: We had hoped before the adjournment of our Committee to have had a final interview with the members of your Committee. Failing to find them, I communicated to you in person the message I had hoped to impart to the entire Committee. We found, from the fact that one of our Committee had left, and others were under the necessity of leaving this evening, that in the little time at our command it would be impracticable to frame such a reply to your communication as was wished.

We, therefore, adjourned to meet in Baltimore in January, on a day to be named by the Chairman. The result of our deliberations will be communicated to you at once.

The Committee I represent, reciprocate most cordially your expressions of fraternal kindness and esteem. Our interview was in every way delightful to them. And as we talked together of the things pertaining to the King, we felt that our heart was as your heart.

With kindest regards to yourself and the brethren of your Committee, all of whom we have learned to love,

Yours in Christ,

J. T. SMITH, Chairman.

BALTIMORE, MD., January 31, 1888, 8 P.M.

The Committee met at the call of the Chairman. All the members present, and was opened with prayer. The papers presented by the Southern Committee were read and referred to Sub-committees, to report to-morrow at 4 P.M., when the several answers were considered and ordered to be printed in type-writing, to be presented to-morrow at 10 A.M. Accordingly, February 2, after full conference, the answers to the communications of the Committee of the Southern Assembly were unanimously adopted.

Rev. G. B. Strickler, D.D.:

DEAR BROTHER: Your communication of the 16th December has been received and laid before the Committee, of which I am Chairman. I am instructed by the Committee to say that they reciprocate to the fullest extent your expression of fraternal regard. The longer our intercourse was protracted the more closely we felt ourselves drawn to the members of your Committee, and whatever may be the immediate outcome of our deliberations we will ever cherish the memory of our delightful intercourse at Louisville, and the full, free and cordial interchange of opinions for which it furnished the occasion.

We regret that the lateness of the hour at which your paper was put in our hands, and the necessary absence of several members of this Committee, made a delay to this reply necessary.

1. Touching our doctrine of the spirituality of the Church: Our Committee beg leave to say that we do not conceive it to be any part of the duty with which we are charged, to sit in judgment upon the consistency of our Church with itself, at different periods of its history; or to institute any comparison with a view to this end, between the earlier and later deliverances of its successive Assemblies; but rather to represent the present attitude of our Church towards certain issues which are regarded as pending between the bodies which we respectively represent.

Our reunited Assembly has no other doctrine on the whole subject involved in this question than that quoted in the Omaha paper referred to by you, to wit: "Synods and Councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical; and are not to meddle with civil affairs which concern the commonwealth, unless by way of humble petition in cases extraordinary, or by way of advice for the satisfaction of conscience, if they be thereunto required by the Civil Magistrate." Confession of Faith, Ch. xxxi, Sec. 4.

This is the language of the Confession of Faith, which is held equally binding by your Church and ours. We hold that the rule shall not be read without the exceptions, nor the exceptions without the rule; both are equally binding as essential elements of the Article in question, and the exceptions justify "intermeddling in civil affairs" under the specified conditions.

It is in accordance with this that our General Assembly is charged—Form of Government, Ch. xii, Sec. 5—with the duty of "recommending and attempting the reformation of manners, and the promotion of charity, truth and holiness throughout the churches under its care."

We are glad to see that in accordance with your Book of Church Order, Part 1, Ch. v, Sec. 2, pp. 18-20, your "Church Courts can make no laws binding the conscience, but may frame symbols of faith, bear testimony against error in doctrine and immorality in practice within or without the pale of the Church," and "decide questions of conscience," and further that "every Court has the right to resolve questions of doctrine and discipline, seriously and reasonably proposed, and in general to maintain truth and righteousness, condemning erroneous opinions and practices which tend to the injury of the peace, purity and progress of the Church." These statements of doctrine are even stronger than those of our Church, and certainly justify the bearing of testimony against immorality, even though, the "commonwealth" may be dealing with the same questions in their political relations.

We would not regard the fact that a question of public morals is involved in politics, as absolving us from the duty, or depriving us of the right of attempting, in accordance with our Standards, this "Reformation of Manners" in such cases. We disclaim all power as a Church "to intermeddle with civil affairs which concern the commonwealth" save as indicated in the Confession and pointed out in the powers attributed to the judicatories of the Church, as cited above.

2. As to the relations of the colored people in the South to the Church: Our Church is not in favor of setting off its colored members into a separate, independent organization. We believe that we have a great work to do among the colored people for their own salvation and for the good of the country; and that this is to be done by recognizing those who are in the Church, as entitled to all the rights and privileges that are involved in Church membership and ordination. We believe, too, that the great work among them can only be fully done by our churches reunited as one, and this is one strong motive prompting us in our desire for reunion.

We believe that the best interests of the Church, and of the colored people themselves, demand a careful supervision of their churches, in order that the principles of Presbyterianism be inculcated and preserved; that a well-defined system of moral and Scriptural education of the colored people is necessary to their advancement in religion; and that the unity of the Church requires that the evangelization of these people should be continued under the direction of the General Assembly.

On the other hand, our General Assembly has recognized that this work of evangelization is best accomplished by the education of colored ministers, and the organization of churches composed of colored members, and of those connected with this work. It has also organized them into Presbyteries and Synods, and has given such Presbyteries full representation in the General Assembly.

From observation and investigation this Committee believe that this policy is preferred by the colored people themselves, not only because of social reasons, but because they recognize the educational power of self-management in their local organizations.

We are of the opinion that our Assembly will agree to a basis of organic union, by which the present boundaries and constituencies of Presbyteries and Synods in the South shall remain in statu quo, to be changed only with the consent of the parties interested; and that all new churches and new Presbyteries hereafter established shall be organized by and received into connection with Presbyteries and Synods respectively, as the interested parties may mutually agree.

3. As regards the question of Boards: The Boards of our Church are eight in number. Of these the Board of Education, Home Missions and Foreign Missions were organized prior to 1837; the Board of Publication in 1838, while yet our Church was a constituent part of the General Assembly. These Boards are chartered corporations, under the name of "Boards," or "Trustees of Boards."

By the terms of these charters they are declared to be the agents of the General Assembly, organized for certain specified objects and subject to the Assembly's direction and control. Their powers are defined and delegated, the policy is shaped and the work outlined by the Assembly, and they are immediately responsible to the General Assembly for what they do and for the manner of doing it. Their entire work, including "Minutes of Proceedings" and "Books of Accounts," is submitted to each General Assembly for approval or disapproval. The General Assembly has absolute control of the Constitution, Rules of Operation and Official Membership, electing one-third of each Board annually, and can modify, change or abolish them as it may deem best.

In illustration, we refer you to the complete organization of the Board of Foreign Missions in 1870; to the action touching the Board of Home Missions in 1883; to the reconstruction, change of name and modes of operation of the Board of Publication in 1887. In short, the Boards are but the Assembly's Executive Commissions, to do its bidding under the general law of the Church, and they are held to a strict account of their stewardship. It is difficult to see wherein Committees, all of whose members are appointed annually, could be more entirely subject to the government and control of the Church.

4. As to your fourth inquiry, concerning the existence of heresy in the Church: Our answer is given only with a view to enable your Committee to correct the misapprehension, which you say exists in your Church on this subject, in order that you may lay the facts before your Assembly. We answer emphatically in the negative. In respect to this subject of doctrine, in its various aspects, we say that so far as our knowledge goes (and it embraces the records of all our Judicatories) there is no question of doctrine or of polity agitating any part of our Church. The reunion of 1869 was effected on the basis of the Standards without condition, and we believe that the subscription to these Standards on the part of our ministers and elders is frank, sincere and without reservation.

In conclusion, permit us to express the hope that our conference thus far may have disclosed such substantial unity of belief and practice between our two Assemblies as will induce your Assembly to continue and enlarge the powers of your Committee for the purpose of full conference on the subject of organic reunion with a similar Committee of our General Assembly.

We wish frankly to add that, while our Church is heartily in favor of organic reunion with yours, we do not believe that such reunion is desirable, or could ever be effective in the great work of the Master, unless it be consummated with the fullest confidence in the Christian character and doctrinal soundness of each other, upon terms of perfect equality and reciprocity, with an earnest and sincere desire to maintain the unity of the Church and our common faith, and on the basis of a candid and sincere acceptance of our common Standards.

Adopted by the Committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and respectfully submitted to the Committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

The Committee of the Southern Church under the terms of their appointment were not required to take any action upon the answer of your Committee, but simply to report to their Assembly. Nor is the answer of your Committee authoritative until approved by the General Assembly. Your Committee, therefore, recommend that this Assembly endorse their answer as expressing the views of the Assembly and of the Church, and that the Assembly of the Southern Church be notified of this action.

J. T. SMITH, Chairman.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported :

Overture No. 36, from the Presbytery of Cincinnati, asking that an Overture be sent down to the Presbyteries, proposing to strike out from Chapter XXIV, Section 6, of the Confession of Faith, the following words: "Or such willful desertion as can in no way be remedied by the Church or civil magistrate."

It is recommended that it be considered inexpedient to take any action on this Overture. But in connection with the subject, and in view of the importance of the question of divorce, the Committee further recommends that a brief opportunity for addressing the Assembly be given to the Secretary of the National Divorce Reform League, the Rev. Charles W. Dike.

Overture No. 37, from the Presbytery of Redstone, desiring, in view of this important period in the history of our Church, that a time may be appointed when the Church shall consider more fully its relations to the Holy Spirit, and pray for His promised baptism.

It is recommended that this request be referred to the Committee on Days of Prayer.

Overture No. 38, from the Presbytery of Athens; No. 39, from the Presbytery of Chicago, and No. 40, from the Presbytery of Osborne, urging action by the Assembly concerning the order of the Government forbidding the use of the vernacular in the Indian missionary schools.

It is recommended that these be referred to the Committee appointed to confer, on this subject, with the President of the United States.

Overture No. 41, from the Presbytery of Springfield, concerning the systematic study of the English Bible in our theological seminaries.

It is recommended that this be referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The recommendations were severally adopted.

The Committee on Mileage was authorized to pay the bills of Commissioners to this General Assembly in accordance with the regulations of the Mileage System.

The following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That the resolution of the Assembly (Resolution 2 of the Report of the Standing Committee), appreciative of the services of Mr. William Rankin, be suitably engrossed, signed by the Moderator and Stated Clerk, appropriately framed and conveyed to Mr. Rankin by the Stated Clerk.

It was made the second Order of the Day for Monday P.M. to hear the Special Report of the Standing Committee on Freedmen.

Communications from the "Universal Peace Union and Peace Society," and from the "Arbitration and Peace Society," were referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Judicial Commission, in the case of the complaint of the Rev. T. S. Hamlin et al. vs. the Synod of Baltimore, made its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Judicial Commission, appointed to try the matter of the complaint of the Rev. T. S. Hamlin and others, against the Synod of Baltimore, beg leave to report that they convened at the appointed time and place on Wednesday, the 23d inst., all the members being present except Messrs. W. C. Young, J. G. Rankin, Baily and King. After prayer by the Chairman, the Rev. C. R. Shields was appointed Clerk of the Commission. The Rev. T. S. Hamlin, complainant, and Charles D. Drake, in behalf of the Synod as respondent, appeared as the representatives of the parties, and by their joint request the Rev. Thomas S. Childs was appointed counsel to assist Rev. T. S. Hamlin, and the Rev. Byron Sunderland to assist Judge Drake in the management of the case. The records of the inferior courts, and all the papers pertaining to the issue, were read, and the parties were fully heard, after which the Commission, not being called to consider the merits of the original case, with due deliberation came to the unanimous judgment which they now report to the Assembly.

The following is a statement of the case: The Rev. Francis M. Todd, a member of the Presbytery of Washington City, had been tried by that body, sitting in a judicial capacity, on serious charges affecting his moral character, and the finding of the court, as expressed in its final vote on "the calling of the role," was, "Not Sustained." The Presbytery, however, subsequently expressed its judgment in the following record, viz.: "That under the provision of the Book of Discipline, Chapter viii, Sec. 58, a charge may be proven by the testimony of one witness, only when supported by other evidence; a majority of the Judicatory have voted not to sustain the specification and charges against said Todd, such judgment being rendered, owing to the fact that the supporting evidence to the principal witness, is insufficient."

From this recorded judgment Mr. Todd appealed to the Synod of Baltimore upon several grounds, but chiefly for the reasons of its inconsistency with the verdict of acquittal previously rendered, and the unjust and damaging effect of the subsequent record upon his character. The Synod of Baltimore, by a very decided vote, sustained this appeal, and directed the Presbytery "to record in their minutes the verdict expressed in their vote "Not to Sustain," viz., "Not Guilty." And it is against this decision of the Synod that the present complaint has been brought.

The judgment of the Commission is that the decision of the Synod was right and ought to be sustained, and consequently that the complaint should be dismissed.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

In behalf of the Commission,

JAMES I. BROWNSON, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions made further Report, concerning the letter addressed to the General Assembly from Shantung, and signed by fourteen hundred and twenty-five members of the Church in Shantung, pleading the urgency of the need of more ministers and medical missionaries. Your Committee would recommend that the letter be referred to our Board of Foreign Missions, with the earnest hope that some provision may be made by the Board to meet this pressing necessity. But, as the Board must be the final judge of the relative urgency of need in different parts of the world-wide field, and must have special knowledge of the situation that cannot be had by the Assembly, it is not deemed advisable by the Assembly, beyond the expression of deep sympathetic interest in these scattered and too largely pastorless people, and the commendation of their cause to the considerate attention of our Foreign Board, to take any further action on this subject.

The Report was approved.

Pending the further report in the case of the complaint of Rev. John M. W. Farnham, the Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 28, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met and, after devotional services, was opened with prayer.

The minutes of Saturday's session were read and approved.

CEDAR RAPIDS, IA., May 26, 1888.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in Session at Philadelphia, Pa.:

The United Presbyterian Church of North America sends congratulations on your reaching the Centennial of your history, and

"now God Himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ make you to increase and abound in love one toward another and toward all men, even as we do toward you: to the end He may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints."

W. T. MELOY, Moderator.

WILLIAM J. REID, Principal Clerk.

To this telegram appropriate response was made by the Moderator and Stated Clerk.

The Report of the Judicial Committee in the case of Rev. N. West was made the second Order for this afternoon, and the supplementary Report of the Committee on Foreign Missions in the case of the Rev. J. M. W. Farnham was made the third Order.

The following resolutions were referred to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, with the Assembly's approval:

Resolved, That the General Assembly advise the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work to have the Revised Book of Discipline translated into the German language.

Resolved, That the Board be advised to publish in the German language the Shorter Catechism, Form of Government, Book of Discipline, and Directory for Worship, in separate form; inasmuch as the Confession of Faith in toto is too expensive for general distribution.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work presented its Report, which was read, and, after addresses by the Rev. E. R. Craven, the General Secretary, and the Rev. James A. Worden, Secretary of the Sabbath-school Work, was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee to which was referred the Fiftieth Annual Report of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work ask the Assembly leave to report as follows, viz.:

1. We find the exhibit of the Board's organization and work in a high degree satisfactory. This Board is now divided into three departments, viz.: Sabbath-school and Missionary, Editorial and Business. The Board with its three departments is under the direction of a Secretary invested with powers similar to those given to other Board Secretaries. The simplicity and force of the new organization have been demonstrated by the results of its first year's work.

2. In examining the Board's Report in the order of its departments the Committee have noted with great interest the fact that the work of the Sabbath-school and its associated Missionary department has fallen into vigorous hands. As now constituted, this department of Church work has for its chief aim not the sale of books—not even the Board's own publications—but to send competent men to search out destitute regions and if possible organize Sabbath-schools. This work furnishes employment for young laymen, who are able to do effective work in holding meetings, organizing and conducting Sabbath-schools, and visiting people who have few or no religious privileges. It seems to your Committee that this is a very important part of this Board's mission. The itinerant bookseller is superseded by the Sabbath-school missionary. His chief object is to seek and save the lost.

This missionary part of the Board's work seems to us one of paramount importance, and under the careful instructions of its officers one that cannot be too heartily emphasized.

There is an important part of this missionary agency to which we desire especially to direct the attention of the General Assembly. We refer to the employment of theological students who have finished the studies of the Junior year in the seminary. These are called Sabbath-school missionaries. The Report, as printed, gives the names of fifty-five such young men and the theological seminaries at which they have studied. Since the printing of the Report several other theological Juniors have been commissioned. These young men have been sent to fields at the West, Michigan and Kentucky being the farthest East, and Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas being the farthest West.

These young men work under "Instructions" which your Committee by Sub-committee have examined. They have been prepared with extreme care by the Secretary and his assistants and approved by the Board itself. The anticipations of the Board that this Sabbath-school missionary movement must have large and precious results seem to us certain to be realized. And so deeply have your Committee been impressed with the importance and promise of this work, that we suggest that it be enlarged in the field of its operation as fast as may seem wise to the Board itself. It now reaches a vast field, but there are still larger fields that need the same help.

One point deserves to be specially emphasized that is not generally appreciated in the Church. One of the functions of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department is the distribution of our literature by grant. Grants are made by the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee, by the Secretary and Superintendent, and within their specified limits by Sabbath-school missionaries. These grants are of books, lesson-helps and periodicals to needy individuals, Sabbath-schools, churches and theological seminaries throughout the world. Grants have been made during the last year not only to applicants in all portions of our own land, North and South, amongst Mormons, Indians, Freedmen, but in China, India, Persia, Turkey, Liberia, Gaboon, Brazil and Mexico. In view of this function, the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work is the only ecumenical Board connected with our Church.

Special attention also should be called to the offering of a prize Bible to every young person, who shall be certified to the Board as having committed perfectly to memory, during the year, the Westminster Shorter Catechism. This has proved a great stimulus to the study of this most important symbol of our Church. The offer was made only in December last, and at the close of the year covered by the Report, March 31, 606 Bibles had been awarded.

We also notice with great satisfaction the growing success of the Bible Correspondence School, which is carried on in the interest of the training of Sabbath-school teachers, and of the more advanced study of the Holy Scriptures.

8. The Report of the Board shows its work in the Editorial Department. There have been previously printed and published many volumes and tracts of great value. During the year under review there have been added to this list twenty-three new bound volumes and eleven tracts. Besides these there have been printed valuable periodicals to help in the Sabbath-school work, viz.: The Westminster Teacher, The Westminster Question Book, The Westminster Quarterly, The Westminster Primary Quarterly, The Westminster Lesson Leaf, The Westminster Primary Lessons, and the German Lesson Leaf. In addition there have been printed and published four illustrated papers, viz.: Forward, The Sabbath-school Visitor, The Morning Star, and The Sunbeam. And not merely should our pastors and elders help on the circulation of the Board's volumes, but of its charming and helpful periodical literature. We shall in so doing do good work for our Church and so for our Master. The sales and circulation of these books and periodicals should be earnestly pressed, so as to secure a great enlargement of this part of the Church's work.

And at this point the Committee desire to call attention to The Church at Home and Abroad. We might speak of its excellencies, and so commend its still wider circulation. But this Board is only an agent for the printing and publication of this important Church periodical. The business of printing and publishing it is conducted entirely by the Business Superintendent, for which the Board makes no charges, and no commission is received on the transaction.

4. The Committee have received from the Secretary and Business Superintendent a balance sheet and other financial reports, which exhibit the year's business of the Board. These papers were placed in the hands of two gentlemen of our Committee, whose experience as bank officers has been extensive, and their Report is added as the Report of the Committee itself. The Subcommittee say: "We find the business statements of the Report to be supported by the more detailed statements from which they have been compiled, and to which figures in detail we have been given free access by the officers of the Board. There is gratifying evidence in all we saw that the accounts are kept in a thoroughly systematic, business-like and intelligible way. The business methods of the Board deserve the most emphatic endorsement of this Committee."

From this it will be seen that your Committee are agreed in the judgment that the General Assembly, in its Board of Publication, has a valuable and strong agent for accomplishing an important part of its work, and that it deserves the entire confidence of the Church. The Committee also suggest that, realizing the need of Sabbath-school missionary work, to enable the Presbyterian Church to do its part, in reaching the millions of children and youth perishing in this land outside of all Sabbath-schools, the General Assembly call upon our churches and Sabbath-schools this year to contribute $150,000 to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department of this Board, and request all pastors and elders and superintendents to acquaint themselves with this work, and to make persistent efforts to secure large gifts for this purpose.

Also, that this Assembly approve of the observance of the second Sabbath in June as "Children's Day," and urge all Presbyterian Sabbath-schools on that day to press upon the minds and hearts of the youth the claims of the Gospel of Christ to their immediate acceptance and to make this a great missionary day on which large contributions shall be given to the cause of Sabbath-school missions carried on by this Board.

The Committee recommend the reelection of the following gentlemen, whose term of office expires in May, 1888, viz.: Ministers—William Brenton Greene, Jr., Loyal Young Graham, William Dayton Roberts, Robert H. Fulton; Elders—Archibald McIntyre, William L. Dubois, Francis B. Reeves, William W. Allen.

The Committee also recommend the election of Elder John H. Watt as a member of the Class of '89, he having been appointed to fill a vacancy caused by the declination of Mr. William L. Mactier.

The following resolutions are respectfully offered for adoption:

Resolved, That the work of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, in the good judgment and the zeal and devotion which characterize it, meets the warm approval of the General Assembly, and is commended to the Church as a valuable agent in the Master's work and worthy of hearty support.

Resolved, That the financial condition and methods of the Business Department commend it to the entire confidence of the Church.

Resolved, That the General Assembly would strongly urge upon pastors and Sabbath-schools the observance of Children's Day, on the second Sabbath of June, and that every effort be used to make the day a precious means of grace to the children on which the Lord will surely smile, and that the collections on this day be devoted to the Sabbath-school and mission work of this Board.

Resolved, That, in view of the hopefulness of the work of the Board and the ever-widening field of its usefulness, we commend it to the liberality of the Church, and recommend the raising during the year now opening of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH F. TUTTLE, Chairman.

The following additional resolution was referred to the Board of Publication, with the approval of the Assembly and power to act:

Resolved, That the Board of Publication be authorized to send to each pastor and Stated Supply of our Church a half-dozen sample copies of such tracts as "Ten Reasons for Being a Presbyterian," to be distributed to members of Sessions, in the hope that Sessions will take measures to introduce the same or similar literature among the families and members of the Church.

The Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church reported. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church respectfully report as follows, viz.:

Overture No. 1, from the Presbytery of Larned, asking: "May a minister of the Presbyterian Church receive members, by examination and profession of their faith, into a church in which no ruling elder or elders can be found, all having died or removed from the bounds of the church, and would members so received and recognized by the congregation and chosen as officers of the church be legally entitled to their position as church officers?"

Your Committee recommend an affirmative answer to these questions, provided such action is taken under the authority and direction of the Presbytery.

Overture No. 2, from the Presbytery of West Jersey, asking whether a number of professing Christians associated for divine worship, accepting the Constitution and Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church, and organized, on their own petition, by a Committee or Commission of Presbytery, constitute, with their offspring, a particular Presbyterian Church before the election of ruling elders and deacons; whether such a body of believers, so organized, has a right to be enrolled as a church by the Presbytery, though the election of elders and deacons be postponed temporarily for reasons of prudence or necessity; and further, what is the status of such a church, or of one which has lost its officers by death or removal, and, for the time being, is without suitable material for the election of successors?

We recommend the answer that a body of Christians thus formed is essentially and potentially a church, with the right of enrollment and recognition, though not prepared to exercise the functions of government and discipline until its representative officers, as required by the Presbyterian system, be chosen and duly set apart for these purposes. Meanwhile the Presbytery should appoint one or more of its members to take oversight of the spiritual affairs of such a church until a Session may be regularly constituted.

Overture No. 3, from the Presbytery of Lodiana, inquiring whether, in the trial of an appeal, a higher court, discovering one or more errors in the proceedings of the court below, is bound by Section 99 (5) of the Book of Discipline, to reverse or modify the judgment of the inferior judicatory or else remand the case for a new trial.

Clearly there is no such requirement, but, on the contrary, "the judicatory shall determine," in its own discretion, whether "the judgment of the inferior judicatory shall be reversed or modified," or "the case remanded," and that, for the obvious reason, that there may be enough in that part of the decision which has been sustained by the higher court, to warrant the full sentence which has been imposed.

Overture No. 4, from the Presbytery of Des Moines, proposing that the General Assembly submit to the Presbyteries an Overture to amend the Book of Discipline by striking out Chapter xiii on the subject of "Judicial Commissions;" or, if this should not be deemed expedient, then that an amendment shall be overtured which shall make the said chapter more full and explicit in regard to the methods of procedure in cases of trial by a "Commission," and requiring a full and accurate minute of all the proceedings of such Commission.

In the judgment of your Committee neither of the Overtures proposed is needful or expedient.

Overture No. 5, from the Presbytery of Des Moines, requesting that in view of the great expense to the churches attending the meetings of the General Assembly, that this body take measures looking to such a change in our Form of Government, that the General Assembly shall meet biennially or quadrennially instead of annually.

In the judgment of your Committee it would be unwise to raise this question before the Church at the present time.

Overture No. 6, from the Presbytery of Columbus, asking leave to erase the name of the Rev. David Sage from its roll without prejudice to his ministerial standing. Mr. Sage, having been received into the Presbytery in 1882 under the regulations applicable to foreign ministers, has now been absent from the country for several years, having probably returned to Europe, and his residence, after due effort, cannot be ascertained.

We recommend that the permission asked for by the Presbytery be granted.

Overture (or Petition) No. 7. A request from the Rev. Newell Woolsey Wells, Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Brooklyn, that in view of hardship in special cases, on account of distance and other hindrances, an Overture be submitted to the Presbyteries, to the effect that the word "ten" in Chapter ix, Section 3 (85), and Section 4 (96, 97), be altered to "twenty," or else that the Assembly will authorize the Presbytery of Brooklyn to give the Rev. Benjamin Staunton an extension of twenty days, in which to notify the Stated Clerk of the said Presbytery of his appeal and complaint.

The Committee do not recommend the proposed change, in these times of rapid communication, and, further, they do not regard the Assembly as warranted to interpose between Mr. Staunton and the Synod of New York, to which his way is open for all lawful relief or redress.

Overture No. 8, from the Presbytery of San Francisco, asking leave to accept and enroll as one of its members the Rev. T. J. Curtiss, who has presented a very satisfactory certificate of dismission and character from the Presbytery of Sydney, Australia, dated April 17, 1888, and who, having come to this country more than a year ago, and been accredited as a corresponding member of the General Assembly at Omaha, in 1887, has also highly improved himself to our brethren in this land for his orthodoxy, piety and zeal. In view of these circumstances, the rule applicable to foreign ministers appears to have been substantially complied with, and, therefore, the Presbytery of San Francisco is hereby authorized to receive Mr. Curtiss as one of its members.

Overture No. 9, from the Presbytery of New York, proposing the following draft of an agreement between our Church and the various Presbyterian Churches of Great Britain and America, and requesting that a Committee be appointed to act in this matter in the name of our General Assembly. We recommend its adoption.

DRAFT.

The Presbyterian Churches of Great Britain and America, having regard to the ever-increasing number of their members and adherents visiting the leading cities of the continent of Europe, and more than ever impressed with the desirability of supporting and extending religious services for them in the places most frequented, as well as of strengthening the evangelical Churches on the Continent, agree to operate for these ends on the following basis:

1. In every place where Presbyterian services already exist in connection with the Churches entering upon this agreement, these Churches shall recognize said services as doing a work for each and all, and shall recommend their members to support them by their contributions as well as by their presence when in Europe.

2. Any one of the Churches interested shall be at liberty to occupy new centres in other cities, where the circumstances may seem to call for it, acquiring property and appointing its representative in accordance with the principles of coöperation hereby set forth.

3. As it may be desirable in leading cities, where the adherents of one of the Churches congregate in large numbers, to hold union services within the same building, the Church holding the property expresses hereby its readiness to welcome for the season a pastor from the aforesaid Church, to alternate services with its own settled pastor, should that be considered desirable.

4. Where property has already been procured and services established, said property shall continue to belong to the Church that now owns it, and the appointment of officiating ministers shall rest, as at present, with said Church, unless there be transference of the property from the one Church to the other.

5. It shall be the understanding, as at present, that no separate Presbyterian service shall be established by any one of the Churches that are parties to this agreement, where such already exists in connection with one or other of them.

The following persons are recommended as the members of the Committee as above provided, viz.: Ministers—John Hall, Leander T. Chamberlin, George W. F. Birch.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES I. BROWNSON, Chairman.

The Judicial Commission, in the case of the appeal of Charles D. Drake against the Synod of Baltimore, made report as follows, which was adopted and ordered on record:

In the matter of the appeals of Charles D. Drake from the judgments of the Synod of Baltimore, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, entitled: Charles D. Drake vs. George O. Little, appeal from judgment of Synod of Baltimore; and Charles D. Drake vs. Teunis S. Hamlin, appeal from same Synod, the duly constituted Commission make up the following record and report:

The Judicial Committee of the said General Assembly, sitting at Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, having reported said appeals as in order, the said General Assembly, sitting at the place aforesaid, directed that the two cases be consolidated, and referred the same to the following Commission of ministers and elders for hearing and adjudication according to law: Ministers—Calvin W. Stewart, John G. Fackler, Horace H. Allen, George P. Folsom, Joseph G. Symmes, Delos E. Wells, William Hamilton, James P. Stratton; Elders—George S. Graham, William A. Blackburn, George W. Benjamin, J. Knox Mitchell, David H. Tullis, George C. McConnell, James E. Wyne.

On May 25, 1888, the Commission met at the same time and place as the General Assembly aforesaid, and, a quorum being present, organized by electing Calvin W. Stewart, Moderator, and James P. Stratton, Clerk, and thereupon adjourned to meet on the 26th instant, at 9 o'clock A.M.

On May 26, 1888, the Commission met at the time and place appointed pursuant to adjournment, and, a quorum being present, proceeded with the business assigned them in the following order:

1. The meetings were opened and closed with prayer.
2. The papers in both cases were read.
3. The parties were heard either in person or by counsel.

The pleadings, papers and statements disclosed the following case :

THE CASE.

Charles D. Drake presented two complaints to the Presbytery of Washington City against the defendants above named. The same complaints were alike, and contained substantially the following

CHARGE AND SPECIFICATION.

Charge.—The violation of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Specification.—That the said defendants, being ministers, in the months of March and April of A.D. 1887, did in the Assembly's churches, introduce into the public worship of the congregations, respectively, the practice of responsive service in the reading of portions of the Holy Scriptures.

The Presbytery of Washington City dismissed the complaints of the said Charles D. Drake as not sufficient in substance to furnish grounds to order process.

The Synod of Baltimore refused to entertain the appeals of the said cases by the said Charles D. Drake from the judgments of the said Presbytery of Washington City, and dismissed the said appeals and sustained the action of the said Presbytery.

The appellant assigned the refusal of the Synod of Baltimore to sustain his appeals from the judgments of the Presbytery of Washington City in the said cases and the ordering of said appeals to be dismissed, as his specification of error.

FINDING.

After full consideration of the cases, as consolidated, the vote of the Commission was taken upon the specification of error alleged, whereupon it was unanimously determined that the specification be not sustained.

JUDGMENT.

And now, to wit, May 26, 1888, it is ordered, adjudged, and decreed, by the Commission aforesaid, that the judgments of the Synod of Baltimore in the cases aforesaid be and the same are hereby affirmed.

CALVIN W. STEWART, Moderator.

Attest: JAMES P. STRATTON, Clerk.

A supplementary Report of the same Commission was read and laid upon the table.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 28, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported:

Overture No. 42, from the elders of the Presbyterian Church, of Chillicothe, Mo., asking the General Assembly to grant authority for selling and conveying a lot of ground described in a copy of a deed annexed.

The following answer is recommended: The deed submitted shows, upon its face, that the only conditions, on the happening of which the General Assembly would be authorized to grant the request, are:

1. The dissolution of the First Presbyterian Church of Chillicothe, Mo.

2. That said church should cease to be connected with, or to be under the care of some Presbytery in regular connection with the General Assembly.

As it is not shown in the Overture, or by other evidence, that either of the above conditions exist, it is recommended that the Overture and accompanying papers be returned to the Session of the First Presbyterian Church of Chillicothe, Mo.

Overture No. 4, from certain ministers in our Church, asking for the erection of a new Presbytery in Southern Virginia.

The action heretofore taken on this request having been reconsidered by the Assembly, and the matter referred again to this Committee, it is recommended as follows:

That the Rev. H. M. Holmes, of the Presbytery of Washington City; Rev. E. F. Egglestein, of the Presbytery of Yadkin; Revs. W. H. Shepperson and James A. Wright, of the Presbytery of Catawba; Rev. J. M. Rittenhouse, of the Presbytery of Westminister, and Rev. Yorke Jones, of the Presbytery of Chester, be detached from the Presbyteries with which they are now connected, and that they, together with the churches in the counties of Patrick, Franklin, Bedford, Amherst, Nelson, Albemarle, Louisa, Caroline, Essex, Westmoreland and Accomack, in Virginia, and in that portion of the State lying east and south of these counties, be and hereby are constituted a Presbytery, by the name of the Presbytery of Southern Virginia, in connection with the Synod of Catawba.

The said Presbytery shall meet in the Central Presbyterian Church, of Petersburg, Va., on Thursday, the 19th day of July, A.D. 1888, at 7.30 o'clock P.M., and shall be opened with a sermon by the Rev. J. M. Rittenhouse, or, in case of his absence, by the oldest minister present, who shall preside until a Moderator be chosen. Adopted.

Overture No. 43, from the Presbytery of Springfield, asking the Assembly to take into consideration an amendment of Form of Government, Chapter x, by striking out Section 4.

It is recommended that the Overture be referred to a Special Committee of three, to inquire what changes, if any, are necessary or advisable in regard to representation in Presbyteries and Synod, the Committee to report next year.

Overture No. 44, from the Presbytery of New York, on the subject of Religion and Public Education.

The following answer is recommended :

Resolved, That the General Assembly, while insisting upon its fundamental and oft-repeated doctrine of the separate functions of Church and State, still offers its belief that the vigor and permanence of our national life are guaranteed only by a morality grounded on religion.

That while the State should not teach religion for religion's sake, it is a matter only of wise self-interest and political safety, that, in every school maintained by the State, there should be a recognition of such principles as the Being of God and human accountability, which are essential to sound learning, safe character and citizenship.

That the Assembly encourage the appointment of such teachers as shall be in accord with the preceding statement, and brings its entire influence to bear against whatever shall oppose the claims of the God upon whom we depend and to whom we are under obligation.

That the Assembly, recognizing the difficult dangers in which this question is involved, urges upon its ministers the duty to lay a new emphasis upon the importance of a more thorough, intelligent and faithful religious instruction in the family, in the Sabbath-school and the Church. Adopted.

Overture No. 45, from the Presbytery of Nassau, asking that the proper steps be taken for a revision of the third chapter of the Confession of Faith, with especial reference to Sections 3, 4, 6 and 7.

It is recommended that it be deemed inexpedient to take any action upon this request.

The discussion of Overture No. 45 was arrested by the Order of the Day, prior to which it was Resolved, That a session of the Assembly be held this evening at 8 o'clock.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Benevolence was made the first Order for this evening.

The Report of the Special Committee on the Centenary Fund was presented, read and adopted, and is as follows:

Your Special Committee on the Management and Disposition of the Centenary Fund, having examined the records in the case and carefully considered the terms and conditions under which the Fund has been raised, would respectfully report as follows:

1. The Fund was gathered under the direction of the Executive Committee appointed by the Permanent Committee of Arrangements for the One Hundredth General Assembly. The members of this Permanent Committee deserve the appreciation and gratitude of the entire Church, for the disinterested industry and fidelity and the large success with which they have discharged their various, exacting and often perplexing duties, during the prolonged term of their service. The preparations for the comfort and convenience of this Assembly, and for the entertainment of the Southern Assembly, have been complete and satisfactory, and reflect great credit upon those who did the work. Many churches, Presbyteries and Synods have been induced to collect and publish the facts of their history. The two popular meetings in the interest of theological education were made interesting and instructive. The Centennial Day was marked by hearty fraternity between the two Assemblies, by high average excellence in the historic and philosophic discourses which were delivered, and by the enthusiasm of the throngs who attended its celebration. As to the Fund for the further endowment of the Board of Relief, while not yet reaching the desired amount of $1,000,000, yet considering that the object appealed to no local feeling, we may well thank God for moving the churches to do so much in so short a period. About $600,000 are now either in hand or in prospect. The earnest and untiring zeal of the Executive Committee in this effort, and of the churches and pastors who coöperated in it, are beyond all praise. In general, the work commended to the churches in recognition of our Centennial, and the exercises distinguishing its celebration, have alike been greatly blessed. We therefore recommend that the cordial thanks of this Assembly be returned to the General Committee, to the Local Committee of Arrangements and to the Executive Committee, with their respective Chairmen, and to the Secretary and Treasurer of the Centenary Fund for their admirable services, and that, in accordance with their own wish, the members of the General or Permanent Committee, including the Executive Committee of the Centenary Fund, be now relieved of further duties and discharged.

2. We recommend that the General Assembly earnestly and affectionately remind the churches which have not contributed, as well as those which have already given most liberally to the Fund for the permanent endowment of Ministerial Relief, that there is yet lacking about $400,000 to complete the one million dollars for which the faith of the Church is pledged, and express the hope that, without interfering with the current income of this and the other Boards, the liberality of the Church will not allow this promise to fail. They are requested to send their contributions to the Board of Relief, either directly to its Treasurer, or, if more convenient, through Dr. William H. Roberts, the Treasurer of the Centenary Fund.

3. In accordance with the direction of the Assembly that measures should be recommended for the further collection, and the transfer and investment of this Centenary Fund, your Committee have examined into the matter, and have obtained a statement, in elucidation of the management of the Permanent Fund of the Board of Ministerial Relief, from the President of the Trustees of the General Assembly, who is also a member of the Board of Relief. It is a pleasure to call the attention of the Assembly, the Church and the public to this statement, which is appended to this Report, and which we recommend the Assembly to publish with the Report, in the "Minutes," since it shows that for thirty years not a penny of principal or interest, in these trust funds, has been lost, by reason of the manner in which investments have been made.

4. We recommend that the Treasurer of the Centenary Fund be instructed to transfer the moneys now in his possession to the respective Boards to which they were contributed, and that the Board of Relief retain the funds transferred to it, subject to the directions of the next General Assembly.

5. We recommend that the Treasurer of the Centenary Fund be continued to October 1, 1888, to receive further contributions to it and transfer them to the Board to which they may be contributed, and that he present his final and complete Report to the next General Assembly, printed in a separate pamphlet.

6. We recommend that the Secretary of the Centenary Fund be continued until July 1, 1888, in order that he may have time to close his work. We also recommend that his Report, already presented to this Assembly, be printed in the "Minutes."

7. We recommend that the minutes of the General or Permanent Committee, and those of the Executive Committee, and copies of all their publications, be deposited by the Secretary of the Centenary Fund with the Presbyterian Historical Society.

8. We recommend that, in accordance with the instructions of the Assembly of 1886 ("Minutes," 1886, p. 16), all expenses connected with the Centenary Fund be paid out of that Fund.

9. The question of how the Centenary Fund shall be permanently invested has excited wide interest. The thing of first importance is security. As secondary to that, but still very important, appears the matter of income. Differences of opinion seem to exist as to where and how the investments should be made. As good faith to the donors requires the Assembly to carry out their wishes as far as possible, your Committee is of the opinion that the investment of the Fund should receive more prolonged attention and consideration, than can be given to it during the remaining sessions of this Assembly. It has also been asked whether the income of the Fund should be distributed according to the methods now followed by the Board of Relief, or should be controlled by new principles. Your Committee believe that as this endowment was undertaken ("Minutes" of the Assembly of 1886, 6, a, p. 16) "as an addition to the Permanent Fund of the Board of Relief," no change can be adopted without altering the general principles of administration, and perhaps even the charter of that Board. At any rate, the proposed change is so serious that it ought not to be attempted without the most careful consideration. There are still other questions that may require investigation.

We therefore recommend that a Committee consisting of four elders and three ministers be appointed by the Moderator, to supervise the transfer of the Fund to the Board of Relief, to audit the accounts of the Treasurer, to determine what shall be included in his final Report, to receive and pass upon the final Report of the Secretary, to consider how, where and by whom the Fund shall be permanently invested, and to report its conclusions and recommendations to that Assembly. Adopted.

S. J. McPHERSON, Chairman.

The following statement respecting the management of the Permanent Fund of the Presbyterian Board of Relief, prepared by George Junkin, Esq., President of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly, is printed in the "Minutes" by order of the Assembly:

On March 28, 1799, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania created a corporation named "Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," with the usual powers of such corporations, and whose special purpose was "to take, receive and hold all and all manner of lands, tenements, rents, annuities, franchises and other hereditaments which at any time or times heretofore have been granted, bargained, sold, enfeoffed, released, devised, or otherwise conveyed to the said ministers and elders of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, or any other person or persons, to their use or in trust for them, and the same lands, tenements, rents, annuities, liberties, franchises and other hereditaments are hereby vested and established in the said corporation and their successors forever, according to the original use and intent for which such devises, gifts and grants were respectively made. * * * And further, to take and receive any sum or sums of money and any portion of goods and chattels that have been given to the said ministers and elders, or that hereafter shall be given, sold, leased or bequeathed to the said corporation by any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, that is able or capable to make a gift, sale, bequest or other disposal of the same; such money, goods or chattels to be laid out and disposed of for the use and benefit of the aforesaid corporation, agreeably to the intention of the donors and according to the objects, articles and conditions of this act."

From that time until 1837, and also subsequently, this corporation received donations of money and land for the Presbyterian Church, which it invested in good securities, and such as were recognized by the laws of Pennsylvania as the proper ones in which trust funds should be invested. It was over the right to control this corporation that the great contest in the courts of Pennsylvania between the Old and the New School bodies, so-called, took place in 1888, which was ultimately decided in favor of the Old School body. In addition to the good investments made by the Trustees they made investments which were not good investments, and largely in certain securities in the Valley of the Mississippi, which resulted in very great losses. About the year 1852, the General Assembly of the Old School body appointed a Committee, to whom the subject of the administration of these trust funds was referred, who made a very elaborate Report upon the subject, in which they stated in detail all the distinct trusts and their amounts held by the corporation, together with the losses that have been made, and they apportioned these losses among these various trusts. The Reports of this Committee, and the matters relating thereto, will be found in the printed "Minutes" of the General Assembly of the Old School body in the years 1852-3-4. Subsequently thereto, it is believed, and most likely in consequence of these losses, the corporation enacted the following By-Laws:

"5. All investments of funds, which are left to the management of this corporation, shall be made in such securities only as are sanctioned by the laws of Pennsylvania, in relation to investments made by executors and trustees. But if special instructions on this subject shall at any time be given by the General Assembly, in writing, under the hand of their Clerk, such instructions are acknowledged to be obligatory according to the charter.

"6. There shall be no borrowing from one fund to another.

"7. No loans shall be made to any members or officers of the Board of Trustees.

"8. Investments shall be made and changed at the discretion of the Finance Committee, and shall all be in the name of the corporation.

"9. All moneys drawn from the treasury shall be on the order of the Board or Finance Committee; and the interest upon the different funds shall be paid over for their respective objects to the proper persons semi-annually."

By the law of the State of Pennsylvania of March 29, 1832, trust funds may be legally invested in the public loans of the United States, the State of Pennsylvania, the City of Philadelphia, bonds and mortgages which were the first liens upon real estate in the State of Pennsylvania, and ground rents.

Under these By-Laws and this law of Pennsylvania, all the investments by this corporation have been made from that time to the present, and there has been no loss of a dollar by reason of bad investments since. And in the last twenty-five years there has been no occasion to sue out or foreclose any of these investments, except in two instances. The rate of interest until within the last few years has uniformly been 6 per cent, but within the last three or four years, or possibly a little longer, the rate of interest has fallen to 5 per cent, and to some extent to $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent, and as the Report to the General Assembly of this year will show, all the interest on all the investments for the current year has been paid to date.

On April 21, 1855, the New School General Assembly, having erected its own Committees to do its own Church work, found it necessary to have a similar corporation to that of 1799 to take charge of its moneys and property, and on that date procured from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania a corporation called "The Presbyterian House." It is not necessary to quote its powers, etc., as they were substantially the same as those of the other corporation. This corporation received from time to time from the New School General Assembly large sums of money and other property which it held at the time of the reunion in 1870. After that event there was no necessity for their being two separate corporations to hold the property and funds of the Assembly, and therefore it directed the merger of these two corporations into each other, and this, about three years ago, was accomplished, so that "The Presbyterian House," under that name, has ceased to exist, and all its property and funds have been transferred to the "Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," by whom the same now are held upon the trusts for which they were held formerly by the other corporation. And a reference to the Report of this latter corporation, presented to this Assembly of 1888 will exhibit in the Treasurer's Account, and its accompanying documents, a statement of all the funds and property held by the corporation for the Presbyterian Church, and likewise the manner in which the same are invested.

In 1877, by direction of the General Assembly, a charter was procured under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for a corporation called, "The Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers." Its purpose, as declared by its charter, was "to receive, hold and disburse such real and personal estate as may be given to it for the relief and support of disabled ministers and the needy widows and orphans of deceased ministers of the said Church." Under the laws of the Commonwealth it became vested with the usual powers of such corporations. Its managers are twelve Directors, and the Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer, and these Directors are elected in classes annually by the General Assembly. Its By-Laws upon the subject of investments are these:

"Sec. 2. Investments shall be made and changed at the discretion of the Finance Committee, and shall be in the name of the corporation.

"Sec. 8. All investments of funds which are left to the management of this Board, shall be made in such securities only as are sanctioned by the laws of Pennsylvania, in relation to investments by executors and trustees."

All of the investments made by this Board have been made in accordance with these By-Laws, and there has been no loss of any money at any time, nor has there been any occasion to sue out any of its mortgages. Under the direction of the General Assemblies all legacies, unless otherwise ordered by the testators, given for the Relief Fund, have been invested as a permanent endowment for the Board of Relief, and the amount so held, as will be seen by the Report to this Assembly, is $384,659, of which $189,596 are in the name of this corporation and $245,063 in the name of "The Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America." This latter sum is made up of the sums which were given for this purpose to that corporation as well as to "The Presbyterian House," before the creation of the Disabled Ministers' corporation Board; and from time to time ever since that date, sums have been received from wills which gave legacies directly to these two corporations whose exact names have been mentioned in full.

The result of this history is that there are two corporations now in existence, to either of which the General Assembly may commit, unless otherwise directed by the donors, all the gifts to the Centenary Fund, namely, "The Trustees of the General Assembly in the United States of America," created in 1799, or "The Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers," created in 1877.

It is presumed that neither of these corporations, unless otherwise explicitly directed by the General Assembly, will depart from its mode of making investments under the By-Laws before quoted.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE JUNKIN.

The Standing Committee on Missions for Freedmen submitted an additional and final Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee is pained to report that the Board of Missions for Freedmen has suffered during the past year the heavy loss of its most worthy and laborious President, Rev. Elliot E. Swift. The fidelity and consecration of Dr. Swift to this work, that was so continually his care, deserves our lasting remembrance and the gratitude of those for whose elevation he labored.

We recommend to the Assembly to urge the Board to do everything in its power to bring the churches under its care to self-support.

We recommend the speedy endowment of Biddle University, an institution whose past service and present promise deserves the best support the Church can give.

We deem it advisable to call the attention of the Assembly to the growing disposition on the part of those having the care of churches and schools in the South, to come North, for the purpose of making personal appeals for aid. We deeply sympathize with the need and anxiety that prompt these endeavors, but we think it would be for the best interests of the cause, more economical and more satisfactory to the Church at large, if the Board should discourage such personal efforts and secure the aid required through its appointed agencies.

The Assembly has imposed delicate and perplexing duties upon its Committee by referring to it for consideration the Report of the Special Committee appointed by the last Assembly. We have patiently heard all the parties interested in this Report, who have asked to be heard. We have endeavored, by every possible means, to inform ourselves, that we might, if possible, suggest a solution of these difficulties to the Assembly. It was not possible to enter into a thorough investigation of many difficult questions submitted to our consideration. It has been evident to your Committee that the differences existing between the Board and the Presbytery of Washington City, regarding work in Amelia county, Va., would not be satisfactorily or peacefully settled by hasty action. We have discovered other serious and disturbing differences, which the Special Committee has not had opportunity to consider.

We regard the suggestions of the Special Committee, which mainly concern the details of management, as eminently wise, and, should it be the final expression of the will and judgment of the Church, that this work among the freedmen should be prosecuted, as at present, by a distinct Board of Missions for Freedmen, then we are of the opinion that the suggestions of the Special Committee, regarding management, deserve the approval and adoption of the Board.

But, in view of the fact that the Board has called our attention to the state of unrest in the Church, that is their continual embarrassment, and moved by many considerations, and by much testimony that has been submitted to us, and believing that the thoughtful study of the question for the year would result in a solution that would satisfy the Church and give success to this great work, your Committee has unanimously agreed to recommend the appointment of a Special Committee, consisting of not less than five ministers and five ruling elders, representing different sections of the Church, whose duty it shall be to consider and report to the next General Assembly whether the work among the freedmen can be more efficiently prosecuted by the continuance of a distinct Board of Missions for Freedmen, or by the consolidation of this work with the work entrusted to other Boards. And we further recommend that this Committee, if appointed, be instructed to confer with the Board of Missions for Freedmen with the Board of Home Missions, and, if necessary, with other Boards, and by every possible means endeavor to discover the plan of operation that will promise a settled judgment in the Church, that will incite the deepest sympathy of the Church with this important work, that will give the largest promise of benefit for the freedmen, and best insure fraternity and closer union with our Christian brethren in the South, who, with us, are deeply interested in the peaceful and successful prosecution of this great work.

In addition, we recommend to the Assembly for adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the Board of Missions for Freedmen be instructed to push the work entrusted to them, with every existing agency and with all possible earnestness, continuing their organization without change.

2. Resolved, That all our churches be impressed with the importance of this work, and be urged to sustain the Board with confidence and with enlarged contributions, not allowing any discussion about an alteration of plans of operation to interfere with an immediate and enlarged success of existing plans.

3. Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the Special Committee, whose Report has been submitted to it, for a laborious and faithful service and for the important information which can not fail to contribute largely to the final solution of this perplexing and important question.

4. That the terms of service of the following persons having expired, they be reelected members of the Board: Ministers—Henry T. McClelland, Edward P. Cowan; Ruling Elders—Charles W. Hubbard, W. C. Aughinbaugh, John F. Loy.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES A. DICKEY, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief presented a supplementary Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief, to which was referred Overtures from the Presbytery of New Brunswick and the Presbytery of Canton, respectively, beg leave to report:

1. As to the Overture of the Presbytery of New Brunswick, asking the General Assembly to appoint a Committee, to be composed in part of the members of the Board of Ministerial Relief, whose duty it shall be to devise a plan by which those ministers who have served our Church a long period, and who have been honorably retired, will be enabled to draw an annual sum; further said Committee shall also inquire as to the practicability of dividing such ministers into the classes named in the said Overture: we recommend that the subject matter of the said Overture be referred to a Special Committee of seven, of which the Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Relief and one member of said Board, to be chosen by the Board itself, shall be members, the other five members of which shall be appointed by the Moderator, with instructions to report upon the whole question involved in the said Overture, at the next meeting of the General Assembly.

2. As to the Overture from the Presbytery of Canton, China, asking that the General Assembly to meet in Philadelphia in May, 1888, be requested to take action authorizing regularly appointed lay missionaries of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions and their families, to receive aid from the Board of Ministerial Relief on the same conditions as ministers; we recommend that in view of the innovation proposed by the Overture, and of the increase of expenditure necessarily entailed upon the Board by an affirmative answer, and in view, also, of the want of facts in relation to the subject accessible to the Committee, the whole subject be referred to the Board of Ministerial Relief, with instructions to ascertain the facts in reference to the obligations which would be imposed upon the Board, by an affirmative answer to the Overture, and report the same, together with such action as in the opinion of the Board may be expedient, to the next meeting of the General Assembly.

All of which is respectfully submitted, in behalf of the Committee, and by its direction.

JAMES A. BEAVER, Chairman.

The Report of the Judicial Committee, in the case of Rev. N. West against the Synod of Minnesota, was read. Mr. West was heard on the question of the constitutionality of the appeal. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Judiciary Committee, to which was referred the appeal of the Rev. Nathaniel West, from the action of the Synod of Minnesota, and his complaint of the same action, respectfully submit the following Report:

A brief statement of the facts as they have been made to appear to your Committee is all that is needful for understanding the merits of the case. On the 21st of April, 1887, the Presbytery of St. Paul adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That all duties, authority and relations of Dr. West to said Church (the First Presbyterian Church of St. Paul), by virtue of any authority of this Presbytery, or its constituted commission, are hereby terminated.

From this action Dr. West appealed to the Synod.

It is manifest that this appeal presented in no sense a judicial case, such as is intended by the ninety-fourth section of the Book of Discipline. It was not, therefore, appealable to the Synod. It could be brought into the Synod only by complaint. It was a case of administration merely. The Synod treated it as such, and disposed of it by resolving that the appeal be not entertained as such, since this is not a judicial case. (Hodge's "Presbyterian Law," p. 181—"Judicial business is any act of discipline, but especially the formal trial of an accused person, and appeals are admissible only in judicial cases." Referring to Revised Book of Discipline, Chap. ix, Sec. 4, Art. xciv.)

In thus disposing of the case your Committee discover no error. Moreover, it is plain that the action of the Synod did not, in any sense, affect, or have relation to the doctrine or Constitution of the Church. The Assembly has no jurisdiction of any appeal from, or complaint of, the action of the Synod. Complaint and appeal in such a case are alike prohibited by the fourth section of the eleventh chapter of our Form of Government, which declares that the decisions of Synods on appeals, complaints and references, which do not affect the doctrine or Constitution of the Church, shall be final.

Your Committee therefore recommend that the appeal and complaint of Dr. West be dismissed.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

The supplementary Report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, in the case of the Rev. John M. W. Farnham, was taken up. Pending the discussion of a substitute, the hour of recess arrived, and it was made the second Order for this evening.

It was made the first Order for to-morrow A.M., to hear the Reports of the several Committees on the Records of the Synods.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 28, 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and resumed business, the Rev. Howard Crosby in the Chair.

The Standing Committee on Benevolence presented its Report, which was read, and, after an address by the Rev. Charles S. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Committee, was accepted, adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee, to which was referred the Report of the Committee on Systematic Beneficence, respectfully report that they recognize, with profound gratitude to God, that the benefactions of the Church, during the past year, have been larger than in former years. In the language of the Report, "It is immensely encouraging to find here a net gain or advance of $230,284 beyond last year." Your Committee feel that for this increase we are indebted in no small degree to the intelligent and efficient service, rendered by the Committee on Systematic Beneficence, for which there should be just recognition by this Assembly.

The Church seems to be awakening to the conviction that giving is a Christian duty, and a most important means of Christian growth and development, a duty and a means that cannot be neglected without positive detriment to Christian character. Thus we read and understand the words of our blessed Lord, and interpret His commands. Thus the Church began, and, along such paths, has found a sweeter and sturdier life.

The contrary course has dwarfed and crippled Christian energy, and given to the world forms of Christian life uninteresting and unimpressive. The Church lives and receives, to bestow its mission and high calling—the ministration of prayer, praise, word and communication.

The world needs the institutions of the Gospel, and these can only be established and carried forward at home and abroad by an intelligent and sanctified liberality, co-incident with, and permeated by the grace of God. And such liberality, never in the sense of mere alms-giving, but rather as an acknowledgment and expression of the boundless debt of the Christian heart to Christ the Lord and His Church, divinely recognized and enjoined. One is to glorify God in all that he is, in all that he has, in the full and sanctified use of every gift. Men are variously endowed. Some men have the faculty of accumulating material wealth, and this as a gift of God, ought to be consecrated to His service, so that even money-making should be lifted out of the plane of a sordid secularity, and be prosecuted and pursued under a divine baptism. The man of business, therefore, should feel that in all the departments of manly and honest activity, he is called of God to make over to Him and His cause the hand of his industry and the results of his toil, in broad and liberal measure.

When this is fully and devoutly realized, Christian men may prosecute their business for which they have been prepared and equipped, for the Lord's sake—for His glory—for humanity—God furnishing the capital, and God, out of the investments, having large return. Just here, may your Committee be allowed to suggest the propriety, as well as the duty, of utilizing business men in the financial management and benevolent work of the Church, for which they have such preëminent qualifications.

Your Committee would also emphasize the fact that the giving of money for Church furtherance is as much a matter of worship as prayer and praise. Sacrifice and gifts go together in the service of God. Hence, systematic giving on the Sabbath, according to ability, belongs to the sanctuary, and with its recognition other services will have larger acceptance and richer blessing.

At this day, doors for usefulness, in every department of Christian activity, as never before, open wide for entrance. Through these open doors, the Church is to pass by the manifest will and providence of God for the harvesting that lies beyond. As opportunities for advancing the Kingdom of Christ by human effort occur, they should be promptly met—heart and hand should spring to their acceptance. God holds the Church to this—more and more He is making this known—more and more He is teaching us too, that money must be given for the successful prosecution of the work to which the Church is called—all along the line—for the whole service—throughout the world—that it, the world, may be carried over to His Kingdom of Righteousness.

The General Assembly is an organization for originating, perfecting and presenting plans for gracious enterprises. Essential to the prosecution of these enterprises, and fundamental thereto, is the financial support of the Church. The various Boards are so many wheels of action. That they move at all, and along the paths projected, the spirit of the living creature must be in the wheels. That spirit is two-fold; the spirit of God's grace, and the spirit of Christian liberality, as free as the flow of the rivulet from the hill-side, and as generous as the rush of sunlight.

The duty of giving is to be emphasized as solemn and imperative; but while the duty is fully recognized and accepted as God-given and enforced, there should be in it the glad recognition of higher considerations—its blessedness—the privilege of falling into Christly action and Christly likeness. Too often contributions are grudgingly dropped from selfish hands and hearts. Far otherwise should they be bestowed. Ministers should labor to produce willing hearts and willing hands in their people. Sabbath-school teachers should so train their scholars; parents so educate and bring up their children. As to such education and training, there has been large and criminal fault. Children have not been instructed and led in liberal ways; they have been allowed to grow up in selfishness, unmindful of human necessities, and the part they may have in the world's regeneration. How shall there be a generous manhood out of a penurious and selfish childhood? Make the home, the Sabbath-school, the services of the house of God, each and all, to bear upon the formation and cultivation of habit and system in Christian benefactions, and speedily the Church will respond to all the demands of her Boards with liberal support.

Your Committee would call attention to the importance of encouraging those of small means to bring their gifts to Christ and His Church, however small those gifts may be. Many shrink from this because they have but little to give and because they feel that their mite will be of no service. The Lord did not so estimate the widow's mite; and, looked at practically, we know that these littles may and do swell from the many into a bulk substantial and surprising. Finally, we urge that the churches be enjoined to give to all the Boards. They are all the instrumentalities of the Assembly for the carrying forward of its great work, and loyalty to our Church and to the Head of the Church requires of us a liberal remembrance of them all. It is a reproach that so many of the churches are non-contributing, and that so many of those that contribute confine their liberality to one or two objects. Upon this subject there should be repetition of rebuke and admonition till reformation occurs.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the Assembly recognizes the importance of the work done by this Committee, and the efficient manner in which it has been performed.

2. That the recommendations made by the Permanent Committee be adopted, as follows:

1. That previous instructions are repeated to all Presbyteries and Synods as to the appointment and maintenance of efficient Committees on Beneficence, who shall coöperate with and report to the Assembly's Committee.

2. That each Presbytery is enjoined to encourage every one of its churches towards improvement in its giving, proportionate to ability; also to start into some measure of benevolent life those churches that have never given to our Boards.

3. That the Assembly earnestly commends to all our churches the provisions of the new Chapter vi, Directory for Worship, now confirmed.

4. That the same advice is given as last year to all churches, discouraging combination in the same offering between self-support and gifts for the Boards.

5. That the admirable practice of some Presbyteries, through their Beneficence Committees is approved in publishing tables of the churches' gifts, compared with previous years for information and stimulus.

6. That Sessions are advised to make frequent report before their several churches of the amount contributed in their benevolent offerings, and the disposition made of the same.

7. That this Assembly approves the system of individual pledges or subscriptions, either to the general beneficence of the Church or to the work of any special Board, paid either in the weekly offerings of the Lord's Day or at longer intervals, as engagements may be made; as superior in principle and practice to any occasional or sporadic contributions.

8. That every minister is charged to instruct his congregation in the duty and grace of liberality for Ohrist's sake and in Scriptural principles of giving; to keep them informed as to the work of our Boards and the needs of each cause.

9. That every Church member is earnestly advised to adopt proportionate giving as the practice of his Christian stewardship.

10. That a general circulation of the periodicals and other publications of our Church is strongly urged as an invaluable help to Christian giving.

11. That this Assembly hereby reëstablishes between the Boards an equitable ratio of contributions for the guidance of churches in the apportioning of undesigned gifts.*

Your Committee also recommend that the bill of the Committee for expenses, amounting to $845.50, be paid, and that the Committee as now constituted be continued for another year. Also that the correspondence referred to in the supplemental Report be referred to the Assembly's Committee on Correspondence.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HENRY W. WILLIAMS, Chairman.

* See "Minutes" of 1896.

The unfinished business, being the supplemental Report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, in the case of the Rev. John M. W. Farnham, was read and accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee, having examined with care the paper of Rev. John M. W. Farnham, styled "A Missionary's Complaint and Appeal," and having heard in full, first, the complainant and afterward two of the Secretaries of the Board, and having examined the records of the Board, are gratified in finding that no question is raised that impeaches in any manner the character of Dr. Farnham, or calls in question his devotion to his work.

After a careful consideration of the statements made by Dr. Farnham, and the study of his complaint, the Committee are of the opinion that it is in the nature of a grievance on the part of Dr. Farnham that he was not fully advised by the brethren on the ground, of their action in this matter, and that he was not informed by the Board of the statements transmitted to the Board by the Advisory Committee, as to his management of the Mission Press. In regard to this, the Committee are of the opinion that it would have been better if fuller efforts had been made by the brethren on the ground, and by the representatives of the Board, to be assured in their own minds that all ground of just complaint on this score was removed, by his having been so made acquainted with the facts as they were submitted to the Board. At the same time, the Committee are of the opinion that the Board, in the discharge of its duty in this matter, honestly and earnestly endeavored to deal with Dr. Farnham in the spirit of brotherly love, and in full recognition of his long and valuable service in the mission field.

The Committee find, so far as they are able rightly to interpret the case as submitted to them:

1. That the Board, being themselves satisfied that Dr. Farnham is not the proper person (for reasons which appertain to want of adaptation to the work entrusted to him connected with the Press) longer to conduct its operations, determined, by a unanimous vote, to remove Dr. Farnham from said charge of the Press and to appoint in his place a missionary, the Rev. G. F. Fitch, who had been nominated to them by the members of the North China Mission, and they further determined to transfer the entire charge of the work, together with the office of Treasurer, to the said Mr. Fitch. This determination and order of the Board were duly transmitted to Dr. Farnham. Dr. Farnham, upon receipt of this order of the Board, declined to recognize its authority in the matter, to the extent of refusing to turn over the plant to Mr. Fitch upon his demand, and, upon being pressed in the matter by him, persistently refused to comply with the instructions of the Board, and further refused to relinquish the office of Treasurer, and claimed control, as acting Treasurer, of the funds of the Board, so far as under the immediate control of the mission. After he had been notified of his removal, and three days before the expiration of his term of office, Dr. Farnham made a draft upon the Board in New York in the sum of $5000 for the purposes of the mission. The Board, regarding Dr. Farnham's conduct in this matter as wholly unwarranted, in view of the fact that there was no immediate need of the money, and that when the draft was presented in the following month there were $10,000 in the hands of his successor, refused to honor the draft, and allowed it to go to protest, the result being a serious injury to the credit of the Board abroad. At this juncture Mr. Fitch felt constrained, having been instructed by the Board to take possession of the property, to apply to the Consul-General for an order in regard to the direction of the Board to Dr. Farnham, to transfer the business and office of Treasurer to himself. The Consul-General thereupon placed the whole business in the hands of a Receiver, where it now is. Your Committee feel constrained to express their judgment in view of the above statement of facts, as appearing in the testimony, that Dr. Farnham greatly erred in the course pursued by him in this connection. It is apparent to your Committee that the authority to control the business operations of mission fields is, by the Constitution of the Board and by the necessities of the case, clearly vested in the Board. It is, therefore, the opinion of the Committee that, Dr. Farnham should have promptly complied with the order of the Board, to surrender the property and the office of Treasurer.

Furthermore, it appears, from the evidence submitted to your Committee, that the Board, in the exercise of its discretion as to the proper adjustment of the immediate fields of labor among the missionaries of Shanghai, instructed Dr. Farnham to resume his former work at the post called the South Gate, in the city of Shanghai, and requested the brethren on the field to make such changes among themselves as might be required to carry out this direction in a friendly way. This order was given, not, so far as your Committee can discover, with any thought of humiliating Dr. Farnham, but under the belief that it would afford him the best opportunity to resume his strictly missionary work. It appears, however, that Dr. Farnham was not disposed to comply with this order of the Board, but regarded it in the light of exposing him to the surrender of his house and to varied and unnecessary inconveniences. The criticisms that Dr. Farnham made upon this order of the Board, do not seem to your Committee to be in any true and proper sense sustained by the facts. On the other hand, the Committee are of the opinion that, the Board sincerely endeavored to make this change as free from reasonable objection on the part of Dr. Farnham as possible. Your Committee, therefore, are of the belief that it would have been for his own good and for the best interests of the mission, to have complied with these instructions of the Board in regard to the change of his field of labor.

Your Committee, without wishing to traverse in this connection the general relation of the Board to foreign missionaries, are of the opinion that it is essential to harmony in the operations of the Board and to the avoidance of disputes on the field, that the authority of the Board, as defined in its Constitution by the General Assembly, should be implicitly and cheerfully recognized and complied with by the missionaries themselves.

2. Your Committee would call the attention of the Assembly to the fact that the paper, entitled "A Missionary's Complaint and Appeal," of Dr. Farnham, has been widely disseminated through our Church, even weeks before the time for the convening of the General Assembly. In regard to this paper it should be stated that it is manifestly an ex-parte statement of the case in the behalf of Dr. Farnham, and in view of the fact that no answer to the charges therein made, or explanatory statements on behalf of the Board, reached those to whom the paper was sent, it is evident that an impression might easily be made upon the minds of many, prejudicial to the Board and harmful in its effect in regard to the cordial support of the Board, by those who had hitherto been, possibly, among its warmest friends. Not only so, but the further injurious effect of this sending out of the pamphlet is clear, in that, having reached a large number of those who were to come as Commissioners to the Assembly, before whom the complaint was to be laid, an unfair prejudice might be established in the minds of some who would be called to adjudicate in the matter set forth in the paper. Therefore, your Committee are of the opinion that the course taken in this direction by Dr. Farnham merits, and should hereby receive, a clear expression of decided disapprobation on the part of the Assembly.

In conclusion, your Committee would recommend :

1. That the requests contained in the complaint and appeal of Dr. Farnham, and marked severally 1, 2, 3 and 4, found on page 9, be, and they are hereby, declined.

2. Your Committee, in full and cheerful recognition of the faithful and valuable services rendered for many years in the cause of Foreign Missions by Dr. Farnham, and in the expression of entire confidence in his Christian zeal and sincerity of purpose, would recommend that he be, and is hereby, advised to return to his field of labor in the Central China Mission, and resume his work in the service of the Master, in the Christian spirit of cheerful acceptance of this deliverance of the General Assembly upon his complaint and appeal, in the assurance that he will have the cordial coöperation of the Board and the prayers of his brethren in Christ, both at home and abroad, that he may realize the hope expressed in the closing words of his appeal, that he may remain so long "as my bread and water continue in mission work and in my old field of Central China."

HERRICK JOHNSON, Chairman.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 29, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and after devotional services, was opened with prayer.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Judicial Commission, to which was referred the complaint of the Rev. William Bryant and others, against the action of the Synod of Iowa, in the case of A. R. Day, presented its Report, which was approved, and ordered on record:

The Commission decide that the case presents a question of interpretation of the Constitution, and, therefore, the General Assembly has jurisdiction to hear the appeal. The Commission adjudges that the Synod of Iowa had the right in this case to entertain the petition of A. R. Day for rehearing, and in its discretion to make an order for rehearing of the appeal from the Presbytery of Waterloo. But the Commission is of the opinion, and so adjudges, that the Synod of Iowa erred in its judgment in dismissing the case, and adjudges that the Synod of Iowa should have remanded the case to the Presbytery of Waterloo for retrial. It is, therefore, the order of the General Assembly that the appeal be sustained, and that the Synod of Iowa is hereby ordered and required to remand said case to the Presbytery of Waterloo for a rehearing upon the specifications originally filed therein.

The minutes were read and approved. Closed with prayer.

J. M. WORRALL, Moderator.

ORLANDO E. HART, Clerk.

The Committee on Conference with the Presbyterian Church in the United States, reported on Overture No. 22, from certain ministers and elders of the Presbytery of Cape Fear, asking the Assembly to overture the Presbyteries so to amend Chapter x, Section 2, Form of Government, as to admit of the establishment of more than one Presbytery within the same territory.

Your Committee recommend for answer that it is inexpedient to send down such Overture without a larger expression of desire on the part of the Presbyteries.

Overtures Nos. 25-35, from the Presbyteries of Cairo, Des Moines, Fort Wayne, Chillicothe, Steubenville, St. Clairsville, Kansas City, Louisville, Mattoon, Ozark, Zanesville, asking:

Would it be proper for a Synod, if thought best, in the prosecution of our work as a Church, for the education and evangelization of the colored people of our country, to constitute in the territory of existing Presbyteries, at the request of those on the ground and immediately concerned, Presbyteries, consisting chiefly or entirely of colored ministers and ruling elders of colored congregations, and other ministers engaged in work for the colored people?

Your Committee recommend that, as the question involves a construction of the Constitution in these, the Assembly declines to answer.

Overture No. 36, from the Presbytery of Yadkin, asking that the General Assembly accept reunion only on the basis of the Standards of the Church, pure and simple.

The Committee recommend that, in view of the action of the Assembly upon the Report of the Committee of Conference, no action be taken.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH T. SMITH, Chairman.

The recommendations were severally adopted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Report :

It is recommended that the Overture be referred to the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies.

Overtures Nos. 47-49, memorializing the Assembly to take action on the subject of Peace and Arbitration.

It is recommended that, in view of the deliverances heretofore made, no action on the part of this Assembly is necessary.

The following answer is recommended :

The Assembly believes that, a corporation such as that known as "The Presbyterian Ministers' Fund" is competent, to commend itself by the wisdom and efficiency of its management, and the Assembly does not feel called upon to endorse an institution not directly under its control.

Overture No. 51, from the Presbytery of Buffalo, asking, for reasons assigned, that the Forms for Congregational Narratives of Religion be revised, or that the use of them be discontinued altogether.

The following paper was referred to the Committee on Vacant Churches and Unemployed Ministers :

In view of the acknowledged difficulty of bringing our unemployed ministers and pastorless churches into communication with each other, the ministerial force of our Church being thereby often subject both to disuse and misuse, and the ministry sometimes exposed to personal humiliation ;

And in view of the challenge of our present method of preparing men for the ministry, and the plea that is urged in many quarters for an alternative English course of study ;

And in view of the wide need of more laborers of some sort, if we would reach the destitute districts adjacent to our regularly established churches, which outside and independent, and sometimes irresponsible agencies are being organized to meet ;

And in view of the latent and untrained power for effective and evangelistic service in many of our church officers and members ;

Resolved, That a Committee of seven, four ministers and three elders, be appointed to take these and any other questions strictly germane thereto into consideration, and report to the next Assembly whether any, and if any, what action is desirable concerning any one or all of these points.

The following was referred to the same Committee :

Resolved, That the Board of Home Missions be authorized, in special exigencies, at the request of Presbyteries, to expend small sums of money in sustaining ruling elders while engaged full time in evangelistic services.

The above Committee was increased by the addition of two members, and consists of Ministers : S. J. Niccolls, S. J. McPherson, Herrick Johnson; Ruling Elders—E. R. Monfort, E. G. W. Schaffler.

The Standing Committees on the Records of the Synods severally reported, recommending that the Records of the Synods of Atlantic, Baltimore, the Columbia, Colorado, Catawba, China, Dakota, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Pacific, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Wisconsin be approved ; that no certified copy of the records of the Synod of Michigan had been put in their hands ; that the records of the Synod of Texas be approved, with the exceptions that :

1. The records were not presented to the General Assembly last year for examination.

2. On pages 232 and 282 it appears that the Synod adjourned without prayer.

3. On page 265 it appears that the Synod met and elected a Moderator without first making out the roll.

The Reports were severally adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Iowa reported, recommending that they be approved, with the following exceptions, viz. :

1. Synod having entertained a petition from A. R. Day for a new trial in his case, erred in this, that, instead of remanding the case to the Presbytery of Waterloo for a new trial, they dismissed the same.

2. Synod erred in this, that having so resolved they proceeded to try the case as an appeal, when there was no such appeal.

3. Synod erred in this, that so treating the case they permitted certain members of the Presbytery of Waterloo to enter protests on their records. Adopted.

The Standing Committee on the Narrative of the State of Religion presented its Report. The Necrological Record was read by the Stated Clerk. The Assembly united in singing, and was led in prayer by the Rev. Robert W. Patterson.

The Narrative and the Necrology were ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

The following resolutions were referred to the Board of Publication, with power to act :

1. Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed to prepare and issue to all our families, by authority of the Assembly, a circular letter setting forth the facts concerning the organization of the General Assembly one hundred years ago ; its progress during that period ; its benign influence in the formation of the leading institutions of the country, and the events and spirit of this observance of its Centennial anniversary ; also the dates and statistics of all our existing Boards and other appliances for advancing the work of the kingdom.

2. Resolved, That a similar summary of the statistics of the Southern General Assembly be secured, if its authorities approve, and be either incorporated with the numbers of this exhibit or placed side by side with them.

3. Resolved, That the work of printing and issuing such circular letter be done by the Board of Publication, and at its expense ; and that a number of copies equal to the number of families in his church be sent to each pastor, stated supply and Session of vacant congregations, with direction that they have them distributed accordingly ; also that it be read from all our pulpits.

The Special Committee on Annual Concerts of Prayer reported, that the action of the Assembly already taken with reference to these concerts leaves nothing for them to do but to remind the Assembly :

1. That the Week of Prayer is hereafter to be observed under the appointment of the Evangelical Alliance instead of the Assembly.

2. That the Day of Prayer for Colleges and Schools has been changed from the last Thursday to the last Wednesday of January.

3. That the second Sabbath of June (Children's Day) is set apart for the prayerful consideration of the interests connected with the Sabbath-schools of the Church.

4. That the first Sabbath in October is designated as a day for the prayerful presentation of the claims of the Board of Education.

5. That the first Sabbath in November has been fixed upon as a day of special supplication on behalf of the great Foreign Missionary work of the Church.

The Committee further report with reference to the Overture of the Presbytery of Redstone referred to them, asking for "the appointment of a season in the near future when the Church shall more fully consider its relation to the Holy Spirit," that they deem it inexpedient to add to the days already appointed, but recommend that on these days the person and work of the Holy Spirit be specially emphasized.

GEORGE D. BAKER, Chairman.

The Mileage Committee was directed to pay the contingent and entertainment funds to the Stated Clerk.

The Assembly having appointed the Rev. William H. Roberts, the Stated Clerk, a delegate to the Council of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System, to be held in London, England, July 3, 1888, it was resolved that the Assembly authorize the Stated Clerk to postpone the publication of the "Minutes" for the present year, to a date which will permit his attendance upon the sessions of the Council.

The Standing Committee on Mileage presented its Report, which was accepted, and adopted with the special thanks of the Assembly to the members of the Committee for their arduous services. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Mileage respectfully report:

RECEIPTS:

From apportionment on account of Mileage,	$26,143 46
" " " Entertainment Fund,	9,545 68
" " " Contingent Fund,	10,152 80

DISBURSEMENTS.

Bills of Commissioners for Mileage,	$22,639 74
Contingent Fund, paid to Stated Clerk,	10,152 80
Entertainment Fund, paid to Stated Clerk,	9,545 68
Clerk hire and expenses,	40 00
Balance paid to Stated Clerk,	8,463 72
Total,	$45,841 44

There are 202 Presbyteries on the roll, that of East Oregon having been added since the last Assembly; and 197 are represented at this meeting. The present enrollment of Commissioners is 516, thirty-nine more than last year. Thirty Presbyteries are exempt from payment to the funds of the Assembly. Four of these, being Indian Presbyteries, Cherokee, Choctaw, Dakota and Muskogee, paid in full. Seven other Presbyteries which are on the exempt list, viz., Alaska, Cape Fear, Catawba, Fairfield, McClelland, Western Africa, and Yadkin, paid, in the aggregate, the sum of $183.81.

Of the remaining Presbyteries 163 paid their apportionments in full according to the system adopted by the Assembly. The Presbyteries of Nassau and New Castle paid only to the Contingent Fund. The following Presbyteries, viz., Clarion, Marion, Rock River and St. Clairsville, paid both the contingent and mileage apportionments, while the Presbytery of Huntingdon paid the contingent and mileage apportionments and a part of the Entertainment Fund. The Presbytery of Chester paid the contingent and entertainment in full and part of the mileage apportionment. The Presbytery of Bellefontaine paid nothing to the Committee. The whole amount of apportionment unpaid is $1096.28, or $700 less than last year. It thus appears that a great majority of the Presbyteries pay their full apportionment according to the system of the General Assembly. A few still follow plans of their own, thus increasing the burdens of others and introducing some complication into the work of the Committee.

The Committee offer the following:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly urge upon all the Presbyteries the full and prompt payment of their apportionment for the Mileage, Contingent and Entertainment Funds.

2. That the apportionment for next year be four cents for each communicant for mileage, $1\frac{1}{2}$ cents for contingent expenses, and $1\frac{1}{2}$ cents for entertainment—altogether 7 cents.

3. That the Stated Clerk be authorized to settle accounts of Commissioners when balances may be still due, owing to excess in railroad charges on return.

4. That the General Assembly tender its thanks to those railroads that have carried Commissioners at reduced rates; also to the Stated Clerk for efficient service in this connection.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM WADE, Chairman.

The Committee appointed to confer with President Cleveland concerning Indian schools reported that they had met the President, and had been received with the utmost courtesy and consideration, and had been assured that if the Committee would suggest such modifications in the order as were deemed important, he would take them into consideration, and do what he consistently could to meet the wishes of the Assembly. It was Resolved, That the Committee be continued and make such publication of the final result of the conference, as commends itself to their judgment.

The following Special Committees were appointed :

On the Disposition and Investment of the Centenary Fund: Rev. Charles L. Thompson, Chairman; Ruling Elders—William C. Gray, George H. Shields, Warner Van Norden, J. H. Converse; Ministers—John Hall, Robert Christie, Edward D. Morris. The Moderator was added to and made Chairman of the Committee by resolution of the Assembly.

To Represent to the President of the United States the Evils of the Liquor Traffic in Africa: Ministers—Byron Sunderland, Howard Crosby, Herrick Johnson; Elders—William Strong, James A. Beaver.

A Committee of three, to consider whether any changes are required, or are advisable, in the Form of Government, in the matter of representation in Synods and Presbyteries, to report to the next Assembly: Ministers—William H. Roberts, T. Ralston Smith; Ruling Elder—Dan P. Eells.

Special Committee on the Board of Missions for Freedmen: Ministers—Charles A. Dickey, J. M. Worrall, O. A. Hills, James Lewis, J. P. E. Kumler; Ruling Elders—Hiram R. Crowell, E. C. Walker, Samuel M. Breckinridge, William Ernst, Robert Menzies.

Special Committee of Visitation to the Churches in Brazil: Ministers—William C. Cattell, William E. Moore, E. R. Craven, Everard Kempshall, Charles A. Dickey; Elders—Silas B. Brownell, Samuel M. Breckinridge, C. E. Converse.

The Committee received power to fill vacancies in its membership.

Committee on the Methods of Administration of the Funds of the Board of Relief: Ministers—John Dixon, David B. Frazer, Henry Van Dyke; Ruling Elders—Ezra M. Kingsley, Charles O. Morris, with the Rev. W. C. Cattell, and a member of the Board of Relief, added by the resolution of the Assembly.

The Stated Clerk called attention to the fact that two Committees had been constituted to urge the claims of the Board of Education upon the churches, whereupon the Assembly ordered said Committees to be consolidated, and the Moderator appointed :

The Special Committee on the Board of Education, as follows: Ministers—Edward D. Morris, William M. Paxton, Thomas S. Hastings, Thomas H. Robinson; Elders—William Strong, S. B. Brownell, Cyrus Peck, Logan C. Murray, John B. McPherson, Samuel C. Perkins.

A resolution on Decoration Day was referred to a Committee consisting of: Ministers—Howard Crosby, William Aikman, Herrick Johnson; Ruling Elders—Johnson H. Baldwin and William Wade, who subsequently reported the following resolution:

Resolved, That in view of the near approach of Decoration Day, the day set apart by our National Government in memory of those who, during the Civil War, gave their lives that the Union and the country should not die, the General Assembly desires to put on record its grateful recognition of the inestimable services, the devotion unto death, of those heroic and patriotic soldiers, and our undying attachment to the great principles for which they fought and died, and with the great multitude of our fellow-citizens to extend our prayerful sympathy to those throughout our whole country to whom the day brings still the memory of immeasurable bereavement.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

The following paper was adopted:

Whereas, The Protestant Church of Bohemia has sent a letter to our Assembly asking for a word of sympathy and encouragement in their lonely and heroic work; and,

Whereas, Similar letters have heretofore come from this Church and have been unnoticed by our Assembly; therefore,

Resolved, That a Committee of two ministers and two elders be appointed to take this letter in charge and make suitable reply.

The Rev. Samuel W. Dike, Secretary, on invitation, addressed the Assembly in behalf of the National Divorce Reform League.

The Committee on the Letter to the Bohemian Church was appointed as follows: Ruling Elder—Lee S. Pratt; Ministers—G. P. Nichols, Samuel Dunham; Ruling Elder—Joseph E. Ely.

The following resolution in the Farnham case was adopted:

Resolved, That in the action of this Assembly upon the case of Rev. John M. W. Farnham with relation to the draft made by him upon the Board of Foreign Missions, there is no intention whatever to reflect upon his integrity, nor is it intended thereby to intimate, nor ought it to be inferred, that he wanted said money for his own or any improper use, but that the Assembly meant only to say that he continued to act without authority as Treasurer after his removal by the Board, but that in so doing he intended a legitimate and proper use of said money in mission work. Of this the Assembly had no doubt.

The Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church made a final Report upon a paper having reference to the formation of an American Church in Berlin for the benefit of American travelers, but especially of University students, and recommended that this paper be referred to the Committee on Coöperation provided for in their former Report, viz.: Ministers—John Hall, Leander T. Chamberlain and George W. F. Birch. The Report was adopted and the reference made.

The Standing Committee on Finance presented its Report, which was accepted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Finance would respectfully report, that they have given careful attention to the following documents, which have been placed in their hands for consideration:

1. The annual account of the Rev. W. H. Roberts as Treasurer of the General Assembly for the year ending May 12, 1888. From this Report it appears that the receipts from all sources, including interest on certificates of deposit ($558 68) and balance on hand as per last Report, were $62,986.68. The expenditures have been $44,323.92, leaving a balance on hand of $18,662.76. For this balance the Committee have seen the certificates of deposit of the Ohio Valley National Bank, of Cincinnati, for $16,976.79, bearing interest at the rate of three per cent per annum. The remainder of the amount, viz., $1685.97, being on deposit to the credit of the Treasurer as follows: $96 in the Merchants' National Bank, of New York City, and $1689.97 in the Ohio Valley National Bank, Cincinnati, Ohio, as per letters shown to the Committee from the Cashiers of those banks. Your Committee have audited the account and found vouchers for all payments made, and recommend that the account, as it stands, be approved by the Assembly. The Committee in this connection take pleasure in commending the careful attention given by the Treasurer, to the finances of the Assembly, to the disposition of the funds left in his control, so that the interest therefrom inures to the benefit of the Assembly, and to the clear presentation of his accounts.

2. The Annual Report of the Trustees of the General Assembly for the year ending March 31, 1888. The Annual Report of the Treasurer of said Trustees for the fiscal year ending the same date, together with the certificates of the proper officers that they have examined the accounts and compared the vouchers with the payments, and find the account correct. Also, a certificate from the Committee on Finance that they have examined the bonds and mortgages and other evidences of property belonging to the Trustees, and find them in proper order, as set forth in the Treasurer's Report. These Reports show that there have been three legacies secured during the year, aggregating $6869.48.

The funds now held in interest amount to $467,390.50. Of this amount there are invested in interest-bearing securities $472,685.95, less cash borrowed, $5295.45, to pay the over-investments. These also appear in the account of the Treasurer, which is herewith transmitted, accompanied by the usual certificates of the Finance and Auditing Committees. The interest upon all the securities has been fully paid, except upon a railroad bond, which was given originally to the "Presbyterian House," and is now in litigation.

The receipts for the year have been :

From mortgages paid off,	$54,200 00
From legacies,	17,820 48
From income from investments,	28,990 91
Borrowed to pay the over-investments,	5,295 45
Balance from last year,	89,582 06
	$140,388 85

The payments have been :

On income account,	$20,755 76
Invested in mortgages,	103,560 00
Expenses,	1,218 30
Board of Publication and S. S. Work,	1,471 60
Boudinot Library Fund,	948 30
Legacies to Board of Freedmen,	10,450 95
Estate of J. B. Thompson—advanced to secure bequest,	1,590 31
Balance on hand—income,	458 68

	$140,388 85

Since the last meeting of the General Assembly two vacancies have occurred, viz.: The Rev. William E. Schenk has sent to the Board his resignation, and Enoch Taylor, Esq., has died.

We recommend, to fill the two vacancies, the election of the Rev. Benjamin L. Agnew and Mr. T. Charlton Henry.

The financial affairs of the General Assembly we find to be generally in a satisfactory condition.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

LOGAN C. MURRAY, Chairman.

The Report was accepted, and the Rev. Benjamin L. Agnew and Mr. T. Charlton Henry were elected Trustees.

A paper from the Colored Home at Baxter Springs, Kans., was referred to the Special Committee on the Board of Missions for Freedmen.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence reported, recommending that the Rev. George D. Baker be appointed a Delegate to the General Convention of the Reformed Episcopal Church, with the Rev. L. Y. Graham, his Alternate. Adopted.

The Stated Clerk was by unanimous consent empowered and directed to cast the ballot of the Assembly for: Ministers—David Magie, Samuel M. Hamilton, David R. Frazer; Laymen—Robert Jaffray, Hezekiah King, John Sloane, as Trustees of the Board of Church Erection Fund. In the place of Rev. E. R. Craven, resigned, the Assembly empowered and directed the Stated Clerk to cast its vote for the Rev. John Hall.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 29, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

It was Resolved, That the Rules for Judicatories be referred to a Committee consisting of the Moderator and the Stated and Permanent Clerks, to report to the next Assembly any amendments in their judgment necessary.

The following telegram from the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland was received, and ordered to be placed upon record and answered:

To the Moderator of the General Assembly at Philadelphia:

The General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland send hearty greetings and warm congratulations on the Centenary of the American Presbyterian Churches, and prayers for their harmony and progress.

It was Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized, as usual, to publish the "Minutes" of this Assembly.

It was Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to furnish the "Minutes" to such Presbyteries only as have paid in full their quota to the Contingent Fund.

It was Resolved, That the Stated Clerk forward a copy of the printed "Minutes" of this Assembly to every ruling elder who is a Commissioner therein, provided the ruling elder forward his post-office address, and that the Presbytery which he represents has paid its full quota to the Mileage and Contingent Funds.

It was Resolved, That the Moderator be authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees.

The Special Committee on the Republication of the "Minutes" presented its Report, which was accepted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Republication of the "Minutes" of the Assembly reported that, the "Minutes" of 1836-1837 have been printed and bound with the volume, 1821-1835. The remaining volumes, three in number, bringing the "Minutes" down to the time of the reunion in 1869, are ready for the printer.

The Committee recommend that the "Minutes" of 1836 and 1837 be issued separately, for the benefit of those who already have the volume 1821-1835, and that the Board be urged to issue the remaining volumes as speedily as possible.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. ROBERTS,
W. E. MOORE.

The Report was adopted.

The Special Committee on Methods of Effecting Changes in the Constitution reported progress, asked to be continued, and recommended that the Rev. Everard Kempshall be added to their number. The Report was adopted.

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1887 (see page 142), on Official Reports of Debates and Proceedings, reported that inasmuch as the cost of a verbatim Report of said debates and proceedings would be very great, they would recommend that it is inexpedient to publish the same. The Report was adopted.

The Stated Clerk reported to the General Assembly upon the following resolution of the Assembly of 1887, namely:

"Resolved, That the Boards of the Church are requested to take into consideration the practicability of binding together the Annual Reports, as is now done for the use of the Assembly, before sending them out to pastors, and that said Reports, if bound, be bound and distributed by the Board of Publication, under the supervision of the Stated Clerk, the expense to be borne by the Boards." The Clerk has received from each of the Boards an affirmative answer to the proposition contained in the resolution. The great majority of the Presbyteries have also expressed a favorable judgment. It is therefore recommended that 5000 copies of the Reports of each of the Boards be bound in volumes and distributed to pastors and stated supplies, the binding and distribution to be done by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, under the supervision of the Stated Clerk. It is further recommended that the expense of said binding and distribution be borne by the Boards proportionately, and that a Report upon the whole matter be presented by the Stated Clerk to the next General Assembly.

The Report was adopted.

The Standing Committee on Leave of Absence reported that they had given leave of absence to the following Commissioners,

The Stated Clerk was directed and authorized to pay all bills and salaries.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That by the action taken this morning with regard to Memorial Day, this Assembly is not to be understood as repudiating or contravening that sacred Scriptural principle embedded in the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church, and most solemnly endorsed by the last Assembly, namely, "Synods and Councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical; and are not to intermeddle with civil affairs which concern the commonwealth, unless by way of humble petition in cases extraordinary, or by way of advice for satisfaction of conscience, if they be thereunto required by the Civil Magistrate." (Confession of Faith, Chap. xxi, Sec. 4.)

The Moderator was added to the Committee of Conference with the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

The Stated Clerk was directed to pay the expenses incurred in the use of the Academy of Music for the Centennial services and the popular meetings.

The following communication was received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and directed to be printed in the "Minutes":

This General Assembly having, in pursuance of the programme adopted on the 19th instant, joined with our brethren of the Northern Assembly in the Centennial celebration at Philadelphia, would, in resuming its session in this city, place upon record its grateful recognition of an event so rare and so full of interest to all people of the Presbyterian faith and order.

1. And first of all, we recognize with devout thankfulness the good hand of our God upon us. We adore His covenant faithfulness and grace in preserving, extending, strengthening and blessing our beloved Church during the century that has elapsed since its complete organization in our country was effected; and now we humbly acknowledge our continued dependence upon Him to guide, uphold and enlarge us in the centuries to come.

2. We would not fail to express our lively sense of the importance and dignity of the late Centennial commemoration, and our earnest hope that that occasion, seldom surpassed in ecclesiastical annals, may prove an incentive to more entire consecration and greater activity in the cause of our blessed Lord.

3. The heartfelt thanks of this Assembly are due and are hereby tendered to our brethren of the Philadelphia churches for their abounding hospitality, their cordial welcome and their thoughtful and unsurpassed provision for our comfort and enjoyment as their guests.

4. We do in an especial manner express our thanks to our kind entertainers, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wistar Morris, for the elegant reception given us at Overbrook, and for the privilege they afforded us of meeting the honored Chief Magistrate (and his estimable wife) of our land, and receiving his kindly greetings.

5. We do also return our sincere thanks to the gentlemen of the Committees of Arrangements of both Churches, who devoted so much time and pains to the preparations for the celebration so successfully carried out. And most especially to Rev. J. S. MacIntosh and the Hon. George S. Graham, who came to Baltimore expressly to escort us to their city and guide us to our hotels, and whose hospitable attentions to this Assembly were not intermitted till the moment of our departure from Philadelphia.

6. We do further express our high appreciation of the service rendered to the cause of Presbyterianism and our common Christianity by the distinguished speakers, who so faithfully and so eloquently proclaimed, expounded and expressed the principles and polity of our Church.

7. In this recital of acknowledgment, we must not fail to declare the profound satisfaction it has given us to unite with our brethren of the other Assembly in the celebration of an event, the consequences of which have been so important and glorious, and in which we claim a common inheritance with them. Our hearts are filled with gratitude to God, that after the separation of so many years, we could meet them again as brethren in the Lord, and, though in "two bands," vie with each other in one devotion to the grand principle for which our fathers so earnestly contended, and in the defense and maintenance of which their sons are ready to lay down their lives. We shall ever cherish, as among our most delightful memories, the recollection of our fraternal association with them in the joint celebration of the Centennial of our two General Assemblies.

8. And finally we invoke upon all those in any way connected with these commemorative exercises the grace, mercy and peace of God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, to the end that His name may be glorified by His Church, both now and throughout all ages, world without end, amen.

Attest: JOSEPH R. WILSON, Stated Clerk.

A resolution of thanks to the Moderator was unanimously adopted, by a rising vote, and is as follows:

8. That we acknowledge our indebtedness to the Western Union Telegraph Company, the Bell Telephone Company and the Hammond Type-Writer Company for free services generously rendered to the Assembly. Also, to the Postmaster of the city for the facilities and special accommodations furnished the Assembly.

9. That we express our thanks to the several railroad companies, for liberal reduction of fares made in favor of the Commissioners and others, in coming to and returning from the meetings of this Assembly, and also recognize the valuable services of the Stated Clerk in securing such reductions.

10. That we recognize and acknowledge the valuable services rendered by the press of this city, and hereby record our appreciation of the full and satisfactory reports published of the proceedings of this Assembly.

Overture No. 45, from the Presbytery of Nassau, was referred to the next Assembly.

APPENDIX.

I. Moderator's Sermon, Narrative and Necrology.

FATHERS AND BRETHREN :

It is with no ordinary emotions we meet here to mingle our centennial congratulations and thanksgivings. Philadelphia, the name of our place of assemblage, is a name of happy omen. Brother and Love are two new names borrowed from the vocabulary of Heaven, brought down to earth by the divine Master and transfigured into mighty spiritual forces for the regeneration of human society. We hail the name as a prophecy of that "good time coming" when fear and force and interest and authority shall all be lost in brotherly love, binding these scattered fragments of humanity into one glorious brotherhood.

No memorial city on earth, save one, is for us filled with such inspiring monuments and memories. There stands the old State House, gray with years, covered within and without with sublimer inscriptions than were ever graven on pyramid or pillar, in whose inner chamber was cradled the mightiest of nations, and from whose steeple rang out the proclamation at once of national independence and human brotherhood, which has gone sounding through the world ever since : "Proclaim ye liberty throughout all the land to all the inhabitants thereof."

This is our Presbyterian Jerusalem, "the Vision of Peace," transfigured for us into the City of Brotherly Love. Here the Ark, long a wanderer on these shores, found a resting place. For here the first Presbytery was formed and the first Synod and the first General Assembly. And here for many years successive Assemblies met. The spirits of the sainted dead are all around us, and we, my brethren, are come to "Mount Zion, to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to the General Assembly and Church of the First Born."

Organized in 1788, and holding its first meeting the year following, the first General Assembly consisted of 34 members, representing some 177 churches, scattered along this Atlantic coast. The Alleghenies were then the frontiers, and beyond them stretched away to the distant Pacific an almost unbroken wilderness. The Mississippi then rolled voiceless through the great valley to the sea, and the vast plains and prairies beyond echoed only the scream of the panther, the low of the buffalo and the war-whoop of the savage. Can this wide, wild wilderness be turned into a fruitful field and these deserts and solitary places be made to rejoice? That little handful of men gathered in the old Third Church, who are they, to attempt so mighty an enterprise? Dr. Witherspoon, the Moderator, interpreting their anxious thoughts, arose and announced his text—what text could have been more appropriate or inspiring? "Neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth, but God that giveth the increase." And now, after the lapse of a hundred years, with all their experiences, what text could be more appropriate for the service of to-day? 1 Corinthians, iii, 7—"So, then, neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth, but God that giveth the increase."

In this presence no exposition of these words or unfolding of the doctrine of divine efficiency is needful. The analogy suggested between vegetable and spiritual life runs through the whole volume of Scripture. Prophets and psalmists and evangelists wandered through forests and fields and orchard and garden, gathered from each its choicest products and planted them in a garden apart, grouping all around their central glory, "the Rose of Sharon and the Lily of the Valley." The Church, in Bible language, is sometimes a vineyard on a very fruitful hill. God has "fenced it and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vines." It is sometimes an orchard of palms and pomegranates and figs and olives and all "trees pleasant to the eye or good for food." It is more frequently a garden, an Oriental paradise, with its winding walks and tufted mounds and latticed arbors and sparkling fountains and beds of spices and flowers of fairest form and richest tint and sweetest perfume. Even Solomon could think of no fairer image of the Church when visited by the blessed influence of the Holy Spirit than his Bethlehem garden, when the winds wanted through its bowers and loaded themselves with its perfumes—"Awake, O, north wind; and come thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out."

God, who has made everything "beautiful in its season," and rejoices with a Creator's joy in His own works, has fitted up for His own abode and for our eternal home, a garden—the Paradise of which we love to think and to sing—of unfading flowers and perennial fruits, and river and trees of life, where the nations of the saved walk "with the Lamb that is in the midst of the throne." For man's earthly dwelling place, the home of his innocence, He prepared a Garden, enclosed out of the waste earth, and planted "eastward in Eden." Every plant, and every herb, and every tree, was created before it was in the ground, and creation everywhere preceded growth. Those Eden seeds, brought down perhaps from the Upper Paradise, by which the waste earth was to be replenished, what immortal things they are! They may be hurled in the teeth of icy blasts, buried deep in the wintry earth, hidden away in the heart of pyramids, or the ceremonies of Egyptian mummies, or the long-buried gardens of Persepolis or Pompeii, and yet, unharmed by all the ministers of destruction, they spring up and bloom in the gardens of Paris and Cairo to-day. Immortal beyond all these was the seed of the Tree of Life, which grew in the midst of the Garden. That one blossom promise of the woman's seed—how it has unfolded, multiplied and propagated itself in every direction to mantle the wide earth with the bloom and beauty of the lost Eden! Exposed to unnumbered perils, wrapped up for safety through a long winter, in the narrow, hard shell of Judaism, now that the shell opens and the living seeds come forth, Paul gathers that he may scatter them abroad over the world—"A sower going forth to sow." He goes through Judea, and Samaria, and Galilee, and out into the regions beyond, through Asia Minor, across the sea to Europe, through Greece, and Italy, and Spain, and France, on and still on, for the spirit will nowhere suffer him to linger, till he reaches "the uttermost parts of the earth," and looks out over the waves of the great western sea. And there, there comes to him once more the Macedonian cry he heard in Troas, "Come over."

On the western side of the European continent, sundered from it, and thrust out amid the stormy waves of the Atlantic, God had placed two little islands side by side—Great Britain, with its level pastures swelling up as they sweep northward into the Gibralter fastnesses of the Scottish Highlands; and Ireland, trenched about by seas, with its emerald meadows, its fairy lakes, and its bogs but half reclaimed from the waves. Mere specks upon the earth's surface, of what momentous events those little islands have been the theatre! How "their line has gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world!" How they have peopled the waste places of the earth—America, Australia, New Zealand, the islands of the sea, and planted themselves in the heart of the most populous empires of the East. Their roll-call circles the earth with the hours, their language, their literature, their laws, their Bible, and their religion are overspreading the world. Not Babylon nor Rome, in their palmiest days, ever ruled so wide an empire, or swayed so mighty a sceptre. Moses saw their day afar off when he wrote: "By them were the Isles of the Gentiles divided ;" and Isaiah, when he wrote : " Listen, O ! Isles, unto me ; Jehovah hath said unto me I will give thee for a light to the Gentiles, and my salvation to the ends of the earth."

Accepting the tradition that Paul first preached the Gospel in Britain, we know that a great company of evangelists followed, for then all Christians were evangelists. Christian soldiers in the legions of Vespasian and Agricola, Christian merchants from Alexandria, Smyrna and Ephesus, Christian travelers, who had heard Peter, and John and Timothy preach, went to the savage Britons, gathered around their blood-stained Druid altars and told them of " Jesus and the resurrection." By the end of the second century we know that Gospel was preached, and the primitive, Apostolic Church established.

Very different has been its history in the two islands. England, larger, richer, more accessible, the prey of successive spoilers, has always changed its religion with its masters. Conquered first by the Romans, and for three centuries a Roman province, its State religion was the idolatry of Rome. Conquered again by the fierce pirate hordes of the North—Jutes and Saxons, and Angles and Danes—the monuments of Roman civilization with every remaining relic of Christianity were all swept away, and from the white cliffs of Dover to the bleak hills of Northumberland, the temples of the terrible Scandinavian war-gods, Woden and Thor, rose upon the ruins of Roman temple and Christian shrine. Then followed another army of invaders, Augustine and his forty cowed monks, armed with ghostly weapons, mightier than the sword of the Roman or the battle-axe of the Saxon. In less than a century all England was subdued to the dominion of the Pope of Rome. Then came the Normans, with the more genial culture of the sunny south, rearing upon the ruins of rude wattle chapels the magnificent cathedrals of Canterbury, of Westminster and of York, and flinging the fascinations of art and the witcheries of ceremonial around the altars of Rome. For long centuries England was the most abject vassal of the Pope, a fief of his empire, its revenues flowed into his treasury, while its Church was ruled with despotic power by a hierarchy of his anointing. Then came the Tudors, who wrested the tiara from the Pope to place it on their own heads. England was a Popedom still, only the seat of ghostly power was transferred from the Vatican to Whitehall, and Henry, instead of Gregory, was the Pope. The despotism of the Tudors culminated at last in that of the Stuarts, the most unmitigated despotism the world has ever seen. No Oriental despot, claiming to be a god, ever ruled his crouching subjects with such absolute power as the first Charles. His single will ruled the State, and the lives, the liberties and the fortunes of his subjects were at his mere mercy. " Whom he would he slew ; and whom he would he kept alive." His single will ruled the Church, prescribed its faith, settled its prayer-book, appointed its officers, and ordered its whole administration. Always changing its religion with its rulers, the primitive Church was supplanted to this day by the Church of the king. It is the miracle of these last days that such an Oriental despotism could have been established in England and over the Anglo-Saxon race. There was restlessness, indeed, all the time. Again and again the throne of Pope, and Primate, and Tudor, and Stuart was shaken by earthquake throes, but not till the double despotism culminated in the Stuarts did the great English people rise up in their might to dethrone the tyrant.

Very different was the history of the Apostolic Church in Ireland and Scotland. For our present purpose they are one. The original inhabitants of Ireland and the Scottish Highlands were Scots, and perhaps colonists from Phœnicia. Their letters, their language, their rites of worship, their great May feasts, their hymns to Baal, their race characteristics, all point to the Tyrian coast. Secure in their mountain fastnesses and almost trackless bogs, they never felt, or felt but lightly, the yoke of the English conquerors. Here the remnant in England, who would not bow to the conqueror nor serve his gods, fled for refuge ; and here the primitive faith and the primitive Church were preserved. The dense fogs which envelop Island and Highland are lifted from time to time, and in Patrick, the Presbyter-bishop of Ireland, in Columba, his successor, in the Apostolic Culdees, in Armagh, the Jerusalem, and in Iona, the Patmos of the Isles, we see the true light shining steadily on amid surrounding darkness. The Scotch Church was never willingly subject to any king, save Jesus. She always stood ready to resist even unto death every Cæsar who would attempt to fasten his yoke upon her neck. When the Stuarts, with the madness which always goes before destruction, attempted to extend their sway over Scotland and Ireland, they rose up together in open and armed resistance. All Ireland was roused, and a Scotch army had already crossed the Tweed. In its extremity the English Parliament calls to them for help, and the war of giants begins. On the one side were the king, the court, the privileged classes, the army and the Church. On the other, the great English people joined with the peoples of Scotland and Ireland. There was the Anglo-Saxon, with his passionate love of civil liberty, and the Scot, with his still more passionate love of religious liberty. Anglo-Saxon and Scot enter into a solemn league and covenant—a league to vindicate their civil liberties, and a covenant to vindicate their religious liberties. "The Solemn League and Covenant," written in their blood, sounded the tocsin of death to absolutism.

The long conflict comes to a decisive issue in those two renowned Assemblies, which have changed the face of the world—the Long Parliament and the Westminster Assembly. The Parliament smote off the head of the king, scattered his armies, swept away Star Chamber, Inquisition and Church and the whole machinery of despotism. The work of destruction was complete, and society was reduced to utter chaos. Then, for the harder task of reconstruction, Parliament summoned the Westminster Assembly to its aid. It was an Assembly composed of the most illustrious representatives of the three kingdoms. From the House of Lords there came down ten of the hereditary magnates of the realm, from the House of Commons there came twenty of the most renowned champions of freedom. There were Prelates, Presbyters, Erastians, Independents, Presbyterians, all orders of the State, and all schools of religious faith. It was a popular Assembly, such as England never had seen before, and has never seen since. They met on a spot which had been sacred to Celt, to Roman and to Saxon. There, on the ruins of Druid altar and Roman temple had risen a stately cathedral, massive, symmetrical and beautiful as a dream. For eight hundred years it had been the symbol of England's glory, the shrine of her saints, the mausoleum of her mighty dead, the scene of her most splendid pageants, coronations and convocations. But to us, with the blood of its members in our veins, the faith in our hearts and the chartered liberties they bought with their blood in our hands, Westminster is hallowed above all by the Assembly of 1643. In this presence we need not recount their labors. The Confession they framed embodied in completest form the common faith of Protestantism, and is the Confession of our faith to-day. The polity they established was the living body which Calvinism always builds for its habitation, and is the Presbyterianism we possess to-day. The long conflict between Oriental despotism and popular government in the State, and between Christ and Cæsar in the Church, was brought to a decisive issue. The liberties of the people and the sovereignty of Christ were bound up together in the Westminster Standards. They became the statute law of the three kingdoms, and Presbyterianism was established in all. But one fatal error at war with their own fundamental principles marred the whole. The house divided against itself fell, and great was the fall of it. Scarcely were the fatal words about the civil magistrate written till the mailed hand of Cromwell scattered the Assembly, and the profligate, perjured Charles shivered into fragments the whole fabric they had reared. Not in Britain, but in a broader, grander theatre their work was to reach its consummation and find its glorious realization.

This New World was fitted up and hidden away amid trackless seas as the wilderness sanctuary into which the woman, with eagle's wings, and the man-child, who was to rule all nations, fled from the face of the Old World's scarlet Dragon. Its central portion, the zone of population and empire, was reserved for Protestant Britain, while Papal Spain and Papal France were turned away—the one Southward, the other Northward. Compared with its home in the British Isles, or its earliest home in Palestine, what a large place was here! We, my brethren, have come up to the city of our solemnities to-day from far wider dispersions than those of the tribes of old. We have come from the banks of our great Northern Galilees, sweeping in interlinked brightness across many a zone, from the shores of our far greater Western sea, from our hill country, spanning in two broad belts the Continent, from many a plain of Sharon, and from our great Esdraelon Valley, sweeping from the far North to the sunny Gulf, watered by the River of God, and fruitful as the Garden of the Lord. It is "a land of fountains and depths, a land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, where they eat bread without scarceness, whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills they dig brass."

Coming to these shores one by one, and scattered through all the colonies, Presbyterians, like the Tribe of Levi, "had none inheritance in the land." Everywhere they found themselves confronted with their old adversaries enthroned in the high places of power and influence. In New York, in Maryland, in Virginia, in the Carolinas, in almost all the colonies they were harried by royal Governors and an established Church. They were fined, imprisoned, outlawed, forbidden to preach Christ or worship the God of their fathers without a license from the State. Here, too, the long conflict of the century came to a decisive and final issue in two popular Assemblies—the Congress and the General Assembly—sitting here side by side when this great Babylon was but a village, in the year 1788. '88 is to us a most memorable Centennial. In 1688 the proudly styled Invincible Armada, the mightiest armament the sea had ever floated, threatening utter destruction to Protestantism, was smitten by fierce wind and strewn in inglorious wrecks along the coast. In 1688, William, the Presbyterian Prince of Orange, descended upon England, drove out the faithless Stuarts and broke forever the iron yoke of absolutism. In 1788 the National Assembly of France inaugurated the Reign of Terror, which toppled every throne in Europe, deluged her fair fields in blood and threatened universal ruin. It was on that memorable centennial, and while the National Assembly in Paris was busy with its architecture of ruin, the Congress and the General Assembly met in Philadelphia.

History, it has been often said, is always repeating itself, and these two Assemblies were just the repetition of the Long Parliament and the Westminster Assembly. Here, too, at the time of their meeting, there was a social chaos. The old colonial governments had all been swept away. The Confederacy, sufficient for war, proved but a rope of sand in peace. National bankruptcy, and dishonor, and demoralization prevailed, threatening a carnival of lawlessness and blood. The Congress brought order out of the chaos; made of the many, one; established the reign of law; abjured all power over the Church; proclaimed the people king. And the nation was born in a day.

The other and more august Assembly was composed of Princes in Israel. There is Dr. Witherspoon, sage, statesman, moralist, preacher, everywhere, and easily first. There, by his side, is Patrick Alison, his peer in intellect, in courage, in zeal and devotion. There is Doctor Ewing, a living encyclopædia of all sacred and secular learning. There is the silver-tongued Samuel Stanhope Smith, the Apostolic Duffield, the sainted Moses Hoge, the consecrated Dr. Rodgers. These, with their illustrious compeers, were the men whom God had chosen to rear His tabernacle in the wilderness.

We need not in this presence recount their labors, for they were all summed up in the adoption of the Westminster Standards. They found the Westminster building with foundations deep and firm, resting upon the eternal Rock of Ages, with walls massive and symmetrical and but one bit of untempered mortar in the whole, but all unfinished, for its Topmost Stone was not yet brought in. They purged out the untempered mortar and brought in the Topmost Stone with shoutings of "Grace, grace unto it." The coronation of Jesus as sole King in Zion was proclaimed. The independence of Church and State, so often before proclaimed, was here for the first time in history actually realized. From that hour Church and State, twin ordinances of heaven, moving in their independent spheres, without perturbation or collision, like binary-suns, revolving around the same centre, mingling their rays, but never confusing their source, have poured a brighter splendor around a wider horizon.

Now, after the lapse of a century, from our mount of vision to-day, let us glance at the prospect around.

1. All through the century the Church has been coming into unity with itself, and acquiring a more perfect mastery over itself and its resources. From the confused chaos of sects and nationalities the Scotch-Irish Presbyterians early began to separate and draw together. Repeated efforts were made to unite with them Germans, and Dutch, and French in one all-embracing Presbyterianism. All failed; and the infant Church was fixed for all time in the Westminster mould.

Scarcely had the adopting act of 1729 been passed till the questions, which vex every constitutional government, at once arose. There were questions as to the precise import, and limitations, and applications of the Constitution, questions between a strict and liberal construction, between prerogative and privilege, States' Rights and National Sovereignty. Two repellant forces were struggling with each other in the bosom of the infant Church—the centripetal force of Authority, which would draw all to itself; and the centrifugal force of Liberty, which would drive all to lawlessness. Their struggles at last rent the body asunder in the schism of 1741. For seventeen years each moved disastrously apart. Then, yielding to the attraction of the Common Standards, they drew together to move henceforth harmoniously in balanced oppositions around their common centre.

The chief causes of the division of 1867 were not differences as to doctrine, or polity, or discipline as defined in the Constitution. They were differences as to methods, and measures, and administrations under the Constitution. Of the two chief causes of division, the one as to the "Excising acts" was a judicial question as to the application of the law to a specific case, a question which arises under the administration of every law, and which courts are everywhere established to decide. The other as to Voluntary Societies was regarded as a mere question of policy in the then existing state of the Church. Both parties held the Standards in their integrity; and when the questions of the hour had passed, they came together again on the basis of the Common Standards—the Standards, not as "historically interpreted," or "variously stated and explained," but the Standards "pure and simple." Never was union more hearty and complete. There were no compromises, no submissions, and so no cankering jealousies were left behind. All traces of the old dividing lines are to-day completely effaced, and the memory of them is preserved only by a few fossiliferous antiquarians, whose conversation is not with the living Present but with the dead Past.

Then came the as yet unhealed division of 1861. It sprang out of the old vexed question of its relation to the State, which had troubled the Church from the beginning, and has so often rent asunder our mother Church of Scotland. Both parties hold fast to the doctrine of the Standards as to the spirituality of the Church. Among Presbyterians there can never again be a question as to the crown rights of Jesus, or His sole Headship in the Church. But in the application of the admitted doctrine to a state of facts unparalleled in the past, and, as we trust, in all the hereafter, good men drew apart. Judging from our past experiences, and remembering the attractive power of the Standards when held in their integrity, while, of course, there will be oppositions, and obstructions, and delays, they will surely and at the right time come together again.

Meantime, the fellowship of common sufferings in the persecution of colonial times, and the fiery trials of the Revolution, and the deadly perils of the frontier was drawing them closely and more closely together. And all the time there was the inbreathing of the Divine Spirit, and the inworking of that only spirit of life which can build up the organism of a living Church. Again and again, in the East and the West, and in every great crisis of its history, the Spirit was poured out in Pentecostal fullness.

As from our mount of vision we look abroad over its wide expanse to-day, we see the Church united as never before. We have now no "liberal subscription," for we have no illiberal subscriptions; no "broad, generous Presbyterianism," for we have no narrow, ungenerous Presbyterianism; no "elective affinities," for we have no unelective affinities; no "old school," for we have no "new school." If here and there some echoes of the old battle-cries still linger, they are too few and faint to disturb our repose. We know, indeed, how easily that repose can be disturbed. A single rash speech on this floor, a single unguarded deliverance of this body, a single ill-advised newspaper article, may fan into a flame the embers of old strifes, or kindle a new conflagration. The little child may shiver into fragments the most precious vase. A mad-man may set fire to the most glorious structure ever reared by human hands. But amidst all these perils the good hand of our God is upon us. And we bless him to-day for this unity of the Spirit in the bonds of peace.

2. At one with itself, our Church is in a large sense at one with the Church universal. Presbyterian catholicity is not a mere sentiment or a thing of formal profession and platform proclamation. It is a fundamental doctrine embodied in the very heart of our confession. "The visible Church consists of all those throughout the world that profess the true religion, together with their children." Particular Churches, by whatever denominational names distinguished, are branches of the one true Church. It is a tree. The trunk is one. One life pervades the whole, from tiniest root to topmost leaflet. But it has many branches; some, it may be, larger and fairer and loaded with more luscious fruits, but all are branches of the one tree and partakers of the one life. "Many members, but one body." The "communion of saints," which we profess, requires us to maintain a holy communion and fellowship in each others' gifts and graces and worship "with all those who, in every place, call on the name of the Lord Jesus." No catholicity is broader than that of our Standards.

We are not one of a multitude of petty clans, "hating and devouring one another." We are one of a great federation of Christian commonwealths, many in one. We do not outlaw any nor treat them as "aliens from the commonwealth of Israel" because of their doctrine of baptisms or of laying on of hands. These "Principles," the A, B, C's of the primer, as the apostle calls them, we have left behind with other childish things, and are going on to the higher lessons of the perfection beyond. We recognize the membership, the ministry and the ordinances of all particular Churches. None are more loyal to the truth or hold it with a firmer conviction than Presbyterians. But we are loyal to our brethren as well, and hold the truth in love. Beyond the truth we hold apart, we find in the larger truth we hold in common a broad enough basis for communion with the Church universal. With all particular Churches, even those most remote, we recognize some point of vital contact. We are at one with the Greek Church, the Papal Church and every Church as to the great distinctive doctrine of Christianity, the doctrine at this time most fiercely assailed—the doctrine of God. We worship the same God, Father, Son, Spirit, the great Three in One, the God of the earliest creeds and of every creed. We join the Church universal in its protest against atheism, materialism, pantheism and godless scientism. We hold the common faith of Protestantism as formulated in all its great confessions—the Calvinism of the thirty-nine Articles of the Augsburg Confession, of the Heidelberg Catechism, of the Canons of Dort. We hold the Presbyterianism of the Reformation Churches of Germany, of France, of Holland, of Scotland, and of every land save England. We accept the historic episcopacy of the New Testament, of the earliest fathers, of Waldenses, of Culdees and Lollards, and all reformers before the Reformation; the episcopacy of Calvin, of Knox, of Wesley, of Cranmer, of Reynolds and Usher, and the fathers and founders of the Anglican Church. In common with all Christendom we repeat the Apostles' Creed. In all union societies and common evangelistic labors Presbyterians are always found in the front rank, for there is nothing in their creed and nothing in their hearts to prevent the fullest recognition and cooperation.

We believe that the visible Church is one, one organically, one body for the inhabitation of one spirit. Because of the hardness of our hearts, there has, indeed, been a schism in the body, and eye and ear have been saying to hands and feet we have no need of thee. Because of our manifold infirmities, denominations were needful in the past, and are needful still, just as the stars are needful before the all-glorious sun appears, just as winter's gloom is needful to prepare the way for spring, gladness and summer glory, just as Jewish types and shadows were needful to prepare the way for the great, coming one. "But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away." The visible Church is one. The day is coming when these schisms in the body shall be healed and its external, organic, visible unity be manifested to the world. Then the mighty power which Episcopacy and Papacy derive from their external unity will belong to the Church universal. Then, and then only, will the world believe.

In this hitherto unexampled working of the spirit of unity in Christian hearts, in this coming together in council and convention of those most nearly allied to each other, in this eager stretching out of hands toward each other by those farthest and longest estranged, in this earnest searching everywhere after agreements, instead of differences, in this consciousness of the absolute necessity of the strength which comes from union in the battle of the great Day of God Almighty against this mighty host arrayed under their one black banner, we hail the signs of promise, the morning star of coming day. May God hasten it in its time.

3. At one with itself, at one with the Church universal, our Church has wider affinities still. It is at one with its environment. "God," says the son of Sirach, "has made all things double." There are double ordinances in the heavens, and double ordinances on the earth; double organs in the body, and double conditions of life; and everywhere of the twain God is making one. The element and the body which lives and moves in it are doubles. And what the element is to the body that the State is to the Church it envelops. All history shows the vital importance of the right relations between them. When political allies, both suffer debasement and loss. When rivals, struggling with each other for the mastery, the land is filled with violence and blood. When either is master, master and servant suffer together. The Church and the State, doubles as they are, are of diverse natures, governed by different laws, directed to different ends, and moving in different spheres. The State ought to be to the Church what the atmosphere is to the body, which lives, and moves, and breathes in it. The atmosphere is imponderable, that the body may move through it easily, without oppression or hindrance: it is pure, that the body may breathe life, not poison and death: it is transparent, that the body may look through it to the bright lights of the heavens above. Such an atmosphere the State here is to the Church. Presbyterianism and Republicanism are one in the fundamental principles which underlie both. That all power under the Supreme is in the body of the people and not in a hierarchy—that this power is exercised, not immediately, but through their representatives—that these representatives are not constituted such by birth, or succession, or authority, but by election of the people—that all rulers are equal and exercise their powers jointly in a series of ascending courts. These great principles are common to Presbyterianism and republicanism. And while they rule out popes and prelates in the Church, they at the same time rule out kings and privileged classes in the State. The thirteen colonies, in Congress assembled, and the thirteen Presbyteries, in General Assembly, met here side by side, the one consciously, the other, if you please, unconsciously, fashioned their separate works after the divine pattern.

Independent, each moving in its own sphere, and seeking its own ends by its own methods, He who has made all things double, makes of the twain one in benediction. The State, for its own ends, organizes townships, counties, states, nation, and sets up the whole machinery of republicanism in all. In so doing it pioneers the way for the Church, the Presbytery, the Synod, the Assembly. It throws around them all the protection of the law which guards all peaceful citizens. The Church, in turn, as the divinely appointed religious teacher, inculcates the Bible duties of good citizenship, and binds them upon the conscience by sanctions the State never knew. And so, moving each in its separate sphere, nation and Church have attained a power and preëminence never known before. The song of the angels is echoed back by the twain made one in blessing. "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good-will towards men."

4. But our Church has wider affinities still. Presbyterianism recognizes the brotherhood of man. It sees in every man a king and priest unto God, waiting the hour of his anointing. Himself a king, it delivers him from the yoke of every earthly tyrant. Himself a priest, it delivers him from the ghostly terrors and sacramental witcheries of every earthly priest. Enthroning private judgment in the high place of authority, it sweeps tradition, and council, and pope, and priest, and synod, and Church from their usurped seats, and makes the man responsible for himself to God alone. The kingdom of the truth, it educates, leads out the higher and God-like faculties from among the lower, and quickens, and elevates and expands the popular mind. Wherever Presbyterians go, they carry with them schools, and colleges, and all the appliances of popular education.

They have always, and in all lands, been the champions of popular freedom. In the great battles for popular governments they have always been the advance guard. In every great crisis of the battle they have furnished the forlorn hope. Look over the roll-call of the martyrs of civil and religious liberty, Anglican, Lutheran, Armenian, and where will you find the martyr Church?

Our Presbyterianism is true Socialism, for it is the socialism of Christ. Its name is "The Kingdom of Heaven." Its written constitution is the Sermon on the Mount. Its all-embracing statute law, the Golden Rule, its authoritative interpretation of the law, is the Master's judicial decision of the question of the inheritance. The Church is not a divider of inheritances among men. Questions as to the equitable division of profits between employers and employed, questions between Capital and Labor, are beyond its jurisdiction. But it proclaims the great law of the kingdom, which requires justice, aye, and kindness, too, from both, and forbids selfishness in either. "Beware of covetousness." Do not with the covinorant's greed seek all for yourself. As you would your brother should do to you, do ye even so to him. What a glorious society is this of the kingdom of heaven! The Utopia, the free Commonwealth, the perfect social state, of which Plato, and Augustine, and Moore, and Milton, and Burke dreamed! Aye, and more than these! A golden dream impossible of realization upon earth and among men? No, it was embodied in the first Christian Church. What an exquisite picture is that which meets us at the opening of the Acts, in the very vestibule of the House of God! "And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul, neither was there any among them that lacked; and distribution was made to every man according as he had need; and great grace was upon them all." It is the Church of the future—when capitalists will be men, and corporations will have souls, and equity, kindness and consideration will take the place of business and greed and grinding; when laborers will be honest, and faithful and true, and make their employers' interest their own. Then, instead of grasping selfishness, and bitter hate and armed collisions threatening the very foundations of society, the law of love will rule the world. The groaning earth is crying out to the listening heavens: "Thy kingdom come."

5. Last of all, there are wider affinities still reaching away beyond earth and time. Presbyterianism honors God, exalts Him to the throne of absolute supremacy, and takes fast hold of the arm of His omnipotence. It recognizes His sole sovereignty in Nature and Providence, "working all things according to the counsel of His own will." It recognizes the absolute sovereignty of the Spirit in Redemption, not tied to Church, or sacrament, or ordinance, but "working when, and where, and how He will." It sees everywhere the efficiency, not of laws, nor forces, nor historical developments, nor of godless evolutions, but of the one, living, personal, omnipresent God. This is the grand characteristic of that Calvinism which is the living soul of the Presbyterian body. Recognizing the decrees of God as enwrapping the whole future, it labors together with God for the fulfillment of His high decrees. He that planteth is nothing; and he that watereth is nothing; but God, who is all in all, gives the increase.

Presbyterianism honors God by using the instrumentalities he has appointed. It takes the Bible, not as containing the Word of God, but as the very Word of God; not as interpreted and authenticated by council or creed, but as interpreting and authenticating itself. The Bible, and the Bible only, is its infallible rule of faith and practice. It will not keep back unwelcome truth, nor abbreviate or mutilate its Confession. It will not debase the simplicity of its worship by scenic displays or sensual pageants. Its ministry is the ministry of the Truth, not as addressed to the eye, or the ear, or the fancy, but to the understanding, the conscience, the heart. It will not lower the standard of its ministry, nor come down to win the multitude by earthly and adventitious attractions. It seeks rather to lift the multitude up to the high planes of thought and devotion.

From the beginning the Presbyterian Church has recognized its obligation as a missionary Church. The first care of the first Assembly was to send the Gospel to the regions beyond—the frontiers and the Indian tribes. Long ago our great agencies for Home and Foreign Missions were organized; and all through the century, as the world has been growing smaller, and men have been drawing more closely together, and appliances of evangelization have been multiplied, our agencies have been enlarged till to-day they reach out over the world, and are already gathering in their glorious fruitage. Here, to-day, are fathers and brethren from all parts of the great home field, from the shores of both seas, from the banks of the Northern lakes and the Southern Gulf, from mountain and plain, who are making the desert and solitary place to bud and blossom as the rose. Here are brethren from all parts of the great foreign field, from Africa, from India, from China, from Japan, from Syria, the forerunners of that great ingathering, when “they shall come from the East and from the West, and from the North and from the South, and sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of God.”

Standing to-day on this Centennial Pisgah, with the goodly land just before we have turned back to the Church in the Wilderness to renew their wanderings, share their toils and their triumphs that so we might gather “faith and patience” from their example. The Church all along her history has celebrated her great eras and anniversaries by festival and song, by sacrifice and sermon, by monument and memorial. On the banks of every Red Sea of deliverance, with cymbal and harp she sings her Miriam song of salvation. In the dry bed of every Jordan of passage she sets up her stone of thanksgiving. On every Ebal of victory she rears her pillar of triumph. “For the Lord has appointed a law in Israel that we should tell His mighty deeds to our children, that they might set their hearts on God, and not forget the works of God, but keep His commandments.” Here we, too, would set up our Centennial Ebenezer, and with glad and grateful hearts write upon it the old inscription, “Hitherto hath the Lord helped us.”

We may not longer linger here, as we would most gladly do, to look over the goodly land before. But as from day to day we come up to this Mount of Vision to survey its vast extent and glorious promise, we shall hear the voice of the Lord our God sounding continually in our ears, “Go in and possess the land.”

NARRATIVE

OF THE STATE OF RELIGION WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE YEAR ENDING APRIL 30, 1888.

Your Committee would report great embarrassment in preparing their Report, owing to the neglect of one-fourth of the Presbyteries in forwarding their narratives and tabulated statements to the Stated Clerk. Of the 201 Presbyteries 154 have fulfilled their duty, but the absence of the remainder renders an accurate summary for the year an impossibility. The reports, so far as they have come into our hands, present items full of encouragement.

I. ACCESSIONS AND REVIVALS.

Nearly all the Presbyteries refer to aspects of extension and growth. New churches have been organized and the rolls of membership, as a rule, received goodly additions throughout their bounds. The ratio of gain over other years cannot be estimated until all the returns come in. But there is every reason to believe from the data so far received that there will be as large a net gain as in any preceding year of the Church's history. Revivals are recorded in different sections of the land, but most often in connection with special evangelistic efforts. The regular means of grace have been chiefly relied on for the upbuilding of the churches, and although coldness and indifference are frequently deplored, yet there is cheering evidence that God has not left His chosen without the evident manifestations of His presence. In the older sections of our country the reports evince the usual fidelity and encouragement. The new churches in the interior and on the frontier are full of hope and gratefully record marked successes. From the foreign field reports are especially encouraging. The Presbytery of Shantung speaks "of the number of inquirers constantly increasing, persecutions less, three new churches, an increase of field meetings," Ningpo, "of a revived church which had long languished, and of hopeful conversions." North Laos, "of a prosperous year." Western Africa, "of cheering advance and encouragement." Chile, in South America, "record with thankfulness that God has enabled them to do so much with so small a force; the country was never more open for Gospel work, never so full of promise." Such are a few of the utterances which indicate that our churches, both at home and abroad, have received gracious tokens for good.

II. SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

This department of work shows marked progress. The number of adults in attendance is on the increase. Attention has been paid to the memorizing of Scripture and learning the Shorter Catechism. As to the latter there seems to be a revival of interest. It is worthy of note that the Sabbath-school is not only gathering in the children of the pious, but is doing a needed work for a large class of youth who would otherwise be neglected. From one-third to one-fourth of the pupils are reported as coming from families who do not regularly attend church. It is to be deplored that so large a proportion of pupils are not found at the sanctuary services. Even church-members often fail in having their households with them at the stated worship. This is an evil which calls for special consideration, as nothing can successfully displace the regular worship of God's house. The Sunday-school should in all cases become the direct pathway to the full participation and reception of all religious privileges. The excellent "Helps" prepared by the Board are reported as in general use, and the deepening interest and progress in Bible study is a source of congratulation.

III. PRAYER MEETINGS.

The reports all testify to the value and constant use of these stated seasons of devotion. While the attendance varies in different localities, and in some instances the love of many has waxed cold in this particular, still these may be taken as an index of the spiritual life of the churches. There is evidence that increased care is given to the conduct of these services, so as to secure less formality and more direct spiritual quickening. The practice of holding "after meetings" at the close of the regular Sabbath services is on the increase. Many of the reports speak of the Young People's Societies of Christian Endeavor as being valuable aids in training the young to take part in the devotional meetings, and as securing a larger attendance at the weekly services. The more direct participation of young people in Christian activity by the various agencies employed can only be conducive of good for the future of the Church.

IV. FAMILY RELIGION AND BAPTISMS.

Among the many forms of declension which we lament at this day is the marked disuse of family prayer. The reports, though not giving positive information on this point, speak with manifest discouragement. Perhaps our own Church is not more remiss in this practice than others, yet we cannot but deplore any neglect of the family altar, and regard it as an evident mark of declension, and hence all pastors and church officers are urged to take special pains to impress the importance of this duty as intimately connected with the divine blessing in families and churches. In the matter of infant baptism the reports show that this ordinance is faithfully used by a large proportion of our membership, who value the blessings of the covenant, and yet it is feared that some do not fully estimate this privilege and hence neglect to bring their children to be presented to God in consecration. The decay of family religion often tends to lax views and practice as to this duty also. Inasmuch as advancement in the Christian life is closely allied to faithfulness with respect to all covenant obligations, we urge renewed attention to this important subject.

V. CHURCH EXTENSION IN CITIES.

The Presbyteries which cover the large centres of population speak hopefully of undertakings in this direction. In the cities of New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Omaha, Denver, San Francisco, Los Angeles and elsewhere church extension plans are in successful operation. In the Synod of Iowa much attention has been devoted to this special form of development. A deepening interest has been awakened on this subject throughout the land. The rapid growth of cities in population, the changes of centres of residence and the need of provision for the unevangelized masses render such efforts an imperative necessity. While the frontier work cannot be unduly estimated and deservedly enlists the interest and coöperation of the churches, yet provision for the wants of large cities is of the greatest importance, as from these go forth the influences which mould and determine the welfare and religious character of the nation. Some of the Presbyteries at the metropolitan centres, in addition to the organization of new churches, speak hopefully of evangelistic efforts especially designed for the masses, of aggressive mission work by chapels and schools, and of endeavors to provide for the foreign populations who have not yet become assimilated to our language or customs. Much of this work is purely local and does not come into such prominence as the general mission work of the whole Church, but is still demanding large outlays both of means and time on the part of those who sustain them. The strong churches in our rapidly expanding cities have burdens laid on them in these demands for church extension in their respective localities, which they are desirous to meet, but which is not always considered and appreciated by those who live at remoter distances, but the outlays and sacrifices thus required enter into the aggregate of the benevolent work wrought by these churches for the good of our denomination.

VI. BENEVOLENCE.

The gifts to nearly all the causes recommended by the General Assembly have increased the past year. In the case of Ministerial Relief there has been a slight decline, owing doubtless to the special effort to raise the centenary endowment of a million of dollars for this cause. But in addition to the more than half million of dollars already contributed for this object, the other Boards have received decided advances, as for instance: The Home Board has received $143,540 over the receipts of last year; the Foreign Board, $117,023; Freedmen, $16,450; Sunday-school and Missionary Department, $23,680; Church Erection, $38,076; Education, $20,348; Aid for Colleges, $2333; making a net increase of $361,400. This indicates that there are reserved resources in the hands of God's people which only special exigencies call forth. Some of the new churches state that the added gifts this year have brought special blessings to themselves, according to the promise, "He that watereth others shall himself be watered." And yet when we think of the great wealth of our denomination, how limited is the aggregate of our giving? How much luxury is enjoyed without stint? How little comparatively of sacrifice is really made for the amelioration and salvation of a lost world? Is not covetousness a besetting sin of our day? How much more might be bestowed if all Christians, both rich and poor, should give as the Lord hath prospered them? We rejoice that the beneficence of the Church is rising. We are grateful that so many are moved to give bountifully, making possible the present successes. But in view of the demands for the enlargement of the work both at home and abroad, how much more could be accomplished if the gold and the silver was forthcoming which the increasing necessities and opportunities require!

VII. CONCLUSION.

As we thus cast a hasty glance over the various departments of our denominational work during the past year we have cause for devout gratitude to God. Conscious of many omissions and short-comings, yet we record the fullness of the divine mercies so bountifully vouchsafed to us. We are impressed with the vast responsibilities laid upon us in view of our position and opportunities. We are living at a marked period of our history. A century has passed since this Assembly was constituted and took its place among the recognized spiritual forces of Christendom. Since then all the various organized agencies of our aggressive efforts have been brought into use. We have all the machinery for a grand development. We cannot doubt but that God has set before us an open door, and no man can shut it. We have a special mission to fulfill, both for our own and other lands. We have an honored place among the sacramental hosts of God's elect, and there comes the trumpet call, "Go forward!" We must advance, not retreat. We must enlarge, not retrench. The whole world lieth in wickedness. The fields everywhere call for enlarged aggressive movements. Shall we not do our part in bringing up an educated ministry and sending forth the laborers equipped for the ingathering harvest? Yes, verily, we must preach the Gospel, organize churches, defend the faith, ameliorate human society and press on for the speedy conversion of the world to Christ. The obstacles are many, the work is great. There is a call for prayer, for faith, for sacrifice. We can only succeed as men aided by the Holy Spirit working through us as a Church and blessing the instrumentalities employed. We have every encouragement to press on. The results are with God, the work is ours, and the reward sure. The kingdoms of this world are to become the kingdoms of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. The whole globe is to be laid at His feet in loyal allegiance. Let us gird up our loins for a new year and new century, and, with the memories of the past to stimulate us, let us seek to reconsecrate churches, Presbyteries, Synods and Assembly to the living Christ, and under His leadership march on to final victory.

The whole number in attendance during the year has been :

Senior Class,	38
Middle Class,	46
Junior Class,	58
Total,	153

Of the graduating class seven are intending to go on foreign missions and two others are considering the question; six have accepted appointments to home mission fields in the West; seven have taken churches; two go to Canada, and one to the Methodist Church, South; four expect to continue their studies for another year, leaving eight without definite prospects.

In addition to a large demand for the services of the seniors in vacant churches, two preaching services have been maintained in the neighborhood every Sunday evening; eleven weekly prayer meetings have been supplied by fifty-two students of the Middle and Junior Classes; four have been in the employ of the Tract Society, five in evangelistic labor on the canal, five among the young colored men of the town, and twenty-two have been employed in six Sabbath-schools. In all these stations family visitation and personal effort have been employed. The Junior Class has been so large this year that it has recited in Hebrew in two divisions, thus, while increasing the labor of Dr. Davis, adding much to the efficiency of the instruction.

Dr. Davis has also given three public lectures on "A Comparison of the Religious Ideas of the Israelites and Assyrians," which made a beginning of what is expected to prove a very instructive course.

The Stone Lectures this year were delivered by the Rev. George T. Parker, of Pittsburgh, on the "Testimony of Justin Martyr to Early Christianity." They were evidently the result of independent research of the original sources, and exhibited both critical judgment and power of generalization, which, combined with a vivid style of presentation and an intensity of delivery, gave them great power over the audience and excited great admiration. At the same time they were so full of material that they will suffer no loss in the reading when published, as it is expected they will shortly be.

The Directors whose term of office expires in May, 1888, have all been re-elected. They are:

Robert Hamill, D.D., Lemont, Pa.
 Joseph T. Smith, D.D., LL.D., Baltimore, Md.
 Abraham Gosman, D.D., Lawrenceville, N. J.
 James O. Murray, D.D., LL.D., Princeton, N. J.

 Alfred Yeomans, D.D., Orange, N. J.
 Robert Carter, Esq., New York City.
 Hon. James A. Beaver, Bellefonte, Pa.
 *Hon. John Trunkey, Franklin, Pa.

The Rev. Francis L. Patton, D.D., LL.D., having accepted the Presidency of the College of New Jersey, to which he had been elected some months before, presented to the Board of Directors on May 8, 1888, his resignation of the Stuart Professorship of the Relations of Philosophy and Science to the Christian Religion. With profound regret this resignation was accepted, and a letter sent to him expressive of the cordial feelings entertained towards him by the Directors, Alumni and friends of the Seminary, and commending him and his labors, in the important field upon which he is about to enter, to God, for His abundant blessing. By a subsequent vote of the Board, Dr. Patton was requested to continue his lectures to the Junior Class of the Seminary, giving two hours a week to that service.

The Rev. Benjamin B. Warfield, D.D., whose election to the chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology (left vacant by the lamented death of the Rev. Archibald Alexander Hodge, D.D.) was reported to the General Assembly a year ago, accepted the position offered and entered upon its duties at the beginning of the year just closed. He was inaugurated into his new chair with appropriate services on May 8, 1888.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Directors, on May 7, 1888, a letter was received from the Rev. James C. Moffat, D.D., tendering his resignation, because of his advanced age, of the Helena Professorship of Church History, which he has filled for twenty-seven years past. This resignation was accepted by the Directors with strong expressions of their entire love and respect for Dr. Moffat and of their warm appreciation of his long and faithful service as Professor. To fill the vacancy thus created, the Directors have elected the Rev. George Tybont Purves, of Pittsburgh, Pa., to the Helena Professorship of Church History. The Directors have as yet received no formal answer from Mr. Purves, but it is confidently hoped that he will accept the position tendered him and be ready to enter upon its duties at the beginning of the next session.

The Board of Directors has also, on the hearty and unanimous recommendation of the Faculty, elected the Rev. John D. Davis, Ph.D., "Professor of Hebrew and Cognate Languages." Dr. Davis has, for some years, filled the position of "John C. Green Instructor in Hebrew" in our Seminary, the duties of which he has performed in an admirable manner. It is believed that his usefulness will be increased and his services more permanently secured, without any present additional cost to the Seminary, by making him a Professor, for which office he is excellently well fitted.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WILLIAM E. SCHENCK,

Secretary of the Board.

II. AUBURN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

THE Governing Boards of the Seminary report as follows for the year ending May 10, 1888, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE SEMINARY.

The control of the Seminary is vested in a Board of Trustees and a Board of Commissioners. The Trustees have the immediate care of the Seminary and the management of its estate, both real and personal. The Board of Commissioners is composed of a representation of two clergymen and one layman from each of the Presbyteries in what were formerly the Synods of Albany, Central New York, Geneva and Western New York, namely, the Presbyteries of Albany, Binghamton, Buffalo, Cayuga, Champlain, Chemung, Columbia, Genesee, Geneva, Lyons, Niagara, Otsego, Rochester, St. Lawrence, Steuben, Syracuse, Troy and Utica. The Commissioners fill the places of the Trustees as they become vacant, appoint the professors, and, with the concurrence of the Trustees, fix the salaries and make all necessary appropriations of funds. Each Commissioner holds his office three years, one going out of office and the Presbytery supplying his place by a new election each year. Vacancies occasioned by death or change of residence are filled by the Presbyteries as they occur. The appointments of professors are reported to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. A Committee of Visitors to the Seminary is appointed by the Synod of New York.

The whole number of students has been seventy-two. Of these, two have been special students, twenty-two have been members of the Senior Class, nineteen of the Middle Class, and twenty-nine of the Junior Class.

The only notable event of the year was the burning of Seminary Hall. The recitations, however, were omitted but for one day, the Trustees of the North Presbyterian Church having generously granted the use of their lecture-room and parlor. The privilege of using their lecture-room was also offered by the Trustees of the First Church of Allegheny. The Trustees and Faculty of the United Presbyterian Theological Seminary also kindly offered to arrange their classes so as to accommodate us.

The Missionary Society has held meetings regularly once a week. During the year the Society has been addressed by Dr. James A. Worden, the Superintendent of Sabbath-school Work, and by Rev. G. W. Knox, of Japan. Addresses to the students have been delivered also by Dr. Bragg, of the McCall Mission, by Drs. Woodside and Ewing, of India, and by Rev. J. M. McCauley, of Japan.

The plan of inviting neighboring pastors to deliver addresses on practical subjects at the regular conference meetings, begun two years ago, was followed again this year with beneficial results. Ten different ministers delivered addresses at different times during the year, and to them the Board feels greatly indebted for their gratuitous services so cheerfully rendered.

In addition to the instruction imparted by the Faculty, the Board expects to have one lecture a month delivered by experienced pastors and others, on topics of present interest in the Church or connected with the general work of the ministry.

III. STUDENTS.

Three new students were matriculated at the opening of the session just closed, viz.: William W. Armer, educated at Hanover, Ind., but not a graduate, a teacher of a classical school for three years; William L. Clark, a graduate of Centre College, and John R. Tercy, not a graduate, but recommended by the Presbytery of Indianapolis. The whole number of students has been 10—2 in the Senior, 5 in the Middle and 3 in the Junior Class. Mr. Marshall B. W. Grainger, of the Senior Class, having completed the whole course and passed the required examination before the Board, has received the certificate of the Seminary. The other member of the class, Mr. Robert H. Horton, was granted a dispensation by his Presbytery in regard to the study of Latin, Greek and Hebrew, and was, therefore, not entitled to the ordinary certificate; but he has taken the entire Seminary course with the exception of the Sacred Languages, having spent four whole sessions with us in the study of Theology, or in the study of Moral and Mental Philosophy, Rhetoric, etc., in the College. He enters at once upon the work of the ministry at Salyersville, the county-town of Magoffin county, in the very heart of the mountain region of Kentucky. An informal understanding was had with Mr. Horton when he entered on his studies that he would exercise his ministry, Providence permitting, in his native region; and when the time came he expressed a preference for work there. The Faculty anticipate a good account of Mr. Horton's ministry. Four of the five members of the Middle Class enter at once on preaching—one in Ohio, one in Indiana, and two in Kentucky—during the vacation. Of the Juniors, one is about to enter the service of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work; the two others, men of considerable experience already, are engaged to labor under the direction of the Committee of Home Missions of Transylvania Presbytery.

The expense for instruction during the year has not exceeded one-third of the whole income of the Institution. This has been owing to the exceedingly low rate of compensation for the labor performed. The same expense next year will not exceed two-fifths of the whole income. With one exception, the instructors are appointed for the present, from year to year—only temporary appointments. The power of making such appointments is vested in the Board by the plan of the Seminary. The instructors for next year will be the same as reported heretofore, with the addition of the Professor of Greek in Centre College, who has been appointed to instruct in Biblical Greek and New Testament History. Dr. McKee will devote a larger proportion of his time next year to work in the Seminary—four hours a week to Old Testament History and Criticism, three hours to English Exegesis and three hours to Homiletics, besides taking part in the exercises of Saturday morning.

The Board is encouraged in looking forward to the future of the Seminary.

Respectfully submitted,

L. F. WALKER, President.

STEPHEN YERKES, Secretary.

A year ago this Board created two additional chairs in the Seminary, viz. :

1. The Chair of Apologetics and Missions.
2. The Chair of Oriental Literature and Old Testament History.

The choice of professors to fill these chairs was deferred until the support could be provided for. This having been secured for one chair for a term of five years, through the generosity of Mrs. C. H. McCormick, upon the unanimous nomination of a Committee, Rev. John DeWitt, D.D., of Cincinnati, O., was unanimously elected to the Chair of Apologetics and Missions. Hoping that Dr. DeWitt will see his way clear to accept this professorship, we ask the Assembly to confirm his election.

During the past year this Seminary has been made the recipient of munificent gifts from generous friends :

1. Fowler Hall, containing sixty-one suites of rooms for students, with all modern appliances and conveniences, erected and furnished by Mrs. C. H. McCormick and the heirs of the estate of the late Hon. Cyrus H. McCormick, at a cost of $132,000, was transferred to the Board on November 17, 1887, and dedicated with suitable ceremonies to the service of Almighty God, in the training of the Christian ministry.

2. Pearsons Scholarship Fund. The exceedingly valuable gift of eight houses, situated on Burton Place, in the city of Chicago, valued at $50,000, has been received from Daniel K. Pearsons, M.D., of Chicago, the income of which is to be devoted toward supplementing the Scholarship Fund.

8. The Bernadine Orme Smith Fellowship. Col. Dudley C. Smith, of Bloomington, Ill., by a gift of $4000, has founded the above fellowship. The object of this fellowship is the nurture of true piety, and the stimulation to wide and accurate scholarship. Invested in a house on the Seminary land it will yield an income, every second year, sufficient to enable some promising student to pursue for a year a course of advanced study, either in this country or in Europe.

4. About $2500 additional have been received from liberal friends in aid of the Scholarship Fund.

The total of these gifts reaches the princely sum of $188,500. Appropriate action was taken by the Directors in each case. We devoutly thank God that He has, through His servants, brought to this Seminary these timely benefactions, thus greatly increasing its means for usefulness.

2. FACULTY.

The Faculty consists of the following members:

- Rev. LE ROY J. HALSEY, D.D., LL.D., Professor Emeritus of Church Government and the Sacraments. 292 Belden avenue.
 Rev. THOMAS H. SKINNER, D.D., Cyrus H. McCormick Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology. 1042 North Halsted street.

No less than seven of this class are already under appointment for the foreign field.

The Scholarship Fund has been drawn upon more heavily than before, both on account of the increased number of students and of the diminished appropriation by the Board of Education. So large has been the demand upon this fund that a deficit of over $6000 has accumulated within two years. To help at this point generous gifts are needed.

4. LIBRARY.

The library consists of :

Bound volumes,	11,600
Pamphlets,	1,500
Volumes added this year,	97

It stands high as a practical working library for ordinary students, but it needs to be supplied with valuable recent publications.

5. FINANCES.

The care of the finances of the Seminary is entrusted to the Board of Trustees.

The following is a summary of the financial condition of the Seminary as reported by the Trustees :

I. HISTORICAL STATEMENT.

On the 1st of May, 1863, a donation was made to the Seminary of twenty acres of land by Joseph E. Sheffield within the city limits and five acres of land in Lake View by William Lill and Michael Diversey, on condition, among others, that the Seminary be maintained continuously at that place for twenty-five years. The time expired upon the 1st of May, this year, at which time the legal title to these lands became absolute in the Seminary, inasmuch as the conditions have been fulfilled.

Of the Endowment and Scholarship Funds there has been invested in fifty-five dwelling-houses erected on the Seminary property $260,374.30. There is still outstanding $4950 in bonds and mortgages.

VIII. BLACKBURN UNIVERSITY.

THE Theological Department of Blackburn University has, during the past year, been doing thoroughly and successfully its work, which latterly has been its specialty in aiding young men to a better preparation for the regularly endowed and fully equipped seminaries, where we now recommend our graduates to go for instruction in Hebrew and in Evidences of Christianity and in Christian work. There is one feature of our work which is constant and is likely to be increased in the future—the training of men for work in the ministry who have promise of usefulness, and yet who cannot, from age or other circumstances, go through the entire courses of college and theological seminaries.

We have on the field a good number who have been thus prepared, and who are doing good work, and we see the prospect of contributing more and more to the solution of the problem of our vacant churches through this channel. Quite a number of our young men are supplying, with great acceptance, weak churches in the vicinity of the University, and in some cases with marked tokens of the divine presence and blessing. By the presence of these young men in the Institution, the Young People's Religious Association and Societies of Religious Inquiry are kept up with great interest and benefit. There are thirteen young men studying for the ministry in the Institution.

There is a valuable theological library in the institution, though small in number of volumes, in addition to the regular library of the University. The property and finances and Board of Instruction in the University, with the exception of the Professor of Theology, are not so distinct as to admit of a Report after the formula of the blank reports furnished for that purpose.

Blackburn University is doing its good work, on its important field, with evident tokens of the divine blessing. The blessed revival of a year ago still makes its fruits visible, and with good cheer we can report that we are going forward, doing the work as our main object, which in this Institution was the bequest of the revered Gideon Blackburn, the preparation of young men for the ministry of reconciliation. Brethren, pray for us.

E. L. HURD, President.

IX. SAN FRANCISCO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

THE Board of Directors of the San Francisco Theological Seminary herewith present to the General Assembly, about to convene in Philadelphia, Pa., their Annual Report, to wit:

I. OF THE DIRECTORS.

Under the provisions of the deed of trust whereby William S. Ladd, Esq., of Portland, Oreg., conveyed his munificent endowment of $50,000 to this Seminary it is required that hereafter the Synod of the Columbia

NOT CLASSIFIED.

Arthur Jones,

George Tukuda,
Frank Metland.

Mr. Alexander Eaken has been pursuing preparatory studies a large portion of the year. Mr. Jones, Mr. Tukuda and Mr. Mattani, and also Mr. Eaken, have been attending the lectures of the Seminary to derive what benefit they could from them. The Faculty commend the attendance and attention to study of the students, as being satisfactory in a high degree. Three additional student rooms have been nicely furnished during the term, one by the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church of Oakland, Cal., one by the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church of San Francisco, and one by the San Grael Society of the First Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oreg.

IV. OF THE BUILDINGS.

The situation in this particular remains unchanged. By all, it is conceded that important changes are imperative. The better display of our valuable library, as well as its safety against fire, the need of more suitable class rooms, and a proper regard to the development of the Seminary in years to come, all make it necessary that now such provision shall be made as shall in every particular be adapted to the future that we have in mind and in heart for this Institution. However, at the present time there is nothing sufficiently matured to be incorporated in a Report to your venerable body.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCIS A. HORTON, President.ROBERT J. TRUMBULL, Secretary.San Francisco, April 25, 1888.

The whole number of students in attendance during the year was twenty-nine (29), one of whom was irregular. Of this number ten (10) are in the Theological Department, three (8) of whom have completed their course and have already been called to pastorates. This circumstance, of which we have repeated experience from year to year, indicates the constant and increasing demand for German ministers beyond what, with our present means, we are able to meet, and should impress the Church with the urgent needs and growing importance of this work. There are many fields in which vigorous and rapidly self-sustaining German churches could be organized if we were able to supply the men. The year has been marked by exceptional success and progress in the work of the School. The standard of scholarship has been raised and the work made more thorough. Repeated examinations have been held throughout the term, upon which the students have been graded, the result of which has been not only to ground the students more thoroughly in the various branches studied, but also to excite in them a healthy emulation and to awaken their zeal and enthusiasm for their work. We are gratified with most favorable reports from the Presbyteries in respect to our students who have been examined by them this spring, while the Examining Committee for this year tell us that "it reflects high credit on the Institution when it can truthfully be said that no young men give evidence of a more intelligent culture in the studies they have pursued than do the students of this School."

It is gratifying to the Board—and it is but just—to report the fidelity and wisdom with which the Faculty have wrought. They have spared neither time nor toil in their efforts to secure the best results in the training of the young men committed to their charge.

But while the Board is thus able to render a favorable Report in respect to the work that the School is doing, our Report is anything but favorable in respect to the support that the School is receiving in her work. Both in review and outlook the financial condition of the Institution is not encouraging. We have virtually no permanent income—one of our chairs only being partially endowed. What appears as Endowment Fund in our Report consists largely of installment notes, for the most part worthless. We are thus mainly dependent upon current contributions from year to year for the support of the School. This condition of things cannot and ought not to continue. It is too precarious a dependence. Although the total annual charge for the salaries of our professors is but four thousand five hundred dollars ($4500), yet our income last year from all sources was insufficient to meet it, so that the salaries, small as they are, remain for this year partially unpaid. One or the other of two things is inevitable—either the School must close and the work of the Church among the large and increasing German population of the Northwest come to an end, there being no other institution that can furnish the men for it, a result, both as respects the German people and the future of our Church, deplorable to contemplate—or the Church must maintain this School. The work she has already done through years of poverty and self-denial entitle her to sympathy and support. The work that still lies ready to her hand and for generations awaits her is a call upon the Church to furnish her with the means to perform it. Will the Church heed the call and out of her abundance supply the pittance needful? There is probably no other institution under the Church's care and engaged in her work that is carried on with equal economy and at so small an actual expense.

An endowment of one hundred and fifty or two hundred thousand dollars would enable this School successfully to carry on and greatly to enlarge her work without further appeal to the Church.

With almost all our other theological institutions thoroughly furnished and abundantly provided for, why should not this School be equipped for her urgent and peculiar work?

We desire to make an earnest appeal to this Centennial General Assembly, through her Committee on Theological Seminaries, and thereby to the Church, to signalize this beginning of another century in the Church's history by placing this School upon a solid foundation, and thus occupy betimes that wide and fruitful field among the German people of the West which now lies open so full of promise and of hope, but threatening irreparable loss and peril both to Church and nation, if neglected.

The Board has secured as its Financial Agent the Rev. Josiah Milligan, so well known throughout the Church, to which we commend him.

Respectfully submitted,

AMBROSE C. SMITH, President.

The Loan Fund.—This Fund consists of the bequest of the late Mr. James B. Hay, of Newark, and amounts to $2000. It has been used, since it was received, in temporary payment of the deficit of preceding years, but it is designed ultimately to be a foundation for the James B. Hay Scholarship.

Current Expense and Current Income.—The total amount paid for current account for the year was $8,697 61

Included in this amount is the balance due May 1, 1887, for unpaid salaries and bills, as stated in last year's Report of Treasurer, 3,034 22

Total general deficit, $7,062 39

Statements not Contained in the Treasurer's Account.

The Endowment.—The subscription to the $10,000 proposed as a special addition to the General Endowment, by the Synod of New Jersey, so far as reported, stands now at $9254.98, of which amount some $5284 has been paid.

The proposal was made, some two years since, to make this increase of the Endowment $20,000, instead of $10,000. The amount subscribed, which meets the conditions of this proposal, is now $18,881.86, of which $17,500 has been paid. This amount includes, however, $6000 contributed in real estate, and it is desirable to realize this amount of $20,000 independent of the real estate.

There has been added to the fund for endowing a German professorship $56.94. The German churches have made their contributions mainly to the current account. Their total collections for the current income—including some outside personal contributions—have amounted to $988.22. A "Seminary Fest" or Anniversary Day for the Seminary has been established among their churches, on which day the attention of the people is directed to such subjects as education for the ministry, the ministry needed by the German people, Home Missions in our Church and Home Missions among the Germans, and collections are taken for the Seminary. Little effort has been put forth for the Endowment during the year.

In addition to the gifts of books from the Second Presbyterian Church of Newark and their pastor, Rev. Dr. Fewsmith, and from the library of the late Dr. William G. Schauflier, by his son, Rev. A. F. Schauflier, D.D., of New York, already reported to the Presbytery of Newark, other valuable contributions of books have been received: From the library of the late Rev. Duncan Kennedy, D.D., by Mrs. Kennedy, some 275 volumes; from the Rev. David S. Sutphen, of Bloomfield, some sixty numbers of theological and philosophical reviews, and from Mrs. Abby C. Wilbur twenty-five miscellaneous volumes. The library now numbers over 3700 volumes.

GRADUATE WORK.

The five graduates in June last are located as follows: Two in the city of Brooklyn, one the pastor of the Fifth German Presbyterian Church, the other a missionary in a mission with which he was connected before graduation, who is also connected with a mission in New Utrecht, Long Island; one a missionary in Cincinnati, where he had done mission work during the summer before his Senior year in the Seminary; one a missionary in George, Oreg., and one the pastor of the German Presbyterian Church in Pleasant Valley, West Orange, N. J.

We have now nine graduates at work among the German population of Brooklyn and vicinity. We begin to have groups of churches and pastors in Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Cincinnati. We should now add to the single pastor or the small number of pastors in other cities and make them also groups of sympathetic, social and spiritual power.

Our graduates are scattered outposts in ten States. They will invite other graduates to their side while we plant new stations in other places. The Presbyterian Church has it within her power to extend the work begun into very wide and far-reaching results. Never has the Church in America confronted philosophical, theological and popular evils so great, so complicated and so subtle as those which now exist. To what extent these evils have their source in the conditions of German life and to what extent they are propagated through our increasing German population, are subjects on which opinions may differ; but there is no dissent from the conviction that the preaching of the Gospel of Christ among the German people is the effective remedy for the one source of all the evils. For the land we love, for the Church of Christ, for the salvation of these multitudes of souls we should send a true ministry direct to the German population. From this people themselves can the additional men be obtained to preach the Gospel to them. From this people themselves can be increasingly obtained the means for the support of their candidates for the ministry and for the support of their churches. This reinforcement for the enlarged conquests of the Church from so intelligent and so powerful a source we may well desire to secure, and well may we pray the Lord of the Harvest to qualify the young men to be true laborers in His harvest. To this end should the prayers and the efforts of our whole Church be devoted with increasing fervor and constancy. He who draws all men unto Him on the cross, who in Pentecostal effusion caused every man to hear in his own tongue, who bade His great Apostle be to the Jew a Jew, and to the Greek a Greek, will, we are sure, continue to bless our efforts to reach this people in the tongue wherein they were born.

For the Directors,

Since our last Report an honored and beloved associate has been removed from the Faculty by death. After forty years of service in the ministry and thirteen in the Theological Department of this Institution, the Rev. Thomas W. Cattell, Ph.D., Professor of Biblical Antiquities, on the 29th day of June, 1887, was released from the labors and cares which occupied him here and taken home to the unwearied, restful labors and the blessed enjoyments prepared by our Father for those who love His Son.

Dr. Cattell was a man of unstinted generosity, of sterling integrity and of unswerving faithfulness. He was not merely indefatigable as an instructor, he sought to share with the students all the treasures of his knowledge and experience. In his death the students have lost a wise and faithful friend and the professors a helpful and beloved associate. Among his last expressions were: "God bless the work" of Lincoln University.

The Trustees have not yet filled the Chair thus made vacant.

The Academical year began on Thursday, the 15th of September, 1887, and closed on Wednesday, the 18th of April, 1888. The opening address was delivered by Prof. B. T. Jones: "The Student and the Bible."

The Annual Sermon to the students was preached in the chapel on Sabbath, the 16th of April, by the Rev. William A. Holliday, D.D.: II Kings iv, 41.

The examination of the classes took place on Monday and Tuesday, the 16th and 17th of April. The Rev. Messrs. Robert Graham, Henry F. Lee and Irving P. McCurdy, D.D., were present as a Committee from the Ministers' Association of Philadelphia; and the Rev. Messrs. M. W. Jacobus, William R. Bingham, D.D., and Calvin W. Stewart, D.D., of the Board of Trustees.

The examinations were highly satisfactory to the Committees and to the Faculty. The students were familiar with the history, biography, facts and principles of the Old Testament; with the life of Christ and the Apostles, and with the Constitution and progress of the Apostolic Church. They could repeat verbatim long passages from the various Books both of the Old and New Testaments. The examinations in theology were thorough and minute, covering both the system of revealed truth as embodied in our Standards and the foundation of the system as resting upon a careful exegesis of the original text of the Scriptures.

The experience of the professors sustains the judgment of the Church expressed in many ways that the study of the Latin and Greek and Hebrew languages is a most valuable means of mental culture, and has an appreciable and material influence in fitting the student for the work of the ministry. It is matter of frequent remark by the professors that the students who have had the advantage of the classical course, and in proportion as they have excelled in the study of these languages, are more ready in utterance, more exact in statement and definition and more simple in phraseology than those who have not taken this course of study. It is the conviction of the Faculty, after long experience, that the time expended in making this attainment is far from being wasted, and that this course is the shortest way yet discovered to secure those traits of leadership for which the ministry of the Presbyterian Church has been justly noted. We consider it matter of congratulation to the body of colored members of the Presbyterian Church that this benefit, so highly prized by other candidates, is secured in this Institution by chartered conditions and by special endowment. Our charter requires these languages to be taught, and our friends have endowed the Chairs of Greek and Latin, so that the current income of the Church is not charged with this tuition for its candidates who are educated here. Our advantage coincides with their eagerness. They feel the stimulus of justifiable emulation to make the same attainments which are exacted of others. But we also take a deep interest in hastening the preparation of many candidates who might enter the harvest field as soon as possible. There is pressing need of more laborers at the present time. White ministers are not trying to preach to our colored population to any great extent, and the preparation of a colored ministry, either fully or partially, is proceeding very slowly.

Our own Church is doing something in both directions; but the established agency of the Assembly for the employment of ministers in this field is crippled for want of means to sustain the ministry in existing churches, and is obliged to withhold appointments from candidates just completing their preparations. If a large body of men of piety and zeal with the partial education which many think sufficient were now ready to enter upon work the Board of Missions for Freedmen could not employ them. The fields already occupied are restrained from expanding and the churches from multiplying by the lack of funds in the hands of the Board. The difficulty is not that men cannot be brought forward in the full course fast enough for the demand, but that the demand must be stifled because the Church does not send the heralds. The attitude of this institution towards an English education for many who might thus become in good measure qualified to minister to the present urgent need is manifest from our habitual and continued instruction of theological classes in exclusively English branches of study. During the year just closed twelve young men have been taught in these subjects, and four of them, who have finished the course, have received from the Faculty certificates of their attendance and success.

The commencement exercises took place on Wednesday, the 18th of April. The degree of S. T. B. was conferred upon all the members of the Senior Class.

Mr. Charles S. Mebane was ordained to preach the Gospel by the Presbytery of Chester, on the 16th of May, 1888.

A very valuable contribution of books has been made to the library by Mrs. A. A. Hodge, from the library of Dr. Hodge, in token of the interest which he took, during his life, in the work of this University: vols. 1214. The family of Dr. T. W. Cattell have also presented 300 volumes, from his library; 250 volumes have been added by Rev. Dr. J. H. Nixon and other friends.

Of the 166 students in all the departments of study 108 are candidates for the ministry.

This Centennial year of our Church completes the thirty-first year of instruction in this Institution, the twentieth year since the first student was graduated from the Collegiate Department, and the seventeenth year since the separate organization of the Theological Department under the oversight of the General Assembly. During this time 818 students have been graduated from the Collegiate Department, after a four years' course of study; 51 have been graduated from the Theological Department, after a seven years' course of study; 160 students who have gone out from this Institution have been licensed and ordained to preach the Gospel, and twelve have found fields of labor in Liberia.

Encouraged by past success and stirred by the outlook, the Board of Trustees and Faculty are enlarging their plans and hopes. The favor of our friends is not diminishing. It is the higher features of our educational work that attracts the larger gifts of the benevolent.

With thanks to God for the opportunity of another year of labor, we submit its results to the unreserved inspection of the General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Faculty,

ISAAC N. RENDALL,
President of Lincoln University.

The commencement exercises will take place, in connection with the closing exercises of the Collegiate Department, Wednesday, June 6. The annual address to the students will be delivered by Rev. George C. Noyes, D.D., Evanston, Ill.

The instruction given by the three professors in the Theological Department fairly covers the various branches of an ordinary Theological course, including the study of the Greek and Hebrew Scriptures. Sometimes, where early advantages have been deficient, it has been thought best to allow the student to take a shorter course. One advantage which our students enjoy from the fact that they are here placed in the midst of this great field is, that they have great advantages in the way of obtaining practical training in their work. The many needy fields in all this region give them much experience in mission work while they are still pursuing their studies.

While this University has had a prosperous history, and while, so far as instructors and recitation-rooms are concerned, it is well equipped to do still better work in the future, there is one direction in which it ought to be greatly strengthened at once. More, much more, ought to be done to encourage the attendance of indigent students. Three or four thousand dollars ought to be supplied at once to furnish additional dormitory accommodation for 150 students, and then enough aid ought to be supplied to enable young men to come and fill up these rooms. Some would need full scholarships of $100 each, some would only need to have their own funds supplemented by smaller amounts. The sum needed would not be very large, whether given as an endowment or in annual scholarships, and the good effected would be incalculable. The need of educated young men among this people is great and pressing. Here is an institution right in their midst well fitted for their training. Why should not these spacious halls be filled with students? It would be good economy if we could double their numbers at once. This is the only Institution of its class which our Church has in the South, and its advantages ought to be made the most of. Our number of students enrolled was one-third greater this year than last, but our pleasure in this increase is much marred by the fact that quite a number for whom scholarships could not be obtained were unable to remain during the whole year. It is easy to see how difficult it will be to secure a high grade of scholarship with such interruptions. If this work of education among the Freedmen is to be adequately pressed it must be through increased aid from the North. If it be not pressed, we fear deplorable consequences will follow.

Our students, as a rule, are industrious and faithful, and considering the many disadvantages under which they labor it is surprising that they have made such good progress.

Of the 178 students whose names are contained in this year's Catalogue, 183 are professing Christians, and sixty-four of these are preparing for the Christian ministry. It is easy, therefore, to see the importance of pushing to the utmost a work which is so full of promise to the colored people. Probably there is no educational work in all the land where an endowment of $200,000 is so much needed, or would do so much good as it would here, if used as a scholarship fund. Until something like this can be obtained we cannot derive the full benefit of our present equipment. During the year we have only been able to obtain, for this purpose, from the income of permanent scholarships, $280, and from other friends of our work $4548, so that in the interest of economy, even if nothing else were involved, more aid for students should be provided.

Our library, while well selected, is much too small for our needs, but we have at present no funds for its enlargement. About 150 volumes have been added to it during the year, mostly by gift from thoughtful friends.

It has been well said that "no institution under the care of the Presbyterian Church has a wider field or greater opportunities than this." We earnestly entreat, therefore, the sympathy and generous support of the Church in sustaining it and enlarging its usefulness.

Respectfully submitted,

W. F. JOHNSON, President.

ABSTRACT OF THE EIGHTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Home Missions respectfully presents to the One Hundredth General Assembly its Eighty-sixth Annual Report, the eighteenth since reunion, offering at the same time its congratulations on the growth and success of the century past and its earnest prayers for the Church's still greater prosperity in the years of the century to come.

We record our devout gratitude to God for His gracious guidance and aid throughout a year which His manifest benediction has blest and brightened.

We report with sorrow the death, during the year, of Mr. Robert Lenox Kennedy, a member of this Board since reunion, and one of its most steadfast and generous friends. His latest and most notable service to the Board is detailed elsewhere in this Report. Mr. John S. Kennedy was appointed to fill the place in the Board, thus made vacant, until the meeting of this General Assembly.

We are able to report in general a year of enlarged work and increased prosperity. It has not been without marked and serious drawbacks. The drought, which was so widely disastrous in the West in the previous season, scorched it again, and to a large extent the same regions suffered. Then the unusual amount and severity of stormy and wintry weather have sorely interrupted Sabbath services and collections and all church work. And yet, to a very large extent, the services of our churches have been maintained with a remarkable regularity. There have been growing attendance and growing attention. There is a general conviction of the excellence and value of the Presbyterian Church and its ordinances. The good Spirit of God has added His potent blessing, and there have been in many places revivals and ingatherings. In such widely-severed fields as Alaska, and Iowa, and New York, and Indian Territory, and New Mexico, there have been spiritual awakenings and numerous conversions. There have been added to the churches under the Board's care 10,182 on confession of faith and 7096 by certificate, 17,277 members in all.

OUR MISSIONARIES.

The whole number of missionaries aided by the Board during the year has been 1486. They have served 3715 churches and stations. The average of conversions under their ministry reported by them is about seven to each missionary.

The most pressing need of the Church to-day is the large increase of this noble corps of Christian laborers. It is safe to say that if five hundred men could at once be found equally qualified and ready for the work with those already on the field, and the Church would furnish the means, they could all be wisely and successfully employed during the coming season. The whole number of the graduates of our theological seminaries this year would not meet one-third of this demand. The question as to what means and methods shall be used to obtain a sufficient number of men qualified for this service presents a problem which calls for the earliest possible solution by the best wisdom of the Church.

The average amount appropriated by the Board for the support of a missionary is $300. The Board renews its offer to assign a special missionary to any contributor of this sum.

We record with sorrow the death of ten missionaries during the year. Their names are given below. Of these faithful servants of the Church who rest from their labors, one at least should have special mention here—the Rev. Timothy Hill, D.D., father and founder of a majority of the Presbyterian churches in Kansas, and in his later years our enthusiastic Synodical missionary in the Indian Territory.

Timothy Hill, D.D.,	Indian Territory.
David M. Wilson,	Tennessee.
William E. Burke,	Texas.
Ebenezer B. Caldwell,	Minnesota.

Milton A. Mathes,	Tennessee.

FINANCES.

The year began with a debt of $21,681.77. The General Assembly instructed the Board to ask and plan for an income of $600,000—an increase of one-fourth upon that of the previous year. The receipts during the summer months were unprecedentedly large, but during November the enlarged gifts usually then received fell off. In March, however, the sum of $222,000 was received, the largest amount ever paid into the Board's treasury in a single month. The Treasurer's Report will exhibit in detail the year's receipts and expenditures.

The total amount contributed to the Board from all sources during the year has been $783,627.30; for current work, $764,653.83; for permanent and trust funds, $1874.54; for Sustentation Department, $7485.39. The Board closes the year with a balance to its credit of $1824.97. Add to this the sustentation balance of $861.49, and deduct from this sum the debt of the New York Synodical Aid Fund to the Board, $5583.91, and there remains a balance of cash on hand of $102.55.

THE COMMITTEE OF THIRTEEN.

The Committee of Thirteen Elders were appointed by the last General Assembly "to inform the Church on the subject of Home Missions, to arouse the eldership and the people to the necessity for greatly increased effort in behalf of this cause, and the imperative need of further contributions."

This Committee, composed of active and influential men, representing a large part of the Church, under the chairmanship of Mr. Warner Van Norden, of New York, entered on its great task at an early date and in a resolute fashion. While it would not be easy to trace the influence of the Committee's work to its exact results, there can be no doubt that the stir they have made has been largely effectual in stimulating interest and enlarging contributions.

THE PRESBYTERIAN HOUSE.

The year has been made specially memorable by the Board's acquisition and occupation of a home of its own. A long-tried member and generous friend of both the Boards, the late Mr. Robert Lenox Kennedy, had for years had his eye on these premises as being, in view of the site and the accommodations and the associations of an honored Presbyterian name, singularly well suited for a Presbyterian house. Accordingly, at his instance, the heirs of the Lenox estate offered this property to the two Boards for $250,000—a price judged by experts so low as to involve a virtual gift of a large amount toward the purchase from the heirs themselves. The late Miss Henrietta A. Lenox, to whose estate this property belonged, had bequeathed to the Home and Foreign Boards each $50,000. Mr. Kennedy, besides arranging these most favorable terms, himself gave $50,000 toward the purchase money, and added $20,000 for the necessary alterations and repairs. Thus two-thirds or three-fourths of the means for this purchase came from members of the family connection owning the property. Of the two houses on the ground, the larger, on the corner, for nearly half a century the residence of Mr. James Lenox, is 91 feet by 85, of brownstone, with three stories and basement. The Board of Home Missions, with the Women's Executive Committee, occupies the first floor; the Board of Foreign Missions, with the Women's Board, the second floor, and the Board of Church Erection the third, the basement being mainly used by the Foreign Board for its extensive shipping business. The large room formerly used as a library and picture gallery, twenty-five feet wide, with the entire depth of the house and two stories high, makes, without alteration, a noble assembly room, the use of which may no doubt subserve other Presbyterian interests of the city besides those of the Boards themselves. The other and smaller house, thirty feet front, now untenanted, and the two vacant lots on East Twelfth street, are worth in all at least $100,000, and if not needed for present use, as they may be in time, could easily be made to produce an income which would go far toward offsetting the interest on the investment and the expenses of the property.

It is no mere idle sentiment to claim that the Presbyterian Church is vastly the gainer in many ways not susceptible of pecuniary valuation by such a noble centre and headquarters in the chief city of the land, as is offered and will, it is hoped, be largely and variously utilized in this new home of the Boards.

RAILROADS.

Our last Annual Report stated that nearly or quite 12,000 miles of railroad had been built during the year 1886. That unprecedented record has been beaten in 1887, which witnessed the addition to the railway system of the United States of 12,724 miles of new main line track. The great bulk of the increase has been in the Central West and the Southwest—mainly the great belt west of the Missouri river. Four States and two Territories, viz., Kansas, Texas, Nebraska, Colorado, Dakota and Montana, contain 6400 miles, or a full one-half of this year's new mileage. The whole cost cannot fall much short of $325,000,000. The railway mileage of the United States has reached to-day the grand total of 151,000 miles. Nothing quickens the apprehension of the vastness of our country more than the consideration of this prodigious growth of its railway system. Nothing measures more accurately the increase of its wealth and the energy of its enterprise. And again, no fact or feature of the day is more intimately linked with the work and fortunes of Home Missions than this mighty growth of the railway interest. All along these thousands of miles of new-built railway have sprung into being during the last twelve months new settlements, large and small, by the dozen and the score. Concerning many of these new points the Board is already in possession of minute and detailed information, showing that they are open and ready for Home Mission work. It is certain that there are scores upon scores of these new places where a Presbyterian missionary could at once be stationed, with good prospect of an audience, and a Sabbath-school, and a church organization, and growth, more or less rapid, to final self-support and independent strength. At the same time it should be remembered that through the year to come this spread and growth will without doubt be continued in increased and increasing ratio, and that if the Church is to keep abreast with the needs and demands of the ever-widening and whitening field the work must be planned and pushed on a scale and at a rate never needed and never attempted hitherto.

THE FIELD.

Our country affords a field for the work of Home Missions unique and unparalleled. Nature has so richly furnished and stored it that it attracts all nations. If one could have a bird's-eye view of it he would look over a glorious sweep of valleys and mountains and prairies, already teeming here and there with wealth and beauty, and yet with vast tracts, rich as a garden, still untilled and undeveloped, where hundreds of millions might find, and doubtless will yet find, plenty and prosperity. And to this wealth on the surface are to be added the treasures under ground. All this has been advertised to all the world. And so millions from all lands are eager to come here. Half a million and more did come last year. More and more will keep coming. The work confronting the Christian Church will vastly exceed even its present formidable dimensions. And the Presbyterian Church must be ready to accept and handle its full share of the work—a share which should be generously computed in view of the Church's great proportionate wealth and power.

It is impossible in this Report to do more than select for special and detailed mention some portions of a field so wide.

NEW ENGLAND.

The new churches are almost all growing and prospering. The thrifty operatives who largely compose the congregations need only time and a fair chance to attain self-support and independence. Such churches as those of Taunton, Somerville, Fall River, Quincy, Worcester and Holyoke, Mass. ;

Lonsdale and Woonsocket, R. I.; Portland, Me., and Manchester, N. H., not to name others, have already amply justified their organization. The church at Holyoke has had not only the sympathy, but also the generous aid of Congregational brethren in that handsome and stirring little city in the erection of its edifice, now progressing. The Quincy church has assumed self-support during the year.

MIDDLE STATES AND SYNODICAL AID.

The Synods of New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania have undertaken to care for their own feeble churches, without diminishing their gifts to the general work of the Board outside of their own bounds.

The Synod of Pennsylvania is preparing, but not yet fully prepared, to shoulder the whole burden, and will now assume the work as rapidly as circumstances will permit.

The Synod of New Jersey does the work without connection of any kind with the Board. There is little doubt that the Synod will closely approach success in their enterprise this first year, and in the next will fully attain it.

The Synod of New York does the work, as before, through the machinery and treasury of the Board. The Synod assumed the care of its dependent churches on this plan from the first of last May.

The movement for self-sustentation in these three Synods, if fully carried out, will virtually add to the Board's income for work elsewhere about $47,000.

THE SOUTH.

The Board has been at work in Florida for five years. In that time our churches in that State have increased from three or four to thirty-seven, in two Presbyteries. None of these churches have yet become strong. The work is hard and costly. Residents are mostly poor. Some of the ministers, like a large part of their hearers, are absent in summer. And yet, with all drawbacks and abatements, a vast deal of good work has been done, and foundations have been laid on which a grand future success will surely be reared. Four men at least are needed for existing vacancies.

The work in Kentucky and Tennessee has gone steadily on with solid success, if not with large increase. There are recent openings and possibilities in the latter State and also in Northern Alabama whose claims will soon press urgently upon the attention of our Church. As to these and other parts of the South, it may be said that they afford an almost boundless field for evangelistic effort. The Board stands ready to do the will of the Church in regard to this vast field.

THE GREAT WEST.

The region west of the Mississippi river is of course the Board's most important and pressing field. Taking in Alaska, it is 2,700,000 square miles, or three-fourths of the whole national domain. It contains twelve millions of people or one-fifth of our whole population. Nine and one-half millions are native-born. Two and one-half millions are foreigners. Half of our German population is in the Northwest. One-fourth of the Scandinavians are in Minnesota. All the two or three hundred thousand Indians are in the West, except a few hundred, and all the one hundred and forty thousand Mormons. Of these twelve millions, two and one-half millions are members and adherents of all Christian denominations—or one in five. Three hundred and sixty thousand are Presbyterians. The other nine and one-half millions are entirely outside of Church ties. Very many are rough and reckless, godless and profane. Drinking, gambling and violence are general and unchecked. The Sabbath is generally disregarded, and materialism and infidelity prevail.

The Board has in this region about 850 missionaries, whose distribution among the States and Territories is given elsewhere. The Woman's Executive Committee maintains here ninety-one schools and 244 teachers. Over $300,000, or nearly one-half the Board's whole disbursements for missions, was here expended. Much good work has been done, and much necessary preparation has been made for wider operations. But it is easy to reckon in general the vastness of the work which yet remains to be undertaken. In North Dakota, for instance, whose severe winters make it hard to get men, at least fifteen are sorely needed for vacancies, and several more for pressing new openings. In South Dakota, besides some fifteen for the eastern or older portion, half a dozen men are needed for the rich mineral region of the Black Hills, into which settlers are rapidly pouring, and where thus far there are only two missionaries. Mansees are greatly needed. A loan of $250 would often secure the building of a small, neat manse, which would prove an inestimable help. Washington Territory has reported some genuine apostolic missionary tours through its Indian reservations. A missionary convention is to be held next August at Walla Walla, which will doubtless greatly stir and stimulate evangelistic work in all that region. In Portland, Oreg., and its vicinity, and in other points in the State, there have been decided growth and progress. Humboldt county, in Northwestern California, has but one Presbyterian Church—at Arcata—and should have five or six. Eureka, the county seat, at the mouth of Eel river, a busy town of seven thousand people, has no Presbyterian service. At several points money and lots have been offered and missionaries asked for. There are many counties, of course, as yet without church or missionary. Southern California, into which the rapid rush of immigration still continues, with marvelous material development, is the only field which reports no dearth, but rather a surplus, of ministers. Fifteen churches have been organized. Greatly as our work has grown and prospered there, the needs of the field have grown still more rapidly. The Board has sent the first Protestant settled pastor into the peninsula of Lower California, 57,000 square miles in extent. Texas is more backward. The work has special hindrances, and it is hard to get men to go there; and yet two churches have been organized and five are now self-supporting. It is a fact, surprising as it may be, that in the last ten years our Church has grown, relatively, much faster in Texas than in Illinois or Indiana or New York. The vast mountain terraces of Colorado have witnessed persistent missionary labor with many bright tokens of genuine advance and success. In Moscow, Idaho Territory, a region whose mild climate and rich soil promise large future growth, an almost extinct church has been reorganized, and a high school started by our missionary under the patronage of Presbytery. Montana has been largely surveyed and explored, and the work in that rich and splendid region will be widened and pushed. Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, Minnesota, Michigan and Dakota, five States and one Territory, report the immediate need of 166 men. Fully fifty more could at once be wisely stationed and employed in Texas, Oregon, Washington Territory, Montana and Iowa. Nineteen churches have been organized in Nebraska this year, and in ten years our Church has increased threefold. Ground has been gained and thirty churches organized in Kansas, in spite of the sore hindrance of renewed drought and failure of crops; and large advance is planned, and will be attempted during the year to come. Iowa has suffered greatly by removals westward, one leading church having even lost one-third of its income; and yet many churches have had large additions on confession of faith, and the temper of the whole Synod was never more resolutely bent, not only on making steady advance, but also on attaining self-support at the earliest possible day. The great State of Missouri is in great need of men. Some of the Presbyteries are sadly short-handed. One Presbytery had last autumn only nine men serving its thirty-two churches. And yet a great deal of faithful and fruitful work has been done throughout the Synod during the year. The northern peninsula of Michigan—ecclesiastically joined to Wisconsin, as it is also geographically—has had a wonderful material and commercial development, and several Presbyterian churches have been organized in growing and stirring towns where there was, but a few years since, only an almost unvisited waste of forest and swamp. There has been marked and solid increase in Minnesota, and the Synod is largely bent on soon reaching self-sustentation. At the meeting of the Presbyteries in that State last spring nine churches assumed their own support.

CITY EVANGELIZATION.

This is a part of the general work which is at once specially pressing and specially difficult. There are some points within the Board's field at which there has been zealous and successful effort in this direction during the year. The Presbyterian Alliance of Omaha, Neb., is notably aggressive and ambitious, and the thirteenth Presbyterian church in the city has been organized. Lincoln and Hastings, in the same State, are each pressing the enterprise of a second church. There has been new interest and effort in this work in Sioux City, Burlington, Dubuque, Des Moines, Keokuk and other cities of Iowa. In the new western part of St. Louis, which is rapidly growing and promises to be the most splendid portion of the city, one or two new churches are in contemplation. There has been very notable growth in Los Angeles, Cal., whose first church became self-supporting only five years ago, and has this last year given the Board nearly $1200, while two others are self-supporting and two more are still aided. St. Paul and Minneapolis have each a Presbyterian Alliance, vigorous and active, and pushing the work in these twin cities as never before. These two cities, with Chicago, have done much more in this line in the last fifteen years than New York, Philadelphia and Brooklyn in the East. And yet Presbyterian Social Unions are seeking to push the interests of the Church in New York and Brooklyn. In New York a large sum has lately been raised for church extension in the city. In Philadelphia and Baltimore a new and general interest has been aroused in church extension and evangelistic work.

SELF-SUPPORT.

A considerable number of churches are reported as having become independent of the Board's aid during the year. But there is no doubt whatever that many more should take the same step. The Moderator of a large Western Synod said in open session last autumn, in the hearing of an officer of the Board, that three out of four of the churches on the Board's list ought not to be there. From another Western Synod the statement comes that almost every church aided by the Board could easily bear to have its appropriation lessened by $25 or $50.

WOMAN'S WORK.

This notable department of our work has during the year been fully sustained and steadily advanced. It has made a noble record. It has done priceless service for humanity, civilization and religion. It has rescued a multitude already from ignorance, degradation and misery. It has planned and prepared for ten-fold like results in the future. And it has demonstrated the capabilities and resources of the Christian women of our Church.

This work has grown with singular rapidity. The present income of the Women's Executive Committee, nearly $226,000, including gifts to Freedmen's Board, has been reached within about ten years. The Board's income, outside of the women's contributions, has meanwhile largely increased.

This work has a peculiarly interesting field. In school work among the illiterate Southern whites, merely enough of a beginning has been made, as at Asheville, N. C., to show what can be done, and doubtless will be done, in that line, as soon as the door is wide open and the means are supplied, and the women of our Church can get fairly at the work. Their main field to-day is among the exceptional peoples, in New Mexico, Arizona, the Indian Territory, Utah and Alaska; among the stolid and suspicious Indians, the besotted Rome-ridden Mexicans, the bigoted and disloyal Mormons. The field is hard and trying in the extreme. There is no more unmanageable material in heathendom. There is no Christian work on earth more formidable or unpromising. And this very feature, instead of daunting and deterring, seems both to attract and arouse the women of our Church. They have chosen the neediest, slowest, costliest work in the land, and are resolutely bent on doing their best with it.

And this hard work has had marked success. The five main tribes in the eastern part of the Indian Territory (Cherokees, Creeks, Choctaws, Chickasaws and Seminoles) have been transformed by Christian influences into civilized communities. Cherokee Presbytery has just reported an increase of forty-four and one-half per cent in membership during the past year. Many of our schools are now the admiration of all who know them. Several of them have recently had emphatic praise from Government inspectors, and applications have been just made for new schools, and for enlarged accommodations for old ones, to the amount of over $20,000, while we are told that, if the ways and means were within reach, schools could be usefully started at once at fifty points in the Territory.

In far-off Alaska, also, the work has gone on with cheering results. Tourists from the East have marked their approval of the training school at Sitka by sending additional material and equipment for industrial education. A row of neat little houses has been erected near the school, in which decent and orderly homes are maintained by some of its graduates, who, but for its influence, would have inherited the gloomy wretchedness of their ancestors. A young and thoroughly trained physician, with his wife, has just been engaged to take charge of the much-needed hospital, his salary being contributed by a generous lady in New York. There has been a marked increase of religious interest among pupils, and parents as well, at Sitka and Hydah and elsewhere, and the parents are increasingly desirous that their children shall have Christian training. At a communion service at Sitka twenty-four confessed Christ, and fifteen children were baptized.

In New Mexico and Arizona, also, many and great as the drawbacks and hindrances are, the school work has been attended with substantial success. The schools at Tucson and Albuquerque, doing good but limited work, are hindered from attaining much greater size and success only by unfinished buildings. Twenty-four pupils at Mora have confessed Christ. And even in Utah, hardest field of all, there have been gain and growth, revival and ingathering. To the Christian sentiment of the land it is probably owing that the movement for Mormon Statehood, so threatening a short time since, is virtually dead; and missions and schools are wielding an increasing power, which the priesthood and the people are owning more and more.

We urge the enlargement of this work, not only by the planting of new schools, but by the more economical method of enlarging the accommodations and appliances of those already in operation. The patient and self-denying teachers should have the sympathy and support of all the women of our Church. We owe the Indians a reparation which must be tardy and partial at the best, and they are more eager and more receptive than either Mormons or Mexicans. No pains should be spared and no time lost in bringing all Christian forces to bear to rid the Republic of the plague and shame of Mormonism. The frequent appeals from schools painfully and dangerously overcrowded might, in many cases, be complied with at a comparatively trifling outlay. How shall the tens of thousands of warm-hearted women in the Church, who have as yet lent no hand here, be enlisted in this promising service?

This school work was so fully detailed in the last year's Report that only the additions since need be now given.

SUSTENTATION DEPARTMENT.

The receipts for this fund have been lessened by the diverting of the collections to the purpose of Synodical aid, in the Synods of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The number of churches aided by this fund is steadily diminishing.

THE BOARD OF CHURCH ERECTION.

The Board once more gratefully recognizes the invaluable coöperation and aid of its sister Board of Church Erection. Separate and independent as it is, its wise and efficient work directly furthers the aims and interests of Home Missions.

ABSTRACT OF THE FIFTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT, MAY 1, 1888.

The Report begins with a grateful acknowledgment of the goodness and the grace of God as manifested in the Foreign Missions of our Church during the last year. This will clearly appear in the statements of the Report itself.

The departure from this life of two members of the Board is next placed on record—Mr. David Olyphant and Mr. Robert Lenox Kennedy, both men held in great esteem. Two of the missionaries of the Board were also called to enter into rest—the Rev. R. D. Irwin, of the Mission in Mexico, and Mrs. Woodside, wife of the Rev. J. E. Woodside, of the Mission in India; both greatly lamented. Mr. Warner Van Norden and the Hon. Darwin James were elected to fill the places left vacant in the Board. The transfer of the office of the Board from 23 Centre street to 53 Fifth avenue, at the beginning of January, 1888, is mentioned. The purchase of property at the latter place through the efficient influence of the late Mr. Kennedy, and the sale of the former on advantageous terms, gives the Board new quarters in a pleasant part of the city and at a pecuniary outlay involving no additional expense.

MISSIONARIES SENT OUT.

A goodly number of missionaries were sent to various fields of labor, viz.: One to an Indian tribe; the others to Mexico, Guatemala, United States of Colombia, Chili, Africa, Syria, Persia, India, Siam, Laos, China, Korea and Japan, besides the continued support of the mission in Brazil and aid extended to missions in Papal Europe. Of the missionaries sent twenty-six were ministers—sixteen new and ten returning; two were laymen and forty-two were women, of whom eleven were returning and thirty-one went out for the first time; twenty-one married; two widows and nineteen single—two of the latter medical missionaries. In all, seventy were sent forth.

WHOLE NUMBER OF MISSIONARIES, COMMUNICANTS AND SCHOLARS.

American ministers, 177; native ministers, 151; native licentiate preachers, 169; American laymen and women, 28 and 297; native helpers, catechists, teachers, Bible readers, Zenana visitors, etc., 804. In all, 1626.

Communicants, partially reported, 23,740; number added last year, partially reported, 2397.

Scholars, 23,770, of whom boys 16,457, girls 7218; of whom again boarding scholars, 982 boys and 1363 girls.

The main body of the Report, containing lists of missionaries, a narrative of their work, etc., pages 8 to 179, and two pages of general statistics, cannot well be condensed into this brief abstract; but copies of the Report, as sent to the General Assembly, will be widely distributed in the churches. On application at the Mission House copies can be obtained without charge so long as the edition lasts. The readers of this Report will find in it abundant proofs of the blessing of God in this evangelistic work of His people, and also of the divine call to still onward progress in giving the Gospel to those who are still without God and without hope in the world.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD :

No. 1834 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa.

ABSTRACT OF THE SIXTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT.

Grateful for the mercies and successes of another year, the Board of Education respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Sixty-ninth Report.

In view of the legacy of a heavy debt left to it from the previous year, and of a probable increase of applications for aid in the future, the Board, at its first session in September, decided to reduce the scholarships to $100 for all in the collegiate and theological departments, and to $80 for the academies (save to those at Biddle University, all of whom received $80 each, as recommended by the last Assembly), and gave notice of this action through the press. The effect of this increased reduction has been to tax yet more severely many of the candidates, who are entirely dependent on themselves for support.

As was expected, the number of recommendations sent in largely exceeded those of last year, running up from 696 to 739. Under the apprehension of an increase of the debt that would thus be occasioned, since the contributions were not coming in proportionately, the Board resolved, early in January, once more to avail itself of the liberty granted in its rules to decline receiving any more candidates. As before, earnest appeals for exceptions were made in some instances, but they were, from consistency, declined. Relief, however, was obtained for some of the more urgent cases by appeals in their behalf through the columns of The Church at Home and Abroad, which were always responded to. In this way the number of special scholarships has been increased to eighteen, for which special thanks are due to the benefactors.

FUNDS.

The amount of funds received has to some degree bettered expectation. By means of a timely legacy of $16,000 and the numerous personal appeals sent out and the special efforts of our Presbyterial Committees, the Board is able to report its debt diminished to only $3800. (This, however, was announced as entirely canceled during the sessions of the Assembly.)

DELINQUENCIES.

As usual, a large number of churches have contributed nothing to this Board. Out of 6436 found on the roll of 1887 not less than 3338 will leave their space in the column of Education a blank. Many of these would plead inability. Others, being without a pastor, will assign as the reason that there was no one to present the cause. Some, however, though well able to give, have sent us special reasons for refusing to do so.

THE DEMAND.

Over against the statements made above we give the following statistics, made out from the "Minutes" of the last Assembly, and would press them upon the attention of all our ministers and elders:

Out of the 6436 churches enrolled there were 1211 marked vacant. This is 15 less than were so marked last year. The churches dissolved number 78, an excess of 2. The new churches organized count 288, an advance of 63, making our net increase in the whole number 155.

The whole number of ordinations was 188, and of accessions from other denominations in excess of those we dismissed was 50. These added together make in all 238 new names of ordained men upon our roll. But we lost by death 180. The balance of ministers then would be 108 to set over against the 155 increase of churches and to provide for the 1211 vacancies. Of course a large number of these churches must be regarded as too small and too weak to sustain a pastor. Yet who will say that they do not all deserve to be cared for and would not pay to be sustained? So, on the other hand, there is an indefinable number of unemployed ministers, many of them well furnished for every good word and work, whose worth needs only to be known in order to be called to some of these vacancies, and who are rendering excellent service as occasional supplies. These, however, we must leave out of the account as an uncertain element, and simply take things according to their showing. And from such a view it must be obvious that we are far from meeting the demand. And this will be the more apparent when we reflect that in looking for a pastor our churches proceed on the principle of "natural selection," and call for a large stock out of which to make their choice, and are very likely to let much excellent material go to waste.

THE PROSPECT.

The promise for the coming year, as indicated by the catalogues of our theological seminaries, is as follows:

At their several commencements in the spring, Princeton sent out 39 graduates; Union, 35; Western, 22; Auburn, 12; Lane, 19; McCormick, 36; Danville, 1; San Francisco, 2; Biddle, 4; German Theological School at Bloomfield, 3; the same at Dubuque, 4; Lincoln, 10; total, 178. This is less by 5 than were furnished by the first six of these institutions last year, or taking these six again this year, by way of comparison, less by 29, a lamentable decline, it must be confessed. And even from these enumerated a deduction must be made on the score of candidates that belong to other denominations and do not expect to enter our service, and also on the score of those who, though studying theology, do not have the ministry in view.

An offset to this decline is presented in the Assembly statistics. The sum total of the candidates there reported is 986, an excess of 80 over that of the previous year. But these, it must be remembered, are scattered over a seven-years' course of study, and average only about 40 per year. There are, however, many more to be hoped for who have not yet declared themselves to Presbytery. Plainly it becomes our churches and Presbyteries to bestir themselves to a more earnest consecration of their young men to the ministry of the Word, and of their means to help them forward.

PROFIT AND LOSS.

In order to ascertain the gains and losses of the Church in account with the Board of Education since the reunion of the two branches in 1870, a careful investigation has been instituted, for the purpose of discovering how many of those who had been aided by the Board within that period had failed of entering its ministry, and why they had failed, and what had become of them, and what they had cost to the Church. The result, so far as has been obtained, we give below. It is to be regretted that out of the 151 Presbyteries to which inquiries have been sent, 45 have not responded, so that the account is not as complete as we would like to make it. The summary of the information gained is as follows:

The whole number of those who have been more or less aided is 2747. This makes the average number recorded on our books each year to be 546.

Of this yearly average we find, after the most careful investigation, that one and one-third per cent have failed to enter our ministry, two-thirds of this small percentage having gone into other business, and the other third having been dropped before completing their course. Again, one and two-thirds per cent of the yearly average are beyond our knowledge, we having been unable to ascertain from their Presbyteries aught concerning them. We hope, however, to obtain answers to our inquiries from all before long. The whole will then be summarized more in detail, to be kept on record.

The showing thus made must be acknowledged to be a creditable one. The losses sustained will compare favorably with those sustained in any other department of Church work. Ninety-seven per cent may fairly be estimated as having gone into the work.

We have not included in the above calculation those that have died during their course of study. Their failure, if failure it may be called, is not a loss.

CANDIDATES AIDED.

The number of candidates aided has increased from 696 to 739. They are distributed as follows: In the Theological Seminaries, 315; in Colleges, 353; in Academic Department, 71.

Classified according to race and nationality: 97 are Negroes; 83, Germans; 8, Bulgarians; 2, Spanish; 2, Japanese; 2, Indians; 1, Mexican; 1, Brazilian; 1, Korean; 1, Armenian. The rest are Anglo-Saxons, Scotch and Irish.

In point of scholarship, 184 are marked "High;" 286, "Medium +;" 241, "Medium;" 20, "Low."

Those who completed their studies this spring at the theological seminaries and have been graduated, number as follows: From McCormick, 25; Princeton, 15; Lane, 10; Western, 6; Biddle University, 3; Dubuque German School, 4; Auburn, 3; Lincoln University, 8; Newark German School, 3; San Francisco, 2; Danville, 1.

One, a most promising student, has been called away by death.

The Board has been obliged to drop 2 on account of ill health, and 6 for marked disqualifications in attainments and character; 3 have withdrawn, having found other means of support.

In place of Henry N. Paul, Esq., resigned, the Board elected George H. Stuart, Jr., and in place of Joseph M. Collingwood, George Peirce, Esq. These elections are laid before the Assembly for its action.

The members whose term of service expires this year are as follows:

ABSTRACT OF THE FIFTIETH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Fiftieth Annual Report, covering the year beginning April 1, 1887, and closing March 31, 1888.

The first important event of the year covered by this Report was the lamented death of the General Secretary of the Board, the Rev. John W. Dulles, D.D.

On the 10th day of May, the Rev. Elijah R. Craven, D.D., pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church of Newark, N. J., was unanimously elected as the successor of Dr. Dulles. As, however, that gentleman was a member of the Special Committee on the affairs of the Board that had been appointed by the Assembly of 1886, and that was about reporting to the Assembly of 1887, he declined taking the appointment into consideration until after the Assembly had acted on the Report of the Special Committee.

REORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD.

In accordance with the direction of the General Assembly, the gentlemen appointed by that body met in the Publication House, Philadelphia, on June 21, and organized themselves as the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work. The following officers were elected, viz.:

Rev. WILLIAM P. BREED, D.D., President.
Hon. ROBERT N. WILLSON, Vice-President.
Rev. ELIJAH R. CRAVEN, D.D., Secretary.
Rev. JAMES A. WORDEN, D.D., Superintendent of Sabbath-school and Missionary Work.
Rev. JAMES R. MILLER, D.D., Editorial Superintendent.
JOHN A. BLACK, Business Superintendent.
Rev. WILLARD M. RICE, D.D., Recording Clerk.
S. D. POWEL, Treasurer.

With the exception of the Treasurer, Mr. Powel, they all continue in the active discharge of their duties. That honored and faithful servant of the Church departed this life on the 24th day of August, and October 6 the Rev. C. T. McMullin was elected as his successor.

The work of the Board was at once arranged in the three departments directed by the General Assembly, namely, Sabbath-school and Missionary, Editorial, and Business; and Committees on all these departments were appointed. A code of By-Laws was prepared and adopted in accordance with the plans set forth in the Report of the Special Committee to the General Assembly of 1887.

WORK OF THE BOARD.

The year has been one of prosperity. A large number of new and valuable books have been published and distributed; the circulation of the periodicals has considerably increased; the debt resting upon the Missionary Department at the beginning of the year has been paid; the number of contributing churches and the amount of contributions to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund have so largely increased, and so large a reduction has been made in the expenditures, that we begin the new year with a balance of $24,000, and are thus enabled to place at once in the field as Sabbath-school missionaries, for the four months of their vacation, fifty-five students of our various theological seminaries.

SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

The functions of this department are four, viz.: 1. The appointment and superintendence of Sabbath-school missionaries; 2. The elevation and improvement of the Sabbath-school work of our churches; 3. The distribution of our literature by grants and by missionary sales; 4. The collection and presentation to the Assembly of Sabbath-school statistics.

WORK OF THE MISSIONARIES.

The work performed by these men is highly gratifying. It may be briefly summarized as follows: Families visited, 26,986; meetings addressed, 1183; Sabbath-schools visited, 621; Sabbath-schools organized, 73; number of teachers in schools organized, 332; number of scholars in schools organized, 2812; number of volumes sold, 10,074; number of volumes given away, 18,038; pages of tracts and periodicals gratuitously distributed, 1,051,126.

THEOLOGICAL STUDENTS APPOINTED SABBATH-SCHOOL MISSIONARIES.

ELEVATING AND IMPROVING THE SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK OF OUR CHURCHES.

Another of the functions of this department is "to devise such measures as will tend to arouse a deeper interest in the Sabbath-school work of our denomination, to make such work more thorough and useful, to bring about a more careful and earnest study of God's Word, and to awaken Christians, and especially Presbyterians, to the prime importance of bringing the Gospel into the hearts and lives of the youth of our churches."

The means employed have been chiefly the following:

1. Visitation by the Superintendent.
2. Prizes for Reciting the Westminster Shorter Catechism.—During the months of December, January, February and March, 606 certificates were received and the same number of Bibles awarded. These have been given not only in English, but in German, French, Spanish, Chinese, and in one of the dialects of India.
3. Graded Supplemental Lessons.—Every scholar in Presbyterian Sabbath-schools should be taught to commit to memory—1. Certain portions of the Holy Scriptures. 2. The Creed and the Shorter Catechism; the names and structure of the books of the Bible; some brief system of Bible chronology and Bible geography; a short outline of Bible history, and a brief résumé of the Form of Government of our Church, and of the nature and work of each of our Boards.

A plan of Graded Supplemental Lessons has at last been digested by which this desirable end will be effected.

4. The Bible Correspondence School.—Auxiliary to the foregoing is the Bible Correspondence School. This enterprise, although not under the direct supervision of the Board, is conducted by the Superintendent of Sabbath-school and Missionary Work.

5. Missionary Letters to Contributing Schools.—The plan has been adopted of sending quarterly to each contributing school a letter from one of our Sabbath-school missionaries.

GRANTS AND MISSIONARY SALES.

The third function of this department is the distribution of our literature, by grant, to those who need and are unable to purchase, and by sale by missionaries.

Great care is exercised in making these grants to churches and schools, lest they should be injured by receiving aid before having done all in their power to purchase their own supplies. Experience has shown that many are stimulated to healthful activity by the promise of partial assistance. None are refused aid when there is reason to believe that they have taxed themselves to the extent of their ability, or that they are totally unable to purchase.

The total amount of grants for the year has been, of books, 18,905; and of pages of tracts, lesson helps and periodicals, 2,950,153.

The sales by missionaries amount to 10,074 volumes. This great decrease in missionary sales is principally due to the greatly reduced number of missionaries.

SABBATH-SCHOOL STATISTICS.

The fourth function is to collect and report to the General Assembly Sabbath-school statistics.

Only 22 of our 182 home Presbyteries have failed to report the exact condition of their Sabbath-schools. A tabular statement of these reports will be found in the Appendix to the "Minutes" of the General Assembly.

The great number received into full communion—27,051, or more than four per cent of the whole number of scholars—is cause for special gratitude to our heavenly Father.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

The yearly festival of our Sabbath-schools was celebrated Sabbath, June 12, 1887, as never before. The day was observed with appropriate services by no less than 1500 schools. Over 200,000 copies of the exercises prepared for that day were used. The Sabbath-schools contributed on that occasion to the Missionary Department of this Board over $15,000. Preparations are making for the still more general observance of the day on the 10th of June.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

During the years 1885, 1886 and 1887 a balance against this department had been accumulating. On April 1, 1887, it amounted to within $70 of $25,000. When it is considered that the receipts for the year from all sources had not reached $50,000, it is clear that the debt of $25,000 was proportionate to a debt against the Home or Foreign Board of at least $300,000.

By this indebtedness the Board was so burdened that it was compelled to stand well nigh helpless before the millions of youth in our land without a Sabbath-school or a church.

THE DEBT PAID.

The story of the extinction of this debt is soon told. The Board retrenched; it cut down expenses to the quick. On Children's Day, June 12, the Sabbath-schools made offerings so large as nearly to remove the incubus. The good work was finished by the increased contributions of churches and schools during the following months.

ENLARGED GIFTS TO SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY WORK.

The total amount of receipts for this department from April 1, 1887, to March 31, 1888, was $73,381.68, which is an increase of $23,630.39 over the receipts of last year. This is the largest sum ever received by this Board for missionary purposes. It is worthy of special notice that this increase was not derived from legacies or the special gifts of wealthy individuals. Only $2729.10 was obtained from bequests and $2663.08 from individual contributors, while $56,885.13 (an increase of $17,489.22) came directly from churches and Sabbath-schools. It should also be mentioned that the increase came altogether from the latter. Whilst there was a falling off in the receipts from the churches of $70.88, there was a gain from the schools of $17,560.10.

The most encouraging fact connected with this gain is that, counting a church and a Sabbath-school as one, 624 more churches contributed this year than during the year ending March 31, 1887.

PERIODICALS.

During the year no changes have been made in the form of any of the periodicals, nor have any new ones been added. There has been a continued increase in circulation, as the figures of the Business Department will show. The continued favor with which our periodicals have been received is very gratifying. A brief description of each of our periodicals is here given :

THE WESTMINSTER TEACHER is issued monthly for teachers and officers and adult scholars. It is published in octavo form, forty pages, monthly. One copy per annum sixty cents ; school subscriptions, to one address, each copy, fifty cents.

THE WESTMINSTER QUESTION BOOK is a complete manual for the study of the International Bible Lessons of the year, intended for use in Bible classes and the senior classes of the school. It has an immense circulation. Price, $12 per 100, net.

THE WESTMINSTER QUARTERLY FOR OLDER SCHOLARS is adapted to use by the more intelligent classes of our Sabbath-schools. It is an octavo of thirty-two pages. Price, $12 for 100 copies, to one address, for one year.

THE WESTMINSTER PRIMARY QUARTERLY.—Prepared by Mrs. G. R. Alden ("Pansy"), and illustrated. School subscriptions, to one address, 100 copies, per year, $8, or eight cents a year for each scholar.

WESTMINSTER LESSON LEAF.—For intermediate scholars. School subscriptions, to one address, 100 copies, per year, $5 ; 100, for six months, $2.50 ; or five cents a year for each scholar.

WESTMINSTER PRIMARY LESSONS.—In the same form and at the same rate as the Westminster Lesson Leaf.

WESTMINSTER GERMAN LEAF.—At the same rate as the Westminster Lesson Leaf.

FORWARD.—An illustrated semi-monthly paper of twelve pages. School subscriptions, to one address, once a month, 100 copies, per year, $15 ; twice a month, 100 copies, per year, $30.

THE SABBATH-SCHOOL VISITOR.—Illustrated paper of four pages, published twice each month. School subscriptions, to one address, once a month, 100 copies, per year, $10 ; twice a month, 100 copies, per year, $20.

THE MORNING STAR.—Illustrated semi-monthly. School subscriptions, to one address, once a month, 100 copies, per year, $5 ; twice a month, 100 copies, per year, $10.

THE SUNBEAM.—The weekly paper for very little people. Large type and fully illustrated. School subscriptions, to one address, 100 copies, per year, $20.

It is impossible to calculate the value of the work done by these various periodicals or their influence as they go out with their pure, bright, beautiful pages, bearing holy, helpful thoughts and teachings. They carry into tens of thousands of homes cheer, instruction, inspiration and comfort. It cannot but be that vast good is accomplished by this ministry, the results of which can never be known in this life.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

This department, the organization of which remains unchanged, has charge of all the property of the Board, and conducts all its business operations. Of these operations the most important are, first, the publication (manufacture) of books and periodicals, and, secondly, the placing of the publications on the market.

PUBLICATIONS.

Four-hundred and seventeen thousand books and 18,448,021 periodicals have been published, which, together with 8100 copies of the Annual Report, make a total of 18,868,121 publications for the year.

PLACING ON THE MARKET.

This work is performed by advertising in the leading papers of our own and affiliated denominations throughout the country, and through the agency of the main store in Philadelphia and twenty-three depositories and branch houses, nineteen of which are in our own land, four in British America and one in England. The subordinate agencies are as follows:

In the case of periodicals, circulars also are addressed to pastors and Sabbath-school superintendents, and through their influential agency these publications are brought to the attention of churches and schools. In relation to both books and periodicals, our Sabbath-school missionaries exercise an important influence in bringing them to the notice of those who dwell in the sparsely settled and spiritually destitute sections of the land.

PERIODICALS.

Our periodicals form one great system of incalculable advantage to the Church. Some of these are at present published at a loss, whilst others return more or less profit. The entire system is largely remunerative. In the balance sheet will be found lists of these two classes. In explanation of the amount of balances against one of these classes, it should be said that they are accumulations of losses since the establishment of the papers. The deficit in the case of each for this year is as follows:

Westminster Primary Lessons,	$412 77
Westminster German Leaf,	405 79
Forward,	4 88
Morning Star,	427 12
Westminster Primary Quarterly,	898 17
Total deficit for the year,	$1,648 73

The accumulated deficits are retained upon the balance sheet, since they are in fact of the nature of investments. The increasing circulation of all these papers gives promise that before many years each of them, with the exception of The German Leaf, will by its profits return all that has been advanced for its establishment. Forward, against which a large balance appears, it will be observed, has already reached a self-sustaining basis. The German Leaf, it should be remarked, is published in accordance with a general recommendation of the Assembly, and its publication is a purely missionary enterprise.

REDUCTION OF PRICES.

During the year the price of all our octavo publications, except the "Digests," has been reduced to $1.25 a volume net and postage. Amongst the thirty-six volumes thus reduced in price are some of the most valuable publications of the Board. It is probable that no set of books of like value, both as to contents and manufacture, is now offered to the reading community at so low a price.

SALES.

The sales for the year in books were	$99,862 10
The sales for the year in periodicals were	117,726 03
Total,	$217,588 13

This aggregate, as it includes credit sales, does not agree with the Treasurer's account, which account exhibits only cash received.

The aggregate includes not only the ordinary sales of the main house and of the depositories and branch houses, but all sales made to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department for grants, and all sales by Sabbath-school missionaries.* There has been an advance upon the sales of last year—in books of $639.50, in periodicals of $10,311.16; a total advance of $10,951.26.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The receipts into the treasury during the year from all sources were, including balance April 1, 1887, $346,472.53. The entire expenditures have been $273,098.85. The balance in the treasury, April 2, 1888, is $78,373.68.

This balance includes not only the balances belonging to the different departments of the Board and to the Bible Fund, but also the one due to The Church at Home and Abroad.

NET PROFITS.

The net profits of the year have been $8737.73. Of this sum two-thirds, or $5825.16, has been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the last General Assembly. The remaining third, or $2912.57, has been added to the capital stock.

CAPITAL STOCK.

This, at the beginning of the year, amounted to $501,337.79. It is now reported at $504,250.86.

To some it may seem strange that in proportion to so large an amount of capital the business has been so contracted and the net profits so small.

* The above statement relates only to amounts received and credited by the Business Department. In addition to the amount received by this department from sales by missionaries, $1091.29 was received from those sales by the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department. The Business Department sells all its publications to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department at the uniform discount of 83¼ per cent from catalogue prices. The missionaries are required to sell, for cash only, at catalogue prices. The excess inures to the benefit of the latter department.

In reference to the amount of capital, it may be said that much of what is so reported is unproductive. It consists of books in the library, of stereotype plates of books for which there is very little demand, of printed sheets of books and tracts that cannot in any considerable degree be placed at once upon the market, of investments in periodicals that have not yet reached a paying basis, and also of real estate. The reported value of real estate, or, in other words, of the Publication House, is upwards of $152,000. From the portions of this house not used by the Board a large rent would naturally be expected by those not acquainted with the facts. In compliance, however, with the well-known wishes of the donors, offices free of charge are granted to the different Boards of the Church located in Philadelphia. The rent value of these rooms, together with their heating and care, cannot be less than $8000 per annum. In reference to such rooms, the value of which is included in its capital, the Board acts as a trustee in the interests of the benevolent operations of the Church at large.

As to the matter of profits, it should be remembered that the object for which the Board was established was not the making of money, but the production of religious literature and its distribution at the lowest remunerative rates. It may also be said that the Board by the very nature of its work is precluded from the publication of those classes of books which are most generally salable and on which the largest profits are made; and still further, that many of its publications, which are of exceeding value to the Church and especially to the ministry, yield little or no profit, and several of them are published at a loss.

In conclusion of this branch of the Report it may be said that it is probable that the active capital of the Board does not exceed $200,000; and that even this amount, in view of the necessary line of the Board's operations, cannot be used for the accretion of profits with aught approaching the power with which it might be employed by an ordinary business publisher.

THE CHURCH AT HOME AND ABROAD.

At the request of the Committee appointed by the General Assembly, the Board continues to be the publisher of this magazine. The relations of the Board to this publication are, however, different from those which it sustains to other periodicals for which it is directly responsible.

The editor of the magazine is selected by the Assembly's Committee, and he works under their general direction, as does also the Board itself, in this particular. The Board is an agent, rather than the principal, in this connection, and assumes no pecuniary responsibility in the matter.

No charge has been made by the Board for anything except actual expenditures directly on account of the magazine, and every effort has been adopted, through the machinery of the Board, to further the success of the enterprise.

The amount of sales of the magazine for the year were $29,746.27. The number of copies published was 377,917.

A balance of $13,082.10 now stands to the credit of this magazine on the books of the Treasurer.

ABSTRACT OF THE EIGHTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The year has witnessed an advance in all departments of the Board's work. While, as always in the past, the Board has striven to administer the important trusts committed to it with wisdom and energy, its ability to enlarge its work is mainly due to an evident increase of interest upon the part of the Church at large in the efforts of its young congregations to provide themselves with houses of worship. This interest has shown itself not only in increased contributions, but also in the very efficient help that Presbyteries, and especially their Standing Committees upon Church-Erection, have given to the Board in its work.

The main work of the Board includes two branches, the aiding of churches in manse building having been added two years ago to the original commission. Necessarily connected with its work, however, are various forms of subsidiary business, which involve large expenditures of time and a certain measure of increasing pecuniary outlay.

I. HOUSES OF WORSHIP.

1. The Need.—The Presbyterian Church is not standing still. To the last General Assembly it was reported that, during the year then closing, 228 churches had been organized, an average of nearly two for every three days in the year, and an increase of sixty-three over the number added during the previous year. These churches are organized, but not one of them is established and its life assured until it has secured a spiritual home. A certain number in the older and wealthier regions are able to arise and build without delay, their own resources being sufficient for the work; a few others, established in great cities like Chicago, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, or New York, are aided by their own Presbyteries in meeting the large outlay involved in their location, or for a while they are able to carry a debt; but by far the greater number of the churches organized in 1887 are, in 1888, looking to the Church at large, as represented in this Board, to guarantee the completion of their houses of worship.

As a matter of fact, excluding forty-two manse applications, one hundred and eighty-six churches have made formal application to us for aid in erecting houses of worship, and nearly as many more have, in correspondence, intimated their intention soon to do the same.

2. Resources to Meet the Need.—The sources of income of the Board were explained in detail last year, and what was then said need not be repeated. There are mainly four, viz.: (1) The annual contributions of the churches; (2) Individual contributions; (3) Legacies; and (4) the interest accruing from the Permanent Fund.

From the Treasurer's Report it will be seen that the gross amounts received from these and other sources have been as follows:

Annual contributions from churches,	$56,883 09
Individual contributions,	8,248 85
Legacies,	21,782 01
Interest upon invested funds,	8,655 65
Sale of church buildings,	5,740 19
Appropriations returned,	150 00
Receipts from insurance companies,	1,701 92
Special contributions,	20,736 03
Total,	$118,897 74

3. How Far the Need has been Met.—Convinced that the value of aid rendered depends largely upon the promptitude with which it is extended, the Board has endeavored so to apportion its grants that none might suffer and none be obliged to wait.

Appropriations have been made for church edifices to one hundred and eighty-five churches (including five chapels), a number greater by twenty-five than last year and forty-two more than the year before—a manifest indication that the Church and the work are growing. The average amount appropriated to each church has been about the same as last year. Several of the grants have been larger than usual. This is rendered necessary by the increasing number of churches in our larger towns and cities. These centres of influence and supply must be occupied and held, but necessarily the expense attending the work of building is much larger than in the smaller places.

The grants have been very widely distributed. Every Synod, excepting Baltimore, has been reached, even the strong eastern Synods of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York receiving, in addition to special gifts, respectively ten, three and five grants.

To Atlantic and Catawba have been allotted sixteen.

Among the younger Synods of the West the number of appropriations is in a marked degree an indication of the growth of the Church, as comparatively few new organizations are housed independently of the assistance of the Board. This year, as for the last five years, Kansas, gauged by this rule, seems to be the banner State, the appropriations within her Synod reaching twenty-six. Then follow in order Dakota, Nebraska, California, with eighteen, thirteen and ten, respectively.

In the aggregate the appropriations to churches have amounted to $88,250; $10,012 more than last year and $28,500 more than the year before that. The largest appropriation to any one church was $1500. There were seven of $1000, two of $900 and nine of $800. The average was very nearly $477.

Including special gifts the total number of churches aided is 218, and the total amount appropriated $109,011.03.

The actual payments have amounted to $108,523.61, of which $20,761.08 were special donations.

II. MANSES.

In connection with this department of the Board's work the year has been one of great interest. The Manse Fund is unique in two respects. It differs from our general fund in being dependent for its increase entirely upon special donations outside of ordinary church contributions, and also in being administered as a capital to be loaned and received again. When last year closed more than two-thirds of the original fund had been loaned. Had the applications been as numerous this year as last, and no new supplies received, three months would have brought to a halt the work whose promise rejoiced so many hearts.

On the other hand, had the wise and far-reaching recommendation of the last Assembly been carried out, and this Centennial year a sum of $50,000 added to the fund, the work would have been established in perpetuity, with little occasion to call for future contributions to its treasury.

The actual result was midway between these extremes. The receipts were small, and yet, together with the installments returned upon first annual payments, sufficed to meet the needs of the most important cases, while the applications were much diminished in view of the frankly acknowledged stringency of the treasury.

In all, forty-two applications were received, and thirty-six appropriations were made, aggregating $15,200. These appropriations were, with two exceptions, made as loans, to be returned in one, two and three years without interest.

But $25,000 capital will not do the work. At least $50,000, and probably $75,000 is needed, so that about $20,000 can be each year loaned.

In various ways the Board has brought the recommendation of the last Assembly to the notice of the pastors and churches, with the hope that the very important object thus indicated might be accomplished. The responses have been, however, we regret to say, neither large nor numerous, and the total amount contributed to the fund has reached only $4448.65.

With the permission of the Assembly the Board will continue to urge upon the churches the prime importance, if not absolute necessity, of completing the fund proposed, which will be none the less fruitful of lasting blessing, because provided in a year not distinctly centennial.

Let it be remembered that this fund is to be made available, not simply by the use of the annual interest accruing from its investment, but by the principal itself being used as a capital to be loaned and returned every three years, thus carrying on in perpetuity its beneficent mission.

III. GENERAL REVIEW.

A general review of the work in both departments shows that the number of appropriations, regular and special, including both churches and manses, has been 254; and the aggregate of the amount thus appropriated, $124,211.08. The receipts from all sources, so far as available for the work of the Board, amounted to $124,085.54. The aggregate of payments to churches was $116,665.09.

IV. THE OUTLOOK.

In looking forward to the future prosecution of its work, the Board anticipates a development that will certainly call for increased contributions. Not only is the work in its general aspects constantly widening, but there are special aspects which, in some respects, must modify former conclusions. This will be evident if we notice the four classes into which the churches making applications for aid naturally divide themselves.

1. The Young Churches upon Western Home Missionary Ground.—It was with special reference to this class that the Board was organized.

2. The Churches among the Freedmen.—These are becoming very numerous, and the promise of the future is that the work will every year assume more and more importance.

3. The Young Churches in Rapidly Growing Cities, both East and West.—One of the most marked characteristics of the day is the trend of population toward the cities. How shall the rapidly multiplying city churches be supplied with edifices? In the older and wealthier cities there are leagues and unions and Church Extension Committees that distribute the supplies that are furnished upon the ground, and in many instances provide for the advancing work without appeal to the Church at large. But in other cities, and especially west of the Mississippi, the work is too great to be supported by the local churches, themselves still young, and but lately outgrown the need of missionary aid. Such new enterprises each year in increasing numbers apply to the Board for aid. But aid to be effective must be given to an extent far beyond the average grants of the Board, and even beyond the limit assigned by the Assembly as the maximum of the ordinary gift. To meet such cases, and they can be passed over only to the vital peril of our best interests, largely increased contributions will be needed.

4. The Work in New England.—This is in some respects a work by itself, differing in many characteristics from that upon any other part of the field. From Scotland, from Ireland, from the British provinces, large numbers of immigrants have come into the manufacturing towns of Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island. These people are Presbyterian through and through. They inherit from their ancestry traditions, associations, religious habits, that forbid them from feeling thoroughly at home excepting in Presbyterian churches. It is not strange, and it is not to be criticised, that they desire to perpetuate the forms of doctrine, of church government and of worship to which they have been accustomed from childhood.

But now comes a problem almost insoluble. How shall a church edifice be provided? The people are new-comers, industrious, frugal, but poor, and with their fortunes still to make. Upon the other hand the town is old, land is very expensive, building laws require substantial and expensive edifices. The $3000 that will abundantly provide for a congregation in Dakota will not one-half pay for the land upon which the New England church must build. Through this Board these New England churches appeal to sister churches throughout the land. And here again the ordinary methods of the Board must be transcended if effective aid is to be given. It needs $1000 to do in New England what $250 will accomplish in Kansas. It is with special knowledge of the pressing needs of this class and the preceding class of churches that the Board makes its urgent appeal for largely increased contributions. Abundant giving to-day will insure a tenfold return in the early future.

V. AN ADDITIONAL RULE.

In respect to contributions, it is possible that the Assembly may deem it wise to allow them, in certain instances, to answer a twofold purpose. As was remarked earlier in this Report, the rapidly growing strength of many of the churches, originally aided by the Board, prompts them from time to time to inquire upon what terms they may return the amounts received, and thus release their property from the lien resting upon it. It seems to the Board that such return is as desirable to the general interests of the work as it is honorable to the churches proposing it. The object of the lien is simply to secure, under any contingency, the funds of the Board to their legitimate purpose. It is evident, also, that a church willing and able to return the money received, has reached a condition of strength that virtually guarantees its permanent existence. Only, however, in rare instances is a church able to pay at once the full amount, even without interest.

The Board, therefore, respectfully requests the Assembly to consider the propriety of an additional rule which may enable churches to return in installments running through several years the amount of the grant received. Such resolution as the following* would, in the judgment of the Board, meet the end in view.

All of which is respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

THE CENTENARY FUND.

The past year has been a notable one in the history of this Board—or rather of the sacred cause it represents.

The Committee of distinguished ministers and elders appointed by the General Assembly of 1885, at Cincinnati, to make arrangements for the proper celebration of the approaching Centennial Assembly, reported the following year at Minneapolis (among other recommendations) various objects for which special Centennial contributions should be asked during the year. Among these objects, the Committee specified first the Board of Relief, and asked for "not less than one million of dollars as an addition to its Permanent Fund." At the next Assembly (that of last year, at Omaha) the Committee, having appointed the Rev. George C. Heckman, D.D., Secretary of the Centenary Fund, the Rev. Prof. W. H. Roberts, D.D., Treasurer, and the Rev. George P. Hays, D.D., LL.D., Chairman of its Executive Committee, asked the approval of the Assembly "to the intention of this Committee to concentrate its efforts upon the raising of the one million dollars for the endowment of the Board of Relief, as recommended by the last Assembly." This approval was unanimously voted and the initial meeting was held during the sessions of the General Assembly, the Moderator presiding.

The Executive Committee, with their headquarters in Cincinnati, entered at once and energetically upon the work of raising this Centenary Fund, Dr. Hays adding to the pastoral care of his large and important church the laborious duties of the Chairmanship. The officers and members of the Board of Relief gladly rendered during the year all the help it was in their power to give, consistently with the faithful discharge of their own special work, but it is the well-directed and tireless and enthusiastic labor of this Committee, with the coöperation of the Centennial Committees in the various Synods and Presbyteries, that has made the past year so memorable in the history of this cause. The Board must not anticipate their Report, which will be laid before the Assembly during its present sessions, but we cannot refrain from this brief but grateful and appreciative reference to their work, and we unite our thanks with those of the whole Church for their unremitting and energetic labors on behalf of the cause committed to the care of this Board and which is so near to the hearts of God's people.

THE ROLL.

The number on the roll of the Board to whom remittances were sent upon the recommendation of Presbyteries during the year from April 1, 1887, to April 1, 1888, was 664. The number of families provided for during the year at the Ministers' House, Perth Amboy, N. J. (see page 12 of the Report), was 20, making upon the roll of the Board during the past year a total of 684 families. The number of persons who share in the appropriations made by the Board to these 684 families may be estimated at about 2000. The Presbyterian recommendations in their behalf came from 149 Presbyteries.

WITHDRAWALS AND ADDITIONS.

During the past year, as in previous years, there have been several withdrawals from the roll, owing to a change in pecuniary circumstances or restored health which has rendered further aid from the Board no longer necessary. There have been 44 names removed from our roll by death. Among the honored ministers called to their reward on high during the year just closed there were 24 who had passed the age of three-score years and ten, 8 were over eighty and 1 was in his ninety-eighth year. The youngest was in his sixty-fourth. Seventy-three families have been added to the roll during the year, 35 ministers, 35 widows, 2 orphan families and 1 female missionary.

THE TREASURY.

The General Assembly of last year at Omaha recommended that "not less than $150,000 be annually contributed to this sacred cause." This sum was named by the Assembly of 1895, at Minneapolis, when the number of families upon the roll of the Board was only 484, or just one hundred less than during the past year. But the whole amount of contributions last year for current use from church collections and individual gifts was only $110,736.08, or nearly $40,000 less than the sum recommended and urged by the Assembly, and a falling off from that of the previous year of more than $6000!

In our Report to the Assembly last year, referring gratefully to the balance in the treasury with which the year closed, it was said: "But it would be a painful result of this large balance, which will all be needed before the summer months are over, if it should induce on the part of the friends of this sacred cause any relaxation of effort on its behalf during the coming year."

During the summer months (when the collections come in slowly, but our need continues all the same), this large balance was exhausted. Our receipts for current use for each of the three summer months fell so far below the amount received during the previous year that when the September appropriations asked for by the Presbyteries were voted by the Board notice was given to the churches that "our balance for current use is not far from the line of danger," and the question was asked whether the "same unwearied and zealous work had been continued this year on the part of the friends of this cause." A more obvious explanation, however, of this falling off in the contributions for our current use is suggested by the fact that in the same number of The Church in which this question was asked there appeared a letter to the Secretary pledging the munificent subscription of $10,000 to the Centenary Fund for the use of this Board.

Already had the attention of God's people been drawn away from our current needs to this great Centennial movement on behalf of our Permanent Endowment. This was natural. Indeed, it was feared by many that the special efforts recommended by the Assembly to be made during this Centennial year on behalf of our Permanent Endowment would divert the attention of God's people somewhat from all the branches of Church work, and that the contributions for the current use of all the Boards would be diminished. Happily these fears have not been realized. The Board of Foreign Missions has received for its use more than $900,000—a large advance upon its receipts for any previous year. The Secretaries of the Home Mission Board have publicly announced that the contributions to its treasury have amounted to $783,527—almost reaching the advanced sum of $800,000 set for this important work by the last Assembly! The Reports from the other Boards, so far as known, show a like increase in contributions for their current use, and it will be among the rejoicings and thanksgiving of this Centennial Assembly that while, during this historic year, the churches have addressed themselves specially to the caring for the "laborers" disabled from their sacred duties by sickness or old age, they have pushed forward all the lines of Church work and have sent out more laborers into the harvest of ever-widening and whitening fields. Our beloved Church is thus giving promise of yet greater things to be done for the Master in the new ecclesiastical century upon which we are entering.

And this Board also is constrained to give thanks that, notwithstanding the falling off in the contributions for current use, there has never been a day during the past year when our treasury was entirely empty; for the first time in its history—at least within the memory of the oldest member of the Board—we have never been without funds for current use. All the appropriations have been sent to these wards of the Church as soon as the necessary Presbyterian recommendations reached us. Again, we are thankful to report that the excess of the entire income over the expenditures for the year is $4752.92, so that this balance added to that on hand April 1, 1887, gives the largest working balance which the Board has ever had at the beginning of a new year.

The whole amount received from all sources during the year for the current use of the Board was $129,798.43. The sources from which this income was derived, and the amounts, were as follows; with a corresponding table for the previous year:

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT OF RECEIPTS FOR CURRENT USE.

	1886-87.	1887-88.
(1) Contributions from the Churches, . . .	$96,769 10	$98,922 83
(2) " " Individuals, . . .	22,061 17	11,813 25
(3) Interest from Permanent Fund, . . .	16,378 18	17,942 97
(4) " " Deposits in Bank, . . .	309 30	423 00
(5) Miscellaneous Receipts, . . .	805 83	696 38
Total, . . .	$136,323 58	$129,798 43

To the amount of contributions in money ($110,736.08) should be added the estimated value of the boxes of clothing ($11,209.26) sent by the ladies. This is more than a thousand dollars beyond the amount reported the year previous, which was by far the largest in the history of the Board. The names of the ladies' associations contributing these boxes are given on pages 16-18 of the Report. For the amount added to our Permanent Fund the last year ($10,894.25, legacies) see page 20 of the Report.

THE COMING YEAR.

But what are we to expect for the year upon which we have just entered? Thoughtful people, whose hearts God has touched with a special interest in the Church's care of its sick and aged servants, and who are willing to give, in addition to their own contributions, the time and labor necessary to secure for it the attention it deserves from others, will not only bear in mind the following considerations, but will seek also to impress them upon others:

1. While much is to be hoped for in the coming years from the more general interest in the subject of Ministerial Relief awakened by the special efforts which have been made during the past year on behalf of this Centenary Fund, may there not be, for a while at least, a natural reaction? It is not improbable that some churches which have made special efforts for the Memorial Fund the past year may now remit these exertions and therefore fall off somewhat even from their usual contributions of previous years. Some individuals, also, who have given to the Centenary Fund largely beyond their annual gifts to this Board, may not at once renew their generous donations of former years.

2. The annual interest of this Million Dollar Fund, when it is all gathered in and securely invested, will not be much over $40,000—just about the difference between the contributions of the year just closed and the $150,000 recommended by the Assembly to be contributed the past year. Yet some persons may look upon this great fund as placing the Board far beyond the necessity of their contributing to it! Such persons need to be reminded that the maximum appropriation to any one family is only $300; the average is less than $200. Ought not these appropriations to be increased? But even a slight advance along the whole line of our roll of 584 families would demand much more than the interest of a million of dollars added to the amount we received last year! Should there be a falling off of even a little in the gifts of a large number of churches and individuals, it need scarcely be said the result would be so disastrous that the great work of the Church for this Board during the Centennial year would defeat the noble purpose for which it was undertaken.

3. Another fact must be borne in mind. Many honored ministers of our Church have long suffered in sickness and want without letting their condition be known, because they knew "the supply was small." (See Dr. Sample's letter in the Presbyterian, reprinted in The Church of last January, page 54.) Among the Presbyterian recommendations laid before the Board at its last meeting was one on behalf of a minister in his eighty-third year, who had served the Presbyterian Church for forty-nine years. "Most of his life," says the letter, "has been spent in Home Mission work, always living on a very small salary." In asking for this venerable man an annual appropriation of $200, it is said: "He is a godly minister of Christ, in need of the aid; he has done good service in this section for thirty-two years and should have been in the enjoyment of aid from the Board of Relief for the last twelve years, but, on account of his timidity to ask assistance, has never made application for relief." There are many of these faithful and blessed men, whose timidity will be overcome by the newly awakened interest of the Church in the care of its sick and aged servants, and who, emboldened by this large addition to the resources of the Board, will now consent to "make application for relief." The Presbyteries in their recommendations and the Board in its action must see to it that the appropriations asked for, however small they may be, are placed only in the hands of those who need them and have fairly earned them by their service in the Presbyterian Church; but, to properly care for the increasing number of those who are found to be deserving and worthy of aid from this Board, demands that our annual income be largely increased. The Board never runs in debt. It can distribute only what is placed in its hands.

In entering, therefore, upon the work of another year under these peculiar circumstances, the Board—while renewing their pledges to the General Assembly to use their utmost endeavor to faithfully discharge the important and frequently difficult and delicate duties of the administration of this fund—must appeal earnestly to all pastors and elders and deacons, and to all the women of our Church and to the children in our Sabbath-schools and to all of God's people to bear this cause on their hearts, to give it a place in their prayers and to support it with generous contributions.

THE MINISTERS' HOUSE.

The number of families at the Ministers' House, Perth Amboy, N. J., has been twenty—in all twenty-four persons.

For general and further information about this Home for the aged servants of the Church the Board refers the Assembly to its previous Reports, emphasizing especially what has been said as to the necessity for its endowment. The entire expense is defrayed out of the annual receipts of the Board, and these are all needed for remittances to the homes of hundreds of destitute families upon our roll.

Referring in our last Report to what had been done in other denominations for the endowment of such a house by those blessed with wealth, it was asked as we entered the Centennial year:

"Is there not some Presbyterian whom God has blessed with wealth and also with a heart to honor His ministry and to sympathize with His poor, who will endow this Home at Perth Amboy for the disabled and aged ministers of our own beloved Church? What nobler memorial before the Lord could be reared in the coming Centennial year by any Presbyterian?"

And this question was repeated and emphasized by the General Assembly in adopting the Report of its Standing Committee upon Ministerial Relief:

"Would it not be a blessed deed, approved of God and appreciated and acknowledged by men, if some noble, wealthy, generous Christian disciple, to whom God has given the ability, should endow for all time this beneficent institution, so that it might become a perennial source of blessing to the poor and the afflicted, the sick and the aged of God's servants?"

But the Centennial "summer is ended," and this appeal has not yet reached the heart of any Christian disciple to whom God has given the ability to do this great work for His ministers. The "Harvest," however, is not yet passed, and those who are bearing upon their hearts the tender and sacred work of this Board and who, out of their own limited means, are contributing to its treasury, should pray to the Lord of the harvest that some one to whom He has entrusted great wealth may, in His name and for His sake, be moved to endow this Home where laborers "weakened in their way" are recuperating for further work in His service and where others, at their even-tide looking back upon a long life of self-sacrificing toil on the harvest field, are resting peacefully from labor till the Master calls them to the House not made with hands.

THE FUTURE WORK OF THE BOARD.

From the communications which have appeared in our religious journals and in the columns of The Church—perhaps still more so from the many letters received at this office from ministers and elders in widely distant parts of our country—it is evident that the awakened interest in the work of this Board centres upon the thought of some enlargement of its scope. Many suggestions and plans have been brought to the notice of the Board, all looking towards this enlargement and all hopeful that the day is approaching when service to the Church and not poverty alone may be more clearly recognized as the basis of application. Especially does there seem to be a very general desire that some carefully matured scheme be adopted by which a suitable “retiring provision” may be secured for the veterans, worn out in the service of our Church either in its pastorate or on its mission fields at home or abroad. Of course, as individuals, we have shared in this widespread feeling and have naturally and with special interest given careful study to the whole subject in its various aspects, and to the many and difficult questions involved in any new departure, but, as members of the Board appointed by the General Assembly for a special work, we clearly recognize that our duty is to carry on this work only upon the lines of administration marked out by the Assembly. Cases of hardship and suffering among ministers and their families are not unfrequently brought to the notice of the Board—sometimes even by Presbyterial recommendation—which, while they are such as to awaken the tenderest sympathy, are clearly beyond the limits set by the Assembly to our work. Fidelity to our trust has therefore obliged us to reply, deeply as our feelings are stirred by these cases, that the Board has no authority from the Assembly to relieve them out of its treasury. It is for the Assembly to order whatever changes may seem to them wise in the enlargement of the scope of the Board or in its methods of administration; and it is for the Board to carry out these directions to the best of their ability.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Board,

WILLIAM C. CATTELL, Corresponding Secretary.

ABSTRACT OF TWENTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

THE FUNDS.

It is gratifying to the Board that, though it began the year with a debt of $14,181.24 and closes with a debt of $18,713.16, its receipts have far exceeded those of any other year since it began its work. It has received, from all sources, $131,653.35, showing a gain of $35,131.83 over the amount received from the same sources during the previous year. This does not include what the Freedmen paid for the support of ministers, teachers, houses of worship and schools. The Board is glad to be able to report that the Freedmen gave $24,494.67 for these purposes, an advance over the previous year of $5812.86.

In 1882 the Committee was erected into a Board and incorporated, at which time the work assumed a more permanent form, and the contributions began at once to increase. In 1882, the last year of the Committee, the contributions amounted to $68,298.08, which was one of the largest amounts contributed for the work under the Committee. From that time to the present the increase has been very marked, as will be seen by the following statement:

" 1887,	96,521 52
" 1888,	181,653 35

These amounts do not include what was raised and expended on the field by the Freedmen.

THE WORK OF THE YEAR.

The work of the past year has been most gratifying and encouraging, and on the whole the most prosperous in the Board's history. We have sustained in the field 277 missionaries, of whom 202 are colored. The following tables will show the work of the year in detail.

It will be noticed from the above tables that the number of our churches among the Freedmen has increased from 217 last year to 235 this, and the number of communicants from 15,880 to 16,661; and that the number of contributing Sabbath-schools and Women's Missionary Societies has increased, the former 63, the latter 95. And while the number of contributing churches is not so large as last year, the amount contributed is largely increased. The contributions from the Sabbath-schools have increased from $4937.51 last year to $6226.98 this year.

THE WORK OF THE WOMEN.

The success of the Freedmen's Department, organized in connection with the Women's Executive Committee, has been marked and most gratifying during the past year. It has greatly increased and is fast taking hold of the hearts of the women of the Church. This has, by far, been the most successful year of this department since its organization, and the interest felt in woman's work among the Freedmen is deepening and widening throughout the entire Church. The receipts through the Women's Executive Committee of Home Missions last year were $17,075.08; this year they amount to $20,292.17, an increase of $3217.14. Add to this $6746.89 sent direct to the Treasurer at Pittsburgh, and it will be seen that the women of the Church have given to our work this year $27,038.56, an increase over last year of $5038.56 from the same sources.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD:

23 Montauk Block, 115 Monroe Street, Chicago, Ill.

TREASURER'S ADDRESS, P. O. Box 294, Chicago, Ill.

ABSTRACT OF FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The income of our general treasury, which gauges the Church's general interest in this cause, has maintained its rate of yearly increase, the five successive years having yielded as follows: 1883-4, $14,912; 1884-5, $21,049; 1885-6, $29,855 (of which, however, several thousand dollars was the fruit of special personal gifts kindly made to meet the peril of a Board debt); 1886-7, $29,681 (chiefly from churches and Sabbath-schools, which thus had added more than $5000 to their contributions of the preceding year); 1887-8, $31,524.26.

The growth in the number of contributing churches has also been maintained, as this advance in general income would indicate. This growth has proceeded as follows: From 480 in the first year, to 1830 in the second—to 1529 in the third—to 1761 in the fourth—to 1865 in the fifth. So steady an increase of help and helpers proves that the judgment and conscience of the denomination approve this work.

APPROPRIATIONS AND PAYMENTS FOR 1887-8.

All appropriations for the past year were made with the understanding that the Board bound itself to pay 70 per cent of the amount voted; its payment of the remaining 30 per cent being contingent on the sufficiency of its income.

It was also expressly understood between the Board and every applying institution that every church collection that any institution might receive was to be reckoned as so much of the Board's payment upon its appropriation. These facts must be borne in mind, in order to an intelligent reading of the table following. The general income of the Board yielded a fraction over 74½ per cent upon all appropriations. Where churches have made their collections avail for the "special" advantage of any institution, such special contributions have been applied, according to the understanding, within the appropriation which the Board had voted; but they have been applied upon the last 30 per cent. Where those special contributions have exceeded 30 per cent of the appropriation, they have not been paid over to the institution in excess of the appropriation, but have been reckoned to their full amount in diminution of the Board's payment out of its general treasury. Only in this way can the judgment of the Board be made to bear upon the proportion of denominational aid to which any given institution produces its claim.

It will thus appear that into the "payments" set forth below, three forms of payment enter: Payment by the Treasurer, from the Board's general treasury; payment by the Treasurer of church collections for which he has given the Board's acknowledgment as contributions to its treasury, but which the churches have devoted to special institutions; payments made directly by the churches to the institutions, and by the latter reported to the Board under the compact above described.

STATISTICAL TABLES.

A comparison both of these tables and of the preceding one with the corresponding tables of the last Report will show that, while a few institutions have been added to the Board's list, a few have been left off. The additions are easily explained by the fact of new applications. Some such additions are to be expected every year, as the work expands. It is to be noticed, however, how free this broad movement is from any sign of excess. Only five institutions are on the list this year that were not on last year's, and of these five, Washington College, Huntsville Academy and Groton Collegiate Institute are not in fact new, since they have been aided by the Board in former years. Carroll College, also, though now first applying for the Board's aid, has been many years at work. Very clearly, therefore, the Board shows no unwise haste to occupy new fields.

As to the absence of some of last year's names, it has resulted from the omission of the institutions either to apply at all, or to satisfy the Board that their need was of a sort to which its rules allowed it to make appropriation.

Moscow Academy, Idaho, being new, has as yet but pledges toward its school property.

THE OUTCOME OF OUR FIRST FIVE YEARS.

As our General Assembly completes a century, its youngest Board completes an even fraction of a century—the twentieth part. These five years have availed for three important results. They have defined and set forth the distinctive aid of this Board; they have made a larger advance toward the accomplishment of that aim than came within the most sanguine expectation, and they have demonstrated the one condition on the supply of which seems to hinge the question of a steadfast and magnificent success.

I. THIS BOARD'S DEFINITE AIM.

It is not to aid all Presbyterian colleges and academies, however deserving they may be. Some are quite beyond the need of help from any denominational treasury, having already fine properties and funds, which are sure, moreover, of steady increase by personal giving. All such success of our Church's older and leading institutions is inwrought with the general result at which this Board aims, and is to be regarded with great satisfaction; but this Board is not expected to contribute to it.

Other institutions, though not so far advanced in present property, have their own competent constituencies behind them. The college of any well-established and able Synod no more needs the help which this Board gathers up from the churches of other Synods than does the pastor of any well-established and able congregation need support from the members of other congregations. Toward such colleges the Board has no duty to fulfill, beyond that of wishing for their largest prosperity. The work of this Board, and therefore all cooperation with it, is limited to the aiding of such Presbyterian colleges and academies as have not yet secured adequate local or individual backing, and therefore require aid from the Church at large. Of such need of aid the Board is in every instance to be the judge; so that no gift by any church or individual is to be credited as cooperating with the Board unless it be made either to the Board's general treasury, or in some direction which the Board has specifically approved. Probably this fifth year will have sent to the Board the last of a class of letters that has well-nigh, but not quite, disappeared; to the effect: "The Church of ——— has sent its Board of Aid collection to ——— (naming some institution to which the Board has no relation); please give us credit to that amount." The Report of "General College Aid," which has included such outside gifts, seems to have been very commonly mistaken for a form of "crediting" by the Board. It will not be continued hereafter.

We may further hope that, from this time on, the churches will understand and approve the principle on which the Board declines to give credit for such church collections as are applied even to the Board's institutions, but for purposes different from those to which its appropriations are voted. Thus far, teaching work, with its allied current expenses, has demanded more than all the yearly aid which the Board can give—just as preaching work demands all the means at the disposal of the Home Mission Board. There is small probability that our general income will more than meet these needs of current work for some years to come. Under these circumstances, while no one can doubt the right of any individual church to withhold its collection from our treasury and from our distinctive work of helping the teachers, and to apply it to the purchase of land, the payment of property debts, or the erection of buildings, it cannot be thought strange that the Board does not give its credit for contributions thus diverted from its specific purpose. The needfulness of this distinction will be very manifest to any pastor or Session who will consider that if even a few of our most liberal collections were voted by the contributing churches to some special interests of our institutions, so much would be subtracted from our general means that the teachers in those very institutions, as in the rest, could not be paid. The diversion of smaller collections tends in the same direction; and when the small collections thus diverted are numerous enough, the loss to our general means and work becomes material. The inconvenience thus occasioned is yearly diminishing, and this fresh allusion to the matter is made in good hope that, from this time on, all churches that aid our institutions will offer their aid in forms which the Board can employ; that is, in contribution to those current expenses to which the Board makes appropriation.

The ultimate aim of the Board, in behalf of each of its institutions, is to establish it as an enduring centre of Christian learning. Such establishment can never be complete so long as the school shall be dependent on the Board's yearly help. But how shall any school outgrow that dependence? Possibly, in very rare cases, by self-supporting work. If, for any reason, the community is disaffected toward the State school, our school may command paying pupils in number sufficient to meet all current expenses. But it is not to be assumed that that condition of things will long endure in any given community; still less that it will ever prevail as the rule wherever our schools and colleges may be established. Both the Board and the Church, therefore, conduct this whole movement for Christian education in the face of this essential and foremost question: How can the schools of a denomination possibly be made the successful competitors of the neighboring schools of the State? These latter charge no tuition fees; but buildings, teachers, libraries, apparatus—all are furnished at public cost. Let us suppose, then, that the grounds and buildings of a Presbyterian academy or college are complete and paid for, and that adequate laboratory and apparatus are supplied. Even then, teachers must be supported; and what is to determine pupils toward the institution where they must yearly divide among themselves some thousands of expense, of which, in the secular schools, they would never hear?

Upon this matter the career, past and present, of the older Christian colleges of the East sheds little light. Established, as they are, in the affections of generations of alumni, and near the centres of wealth, they can now maintain themselves against a competition, which, when they were younger, did not assail them. Their experience is, in the Christian schools of the West, exactly reversed. Here the State schools come first upon the ground, and win the prestige with which the Christian school of this or that denomination is required to contend. The contest is so unequal that, if no principle of Christian duty and faith entered into it, our side of the adventure would be Quixotic. This Board, for example, that represents the purpose and energy of such a Church as ours, makes front in behalf of a Christian education for the immense western half of our continent with a yearly outlay that has not yet grown to the average yearly expense of one State college. At the East, Christian education holds and strengthens the posts which she built at her leisure, before any rival works were cast up and mounted in front of them. At the West, we throw up our earthworks in the presence of granite ramparts bristling with ordnance. Even Christian zeal and faith must confess that the attempt is absurd, unless they look straight through to the conditions of success. These Christian schools must all be made complete, and their doors must be thrown open. This Board of Aid is doing a temporary work, the success of which, in every case, hinges upon one thing—endowment; not necessarily immediate, nor very early; not all from the East, surely, and not all from the West; not all from one class of givers; for many men who do not claim to be devout have that kind of judgment and purpose that approves itself in establishing a Christian school. But the brunt of this great necessity must be met by the Church, with the means which the Head of the Church has lodged in her hands. American Presbyterianism is, in this Centennial year, summoned to such an outlook as has met no body of Christians in any other land from the day of Pentecost down to this. But in all the prospect no duty is more distinct, more practicable, more comprehensive of Christian results for earth and heaven, than this: of setting in the forefront of American facts, for all time to come, Christian education, endowed and free.

II. ADVANCE MADE.

If such a project seems to be extravagant, let our five years of history throw their light upon it. Of the thirty-six institutions which the Board is now aiding, only nine were organized and at work five years ago. Three more, as our tables show, were at that time projected. Reckoning these with the nine, and making a liberal estimate of the property of the whole twelve, we may safely say that $350,000 would amply cover the whole investment that had been made, five years ago, in the educational property of our Church in all the region in which our Board is now at work. [For exact definition of that region see Report and its map.]

Now, however, the twelve institutions that then divided this property among them have been reinforced by twenty-four more; and the last returns of property made by the whole thirty-six show an aggregate of $1,206,776. Here is nearly a million dollars that in five years has added itself, within this territory, to the Presbyterian investment for Christian education. Some of this increase, as we know, is to be set down to the natural increase of western values. But that makes up a small part of the whole. More than that, such increase, when properties are wisely placed, is sure to happen; so that it is a most legitimate element both of statement and of motive. It is wise to consider that such gains will grow, on present sites and on new ones, for many years to come.

But the greater part, by far, of this increase comes about in another way, by giving; and chiefly the giving of those who are to use, for their own children and their neighbors', the education for which they provide. Such a product of our western soil is worth studying.

If the short term of five years has expended on thirty-six localities nearly a million dollars for the establishment of thirty-six Christian schools, what room is there for doubting that under any wise stimulation and guidance of a denominational purpose, every new five years can be made to plant as many additional schools as the Church and land shall be found to need?

In the light of this development the members and officers of this Board stand, like their brethren, with reverent surprise. A force is operating which only God, who has produced it, could foresee. That nearly a million dollars to Foreign Missions, and similar sums to Home Missions and to Ministerial Relief should in the Centennial year be the product of the long cultivated and general enthusiasm of a Church thoroughly officered and handled down to the hour of success, is less remarkable than that among the scattered communities of the West so nearly a million of school property should present itself in the first five years of this unfamiliar appeal.

III. THE IMMINENT ISSUE.

This advance, like any other, can be maintained only in one way: It must be followed up.

Observing men must be satisfied that the relation of the State to the higher grades of education is not settled. The denial, so often made, of the State's obligation not only, but of its right, to employ the public means in bestowing an individual advantage, is becoming very common and emphatic. To all those who view the question from the Christian side, it is very manifest that whatever may be the argument for higher education by the State, the working of that part of the school system has steadily tended to the triumph of those who wish to sever education from Christianity. While Christian men have borne the cost of Christian academies and colleges, un-Christian men have had the satisfaction of seeing their sort of high-schools and colleges maintained at public cost. The presence of Christian professors in the State institutions and the excellent personal influence which some of them have exerted there, require no modification of this general statement. It is with very deep interest, therefore, that Christian Americans watch the development of popular judgment concerning that modern American policy which has created the new style of non-Christian high-schools and colleges. As yet, no change is quite in sight. It may come by and by. Whether it comes or not, the Church's duty is as plain as duty ever is. If the State is forever to make free a higher education with no Christ in it, let such a Church as ours be patriotic and Christian enough to give a free education with Christ in it. Or if the time shall ever come when the State's present kind of higher education shall be withdrawn, then, none the less, let the Church stand forth educating, with Gospel bounty, in Jesus' name and for Jesus' sake.

This is a work for the discretion, interest and munificence of individuals. To those who have wealth it should appeal—not more than other Christian and patriotic causes, but by the united appeal of them all. The proof throbs in every pulse of the Church's feeling and energy, that there is nothing that a man can do with money that bears more widely, variously, effectually, enduringly on God's glory in the triumph of his Gospel, than the establishing and endowing of Christian schools. And it would seem that something of the same divine plan that arranged for Protestant predominance in this land, mercifully arranged for this great duty, so long neglected, a date when the conditions of its triumph were prepared. Fifty or twenty years ago, what sudden western advance could this Board have made? What earlier five years have there been in which the results of these five years could have been secured? And what earlier period has there been, in which the accumulating examples of this kind of giving, the ability to give, and the aroused, world-wide sympathies which prompt the giving, have so come together, as at this point where the first century of our organized Church merges into her coming career? The whole land, for all purposes of knowledge, sympathy and intercourse, is more compact now than a county was a hundred years ago. Our western-most college is nearer to Princeton than infant Yale was to Harvard in 1700. All the lines are complete by which a youth of seventeen, this year at work in one of our newest schools, may ten years hence, having been thoroughly trained by intervening study, be well up the ascent to the best Christian and national usefulness and fame, or be wearing the mantle of some departed veteran in Syria or India. It is the hour for enthusiasm in such an undertaking.

And yet it is not surprising that such an enthusiasm has not yet seized our people. The closing century has naturally paid chief regard to the forms of effort that are bound up with its history. At the West, indeed, where new things most assert themselves, the outlook to this new work has been most eager. Henceforth that western zeal will every year command new sympathy. As yet the very names of our institutions are unfamiliar. What is there about the sound of Pierre or Hastings or Emporia to raise a thrill of family interest? Park has had a longer hold on attention, and sympathy flows more freely thither; Montana, with its interesting beginning and its remarkable growth of students and means, is coming to be known; Macalester, the proportions of whose work already stagger our means of aid, will take its just place in the regard of the Church. And all the rest will, by degrees, command attention and help—if our scanty means can maintain them till that time comes.

There lies the difficulty! Every one of these young institutions costs, while getting into shape, more than this young Board can furnish it. There are not only teachers' salaries and bills for fuel, etc., but bills for furniture or apparatus, insurance bills, possible interest on a mortgage without which the building could not have been finished. Prompt help would easily dispose of all those burdens, and make giver and receiver happy together, in an undertaking, snaz, successful and without drawback. But delay adds to the burden, till even benevolence shrinks from grappling with it. The institution which, this year, any strong man could establish, may two or three years hence show such needs as would frighten the strong man from touching it at all.

Knowing these things, we have earnestly called for a degree of individual help which we have not received. The list of benefactions this year made to our institutions through our treasury is short, the whole amount less than nine thousand dollars—$8984.50.

Yet the similar gifts of last year hardly reached that sum; and the aggregate of individual giving for the year just closed—that is of individual giving both to the Board's general treasury and to the property of institutions—exceeds somewhat the similar giving of the former year. That total in 1887 was $10,282.51. For the year just closed it is $10,800.47; making the total of the year's receipts $40,541.68, against $38,208.31 of last year.

It is to be remembered, besides, that many personal gifts are made directly to our institutions, and therefore do not enter into the Treasurer's statement. An account of these, so far as they have been reported by the recipients, is there given. The amount of "Direct Donations," there acknowledged, is $27,547.93; of which $1140.50 was received from churches, and $26,417.34 from individuals. That amount, when added to the receipts of our treasury, makes up a total of $68,069.61 contributed to our work in 1887-8.

We make this recital with hearty thanks to those who have thus aided this cause. If the past year had been less full of special and urgent appeals to all benevolent Presbyterians, we should feel more depressed by the absence of other helpers. As it is, we get direct encouragement from the steady increase of our general means and of the number of coöperating churches; and we trust in God that the cause which satisfies the judgment and warms the hearts of all who engage in it, will find in these multiplying churches thoughtful and conscientious men and women who cannot rest without bearing their personal part in this work of leavening for Christ the learning and the power of future America.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

H. D. GANSE, Corresponding Secretary.

ABSTRACT OF NINTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Ninth Annual Report of the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence is here respectfully presented. Three new members from the ministry were added to our body at the outset of the year, to replace as many who had been removed by death or withdrawal from our communion. The Committee numbers the same as before, eight ministers and seven elders. We have found in our more recent colleagues brethren of zeal and experience, in full practical sympathy with the important purposes of our appointment.

We understand that our province is to aid and press the churches towards the adoption of improved principles and plans of giving for Christ's sake, in the support of our various benevolent agencies. Our labor in this direction has been greatly lightened and cheered by the more ready coöperation of our Church courts, of our ministers and elders in the object of our appointment. All vital growths are slow, but if life and health exist, the growth is sure, nevertheless. So we find it in the progress of benevolent reform in our own denomination. We rejoice in the abundant evidence that the deep fountains of principle are being pierced for steady flow and that all our pumping machinery can be hopeful of deep, brimming wells of benevolence in the heart of our Church.

To the efficient Committees appointed in Presbyteries and Synods by direction of the Assembly, we are glad to offer thanks for their coöperation, without which our influence upon the Church at large would be sadly crippled. Many of the Chairmen among these brethren have gained an experience and a wisdom in the course of their appointment, which have made them powers in their own localities, as well as invaluable aids to us. If our judicatories would permit a suggestion, we should be glad to propose, when they secure a specially fit man, minister or elder, for such a chairmanship, a man of enthusiasm, sagacity and persuasive influence, that they keep him there until at least, when they must give him other work, some Elisha of kindred spirit shall be ready to take his mantle when it falls.

We have used the press this year more largely than ever, to the extent of 60,000 issues of various publications, comprising half a million pages. Some of our stock still remains for the free order of pastors and Sessions anywhere in the Church. We feel confident of being able to suggest for any local church, not quite content with its own methods, measures which, adopted with hearty desire for better things, will ordinarily yield immediate improvement in the condition of its benevolent finances and in the elevated purposes of its spiritual life.

The expenses for which we have to draw upon the Assembly will be reduced this year by unsolicited gifts for our use of $200 from Alexander Guy, Esq., of Oxford, O., and of $25 from T. S. Hubbard, Esq., of the Castile Church, New York.

The generous interest of these brethren in our work is profoundly appreciated. They have enabled us to do more without increasing our draft upon the Assembly.

The advanced position of our Church among the denominations in beneficence, especially the setting our seal to the truth that giving is sacred as worship, rouses interest and produces following in many directions—in our own land and abroad.

Now that the weekly offering has been established as the truest, wisest form of giving, settled as the matured, tested principle of our Church, we are confident that the main advance of the future will be upon the line of proportionate giving. The desideratum is the distinct, arithmetical setting apart in sense of glad and conscientious duty of some definite proportion—as God hath prospered—of every individual's income, whether large or small. In nothing can the Assembly do more efficient work than to press the people at that point.

Questions of the right proportion, just now, are altogether secondary to the question of having some proportion. The majority of Christians have as yet no rule at all upon the subject. If they were sensitive to the criticism of their Lord, it might startle them to know the meagre proportion actually expended in their life for the cause of Christ. Once secure a proportion for God and the claim of the tithe or even a far higher Christian percentage than the Jewish, would be likely to get an easier hearing.

Within the English Church exists a "Proportionate Giving Union," uniting its members by the simplest sort of an agreement. Only two rules bind them: 1. To set apart a fixed proportion of income for religious and benevolent objects—as God has prospered. 2. To get other people to do the same.

One portion of your Committee's work lately has been to correspond with hundreds of pastors and Sessions, who have received our publications, to learn how the ball was rolling, how weekly giving prospered and the new methods fared. In response to this effort the testimonies and suggestions that have reached us this year from all over the Church, have been exceedingly rich and fruitful.

Now that the Overture proposing changes in the existing Chapter vi, Directory of Worship, has failed of support, and the chapter is left untouched, we trust that new and favorable consideration may be given to it by any Sessions, who may not have been quite sure that it was the decided mind of our Church, and have hesitated to adopt its regular, worshipful modes of giving.

If any are afraid of it, trial will be sure to convince them of its harmlessness and solid benefit. Let us see to it now that our practice accords with our excellent theories. We have solemnly adopted giving as part of our worship. Now let us worship in that way as heartily as in any other, with as full and as spiritual consecration.

Most animating reports reach us as to the steadily increasing hold that systematic, frequent, worshipful giving is gaining upon our Sabbath-schools and Mission Bands, especially in the aid of our more prominent Boards. Some of our missionaries write that many native converts conscientiously give above the tenth of their income now, and that others are expected to become systematic givers to extend the Gospel—when cultured enough to do it from principle. Churches in our Kolhapur Mission now give nearly the tithe, and many in China and elsewhere are rising towards it.

There is much less diversion than formerly in gifts to miscellaneous objects outside the operations of our Church. This may become matter of congratulation, so long as the diverted streams flow with added volume into the channels cut for them by our Assembly. We rejoice in our Presbyterian catholicity, in the lavish sympathy of our people with every good cause under whatever banner. Yet we accomplish most when we see to it that the agencies, which we are covenanting to sustain, are never robbed or overridden by any good works, for which, as a Church, we are not responsible.

Never was such a net increase within twelve months, in the history of the Presbyterian Church, no less than $357,483. Fit record for the start of a new century. Every Board except one reports a pronounced advance. The Relief Fund has lost somewhat in current contributions, while the churches were busied with raising hundreds of thousands for its Centenary Endowment. Yet it has received meanwhile $10,494 not included in the above statement from legacies for its Permanent Fund, and reports a good balance also.

* All figures for Sustentation this year are given merely for reference—since they are included in the Receipts for Home Missions. In stating increase for Home Missions, the figures for Sustentation are added to the Home Mission Receipts for 1887.

Sustentation seems to be little needed in its present form, and its receipts have fallen off 43 per cent.

The increase in gifts for Sabbath-school Work almost exactly represents the contributions of our Sabbath-schools for this Board.

Nearly all the Boards report cash balances, to the aggregate amount of $72,318. The Board of Education is the only one to report a small debt remaining of $8900.

An unusually large proportion of the total receipts this year has flowed into the treasury from bequests. All but one of the Boards have been remembered in this way, to the gross amount of $390,459. The Permanent Committee on Temperance reports total increased receipts of $1081, and a balance on hand of $465.

Total.	$1,641,815	$1,872,099	$238,378	$6,094

This is the schedule which gauges the current benefactions of the living Church. It is immensely encouraging to find here a net advance of $230,284 beyond last year. Every treasury has gained, except that of the Relief Fund. Explanation for this exception has been already suggested.

The Women's Societies have continued the steady march of their systematic and increasing gifts this year, amounting to the unprecedented sum of $185,512 for Home Missions and $295,501 for Foreign Missions. The same Boards have received from the Sabbath-schools $74,464 in all.

Our large gain last year in number of contributing churches has been held, and a net increase made of 690 more blanks filled, the most of them to the account of Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

The Foreign Mission returns in this schedule represent only churches that remit directly to the Board. Had the same basis been employed last year we should now have a gain of 108 contributing churches to that cause, instead of 23 as above.

The number of non-contributing churches stands altogether too large to be accounted for by any other explanation than utter neglect of the one talent in a multitude of Christian communities.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT.

The last Assembly saw fit to refer to your Committee certain correspondence with the Sabbath Committee of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. This has been attended to, but without developing any further action of importance than appeared on their part at the last Assembly. Our brethren seek our coöperation in checking the desecrations involved in Sunday international railway traffic. This, doubtless, we shall not be loth to give them. Yet so much wider is the existing desecration that all branches of the Christian Church can hardly do less than unite in pressing upon our National Government some central, effective check in regard to Sunday mails, military parades and inter-State railway trains. It is probable that the initiative in the appointment of a national Sabbath Committee, involving all denominations, may be taken by the largest Protestant body of our land, in order that the many invasions of the Lord's day may be faced and resisted by the combined forces of American Christianity in the interest of morals and religion, of the nation and the Church of God. If within our province to suggest, we should heartily recommend this Assembly to fall in with such action, if proposed in practicable form.

On behalf of the Committee, respectfully submitted,

ABSTRACT OF THE SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

Your Committee, in making its Seventh Annual Report, does so under the shadow of a very great affliction. On the 29th of October, 1887, our Chairman, Rev. Elliott E. Swift, D.D., passed to his reward. Your Committee mourns the loss of this beloved brother as children would the loss of a parent. Dr. Swift was such a thorough business man, so practical in all his plans and suggestions, and withal so thoroughly in earnest in all that pertained to the temperance cause, that his loss is to us almost irreparable. So soon as practicable, however, the Committee was reorganized by making Rev. Isaac N. Hays, D.D., Chairman.

FINANCES.

We have thought best to make no appeals for money this Centennial year, when so many other objects were claiming the special attention of our churches, but to use with the utmost economy whatever the churches and other friends would see fit to furnish us to help on this great cause.

Our expectations in this regard have not been disappointed. Churches, ministers and other friends of the cause, from all over the land, have been sending in their small contributions, so that we have been able to meet all our expenses and have a small balance with which to commence the work of another year. We feel very sure, from the interest manifested, that we could have had very much more had we seen fit to ask for it. The only trouble about this part of our business is, that the contributions received, have, for the most part, come in so late in the year that we have not had time to make the necessary arrangements for the wise expenditure of all this money, and as a consequence our publications have run very low, and must be replenished at the earliest possible moment.

WORK DONE.

During the past year your Committee has held regular biweekly meetings, and carefully and prayerfully tried to further the cause of temperance in every way within its power.

A large number of documents have been sent out voluntarily by the Committee, and in response to calls from the various pastors and churches. Perhaps no single document has been so much in demand, or has done so much good, as Tract No. 6, containing a summary of the deliverances of our General Assembly. Information upon this point has been so much in demand that the Chairman has prepared an article on the subject, which appeared in the April number of The Church at Home and Abroad. Among other things, this article shows very clearly that no other Church in the land, and, we believe, in Christendom, has taken a more advanced position on this subject so early, and maintained it so uniformly and persistently.

Rev. W. O. Campbell, D.D., has also prepared a very excellent and timely tract, "The Duty of the State to Abolish the Saloon," which has been published by our Board of Publication, and copies of it have been sent by us to all our ministers.

Perhaps one of the most valuable services rendered during the past year has been in furnishing ministers, and especially the younger pastors, with the necessary information to meet the exigencies of the work in the bounds of their own congregations. These calls have been frequent, and often urgent, and the information furnished has always been most thankfully received.

THE PRESENT CONDITION OF THE TEMPERANCE WORK.

In response to circulars sent out to all the churches, through the Presbyterial Temperance Committees, we have gathered a large amount of information. It is true, not nearly all the Committees have reported, but Reports have been received from those covering a large district of country, and these, therefore, may be regarded as fair samples of what the others would have been had they been received. Some of these Reports are meagre and unsatisfactory, and show a degree of carelessness or want of interest on the part of those who prepared them, while others are full and satisfactory, and in every way most excellent.

From these we learn that our ministers, almost without an exception, are ardent friends of the temperance cause, and always glad to do what they can to promote its interests.

In most of our churches temperance instruction has been given both from the pulpit and in the Sabbath-school, and frequently by special lectures. In some churches temperance associations have been formed, especially among the younger people of the congregations, and in a few instances whole Sabbath-schools have taken the pledge of total abstinence. In many parts of the country the drinking habits of the community have been greatly reformed, and a much higher type of temperance sentiment created. In but a single instance has a backward movement in this respect been noticed, while in all the others most cheering progress has been indicated. According to these Reports, nothing but the complete abolition of the whole liquor traffic will satisfy the Christian conscience.

THE GENERAL WORK.

The general progress of the temperance work during the past year has been most encouraging. The popular mind has never been so thoroughly awake upon this subject. Never before has the temperance question occupied such a prominent position in the deliberations in Legislative halls, and in connection with the formation of political platforms; and although all efforts toward complete prohibition have not been successful, the very agitation of the subject has done, and will continue to do, great good. Even in those States where absolute prohibition has not yet been attempted, great progress has been made, notably in New Jersey, Ohio, New York and Pennsylvania.

The great advantage of the restrictive law now in force in Pennsylvania is that it not only surrounds the saloon business with such pains and penalties as to make it a most dangerous, and in almost every respect undesirable pursuit, but it gives a discretionary power to the License Courts, in the use of which such an amount of corruption, fraud and utter disregard to all legal requirements has been brought to light in connection with the liquor business as to astonish its worst enemies, bring the blush of shame to its friends, and bring into general disrepute everything connected with the traffic. As an educator of the public conscience, the operation of this law so far certainly has been wonderfully successful.

Another thing which has greatly encouraged the friends of temperance is the fact that the Supreme Court of the United States has decided that each commonwealth has the right to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, without compensation to the owners, whenever in its judgment it is wise and expedient to do so. This decision is a very important one, and has brought great joy to the friends of temperance throughout the whole country.

In view of all these facts, is it not manifest that a great tidal wave of temperance sentiment has been sweeping over this whole country—as if by inspiration from God! How else can the fact be accounted for that so much interest is everywhere felt upon this subject, and that men and political parties have been compelled to take sides upon this question who would not have thought of doing so a few years ago?

But if the opportunity is ours, so is the responsibility. Are we “not come to the kingdom for such a time as this?” If the temperance cause is ever made to triumph, it must be on the platform of God’s Word and divinely appointed means and agencies. Even a prohibitory law would amount to nothing unless it were sustained and enforced by strong religious principles and convictions. What, therefore, is needed, is for the Church of Jesus Christ, with clean hands, to keep fully abreast with this great movement and by her conservative, and yet direct and positive influence and agency, so to control the battle, that wild enthusiasts and those who have not the fear of God before them, shall not, through their misguided zeal, divide its friends, provoke to unnecessary opposition its enemies, and thus bring on ultimate defeat.

* In closing your Committee would venture to make the following suggestions, viz.:

1. Whether the time has not come for us as a Church to put ourselves squarely and unequivocally in favor of the complete abolition and prohibition of the whole traffic in liquor as a beverage, and that not as a political or partisan measure, but simply in the interest of truth and righteousness. While many of us hail with acclamations of joy every corrective or restrictive measure which may tend to lessen the evils of intemperance, put the seal of disapprobation upon all the drinking habits of the country, and prepare the way for something better, are we not all agreed that nothing short of entire prohibition will meet the present exigencies of the case and the demands of an enlightened conscience in such an hour as this?

2. Should not all our people be urged, and even enjoined, not only to keep aloof from all direct complicity with this evil, but to abstain from and discountenance all coöperation in this matter in the way of signing the liquor dealers' petitions, going upon their bonds, or in any way whatever giving aid or encouragement to the prosecution of a business fraught with so much evil?

3. Would it not be well also, to urge upon all the Presbyteries that have not already done so, to appoint efficient Temperance Committees to supervise the work within their bounds? Wherever this has been done good results have been realized, and the Church has become a power in the defense of truth and sobriety.

4. As the term of service of Rev. William J. Holland, Ph.D., Rev. Neville B. C. Comingo, Messrs. Thomas H. Rabe and C. L. Rose will terminate during the sittings of this Assembly, it is suggested that these brethren be reelected to their present positions, and that Rev. T. H. Robinson, D.D., be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Rev. Elliott E. Swift, D.D.

Encouraged by our past experience and the kind words which we have received from our friends, your Committee, with the consent of the Assembly, proposes to enlarge its work and the sphere of its operations during the coming year, not only by adding to its own publications, but by keeping on hand other tracts and leaflets treating on Temperance from a Christian or Biblical standpoint. These it is proposed shall be kept on hand in large quantities, to be sold and distributed at cost price to those who are willing to pay for them, and to be given to those who are not able to purchase them, or wish them for gratuitous distribution where they will be likely to do good.

We have found quite a demand for this kind of temperance literature, which we have not hitherto been able to supply, and it is believed that in this way very great good may be accomplished at comparatively small cost. This, of course, will require an additional amount of money, but, with the approval of the Assembly, we believe it can be had whenever needed.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

I. N. HAYS, Chairman.

NEVILLE B. C. COMINGO, Corresponding Secretary.

The undersigned, having examined the bonds and mortgages and other evidences of property belonging to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as set forth in the Treasurer's statement herewith, find the same in proper order and amounting in the aggregate to $472,685.95; deducting from which $5295.45 cash borrowed to complete an investment, leaves total of the Permanent Fund now on hand four hundred and sixty-seven thousand three hundred and ninety dollars and fifty cents ($467,890.50).

The investments are registered in the name of the corporation, excepting $24,000 in railroad, city and county bonds which are coupon, being securities specifically bequeathed, for which we have seen the Fidelity Trust Company's certificate of deposit therein for safe-keeping.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

SPECIAL attention is called to the Mileage and Contingent System adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, and amended by the General Assemblies of 1875, 1877 and 1884. As amended it is as follows :

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report :

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chap. xxii, Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is therefore recommended—

"1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly, in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly by their Commissioners.

"4. That, as early as the fourth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage.—N.B. It is understood that Commissioners, both in coming to and returning from the Assembly, will avail themselves of any commutation of fares that may be offered in season; and that in other cases they are to take, when practicable, the most economical route; no allowance to be made for extra accommodations on the way. Also, that no one will charge for return expenses unless he intends to go back to his field of labor; and that no one on a business tour, or excursion of pleasure, will make a convenience of the meeting of the Assembly and expect payment of his traveling expenses from the Mileage Fund. Also, that Commissioners, as soon after their arrival as practicable, are to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements, and have their respective places of abode assigned them.

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and pay them pro rata (if found in accordance with the preceding regulations), as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is requested to pay in full, next year, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, a sum equal to four cents for mileage, and one and one-half cents for Contingent Expenses, or in all five and one-half cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the recommendations of the Assembly.

They are expected, also, to provide for an

ENTERTAINMENT FUND.

In addition to the Mileage Fund, the Assembly of 1877 made provision for a "Supplemental Contingent Expense Fund," to "be used for the purpose of meeting the expense of entertaining such Commissioners as are not otherwise provided for." Each Presbytery is requested to contribute to this fund a sum equal at least to one and one-half cents per church member, and to forward it, with the Mileage Fund, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. It is to be disbursed by the Committee of Arrangements, whose bills for entertainment the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer, is authorized to pay, after they have been approved by an Auditing Committee.

See, also, Minutes of 1888, p. 138.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes for 1888 will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery and of every Synod; also (in the case of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage and Contingent Funds of the Assembly), to every ordained minister, and to the Session of each contributing vacant church, whose address is known; also to every ordained missionary of the Foreign Presbyteries.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangements of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next annual meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up, and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 289 of the present Appendix; of which a printed blank will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. These Narratives should specify facts in regard to the particular churches, their state, trials, encouragements, and prospects; how many of them, and which, have enjoyed revivals of religion through the year; in which of them the Catechisms are taught, Sabbath-schools and Bible classes organized, with the number of scholars and teachers. Also, the various arrangements of the Presbytery for Church extension; stating the number of their ministers, and the particular manner in which they are employed; the number of their churches, and how they are supplied; the number of new churches organized, and new houses of worship erected; what itinerant arrangements have been adopted for preaching the Gospel; what and how much agency has been employed; together with all such other facts and suggestions as will show, from year to year, what has been accomplished, and what may need to be undertaken, to bring all the churches to a proper degree of effort to promote the kingdom of Christ. By order of the Assembly of 1880, a blank for a Tabulated Statement of facts will annually be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, to be filled properly, and duly reported to the Assembly. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the details of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church. The blank for the Church Narratives, ordered by the Assembly of 1885, can be had from the Board of Publication, by whom it has been printed for the use of congregations and Presbyteries.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following RULES be strictly observed:

(1) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page 289, Minutes, '88, if a blank has not been received.

(2) Record ministers in the order of their MINISTERIAL AGE, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, and their address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3) Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never opposite the name of any other minister; if the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll.

(4) Place, after the name of every minister, an abbreviation, denoting his occupation; e. g., P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; A. P., for an Associate Pastor; S. S., for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; D. M., for a District Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M., for a Tract Missionary; S. Sec., for District Secretary of a Benevolent Institution; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; H. R., for a Minister honorably retired; Col., for a Colporteur; Com., for a Commissioner; Supt., for a Superintendent; Libr., for a Librarian; and W. C., for other Ministers without charge.

(6) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviations, P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply; and V., for one that is vacant.

(6) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7) In the Additions to the Church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the Baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8) In the report of "Funds" contributed, observe the order of the columns, and the directions of the Assembly of 1871 (p. 589) as modified by the Assemblies of 1873, 1874, 1883 and 1887, as follows:

1. Home Missions. To include all moneys collected for the purpose, whether for the Board, or for any Home Missionary operations, including Mission Schools, carried on in connection with the Presbyteries.

2. Foreign Missions. To include all contributions for the spread of the Gospel in foreign lands.

3. Education. To include all that is given for the education of Candidates for the Ministry, whether to the Board or otherwise; and for Theological Seminaries.

4. Sabbath-school Work. To include all moneys contributed to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for their Missionary work, Sabbath-schools included, and for Synodical and Presbyterian Depositories.

5. Church Erection. To include all contributions for Church Erection, outside of the congregation, whether through the Board or otherwise.

6. Relief Fund. To include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled Ministers, and to aid the families of deceased Ministers.

7. Freedmen. To include all moneys contributed to the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board or otherwise.

8. Sustentation. Contributions to the Board of Home Missions for Pastoral Sustentation, and to the Synods for Synodical Sustentation.

9. Aid for Colleges. All given for Presbyterian Colleges, Academies and Schools, whether established for the education of males or females.

10. General Assembly. To include all given for Ecclesiastical expenses, whether in Presbytery, Synod, or General Assembly.

11. Congregational. To include all moneys contributed for the congregation, the salary of the minister, the support of the Church Sabbath-schools, the relief of the poor of the congregation, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts, and current expenses.

12. Miscellaneous. To include all other collections, for Bible and Tract Societies, etc., and for general benevolence.

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(9) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Address in the next column; but of the Candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the Churches of the Presbytery—the number only is to be given.

(10) ADD UP and verify every column of figures, and Authenticate the Report with your signature.

(11) Annex a Statement of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolution of pastoral relations, organizations, reception and dissolution of Churches; also, any changes in the names of Churches; and the decease (with age, date and place) of Ministers since the last Annual Report.

(12) Avoid erasures and interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly.

(13) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet; also, every Overture to the Assembly.

Revise your Report, and find out its defects. Put in the commas and periods that are wanting; fill out the abbreviations; supply the Christian name of every minister (an initial letter is not a name); and see that every name and figure is perfectly legible.

§ If anything should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent as soon as possible—not later than June 1st—by mail, to the STATED CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Temperance, second Friday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

6. That the Standing Committees on Home Missions and Foreign Missions have each two and a half hours; and those on Education, Publication, Church Erection, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Temperance and Aid for Colleges, have each one and a half hours. That the Secretaries and the Chairmen of the Standing and Special Committees be requested to make their statements within the limits of half an hour.

7. The Stated Clerk shall receive all Memorials, Overtures, and other papers addressed to the General Assembly, shall make record of the same, and then deliver them for distribution or reference to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures.

8. All Special Committees appointed by one General Assembly to report to the next Assembly, shall be ready to present their reports on the second day of the session.

9. The Stated Clerk shall have printed and ready for distribution, so far as practicable, on the morning of the day fixed for their consideration, the resolutions appended to the reports of Special Committees appointed at previous Assemblies to report at that meeting.

10. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall be a Committee to revise the phraseology of all papers sent down to the Presbyteries to be voted upon, provided that in no case shall this Committee so change the phraseology as to alter the meaning.

11. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to supervise the publication of any and all editions of the Constitution, hereafter issued by the Board of Publication, and also of the Rules for Judicatories [1886, p. 118].

12. Each Board and Permanent Committee is instructed to send up its minutes with its report, that these minutes may be revised by the Assembly on the report of the appropriate Standing Committee.

13. A sufficient number of the Reports of the Boards and Committees shall be forwarded by them, to the place of meeting of each Assembly prior to the day of meeting; and a complete file of the same, stitched together, shall be delivered to each Commissioner [1886, p. 77].

14. In all regions where, through the organization of Union Presbyteries, there are no Presbyteries in connection with this Assembly, each mission organized as such under our Board of Foreign Missions may send to the General Assembly an ordained missionary, or ruling elder, as a delegate; and the Standing Rules of the Assembly are hereby so amended that such delegate is entitled to sit as an advisory member in the Assembly, and to speak, under the rules, on all questions, and that his expenses from his domicile in this country to and during the Assembly and return, shall be met as those of Commissioners, out of the funds of the Assembly [1887, p. 247].

15. No person shall serve as a member of a Board who is an executive officer or employé of said Board, or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church; and no more than one ruling elder from the same congregation shall serve on a Board at the same time [1887, pp. 51, 108].

16. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of any of the Boards of the Church during the interval between the Assemblies, may be filled until the next succeeding meeting of the Assembly, by the Board in which such vacancy may occur [1887, p. 128].

GENERAL RULES FOR JUDICATORIES.

[The following "General Rules for Judiciatories," not having been submitted to the Presbyteries, make no part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. Yet the General Assembly of 1871, considering uniformity in proceedings in all the subordinate judiciatories as greatly conducive to order and despatch in business, having revised and approved these rules, recommended them to all the lower judiciatories of the Church for adoption. The rules were amended by the General Assemblies of 1885 and 1887.]

I. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the judicatory stands adjourned; and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall open the session with prayer.

II. If a quorum be assembled at the time appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator present, being a commissioner, or if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.

III. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the judicatory to a speedy and proper result.

V. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, carefully to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.

VI. The Moderator may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members.

VII. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the judicatory shall decide otherwise. In appointing the standing committees, the Moderator may appoint a Vice-Moderator, who may occupy the chair at his request, and otherwise assist him in the discharge of his duties.

VIII. When a vote is taken by ballot in any judicatory, the Moderator shall vote with the other members; but he shall not vote in any other case, unless the judicatory be equally divided; when, if he do not choose to vote, the question shall be lost.

IX. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee; and, in case of his absence or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

X. It shall be the duty of the clerk, as soon as possible after the commencement of the sessions of every judicatory, to form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator. And it shall also be the duty of the clerk, whenever any additional members take their seats, to add their names, in their proper places, to the said roll.

XI. It shall be the duty of the clerk immediately to file all papers, in the order in which they have been read, with proper indorsements, and to keep them in perfect order. The Stated Clerk shall receive all overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers addressed to the judicatory; shall make record of the same and deliver them to the Committee on Bills and Overtures for appropriate disposition or reference. This committee shall have the floor on the reassembling of the judicatory after each adjournment, to report its recommendations as to orders of business or reference of papers, and this right of the committee shall take precedence of the Orders of the Day.

XII. The minutes of the last meeting of the judicatory shall be presented at the commencement of its session, and, if requisite, read and corrected.

XIII. Business left unfinished at the last sitting is ordinarily to be taken up first.

XIV. A motion made must be seconded, and afterwards repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

XV. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon; but not afterwards, without the leave of the judicatory.

XVI. If a motion under debate contain several parts, any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

XVII. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks, with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory.

XIX. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

XX. An amendment, and also an amendment to an amendment, may be moved on any motion; but a motion, to amend an amendment to an amendment, shall not be in order. Action on amendments shall precede action on the original motion. A substitute shall be treated as an amendment.

XXI. A distinction shall be observed between a motion to lay on the table for the present, and a motion to lay on the table unconditionally, namely, A motion to lay on the table, for the present, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, the effect shall be to place the subject on the docket, and it may be taken up and considered at any subsequent time. But a motion to lay on the table, unconditionally, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, it shall not be in order to take up the subject during the same meeting of the judicatory, without a vote of reconsideration.

XXII. The previous question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put? It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the body to a direct vote: First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration (if such motion shall have been made); secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and lastly, on the main question.

XXIII. A question shall not be again called up or reconsidered at the same sessions of the judicatory at which it has been decided, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the members who were present at the decision; and unless the motion to reconsider be made and seconded by persons who voted with the majority.

XXIV. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed, either by the operation of the previous question, or by a motion for indefinite postponement, shall not be again called up during the same sessions of the judicatory, unless by the consent of three-fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

XXV. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of very interesting questions to a small proportion of the judicatory. Silent members, unless excused from voting, must be considered as acquiescing with the majority.

XXVI. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote. If the House shall pass the motion to "vote on a given subject at a time named," speeches shall thereafter be limited to ten minutes. Should the hour for adjournment or recess arrive during the voting, it shall be postponed to finish the vote, unless the majority shall vote to adjourn; in which case the voting shall, on the reassembling of the House, take precedence of all other business till it is finished. Under this rule the "yeas and nays" shall not be called, except on the final motion to adopt as a whole. This motion to fix a time for voting shall be put without debate.

XXVII. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless required by one-third of the members present. If division is called for on any vote, it shall be by a rising vote, without a count. If on such a rising vote the Moderator is unable to decide, or a quorum rise to second a call for "tellers," then the vote shall be taken by rising, and the count made by tellers, who shall pass through the aisles and report to the Moderator the number voting on each side.

XXVIII. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.

XXIX. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first. In the discussion of all matters where the sentiment of the House is divided, it is proper that the floor should be occupied alternately by those representing the different sides of the question.

XXX. When more than three members of the judicatory shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

XXXI. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

XXXII. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order; or for the purpose of correcting mistakes or misrepresentations.

XXXIII. Without express permission, no member of a judicatory, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

XXXIV. It is indispensable, that members of ecclesiastical judicatories maintain great gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely in their speeches to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues; and, when they deviate from the subject, it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.

XXXV. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

XXXVI. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the judicatory, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.

XXXVII. No member shall retire from any judicatory without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the judicatory.

XXXVIII. All judicatories have a right to sit in private, on business, which in their judgment ought not to be matter of public speculation.

XXXIX. Besides the right to sit judicially in private, whenever they think proper to do so, all judicatories have a right to hold what are commonly called "interlocutory meetings," in which members may freely converse together, without the formalities which are usually necessary in judicial proceedings.

XL. Whenever a judicatory is about to sit in a judicial capacity, it shall be the duty of the Moderator solemnly to announce, from the chair, that the body is about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and to enjoin on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

XLI. In all cases before a judicatory, where there is an accuser or prosecutor, it is expedient that there be a committee of the judicatory appointed (provided the number of members be sufficient to admit it without inconvenience), who shall be called the "Judicial Committee," and whose duty it shall be to digest and arrange all the papers, and to prescribe, under the direction of the judicatory, the whole order of proceedings. The members of this committee shall be entitled, notwithstanding their performance of this duty, to sit and vote in the cause, as members of the judicatory.

XLII. But in cases of process on the ground of general rumor, where there is, of course, no particular accuser, there may be a committee appointed (if convenient), who shall be called the "Committee of Prosecution," and who shall conduct the whole course on the part of the prosecution. The members of this committee shall not be permitted to sit in judgment in the case.

XLIII. The permanent officers of a judicatory shall have the rights of corresponding members in matters touching their several offices.

XLIV. The Moderator of every judicatory above the Church session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung, an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolical benediction.

The numbers in the column headed Total No. of Officers, Teachers and Scholars are greater than the sum of the two preceding columns. This is accounted for by the fact that we received reports of the column of totals in many instances where the reports of the column of officers, teachers and scholars were entirely wanting.

The increase of the numbers of Officers, Teachers and Scholars over the preceding years is largely due to our receiving more complete and accurate reports this year.

* Whenever possible, the lack of report from any Sabbath-school in the Tabulated Reports of Presbytery has been supplied from the General Assembly Minutes of 1887.

JAMES A. WORDEN, Superintendent of Sabbath-school and Missionary Work.
